ALLEGED GAMBLERS ARRESTED AT GAME IN GRAND JURY ROOM The Atlanta Constitution (1881-2001); Apr 10, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Atlanta Constitution (1868 - 1945)

INTEREST CENTERED IN REPORT OF BURNS

Will Probably Be Early Next Week Before It Is Submitted by the Detective.

Interest in the Leo Frank case is now centered on the forthcoming report of Detective William J. Burns. He stated Thursday that no definite date had been set, but it is the general belief that it will not be submitted until the early part of next week. Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey left the city last night and will not return until the day previous to the date set city last night and will not return un-til the day previous to the date set for Leo Frank's execution—April 17. The investigation being promoted into the case by the prosecution is being managed almost entirely by the de-tective department, fully six men of which are actively at work which are actively at work.

NO APOLOGY IS MADE IN COLOMBIAN TREATY

Washington,

-Secretary

pril 9.-official mpse April Washington, April 9.—Secretary Bryan received official notification from Minister Thompson at Bogota today of the signing of the new treaty with Colombia. The official plan is to publish the details later by arrangement with the foreign office at Bogota. President Wilson today said there was nothing in it expressing apology in connection with the partition of the canal strip.

ALLEGED GAMBLERS ARRESTED AT GAME IN GRAND JURY ROOM

Baxley, Ga., April 9. II. Creamonstable of a justice court; David uten and Joseph Williams, were arested here today charged with gaming in the grand jury room at the courthouse. The city marshal, arrests, reported that H. Cleland, court; Day ams constable Tuten an bling in the grand jury room at the county courthouse. The city marshal, who made the arrests, reported that cards and other gambling paraphernalia were taken by him in his "raid" on the jury room. Cases were lodged against Cleland and Tulen, but Williams was released. bling

Earth Tremors in Oklahoma.

Hobart, Okla., April 9.—Earth trem-rs late today rocked buildings in obart and the surrounding country, nall articles fell from shelves and imneys toppled. No one was inhimneys