

BOND COMMITTEE WILL PASS TODAY ON SIZE OF ISSUE

Men Named by Council to Plan for Big Civic Improvements Meet This Afternoon.

REPORT WILL BE MADE TO COUNCIL TODAY WEEK

Canvass Among the Newly Elected Members of General Council Shows Them Unanimous for Bonds.

Atlanta will take a decisive stand in the matter of reclaiming the entire public school system when the bond issue committee of the general council meets to formulate a report recommending the issuance of bonds to the extent of $4,100,000 to meet the requirements of schools, sewers, fire and police departments.

Spurred on by the action of the Atlanta Federation of Trades and other organizations which are vitally interested in the regeneration of the school system, members of council into whose hands has been placed the matter of recommending a substantial amount of bonds to be voted on, will put their heads together this afternoon in an effort to determine what amount of money will be necessary to expand the school system to remedy the congestion of the present and take care of the increasing demand of the future.

Need of High Schools. One of the most important matters which the committee will be called upon to consider is the matter of providing for the needs of the high schools. Positively dangerous, from the standpoint of health and comfort, is the condition of the Girls' high school plant, and the building of the Boys' high school is bursting at the seams because the board of education has been forced to crowd boys into the classrooms or send them away from the school without giving them a chance to gain a higher education.

The school board, after making a thorough study of the needs of the entire school system, has reached the conclusion that Atlanta's high schools must be rebuilt. The plants of both schools are inadequate, while the buildings used in the recently increasing attendance for at least six years. Members of the school board are unanimously of the opinion that the city will be wasting money if any more is spent trying to repair any of the high school plants.

The bond issue committee recently appointed a subcommittee composed of Aldermen Armistead, Nutting and Councilman C. W. Smith to canvass the needs of the various city departments and make a report and a recommendation as to the amount of money required for all the improvements demanded by all the city departments. Alderman Armistead and Councilman Smith favored a report recommending $4,100,000 for all purposes, which included $1,500,000 for school purposes. Alderman Nutting advocated in a minority report that the grant be $3,000,000, of which he recommended that the schools be given $2,000,000.

These two reports will be considered by the committee today.

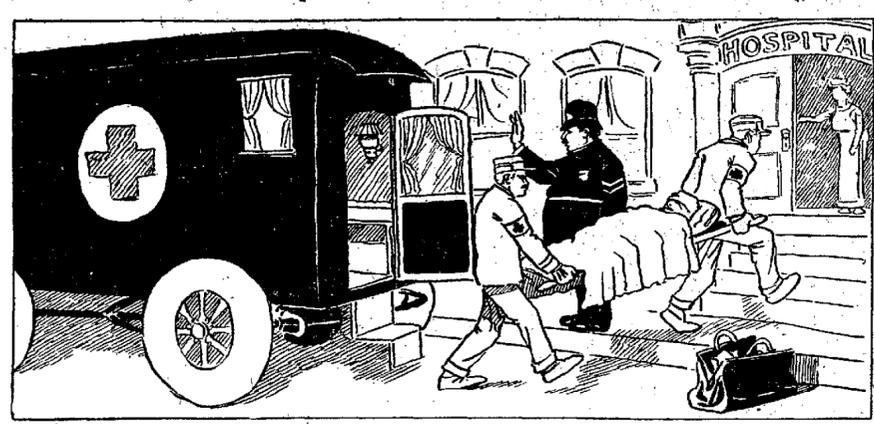

Council Meets Today Week. Council will hold its next meeting today week, and at that meeting the report of the committee will be acted on. Council is expected to act immediately by authorizing the city clerk to make all the arrangements for advertising the intention of the city to hold a bond election, and thirty days are given to electors to vote on the plan.

Canvass among the newly elected members of council who will begin their terms next January shows that they will be unanimously in favor of the bond issue.

S. D. HUNT, OF PULASKI, KILLED BY HIS COUSIN. John Daniels, Held by Coroner. Will Plead Self-Defense.

Hawkinsville, Ga., December 13.—(Special)—S. D. Hunt, a prominent planter of Pulaski county, was shot and killed at 1 o'clock this morning at his home in Hartford, near here. John Daniels, a colored man, was being sought by the sheriff, who has a warrant charging him with the murder, the warrant being obtained after the coroner's jury held that Hunt had been murdered. Hunt was the son of a former sheriff of Pulaski county. Daniels' friends say that his defense will be self-defense. They state that Daniels will return in a few days.

