AMERICANS ARRESTED AND PROPERTY LOOTED

Mexican Mobs Still Harrying Americans

WASHINGTON HOPES FOR AN ADJUSTMENT BUT DOES NOT STOP WAR PREPARATIONS

Dictator's Formal Acceptance of "Good Offices" Will Be Placed Before the South American Diplomats Today.

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO FLEE FROM MEXICO

Efforts Being Made to Arrange for Departure of All Americans From Mexico City—Border Reports Encouraging.

Washington, April 26.—Spanish Ambassador Riano announced late tonight that he had received private advices from Mexico City stating that General Huerta had accepted the offer of Argentina, Brazil and Chile to use their good offices to bring about an amicable settlement of the difficulty between the United States and Mexico.

This information, though unofficial, was accepted as authentic by the ambassador, who expects to be prepared to place General Huerta's formal acceptance before the representatives of the three South American countries tomorrow.

FORMAL ACCEPTANCE NOT YET AT HAND.

The interests of the Huerta government in the United States were taken over by the Spanish embassy when Charge Algara left Washington. Ambassador Riano received the offer of good offices from the three peace envoys last night, after the offer had been accepted by President Wilson. It was cabled immediately to the Spanish minister at Mexico City and by him presented to President Huerta.

When the formal acceptance from Mexico City is in hand the South American diplomats will be ready to proceed with their plan, no intimation of the nature of which as yet has been given. It generally has been understood here, however, that the peace envoys expect to deal directly with the situation created by the Tampico incident and other offenses against the honor and dignity of the United States, hoping to bring about a peaceful settlement.

Administration officials appeared to be much gratified at the prospect of having the proposals of the great South American republics listened to by General Huerta. Until the nature of the plan is known no officer of the administration will make any comment.

HOPE FOR PEACE, READY FOR WAR.

Hope for peace—yet no slackening in preparations for war—was the spirit of today's developments in the Mexican crisis.

President Wilson, hopeful, though not confident, that war may be averted through the efforts of Argentina, Brazil and Chile, conferred with Secretary Garrison, approving orders for the joint jurisdiction of the army and navy over Vera Cruz and the Mexican Brigadier General Funston, who will be in command there, arrives tomorrow to reinforce Admiral Fletcher's forces.

Tension over the one phase of the situation, which may at any moment upset peace plans—the safety of Americans in Mexico City and other interior points—was partially relieved by the announcement of Secretary Bryan that through the British embassy here, the Huerta officials and Admiral Fletcher had arranged for the safe departure of Americans from the Mexican capital and the free exodus of Mexicans from Vera Cruz. Thomas B. Hohler, first secretary of the British legation in Mexico City, taking a trainload of Mexicans from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, informed General Huerta that the American forces were not restraining Mexicans from leaving there and was assured that Americans consequently would be allowed to leave the capital as they pleased.

"Death to the Gringos" Shouted by the Mexicans

Over a Thousand Refugees Reach Galveston, and Tell Stories of Privation and Insult to Flag.

Galveston, Texas, April 26.—The battleship Connecticut and torpedo boat convey Dixie came into port today, bringing the last of the American refugees from Tampico and nearby districts.

"There may be five or six Americans still in Tampico, but they would not leave," said Captain John J. Knapp, of the Connecticut, just after the battleship dropped anchor. There are 499 refugees on the Connecticut and 570 on the Dixie. On board the steamer Esperanza, that came in from Tampico last night, there were 377 Americans who had fled from Mexico. There are about 2,100 American refugees held here in quarantine on the ships, but their release is expected either tomorrow or Tuesday.

Anti-American Riot. The story of the anti-American riot in Tampico last Tuesday night, when German officers and sailors went to the rescue of the American refugees and escorted over twenty women and children aboard the German cruiser Dresden, was told by refugees on their arrival today. Officers of the battleship Connecticut said that only for the assistance of the German sailors there would have been undoubtedly bloodshed. Tuesday morning the United

By John Corrigan, Jr. Washington, April 26.—Special.—G. R. Hutchens, of Rome, former prison commissioner, has definitely decided to get into the race for the unexpired term of Senator Bacon. This will make a five-cornered contest, which promises to be a lively one. The entries so far are Governor John M. Slaton, John R. Cooper, Representative T. W. Hardwick, Thomas S. Felder and G. R. VERA CRUZ PLACED UNDER MARTIAL LAW BY THE AMERICANS

Disorder and Unruliness in Any Form by the Mexicans to Receive Swift and Severe Punishment.

Vera Cruz, April 26.—Definite instructions from Rear Admiral Badger, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, to all American non-combatants to leave Vera Cruz by the steamer Mexico were posted at the consulate and other conspicuous places today.

The order stated, in terms that could not be misunderstood, that all must be aboard the ship by 4 o'clock this afternoon. Many objected to the order and especially rebellious were the women whose husbands are still in the interior. Knots of these held indignation meetings, and several expressed their intention of not complying, short of actual compulsion. The explanation was offered that food supplies and housing accommodations rapidly were becoming serious problems and there was danger of disease through over-crowded condi-

Americans Are Arrested And Their Property Looted In the Mexican Capital

Officers of American Club Seized for Refusing to Contribute Money to Huerta—Many Americans Are Taken From Trains and Confined. Huerta Encourages Mobbing of Americans.

Vera Cruz, April 26.—According to word received here from Mexico City, K. M. Van Zandt, the president, and all the trustees and officers of the American club there are under arrest as are all officials of the Mercantile Banking company and the Mexico City Banking company. The officers of the banking institution were arrested because of their refusal to contribute money to the Mexican government.

Among those detained are M. C. H. Agramonte, a civil war general; W. L. Vail, J. B. Buchanan, William A. Parker, C. G. Ray, E. Marr and Charles Yaeger, the club manager, who also is a veteran of the American civil war.

The American grocery was burned and an attempt made to fire the American club. Three other American stores were looted. Hand-bills urging the populace to burn American business houses are being circulated in the capital.

A number of American women in the capital, who otherwise might have come to Vera Cruz on the refugee train, refused to leave their husbands. The order against leaving Mexico City appears not to have applied to them.

The government appears to be encouraging the demonstrations against Americans, although the burning and looting is held in check by the police.

AMERICAN CONSUL THROWN INTO JAIL BY HUERTA FORCES

Consul General Hanna Wires Washington That He Was Held Prisoner for Two Days at Monterey.

Washington, April 26.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were greatly incensed tonight at receiving a dispatch for Consul General Philip C. Hanna, at Monterey, Mexico, announcing that he had been subjected to insults and indignities by Mexican federal officers and kept a prisoner in the government palace from April 22 until the constitutional forces captured the town two days later. The consul reported that mobs led by federal officials tore down all the American flags in the city, trampled them and then burned them up in the streets.

On the arrival of the constitutionalists Mr. Hanna was released and treated with marked consideration. He said the rebel officers made speeches in front of the state house giving assurances of full protection to all foreigners and non-combatants.

Secretary Bryan went to the white house and conferred with the president when the consul general's report reached the state department.

CONSUL'S STORY OF HIS ARREST.

Consul Hanna's telegram follows: "Monterey, Mexico, April 26, 1914.—Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: April 24, 1 p. m.—On the 21st of April a federal military officer, Captain Alvarez del Castillo, evidently instructed by the federal military commander to tear down all American flags, arrived at this consulate general with a street mob which he had gathered, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and pounded in the door and demanded that the American flag over this consulate general be immediately lowered or he would shoot it down. The other federals proceeded to tear down all American flags, standing on them, making speeches throughout the city of Monterey, burning some of them and tearing them up and leaving them piled in the middle of the streets.

AMERICANS SEIZED AND IMPRISONED.

More than thirty Americans—men, women and children—trying to leave the country were taken from a train at Aguas Calientes and imprisoned in the smelter there, according to advices received here today. Among them was Gaston Schmutz, United States consul at Aguas Calientes.

