Former President Roosevelt Denies Getting Drunk, but Tells Jury of Drinks During War, Hunts and Campaigns

IS SUING EDITOR FOR $10,000, ALLEGING LABEL

Declares That Wines Are Served at His Table, That He Takes Champagne at Banquets, but Denies Excess

(The Associated Press.)—Theodore Roosevelt appeared here today to state his case in a sensational case against the editor of the Atlanta Journal, who has sued him for $10,000 damages for an alleged libelous article published in the Atlanta Journal on May 10.

Colonel Roosevelt said that he had never drunk more than a glass of champagne at a banquet, and that he had never drunk more than a glass of wine at a dinner.

COL. FEIDER RIDICULES IDEA
OF GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION OF CITY DETECTIVES' CHARGES

Declares Chief Beavers is Only Bluffing, and That if All the Allegations Made by the Police Were True, It Wouldn't Be a Case for the Grand Jury, as He Has Violated No Law in Seeking Evidence of Corruption in Police Department

CHIEF BEAVERS CONFERS WITH SOLICITOR DORSEY IN REFERENCE TO LAYING WHOLE MATTER BEFORE JURY

He Expects the Solicitor's Co-operation—James Conley Is Identified by Mrs. Arthur White as the Negro She Saw Lurking Near the Elevator of the Pencil Factory on Day of the Tragedy—This Is H— of a Family Row and No Place for a Stranger, Says Tobie

(The Associated Press.)—Colonel Thomas B. Feider Tuesday ridiculed the statement of Police Chief James L. Beavers that he would insist upon the grand jury making a searching investigation into the charges against Chief Beavers and the co-operators published by the latter against the police.

Colonel Feider appeared to be very much amused while discussing Chief Beavers' declaration, which he branded as bluff and bluster.

Colonel Feider said that he had no objection to the grand jury investigating the charges against Chief Beavers and the co-operators.