TO SAVE ONE LIFE IN TIME OF PEACE, BUT—

PLAN HARD FIGHT FOR FRANK'S LIFE

Attorney Alexander Here to Confer With Associates Over Next Step in This Noted Case.

"We are far from losing hope in our fight to save the life of Leo Frank. We're going to fight to the last ditch. It is our duty, and it can be depended upon that our client won't go to death without one of the fairest trials the world has ever witnessed."

"Georgia is about to butcher an innocent man. I don't believe the people will stand by and permit it to be done. People who once advocated Frank's execution are beginning to get deeper study to the case and to take on a more sober attitude, now that they actually realize the inconceivable wrong that is about to be done."

Great Interest in Case. "If Georgia only half comprehended the intense interest that is being taken in the Frank case by every state in the union—the majority of opinion being in behalf of Frank—I do not believe our present fight would be so hard and difficult. Everywhere I have been there is an interest in the case that is surprising."

These were the words of Attorney Harry A. Alexander as he stepped from the New York, Atlanta to New Orleans Limited at the Terminal station last night. Mr. Alexander has made a hurried trip from Washington to confer with his associate counsel in regard to the next step in the battle to save the life of Leo Frank.

He has been in Washington endeavoring to have the supreme court of the United States give a hearing to the petition to set aside the conviction on constitutional grounds. In this effort he has failed. Another attempt will be made to reopen the case in the Washington court. It is predicted, Mr. Alexander would not state last night, however, whether or not he would advise such a move.

Next Step in Doubt. "Do you intend advising that counsel concentrate on the prison board and governor, instead of trying to bring the case again to the attention of the federal court?" he was asked. "I would rather not state," was his reply. "Not until I have conferred with my associates."

This conference will be held this morning. At that time it will be decided just what action will be taken. Following this decision, immediate steps will be taken. Mr. Alexander stated that seldom in the history of the states has a criminal case caused such widespread interest and comment in the nation's capital. Some of the best legal minds in Washington, he declared, are making an exhaustive study of the case.

ARTHUR BRISBANE ILL. Physician Coming From New York to Attend Him.

Arthur Brisbane, editorial writer for the Hearst newspapers, who arrived in Atlanta Friday night, is seriously ill at the Georgian Terrace hotel.

Mr. Brisbane was ill when he left New York, and when he arrived in Washington Clarence Shearn, attorney for the Hearst papers, who accompanied him, advised him against attempting the remainder of the trip to Atlanta.

His private physician, Dr. White, of New York, is expected to arrive in Atlanta Monday.

LOW PRICE OF COTTON LEADS TO HIS SUICIDE

W. T. Gordon Found Dead After Going on Pretended Hunting Trip.

Macon, Ga., December 13.—(Special)—The low price of cotton and the fact that he could not sell his crop for enough to meet his obligations, is said to have been the cause of the suicide of W. T. Gordon, a well-known Jones county farmer.

On December 2 Gordon, whose home was near Round Oak, told his family he was going hunting, and, shouldering a shotgun, disappeared in the woods. When he did not return, a search party was organized. His lifeless body with a bullet hole in the breast was not found until yesterday, lying near an old saw mill.

The coroner's jury said it was a case of suicide and relatives said he was depressed because of not being able to get a good price for his cotton, of which he had considerable.

JOBS ARE OFFERED HUNDREDS TODAY

City and County to Start Sewer Work—Unemployment to Be Discussed at Two Meetings.

In less than one week after the first meeting was held looking to that end, relief in a measure will be furnished to Atlanta's unemployed today.

This morning several hundred men will be offered work by the city and the county in the construction of a fence around the city waterworks and in the construction of sewers.

The approval by Mayor Woodward last Friday of the action of council in appropriating $151,500 of the city's bond money for sewer work to be done at once places this city in a position to furnish work this morning.

The city will also spend between $2,500 and $3,000 on the fence around the waterworks.

County Offers Work. The county will also use some men on sewer work. It will also offer the work of several extra policemen and the work of carpenters of building new convict camps.

This action on the part of the city and county follows the meeting last week of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce house of representatives, which met at the instance of the committee of ministers and labor leaders, to devise means of relieving the plight of the unemployed.

Besides the city and county work now available, it is planned to get the work of constructing buildings for the southeastern fair at Lakewood under way as soon as possible, which it now appears will be about the first of the year.

There is also a movement on foot to encourage building among property owners under the slogan of "build now."

Meeting This Afternoon. This campaign and other similar matters will be discussed this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce building by a joint meeting of a committee from the chamber of commerce headed by H. Kringsaker is chairman, and a committee from the Atlanta Real Estate board, of which E. Smith is chairman.