Some of the others are Miss Kay, matron at Aguas Calientes hotel; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Peyton and their two children, Mrs. H. Riehlmann and four children, Mrs. Schmutz, wife of the American consul; C. L. Baker, general manager of the American Smelting and Refining company; E. E. Hearn, H. D. Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hagrout and their daughter, F. H. McAuley, Mr. Patridge, C. F. Lucas, J. I. Henderson, Mrs. A. B. Emery, Walter Elkel, A. W. Koch, H. Hendricksen, of the La Fe Mining company; Mr. Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lee, H. H. Hollingsworth and wife, P. W. Jones, Mr. Sorrell.

A drunken mob at Encarnacion entered the train and ordered all Americans out of the cars, declaring they were to be killed. While parleying with drunken men a small party of Mexican soldiers appeared. Their officer protested against the summary execution of the Americans and had them taken to Aguas Calientes, where American Consul Schmutz, Railway Superintendent Thomas and a number of railway employees were added to the number of captives, all of whom were locked in the smelter.

Another party of American refugees fleeing from a town in the state of Aguas Calientes were driven from the train and marooned at the station of Trinidad.

handbills call on the populace to destroy the concerns listed

Some of the American stores whose names appeared in the circular at ready have been looted

Another list being distributed is that of Mexicans managing some of the American stores. It is declared these men must be killed because of their identification with foreign interests

The newspapers of the capital are publishing stories to the effect that the American forces at Vera Cruz are slaughtering women and children, and the papers call on Mexicans in Mexico City to retaliate in a similar manner

WHOPPING STORIES TOLD BY HUERTA

Other stories printed by the news papers say that France, Germany Great Britain and Spain have declared war against the United States and that American battleships have sunk several ships flying the flags of those nations. Mexicans also are told that the Mexican army has invaded the United States and that the negroes in the southern states have risen and are assisting the Mexicans

Efforts to repair the cable line between Vera Cruz and the capital, which is cut a short distance from Vera Cruz, developed the fact that the federals have an outpost only eight miles away. Incidentally the attempt almost cost the life of the line man, Mendoza

The federals captured the line man and stood him up for execution, but on assuring his captors of his loyalty to the Mexicans he induced them to release him. Returning here Mendoza revealed the presence of the Mexican force to the American officials. Mendoza is an employee of the Mexican Cable company

HUERTA CONSIDERS HIS COUNTRY AT WAR

Proof that General Huerta regards his country at war with the United States is contained in the note sent by Foreign Minister Rojas to Nelson O'Shaughnessy ordering the American charges of affairs from the country. The note says: According to international law acts of the armed forces of the United States which I do not care to qualify in this note out of deference to the fact that your honor personally has observed toward the Mexican people and government a most strictly correct conduct so far as has been possible to you in your character as the representative of a government with which such serious difficulties as those existing have arisen, must be considered as an initiation of war against Mexico

VERA CRUZ PLACED UNDER MARTIAL LAW

It was intimated that this might be the last opportunity for some time for refugees to reach the United States.

Consul Canada, replying to anxious questions of those caught short of funds, gave assurances that the United States had been caring for such persons at the ports where they were landed and was providing for them.

Vera Cruz April 26—Vera Cruz tonight is under martial law. Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher commanding the American naval forces on shore, today issued a proclamation to this effect and the last opportunity Mexicans had for handling their own affairs in Vera Cruz under their own laws disappeared.

Admiral Fletcher and his staff determined there should be no more quibbling with the Mexican officials regarding the form of government, and until further notice residents of this port will live and be judged by military law. The word has gone forth that disorder and unwillingness in any form will receive swift and severe punishment.

The proclamation makes Rear Admiral Fletcher absolute ruler ashore. It is believed the martial law proclamation will open the way for more of the federal employees to return and co-operate in restoring the local government functions. Mexican point out that these men now are in a position to explain to their friends and the existing government at the capital that under martial law they felt obliged to return to their work.

All Arms Are Taken.

An order that all arms be turned in by residents by noon today brought to the headquarters of the provost marshal hundreds of small arms and stacks of cartridges.

The city was quiet last night and if there was even a single sniper in action the fact was not reported to the military headquarters.

Many Mexican officials have reported their willingness to resume their duties of office under the military government. The American officials named to date to assist in the supervision of the municipal government are: Commander H. O. Stuckey of the Provost Marshal's office; Fleet Surgeon T. M. Spratt; sanitary inspector Commander D. E. Sellers of the Arkansas provost marshal; and Major John M. Luby of the South Carolina, director of the postoffice.

Wilson Will Send Troops To Colorado Strike Zone

Gov. Ammons Admits He Is Powerless, and Requests the Aid of the Federal Government.

Washington, April 26—President Wilson probably will send federal troops into Colorado tomorrow to aid in composing the serious situation in the coal fields. Colorado representatives in congress, after conferences at the white house said late tonight that they expected the troops to be ordered.

Representative Foster doubted the advisability of sending federal troops to the scene of the bloody industrial conflict. The congressmen placed before the president many details from the strike region showing that the conditions there, as one of the members expressed it, are horrible.

Chairman Foster, following the conference announced that the house committee which recently returned from the strike region, probably would return there as soon as possible.

SEVEN MEN KILLED IN STRIKE BATTLE.

Denver, Colo., April 26—It was reported here tonight by telegram that seven men were killed in a strike battle near Leadville, Colorado, on Sunday. The strikers were reported to have been attacking the federal troops who were sent to the scene of the strike.

Four mine guards William King, Robert Ferrin, Charles Luch and John Thomas are reported to have been killed. At least twelve other guards are said to be missing.

The strikers claim they captured twenty mine guards and one machine gun but officials of the mine declare that the strikers were in possession of thirty guards about the property.

Canon City itself was targeted for attack. It was reported, intended to burn the Arkansas Valley Light and Power plant at Canon City.

The city council called on Governor Ammons for relief, and it was said he would order General Chase, operating with the state militia, to move into Canon City with 200 troops. They are expected to reach there by Monday.

"DEATH FOR GRINGOS" CRIED BY MEXICANS

States warships Dolphin, Des Moines and Chester dropped down the river at Tampico and steamed to the outer harbor. It was feared that the presence of the American ships would inflame the Mexicans into an attack upon the states warships.

It was a little after 2 o'clock that a Mexican official telegraphed an official notice from the municipal police stating that the American consuls had been ordered to leave the city and the Mexicans to take up arms and defend their country.

The news spread and the Mexicans were seen running here and there, and word was sent by Americans to the refugees to take up arms.

After dark crowds swarmed the plaza where they were seen to deliver and parades were formed. Viva Huerta and Death to the Gringos and Death to the Americans were the slogans.

On Wednesday morning the general transfer of the refugees to the American camps was commenced, and the American camps, Wakiva and Wild Duck, under the charge of the provost marshal, were filled with the refugees.

The building of yours which requires a roof—whether it is a factory, warehouse, business block, farm building, residence or any other structure—whether it is new or old—your first thought should be to roof it with Certain-Teed.

They then placed a police guard in front of this consulate general and all the inmates in this building were considered prisoners.

The next morning about 10 o'clock, a police lieutenant arrived with a force of men and advised me that he had been instructed to search the building for any insubordinate persons.

MONTEREY IS CAPTURED BY THE REBEL FORCES

Dictator Huerta Has Lost His Last Stronghold in Northern Mexico.

Washington, April 26—The federal stronghold of Monterey has at last been captured by the constitutionalists, according to a report today from the state capital. The report says that the city was captured yesterday.

Chihuahua, April 26—(Via El Paso April 26)—The taking of Monterey was celebrated here today with band concerts and the ringing of bells. General Carranza has received the news of the capture of the city.

