Keeping Stocks Bright and Fresh Keeps the Silk

No lagging, no resting on our oars here!
There is a cheerful air of "busy-ness" about the silk section that always accompanies new and bright merchandise.
For new silks are arriving with splendid regularity, which doubtless will prove to be a matter of much satisfaction to the woman who wants another dress, walls to the like. She will not, as is too often the case in some stores at this season, have to choose from the tag ends of silks selected months ago.

the ago. Right now of particular merit are

New Silk Serges

One of the most serviceable and wasted silks for summer, they weather the weather, they are ocol, they shed dust, they itsilor beautiful, they may be had here in about any color you might wast—including navy, brown, taups and hisck. 36 inches wide at $1.50 a yard.

New Silk Poplins

The call for corded silks seems to grow louder. Our answer is new silk poplins— that drape most gracefully—in navy, Cop-enhages, witharis brown, tan green, apricot and rose. And they have that fine sheen that shows the labric is all pure silk. Width 44 inches, price $1.50 a yard.

Section An Interesting Spot