STRIKERS ACCUSED OF WRECKING TRAIN

Augusta, Ga., April 26—The Savannah and Northwestern passenger train en route to Savannah was wrecked to night shortly after 11 o'clock between St. Clair and Waynesboro.

Information by telephone is that strikers have out a joint in one of the rails over a culvert, and the engine being derailed in passing over the broken joint, the entire train, consisting of a combination baggage and mail car and two coaches was turned over on its side.

The Brazilian ambassador and the ministers from Chile and Argentina who have undertaken to solve the Mexican problem by diplomacy, were in conference most of the day.

Acceptance of good offices is in no way binding on either party to agree to any conditions, but it opens a way for discussion of proposals of mediation.

Members of the Latin-American diplomatic corps were called in during the day by the three envoys of peace and informed of the envoys' proposals.

Well posted members of the diplomatic corps were of the opinion that the envoys would accept the proposals of good offices and that the acceptance in principle at least, would bring the frontier war to a halt.

Thursday morning an order was issued that no telegram should be delivered or received from American citizens in the city.

The consul general expresses the fear that harm might come yet to the 700 American children in Mexico City.

CHASE FOR ELOPERS PREVENTS MARRIAGE

Police Seek Boy and Girl on Complaint From Cartersville.

The truth of the old adage that the course of true love never runs smooth, was proven last night by the sad predicament of a couple from Cartersville.

According to the story told the Atlanta police by a deputy sheriff from Cartersville, J. E. Allen, of Atlanta paid a visit to the Hartow county city, and while there persuaded Miss Lucy Walton, 15 years old, the daughter of a prominent citizen to elope.

They left for Atlanta last night and within a short time after they reached the Gate City the local police were alerted on the complaint of the girls' father.

The police followed them so closely that they were unable to secure a license and find a preacher. One of them was almost caught, but managed to jump into an auto and escape before the policeman could get his motorcycle on the road running order.

GIRL BADLY HURT; MACHINE RUINED

Disastrous Results Follow Crash of Automobile and Motorcycle on the Roswell Road.

A motorcycle on a return trip from Roswell driven by Earl Walker of 538 Capitol Avenue and with Miss Ethelridge 15 years old of 578 Capitol Avenue riding on the rear crashed into the seven passenger touring car of H. A. Wason of No. 70 St. Charles Avenue driven by Mrs. Wason at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon 4 miles this side of Roswell. The young man and girl on the motorcycle were thrown 10 feet into a ditch.

Miss Ethelridge received a broken leg and arm and was slightly cut behind the left ear. Walker escaped with a slight injury, spraining his left ankle. The motorcycle was demolished by the terrific impact when it struck the left fender of the touring car.

Greenberg & Bond ambulance rushed to the scene and hurried the young lady and young man back to the city for medical attention. They were at first taken to their home on Capitol Avenue but soon became Miss Ethelridge's condition that she was later removed to the Georgian hospital where she was placed upon the operating table for several hours. Her physical condition was reported as serious and state that she received a terrific shock to her nerves.

Young Walker declared that the blame of the accident lies upon Mrs. Wason. He states that a person riding in a machine behind the Wason's told him that Mrs. Wason was learning to run the car and had zig-zagged the car from side to side of the road for some distance.

Mr. Wason stated that his car was practically at a standstill when the motorcycle dashed into them. He said that a car in front of his had just stopped for some unknown reason and that his wife had slowed down and turned to the left to pass the car. He declared that Mr. Walker was running his machine at the rate of 35 miles an hour and that he ran into the left fender of his car.

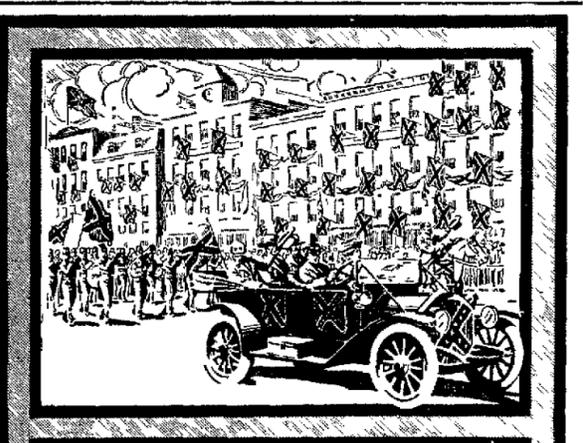

Mr. Walker stated that he had put the matter in the hands of a lawyer and would insist upon a base being made against Mrs. Wason for reckless driving.

DORSEY AND JUROR HOLD CONFERENCE

Marcellus Jochenning and the Solicitor Refuse to Discuss What Passed at Their Meeting.

The news which leaked from the office of Solicitor Dorsey yesterday that Dorsey had held a secret conference with Marcellus Jochenning, a juror in the Frank case, has created wide speculation in camps of both the prosecution and defense.

Dorsey, when asked about the secret conference, had nothing to say. He seemed surprised that it had become known. Jochenning would not talk, saying that he had merely had a few words with the solicitor. He would not divulge the nature of their conversation and asked the reporter to please not press questions.

Solicitor's Force Busy.

The solicitor's forces were busy Sunday considering the amazing developments from the defense during the past few days. The letters that were published Sunday morning, as well as the affidavits in which Conley is alleged to have confessed to Mary Phagan's murder, will be investigated this week.

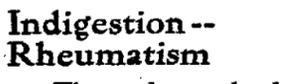

Numerous witnesses were brought to the solicitor's office Friday and Saturday for the purpose of making affidavits, and he has accumulated a mass of evidence which will be used in a vigorous opposition to the new trial movement which the defense is making before Judge Hill.

Will Convince Solicitor.

Detective Burns said Sunday that there was no doubt that Conley was guilty and that in due time he would place before Solicitor Dorsey facts that would convince the prosecution that Frank was innocent. One of the strongest foundations for Burns' statement is the series of letters, which, as the detective stated in his interview

Your Turn Next

As a citizen, a taxpayer and voter you have the right to expect, and should demand, the very best hospital service which modern science has devised.

Today your public hospital gives the poorest service and is the least adequately equipped of any city hospital in the United States. Strong language, but it is true.

It may be your turn next to suffer from this deficiency. The fault is not with the hospital management. It lies with you, because your vote could effect a remedy.

There has been no increase of income for support of the hospital in five years. Yet in this time the daily average of inside patients has increased from 60 to 231.

The hospital authorities are doing wonders with the hopelessly inadequate resources at their disposal. Yet life is daily being jeopardized or sacrificed as the result of the neglect of yourself and other citizens.

It may be your turn next. Your life or that of your loved one may be the next to pay the forfeit for this neglect.

With Mr. Scotti came Mr. Guard, the publicity manager of the Metropolitan Opera company.

Company Arrives Today.

Two trains of eight coaches each, bearing practically all of the remainder of the opera company, will arrive in the city this morning at 7 o'clock.

One of these trains will bring all the rest of the stars of the Metropolitan company, except Arturo Toscanini, the great conductor of the orchestra; Pasquale Amato, the famous baritone; and the soprano, Frieda Hempel.

Toscanini and Amato will arrive at noon. Miss Hempel sang in New York last night.

The company which the Metropolitan singers brings to Atlanta this year will consist of about 350 people. These include the members of the chorus, the ballet, the orchestra and the stage hands.

Caruso, one of the most faithful friends Atlanta has in the opera troupe, declared that he felt quite at home Sunday.

"It does me good to get back to Dixie once more and receive the cordial southern welcome for which you are famous," he said.

How About These Names.

Caruso has with him his accompanist, Scognamiglio, and a friend, whose name is so strikingly similar to that of the accompanist as to hold promise of legible cases of mistaken identity in Atlanta before opera week is over.

Scotti, although he arrived in the city too late in the afternoon to meet many of his friends of former seasons, was not glad to be back, but justifiably proud. For Atlanta's grand opera season is somewhat of the pet of Scotti and it is with scarcely less delight to him than to Atlanta that he has seen the opera seasons grow each year in popularity and success.

And the reason for this is that the idea of an annual opera season in Atlanta is the child of none other than Mr. Scotti. Half a dozen years ago, when Scotti sang in a concert in Atlanta he was asked more in jest than seriously:

"Why didn't you bring your whole company along?"

Grand Opera Beginning.

Scotti was at once struck with the idea of putting on an opera week in Atlanta, and the movement began then and there. Scotti was pledged the support of Atlanta, and he promised to do his best toward bringing the entire company the following year. The result is history.

Caruso and his party took advantage of the typical southern weather of Sunday and spent a good part of the morning out of doors.

Caruso sauntered forth upon the hotel plaza about 10 o'clock and proceeded to caricature with pencil and pad everybody in sight in most unmerciful style. He was shortly joined by his party, and went for a spin which lasted well into the afternoon. At all times he was the center of all eyes.

Miss Farrar spent most of the day in her room resting from her tiresome trip from New York.

Caruso held a short consultation with his physician last night and retired early.

Mr. Guard is greatly pleased with the variety and the excellence of the operas which will be presented in Atlanta this week. The program includes operas which will certainly suit the taste of all.

"Der Rosenkavalier," for instance, is the operatic novelty of the season. "Il Trovatore" is a household word and its arias are whistled by theurchins of Atlanta's streets in quite as familiar fashion as on the streets of Naples.

"Madame Butterfly" presents an elaborately staged and as musical an opera as one would care to attend.

Stars Have Many Friends.

During their past visits to Atlanta the members of the Metropolitan Opera company have made hosts of lasting friends who will give them the warmest of welcomes upon their fifth engagement here.

All Atlanta is buzzing with opera and its accompanying social features. Although this is the fifth year that Atlanta has had grand opera, the city seems never to become satiate of this wonderful music, but each year likes it more.

This is amply demonstrated in increased sales of tickets each year, the sales for this season eclipsing those of each past season.

Visitors from all parts of the south began arriving in the city Sunday morning to attend the operas. It is estimated that this year's season will bring a greater number of visitors to Atlanta than any season in the past.

The first opera of the season will be heard tonight at 8 o'clock.

This opera, "Manon," is a new opera to Atlanta in so far as it is presented by the Metropolitan company here is concerned.

It is, however, an opera which one can ill afford to miss. In this opera the well known story of Manon Lescaut, founded on the story by the Abbe Prevost, is presented with the wonderfully appealing music of Massenet.

Story of Manon.

The story of "Manon" is one of love and passion and is not without its dramatic qualities.

It is upon the unfortunate love affairs of Manon, a young and beautiful girl, that the interest of the opera centers.

In the opening act Manon, in company with a dissolute and profligate on her way to a convent. They have stopped at a roadside inn, where they meet the May young man, Chevalier des Grieux, and Manon falls in love with him. They elope and flee to Paris, leaving behind an old roue who adores Manon.

But in Paris Manon learns that love is a cottage for des Grieux without money, is not all that she dreamed it would be, wherefore she accepts the love of De Bretigny, a nobleman of wealth, who has taken a fancy to her, and res des Grieux is carried away by his father.

No Happiness for Her.

But, alas, Manon is not to find happiness in the possession of wealth and she tires of her new lover. In the meantime des Grieux has entered a monastery, but when Manon learns his whereabouts she goes to him and seeks to win his love back.

Manon has des Grieux to have anything to do with Manon at first, but she at length succeeds in luring him back to life the earlier fires of love, and they leave together.

Manon has des Grieux's extravagant tastes now, though, and des Grieux resorts to gambling in effort to win money to please Manon and her whims. In the magnificent and extravagant house scene des Grieux is caught cheating and Manon is arrested for a dissolute woman.

Manon is to be sent to colonial America and is just being aboard the ship, when des Grieux and her brother arrive to rescue her. But now Manon is ill, broken-hearted and tired of life now, and she dies in the arms of her lover just as she is about to be rescued.

Cast of "Manon."

The cast of "Manon" is as follows: Manon Lescaut (contralto), Geraldine Farrar; Des Grieux (tenor), Enrico Caruso; Lescaut (baritone), Dinah Gilly; Comte des Grieux (basso), Leon Roth; Despreigny (basso), de Segurolo; Inn keeper (basso), Pietro Ammann; Bouquet (soprano), Rosa Rossini; Javotte (soprano), Rosina van Dyck; Conductor, Arturo Toscanini.

COLLEGE WOMEN MEET TODAY TO AID GRADY

Voters of Tenth Ward Will Also Discuss Bond Issue at Meeting Tonight.

The college women of Atlanta will hold a mass meeting in the interest of the bond issue for the improvement of Grady hospital at the University club Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

This meeting is not confined merely to members of the Pan-Hellenic, but includes all members of national organizations. There are about three hundred members in the city.

For the purpose of arousing enthusiasm for the bond issue for the improvement of Grady hospital a meeting of voters of the Tenth ward will be held tonight at the residence of Chairman L. N. Ragsdale, at the corner of Leo street and Avon.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO SECURE BABY BOY

There is a fine, 5-month-old baby boy in Atlanta who is for a father and a mother and a home. As 5-month-old babies go, he is quite a handsome youngster and is as amiable as one of his age could well be.

Any communications upon the subject will be transmitted by The Constitution to the proper authorities.

ATLANTA TO HONOR VETERANS OF GRAY

Addresses Will Be Delivered This Afternoon by Governor Slaton and Others at Oakland.

Throughout Dixieland today—Memorial day—the people will unite in paying tribute to the gallant soldiers who lost their lives in the civil war, and will do honor to the survivors.

In Atlanta and in Georgia, in fact, every city in the south, will observe the day with appropriate exercises. Because of the intense situation between the United States and Mexico, Memorial day this year will be celebrated with more display of pomp and with more fervor than heretofore.

Addresses at Cemetery.
The feature of the Memorial day exercises in Atlanta will be a parade followed by the usual exercises of decorating the graves of the dead by the Daughters of the Confederacy and other Confederate organizations. At the Oakland cemetery Governor John M. Slaton and prominent Georgians will deliver addresses. Throughout the day there will be exercises by the Ladies Memorial association, Children of the Confederacy, Daughters of the American Revolution and other organizations.

Mayor James G. Woodward issued a proclamation Saturday declaring a holiday. There will be a monster parade during the afternoon. It will be one of the longest and most impressive ever held in Atlanta. Colonel E. E. Pomeroy will be grand marshal. The parade will form on Peachtree at the junction of West Peachtree at 1:30 o'clock, and orders for marching will be issued promptly at 2 o'clock. The parade will proceed down Peachtree street to Whitehall street, thence on Hunter street to the cemetery, where the parade will break ranks.

At the head of the parade will ride the grand marshal, Colonel Pomeroy, followed by a platoon of mounted police under Chief James L. Beavers, Governor John M. Slaton and his staff will follow next in line riding in automobiles. George M. Napier, commanding the Old Guard battalion, will be next in order of march, followed by the first division of the Georgia Cavalry, Captain James M. Kimbrough, U. S. A. The division will consist of the First regiment, commanded by Colonel Orville H. Hall; the Second regiment, commanded by Captain Eugene R. Schmidt; the Georgia Military academy, under Captain J. P. Castleman, U. S. A.; ten troops of Boy Scouts, Scout Commissioner E. Gibson, commanding; and the Jackson Hill brigade, W. L. Thibadeau, commanding.

Stations in Charge.
The second division will be under the command of William M. Slaton. The division will consist of the following organizations: Red Men's drum corps, Knights of Pythias, Boys' high school battalion and the grammar school battalion, all under the command of Slaton and Son will follow. The third division will be formed by all the Confederate associations. Colonel J. S. Prather, U. S. V., will head the fourth division. This "Wheeler's cavalry." The fifth division will be under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Thomas J. Ripley and will consist of carriages and automobiles containing ladies of a number of organizations. Bands will be sounded at the cemetery following the placing of flowers on the graves of the dead and a salute will be fired by the artillery.

Marshal at Desk Again.
Federal Marshal Howard Thompson, who has been ill for nearly three months at his home in Gainesville, Fla., at his offices in the United States building Saturday morning for two or three hours, and said that he expected to return to his desk and regular routine work the first of the week. "Nevertheless, I'm not as strong as I used to be, but I might as well get on my feet. I'm not as strong as I used to be, but I'm sure that strength will come back to me gradually, and I hope it won't be too long coming."

DIED SUNDAY

JUDGE T. P. WESTMORELAND.

CHURCH NOT OPPOSED TO HIM, SAYS PASTOR

Will Continue Attack Upon All Evil, Dr. Holderby's Answer.

The Men and Religion Forward Movement committee having requested every pastor in the city to preach on some phase of that movement, Dr. A. R. Holderby, pastor of Moore Memorial church, complied with the request Sunday morning.

He selected as his subject and text that of bulletin No. 116: "Your Choice, Matthew 12:30—"He that is not with Me is against Me."

"These are the words of Jesus, addressed to the Pharisees who had a council against Him, to destroy Him," he said. "They were members of the church Jesus had established. When He said to the church, 'He that is not for Me is against Me,' and He is drawn to the center today, the great fight now on is not between the church and the world, but it is the church against itself."

"Those who are fighting the preachers for attacking evil in this city are not fighting the preachers, but they are arrayed against Jesus Christ. Every man in any church who is opposing the right now on is lined up with the forces of evil."

"I must set my church right before the world. The report that my church is opposing the attitude of the pastor is false. I will not allow any man or set of men to drag my church down after my long service of twenty-five years. I have heard from the church—the rank and file—have always been loyal to Jesus Christ and to their pastor, and they are today. I am not asking any man in the church to indicate to me or my preaching. I am urging every man to stand for Christ and not crucify Him."

"And my final answer to every demand is this: that I shall continue my attacks upon all evil whenever occasion requires and that I shall deal more terrific blows than ever."

"The starvation game will not work. Neither will 'black hand' letters work. None of these things will deter the preachers of Atlanta from doing their duty or will subdue them into submission. The preachers of Atlanta are not of that sort of stuff."

"It should be remembered that official boards do not represent the church; they are merely servants of the church."

NO VERDICT REACHED IN CAMPBELL CASE

Pelham, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—The jury in the case of the state against D. C. Campbell, charged with the murder of John Harrell, had not reached a verdict at 12 o'clock Sunday night and they were carried to a hotel and put up on Monday morning. The case was turned over to the jury about 7:30 o'clock Saturday night following the charges of Judge Cox.

The entire day Saturday was spent in arguing the case and the speeches are said to have been some of the finest ever delivered in the Mitchell county courthouse. The case has attracted a large crowd at each day's session and a large number of people waited around the courthouse in Camilla and on the streets of Pelham until a late hour Saturday night in the hope of learning the verdict.

The jury has been on the case for four days and it was thought that they would make a quick verdict that they might not have to remain tied up Sunday.

NEW FRAT INSTITUTED AT MEDICAL COLLEGE

The Alpha Tau chapter of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternities was instituted Friday evening at the Atlanta Medical college with a charter membership of fourteen. The following distinguished guests were present: George Cook, of Concord, N. H., grand president of the fraternity; J. W. Papp, E. B. Block and L. E. Hastings, of the faculty; W. F. Bagley, C. C. Fitzhugh and N. F. Bagley, C. C. Fitzhugh.

The initial annual banquet of the new chapter was held Saturday night at the Capital City club.

Miss Hood Improving.

Miss Margaret Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hood, of Culpeper street, West End, who was subjected to an operation at the Tabernacle hospital last week, has been later removed to her parents' home, continues to improve slowly.

T. P. WESTMORELAND DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Prominent Atlantan Had Been Ill for About Two Weeks—Funeral Arrangements Made Later.

Judge Thomas P. Westmoreland, for many years one of Atlanta's most prominent citizens, died at 6 o'clock last night at his residence, 1217 Peachtree street, after an illness of about two weeks.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed yet, but it is probable that the services will be held at Trinity church. Dr. J. W. Lee, of St. Louis, will come to Atlanta to officiate.

Judge Westmoreland was born in Greenville, South Carolina, about 68 years ago. He came of one of the most distinguished families in that state, and his forbears were prominent in the political and social life of South Carolina.

Together with three brothers he served through the four years of the civil war. He was a member of Hampton's Legion. In 1867, when Atlanta was just recovering from the effects of war, he came to this city to cast his lot with the hardy handful who had faith in Atlanta's future. He immediately began the practice of law and soon became actively identified with the city's interests.

He is survived by one brother, George Westmoreland, with whom he was affiliated in law at the time of his death, and a sister, Mrs. George Bell, of Greenville, S. C.

When the superior court of Atlanta was divided into two branches, civil and criminal, he was elected to the criminal branch and made an excellent presiding officer.

He is survived by one brother, George Westmoreland, with whom he was affiliated in law at the time of his death, and a sister, Mrs. George Bell, of Greenville, S. C.

Trainmen of Atlanta Ask Georgia Support For Immigration Bill

Resolutions strongly favoring the Burnett immigration bill were adopted at a meeting of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen yesterday afternoon, and a communication was ordered sent to Senators Smith and West, of Georgia, asking that they give their support to the measure. The resolutions were indorsed unanimously by more than 200 members of the order were present.

President Wilson has threatened to veto the Burnett bill because of the literacy clause which requires aliens to read and write before entering the United States. The bill has passed the house, despite the strenuous opposition of foreign societies organized throughout this country, and the literacy clause, the bill has another clause which imposes a tax on aliens.

DR. C. A. RIDLEY SPEAKS ON "MUSIC OF HEAVEN"

Dr. Caleb A. Ridley, of the Central Baptist church, spoke Sunday morning on "The Music of Heaven." In speaking of music in general, he used the following eloquent words:

"Off the Paratone islands, in the Pacific ocean, stand the coral reefs. When the sea is quiet and untroubled calm sits enthroned on the lazy waters and the sun is bright, but when the angry god walks the waves and lashes the sea into foam there comes across the turbulent tide a sound like a shout of a lost spirit. It is the ocean's plea for rest and peace. Mariners have declared it the binding together of all the sighs and sobs and moans and laughter and ripples of the surging sea, that they might pass on into one minor note of music for the deafened by the thunders of the storm. And so it is, amid the multitudinous shouts of earth's varied voices, the clear ringing note from heaven's triumphant strains of mercy arrests our ears, comforts our hearts, and heals our bruised and bleeding life."

Mr. Rodgers, the newly-elected associate pastor and musical director, made a great hit with the congregation. He had fifty in his choir, and the greatest music ever heard in Central church.

CONFEDERATE DEAD HONORED IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—For the forty-ninth time the anniversary of the confederate dead was honored in Columbus on the anniversary of the original memorial services. Remarkable to state, these exercises have never been prevented by rain in the half century the custom has prevailed and ideal weather prevailed today. Open air exercises were held in the afternoon at the cemetery, where perhaps 10,000 people assembled.

An oration was delivered by Hon. T. Hicks Fort, introduced by Hon. H. R. Goetzlich, and both the tribute to the confederate dead, and the declaration that every section of the union would respond promptly and loyally to the call of patriotism in the present crisis were received with applause.

An impressive ceremony was laying the cornerstone of a monument for an old confederate cannon which will be mounted in Linwood cemetery, commanding the graves of the confederate dead.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES HELD AT TALBOTTON

Talbotton, Ga., April 26.—(Special.)—Memorial day was celebrated in Talbotton with appropriate services. W. Fitzhugh Lee, of Atlanta, was the orator of the day. The vast audience which filled the spacious church listened with deep interest and the frequent applause expressed their appreciation of the eloquence which flowed with patriotic inspiration. Mr. Lee was graciously introduced by Hon. A. F. Persons in a brief and beautiful tribute.

Mrs. Grady Lumsden Carter directed the music, which was well selected and beautifully rendered. The church, the confederate monument and the cemetery were artistically arranged and decorated with flowers. An elaborate luncheon was served for the veterans by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

GEORGIA POSTMASTERS CONFIRMED BY SENATE

On Representative Hardwick's recommendation, Dr. J. C. Wright has been appointed as pension examiner at Augusta.

Enables You to Get Acquainted

You cannot comprehend what the new Eleventh Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica is merely by reading the newspaper advertising. At best, all that can be said about this wonderful 29-volume library of universal information is to explain its advantages in the most general way. In fact, the book itself is the only means of knowing and appreciating its real value. But the 80-page Prospectus has been designed to help prospective Britannica owners to obtain an intelligent concept of the merits of the great work. Everything has been put into the Prospectus which was deemed helpful, including examples of the color illustrations and the half-tone reproductions.

If you know the Britannica only by reputation—have heard it quoted as the final authority upon some question of great interest, for instance—the Prospectus will make you better acquainted with it. It will show you why the Britannica ought to be in the possession of every man and woman of moderate means, whatever their part in the world in which they live. Keep in mind this fact—the object in distributing the new

in the United States is not merely to sell the book for so much money; but to sell it with the clear conviction that every owner of it will be satisfied that he will get out of it far more than can be represented in money value. Therefore, we consider it a good investment at fifty cents a copy to publish a prospectus which will give you all the information you may seek, and answer the questions which naturally come to any one considering the purchase of such a valuable work.

BRINGING FARM TO CITY.

Atlanta is one of the few important cities
in the United States selected by the postoffice department for an experiment, the object of which is to utilize the parcel post to bring the producer in the country into closer
relations with the consumer in the city.

Postmaster Jones has received instructions
from Postmaster General Burleson to encourage farmers living within easy parcel post radius of Atlanta to submit each week
lists of the products, and in what quantities they are willing to furnish them.

The postoffice department plans to keep
the public informed as to this list of selling
farmers through the daily and tri-weekly press. The belief is that as farmers cultivate relations with patrons in the cities the need for pushing the advantages of the parcel post in a publicity sense
will vanish and that feature of the service
will maintain itself automatically.

There is every reason why city and
country should be brought closer together
in business relations. Since the department has broadened the parcel post to include butter, eggs and general produce, it is logical to assume that within a reasonable
length of time direct relations between consumer and producer will be established and maintained. The Constitution has already earned "ads" bringing country producer in touch with consumer. The city man who longs for fresh country produce and who wants to be assured of the genuineness of the goods he buys, will have the guarantee of dealing with the producer at first hand.
The truck farmer who has a surplus of produce can, eventually, find a ready cash market. Incidentally, it is probable that if the scheme works out it will encourage the maintenance of truck farms within parcel post radius of the cities. What this means in reduction of the cost of living is at once apparent.

It is noteworthy that the express companies also are entering into this particular field. Between their efforts and those of the government, the next two or three years
ought to witness a revolution in the economic and industrial relations between the farm and the city.

A FARM SUNDAY.

Dr. T. D. Ellis, presiding elder of the Americus district of the South Georgia
Methodist conference, has invented a constructive plan for bringing the church to the farm. On Sundays, at regular intervals,
he has the churches in his jurisdiction devoted a part of their time to talks from farm
experts on subjects that make for rural uplift and practical farm betterment.

Recently, the program was given a thorough tryout in the Americus district, being well advertised in advance. The result was a huge attendance of farmers, their wives
and their children to hear men from the state college of agriculture, the university
and other sources speak on issues near
the rural interest of Georgia.

Dr. Ellis' idea is an excellent one. He has scriptural warrant for it in the sentiment, "not slothful in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Whatever makes a man a better farmer, or a better workman
of any sort, is apt to make him a better Christian.

If all denominations adopted the Ellis
idea it would be difficult to estimate the possible results. There would be loosened
in every militia district in Georgia a militant influence for better farming, and, at that, for better religion. The subjects discussed cover a wide range, from the most approved methods for ensilage to the duty
of the farmer to educate his child and see
to his Christian training.

Dr. Ellis has enlisted in his work the co-operation of the state chamber of commerce, with its machinery for propaganda.
He hopes to see the idea of the "Farm Sunday" spread to all parts of Georgia and to all denominations, holding that the part of true religion is the betterment of the lives

and lots of its votaries.

A REAL FOREIGN MISSION.

One of the most practical foreign missions ever projected by organized religion
or philanthropy is the scheme fostered by the American Red Cross to eliminate or ameliorate the recurrent and disastrous floods in the Hwai and Yellow river districts of China. The Chinese government is cooperating and our own government is being asked to do its share.

In the huge territory thus affected, it has been impossible by reason of floods to average more than two crops in five years. The result is chronic beggary visited upon millions of people. The direst sort of destitution drives hundreds of thousands of them
to crime.

The simple remedy for these conditions
is to complete reclamation projects such as will control the unruly waters that scourge
the districts alternately with flood and drought.

As it is now, the sympathies of the entire world are perennially laid under tribute to ease the sufferings of the victims. Viewed from the economic standpoint alone, it would be money saved to contribute to a plan to prevent beggary rather than to one
to relieve it after it has needlessly developed.

"BETTER BABIES."

Samuel H. Rinck, public librarian of Detroit, Mich., has originated a simple and practical plan for race conservation. He watches each day the names of the women
in his town who appear on the roster of newly-made mothers. He then mails to these lists of the magazines and books in the library dealing with infant and child life
and its improvement. His report is that the movement has become one of the distinct features of the Detroit public library.

So favorably does the American Library association regard the plan that its general
application will be made one of the subjects of discussion at the association's annual convention in Washington, May 25-30.

Mr. Rinck's experience suggests that librarians throughout the United States can find a fruitful field of endeavor in popularizing literature looking toward the conservation of child life.

The mothers of the race are today awake
as never before to the possibilities of strengthening the vitality of the child and guarding it against contagious and preventable diseases by following the elemental
rules of science. Their intelligent alertness is seen in their constant attendance on women's clubs and their attention to civic issues the substance of which is of a health
or sanitary nature.

As illustrating the scope of this tendency,
it is said that even in the east side of New York, and in most of the foreign colonies of the metropolis, mothers develop a keen interest in literature that has to do with the welfare of the child. The big national endowments and institutions, striving to promote conservation of babies and children,
report that from every section of the country come inquiries for exact information and expert guidance.

The age in which we live is one that essentially devotes much energy to building up the race at its fountainhead. We are learning the folly of the worst form of race
suicide, which is the slaughter of the innocent by neglecting ordinary sanitary and hygienic precautions and permitting the infant mortality rate to gain formidable proportions. There is no doubt that the universal adoption of the plan of Mr. Rinck would make it possible to reduce infant deaths by at least one-fifth. The economic gain from such an improvement is difficult
of estimate.

CAN COXEY.

The New York World believes "General"
Jacob S. Coxey ought to be "canned."

The World is right.
He not only is an unmitigated nuisance,
but he is today a small peril that may tomorrow evolve into a large menace.

Coxey's only excuse for leading another
"army of the unemployed" on to Washington is that he wants the money and the notorious.

Already he is well-to-do.

His previous enterprises in professional idleness have given him a comfortable fortune.

He lives and travels in luxury, while the poor deluded deists he rallies to his banner
of discontent must tramp and beg for a living.

It is even said that one or two towns on his itinerary have kindly cleared their jails
of vagrants, in order that his ranks may be swelled.

The fraud about Coxey is that he gathers
vagrants to him and parades them as "unemployed." The danger is that he will sow
a spirit of discontent for which there is no
valid reason. His maneuvers and his silly, half-baked orations are insults to every decent workman in the land. He is humorous enough as long as he stays at home and spouts to the newspapers. He is a meddles-ome and threatening pest when he "takes the field" as the evangel of "unemployed
labor." Heaven save the mark!

Without abridging the right of free speech and action in this country, there ought to be laws enough in this land to curb the vagrancy-for-revenue-only of the Coxey type.

Uncle Sam has only given one reason for hitting Huerta, but if pressed for more
he has ninety and nine up his sleeve.

The Mexican situation saves a lot of talk
by explaining itself.

Secretary Daniels thinks the navy
doesn't need a "bracer," the war spirit is so stimulating.

Just from Georgia
MAJOR CANTON

He's Drillin' for the War."
Here is the way The Billville Banner man eludes
the snare of "vagrants":
"Who the man who'd run
the country style—
In his peculiar style—
Who says more in a minute than he'll stick to in a mile.
Would interview the editor—
Lord only knows what
for—
He'd inform him:
'He's drillin' for the war.'

"When the portals of the sanctum
Experience a shock,
And the office force is trembling
At the bill collector's knock,
When there comes an intimation
That the battler's at the door,
The editor is absent—
He's drillin' for the war."

"That is his sure salvation—
There isn't any doubt,
And thus it is one trouble
Can threaten no other:
To foes that come with sticks and bricks,
To balliffs—half a score,
There's just one answer for them all.
'He's drillin' for the war!'"

"A Great, Serene Soul."

This fine tribute to President Wilson by William Allen White:

"How well he seems to have managed it—
this whole sordid business of going to war;
how fair he has been, how patient, how dignified, how infinitely gentle and kind. No bluster, no ostentatious display of autocracy, no licking of the nation's chops—just
a simple-sounded, brave, soft-hearted, hard-headed man. It is sad enough to go into war of any kind at any time, but it is less sad to go knowing that every honorable means has been taken to keep away
from war. And this consolation President Wilson has given us by his wise, forbear-ing, Christian attitude before the provocation of a foe mad and desperate and foolish.
"The good God, who knows all and watches over all and directs all,
and in our hearts deeper than we know
when as a nation we chose this great, serene soul to lead us."

DISTRACTING NOISES

UNCLE JOHN AND COUSIN
MARY ARE COMING
FOR GRAND OPERA—
IT'S ONLY RIGHT THAT WE SHOULD TREAT!

The Meeting.
I.
Glad to meet the morning
'Neat a sky of blue,
The daisies in the meadow
Druppin' with the dew,
And all the lowly violets—
A-sayin' things to you.

II.
Birds singing in the blossoms
Murmur of hidden rills,
And high and sweet to heaven
The music of the hills,
Till the angels lean and listen
From the azure window-sills!

A Paxifying Situation.
The following letter is from a patriotic Billville citizen:
"Here are six Mexicans doin' business in this here town, an' we learn that they are sellin' out cheap, for cash, to get money to return to Mexico and fight the country where they've been a-makin' of their livin' for ever so long. What must we do with 'em? They won't break 'em, an' we could jai-
' em, and we ain't got no excuse to. Something ought to be done, but we don't know how to git at it."

Five April Lyrics.
The best of April songs this year was written by Folger McKinsey. It ripples
like a rill:
"The blue sky for her bonnet
The green hill for her gown,
She sweeps along the valley,
She smiles upon the town,
No telling what will happen,
Except that what you will,
She goes forth wild with beauty
The rainbow round her still.

"Miss April, April, April
Ah, blame her not, she knows
The heartache of the soldier,
The romance of the rose!"

A Bony Patriot.
"Jed Doollittle is the busiest man in town
on his home day," said a western unfold.
" He rushes home to dinner and informs his wife
that he must hurry back to an appointment with a man at half past 12. And then he stands around the postoffice and licks the Mexicans till a o'clock."

The Victory of the Fields.
I.
The fields for harvest makin'—
A victory to be won,
Oh, the corn'll soon be shakin'
Its tassels in the sun.

II.
" Fo, joy the country's singing,
A land of wealth untold,
When harvest-bulls are ringin'
We'll glimpse a rain of gold."

III.
Joy to the hills and valleys,
For many a toiling hand,
The world, applauding, rallies
To greet the harvest-land."

A New Remedy.
"You may beat your dyspepsia by jokin'
at it," says a London author. "I sat
down at the club lunch, opposin' an artist
sufferin' from indigestion, myself being a fellow sufferer. I prescribed, 'Let's take the absolute worst thing.' We ordered roast
port, fat-pot, pudding, and Scotch ale, laughed all the time at the solemn men who were giving other advice, and when we met again confessed that our dyspepsia had disappeared in laughter!"

Confederate Dead—April 26.

Within memorial lands they take
Their long and uneventful sleep;
In battle rank no more to stand,
Or in the fields of valor reap.
The welch that history shall claim
These heroes of a world's renown;
Rich guerdon of a land that lost
All, save her honor's fadeless crown.

These keep the truce wherever they be,
Secure in all the world's applause;
All heedless they of praise or blame,
They live their lives their country's sake.
They learned of duty here our call,
When freedom bade her sons arise;
Nor doubt, nor fear, nor battle lines,
Could damp their thrill of high emprise.

Each hero grave shall be a shrine,
Where sprang with all her fairy train
Shadows each head with flow'ry crown,
Till she renew her gift again.
Perchance some vagrant wind shall blow
Sweet incense from a summer's breath;
Or, whisper to their dreaming ears
The glories of a soldier's death.

Shall man his bronze and marble rear
To signal forth a nation's love?
No more the bugle's stirring call,
No more the drum-beat's vibrant sound,
Shall wake their souls to battle's din,
Or thrill above their lowly mound.
No more thensanguin'd heights they climb,
Or march through heat, or winter cold,
No more the battle cross shall claim
The newer south from out the old.

How sweet the sleep of patriots dead,
Of whose bright, and thus had won
Their right to martial valour's fame
A nation's love and trust their own!
No matter where their forms repose,
Or where they fought, or where they fell,
'Tis good to know they died in vain,
Success for cause they loved so well.

What is the urgent call that speaks
To woman's heart and woman's hand?
Though tragic Appomattox lives,
Not less a Gettysburg shall stand.
Though dead the ages of valor, these
Shall prompt the epic of a cause
That measured arm with brawny arm
Of men who won a world's applause.

This patriot trust she lovels well,
Her hero graves on hill and plain—
We leave them to her jealous care,
But second safe their sacred stain—
Yes, woman's hand shall guard their name,
And woman's heart shall guard their fame.
While storied columns speak their deeds,
And patriot tongue—O. D. GORMAN.

A Picture That Talks.

(From The Houston, Texas, Post)
That clean-up picture in yesterday's Post,
showing how indifference to living conditions among the negroes menaces the health of the entire community, presents a question
that The Post has stressed on many occasions. It was not overdrawn.

If you do not know how and under what conditions your servants live, you are not merely indifferent to them, but to the welfare of your own family.

How often is there contagious disease in
the home of your colored laundress that you are ignorant of.

How often is there contagious disease in
the home of your cook, of your maid, of your coachman that you know nothing about?

How do you know that the colored girl
who is employed as nurse for your children
does not come from an infected house?

Contagious diseases frequently exist in negro homes for weeks before discovered by the health authorities. It is a common thing
for them to depend upon patent medicines
when there is urgent need for a physician.
And their friends and neighbors visit victims of contagious diseases without knowing the nature of the maladies.

Those who employ negro servants ought to take an interest in improving living conditions among them. They ought to know the surroundings amid which they live. That much interest ought to be manifested merely
out of ordinary human sympathy, because it is the duty of white people to aid and encourage the negroes to better standards of living.

But whether done in this spirit or not, it certainly ought to be done as a matter of self-interest.

A Veiled Portrait.

(Gazeta de Noticias, Rio de Janeiro)
This concerns a portrait in Portugal
There was in the salon of honor of the Legation of the Republic of Medicine, at Lisbon, a portrait of the former king, Don Carlos I. The permanent retention of this portrait troubled the slumber of the minister of instruction of the republic of Portugal, who, however, had no power to demand that it be removed. So he expressed to some members of the faculty the desire that this reminder of sovereignty should be covered with a net and this has been done. So Don Carlos I is found concealed in darkness like
the cross and the tabernacle in holy week.

Cooper After Joint Debate.

John E. Cooper, candidate for the late Senator Bacon's seat, has done more campaigning up to date than all of the other three candidates put together, as far as public speaking is concerned. He has done more before the campaign is over he will have more speeches to his credit than any two of the others. He is still hoping that some of the other candidates will accept his challenge for a "joint dispute."

Mr. Cooper spoke this week at Gray, in Jones county, and, according to The Jones

DAILY GRIDS
STATE'S POLITICAL GRIND

ORDINARIES OF THE STATE

STRONG FOR GOVERNOR SLATON
What Governor Slaton's friends regard as one of the most favorable signs is the fact that the ordinaries of the state who have been heard from thus far are for him almost to a man. The ordinaries do not have to stand for election this year, and they are,
therefore, more or less free to express their opinions.

In many letters from counties all over the state ordinaries have told Governor Slaton they were for him and that the sentiment of their communities was strongly behind him.

Another thing that Governor Slaton's
friends point to as significant is the fact that his opponents have concentrated their fire on him. In his speech at Augusta Friday night Hardwick aimed all his guns at Governor Slaton and Tom Felder severely alone. John R. Cooper, in several speeches,
has done the same thing.

MANY CANDIDATES WILL COME

TO ATLANTA FOR CONFERENCES
It looks very much as if Atlanta would be a sort of clearing house for gubernatorial candidates this week and that the matter
of who will make the race will largely be determined by the incidental conferences
which will be held.

W. H. Burwell, of Sparta, speaker of the house, is expected to arrive today for grand opera. Nat E. Harris, of Macon, is also expected in the city, and it is probable that
J. Randolph Anderson and Judge W. E.
Thomas will put in an appearance early in the week.

The candidacy of several prospectives
seems to hinge on the attitude of Judge Thomas. In all probability he will come to a decision this week.

HOT TIMES POLITICALLY AHEAD

OF MACON VOTERS THIS SUMMER
Macon, Ga., April 26.—(Special)—If Macon doesn't get heated up over politics this summer it will not be on account of a lack of the things which usually go to make local interest, namely candidates, but solely to the fact that most all of the voters have shouldered their muskets and gone to fight the greasers down Mexico way.

With the announcement by Judge Nat E.
Harris that he resigned the attorney general-
ship and that his official announcement
will be forthcoming shortly, Macon now has two candidates for the seat in the United States senate made vacant by the death of the late Senator Bacon, and one for governor. Those who know say that if that is not enough to make a burg warm up politically
then it is past redemption and the politicians
must just make the best of a bad job.

Judge Harris has not yet made public
any of his plans for his forthcoming race
and it is not probable that he will do so until after he has made his official announcement. His close friends say that he will maintain headquarters for his campaign in Macon and that he will do considerable
speaking at different points over the state.

Some of the voters are so convinced that he will be elected that they are already making arrangements for his campaign.
Judge Harris has not yet made public any

ment. His close friends say that he will

W. H. Burwell, of Sparta, speaker of the house, was in Macon a couple of days this week, but all efforts to get from him a statement as to his intentions regarding the governor's race were unsuccessful. When told that Judge Harris had decided to run Mr.
Burwell declared, "He will make a founda-ble candidate."

Felder Quiet So Far.

As for the senatorial race, Thomas S.
Felder, who resigned the attorney general-ship to get into the fray, has so far not indulged in any great noise-making tactics.
It was announced some time ago that he would fire the first gun of his campaign at his home town of Perry, in Houston county,
during the present week, but later it was decided to wait a while longer. It is not known now just when Mr. Felder will speak at Perry.

Some say they are more than convinced
now than ever that before the race is finally run it will yet see Felder switch and run for governor. Others say that while this might have been possible a short time ago, it is now out of the question with Judge Harris already an avowed candidate for the latter place. Of course, all admit that it would do to have two Macon
men running for governor at the same time.
It is argued that Felder would have to remain in the race for senator no matter whether he wanted to or not. His friends will tell you that he has never had any intention of quitting the race for senator and that he is in it to the end.

County News, a crowd of 200 Jones county
farmers, practically every one of them with a vote, heard the address. As in other speeches
Mr. Cooper offered most of his remarks on Governor Slaton, declaring he realized Slaton
was the man he would have to beat if he went to the senate, eliminating Felder and Hardwick with the remark that "they are not in it as both are running on the coat-tail
of Hoke Smith."

Mr. Cooper will have to let up in his campaign for a time, now that Nick Wilburn, the Jones county judge, has been elected to the seat on May 23. He is going to make a determined effort to save the young man and expects to devote his entire attention to the task.

Boisfeuillet Now Announced.

So far John T. Boisfeuillet has made no announcement as to his intentions relative to the congressional race in the Sixth district. It is said that he came back to Georgia from Washington to look over the situation here, having been told, it is said, by Congressman Bartlett that if he (Boisfeuillet)
wanted to run he would keep out of the race.
Since his arrival in Georgia, Colonel Boisfeuillet
has been making his headquarters at the Felder campaign and he is understood to have said that if he does not run for congress he will accept the Felder management.

It is pretty certain, however, that J.
Wise, of Fayetteville, will not be permitted
to walk off with the office without opposition, for if neither Boisfeuillet nor Bartlett
can run some other Macon man, probably
determined by the incidental conferences
which will be held, there seems to be a pretty well defined sentiment herabout that this is to be a Wise year and that the Fayette county man will win over any man who enters in the race. In the last race against Bartlett he was beaten by only 200 votes. He has been campaigning ever since then and has been making new friends and supporters every day.

SOUTH GEORGIA AWAITING

DECISION OF JUDGE THOMAS

Valdosta, Ga., April 26.—(Special)—In
the gubernatorial race south Georgia seems to be waiting for Judge Thomas to decide
as to whether he will run. There is no question in the minds of those who have kept track of events during the last two weeks that Judge Thomas, if he decides to run, will be a very strong contender. Backing that any man in south Georgia, let mentioned. The tapers of support which have come to him in a steady stream since he first gave consideration to the matter are a thing to be noted.

In many portions of north Georgia the Lowndes jurist is seemingly as popular and almost as well-known as he is at home. He has presided over the election in Fulton and other counties with marked ability. At times during his four years on the bench,
and wherever he has been the people have been favorably impressed with his unusually able administration of the law.

Judge Thomas will probably not make a decision in the matter under two or three weeks. He is deeply sensible of the demand
his friends are making and of their support,
but he expects to take time enough to go
thoroughly over the situation before making a definite statement.

BRAND POSITELY DECLINES

TO ENTER RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Athens, Ga., April 26.—(Special)—Judge Brand, of the western circuit, spoken of for gubernatorial candidacy by many of his friends, has just sent to Editor W. Trox Bankston, of The West Point News, a statement, appreciative of the suggestion of numbers, but positively declining at this time to enter the race. He says that he believes that the people of the circuit and most of the lawyers wish him to remain on the bench for another term. He has announced for the first time.

Will today. It did not appear that Judge
Brand would have opposition for re-election
as judge. But there is now considerable talk of Judge Brand's strikingly declining at this place, although he has not made any statement that he will or will not offer.