UNCLE SAM ORDERS BUT THE MEXICANS ARE NOT OBEYING

Three More Persons Have Been Wounded at Naco, Arizona, by Bullets Fired Across the Border.

GUTIERREZ PROMISES, BUT CARRANZA DEFIES

Reply of Carranza Has Been Received at Washington. Gutierrez Says His Men Have Been Ordered Not to Fire Over Border.

Washington, December 13.—Carranza's reply to the warning of the United States that force would be used if necessary to stop firing into American territory by belligerent Mexican factions, reached the state department tonight, but will not be made public until tomorrow.

The warning was communicated to both General Carranza and Provisional President Gutierrez, as heads of the factions fighting across the international line have killed a number of Americans.

Carranza, at Vera Cruz, declared in a statement last night that if the United States employed force to stop the firing at Naco, "it will be considered an unfriendly act notwithstanding the friendly motives." The Carranza forces, he pointed out, have been on the defensive at Naco with their backs to the line and he is difficult to believe he could be responsible for the firing.

Blasco Avedondo, just arrived in Washington to succeed Zubaran, Carranza's chief confidential agent, issued a statement tonight declaring his chief's friendly attitude toward the United States.

Three Persons Hit by Mexican Bullets. Naco, Ariz., December 13.—Three persons, including one of the Mess. Jose Martinez, seriously injured by bullets from the battle of Naco, Sonora, which fell into this city today. Mrs. Martinez was hit by a bullet which penetrated her abdomen. Her husband and one man were less seriously hurt.

The reported order from Provisional President Gutierrez for Governor Maytorena to cease firing at Naco, and that operations at Naco be stopped if necessary to put an end to the firing across the line.

Carranza's plans for inauguration of a vigorous campaign against the Villa faction are progressing, but all news of troop movements is suppressed.

General Obregon, believing that it is yet possible to induce General Gutierrez to break his alliance with Villa, has telegraphed Gutierrez urging him to ally himself once more with his old comrades.

Memorial services were held today for the Mexicans killed in the taking of Vera Cruz last April by the American forces. General Carranza and his army took part in the services.

General Gutierrez today answered the note of Secretary Bryan asking guarantees for refugees who flee Vera Cruz upon Carranza's entrance to that port and who wish to re-enter Mexico by way of El Paso.

GERMAN LINE CUT IN WEST BY DRIVE OF THE FRENCH; RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORY

Berlin Reports That French Troops Have Reached a Point Midway Between St. Mihiel and Pont-a-Mousson, Thus Cutting German Communications.

GERMANS ARE REPORTED TO BE IN FULL RETREAT TOWARD THEIR FRONTIER

There Seems to Be No Doubt That the Servians and Montenegrins Have Defeated the Austrians With Heavy Losses, and That the Invaders Are Retreating to Their Own Country—Offensive of Allies Gathering Impetus.

London, December 13.—Both the German and French official reports contain evidence that the allies' offensive movement is beginning to gather impetus and is meeting with stubborn resistance. The French have been particularly active in the Woerwe region.

At several points the Germans have made counter attacks of a violent nature. The French claim have been repulsed.

GERMAN LINE REPORTED CUT. The German reports show that General Joffe's men have reached a point midway between St. Mihiel and Pont-a-Mousson, which would indicate that they had crossed the German line of communications. In these operations the French lost heavily.

The Germans in Belgium again are directing their attention to the central point of Ypres, where the French report several attacks of a violent nature by the German infantry have been repulsed. At both ends of the long front to the northeast of Ypres and against the railway station at Aspoeth, in Alsace, the failure of attempts by the Germans to advance is officially announced.

An important advance by the French troops in the forest of Le Pretre has been made.

GERMANS RETREAT, RUSSIA CLAIMS. In the east the Russian general staff makes the definite declaration: "In the Mlawa region we have brought our offensive to a successful conclusion on the whole of the front."

The occupation of a German position near Przemysl and the retreat of the Germans toward the East Prussian frontier also is announced.

The Russians claim a further victory on the Lovicz-Now front, where a German position was taken with important losses to the Germans.

In west Galicia the Austrians claim to have defeated the Russians at Limanovo and to have crossed the Carpathians.

The Germans still claim to be delivering heavy blows at the Russian center, where, they assert, they took 11,000 prisoners and forty machine guns. South of Oracow the Russians claim capture of 4,000 prisoners, four guns and seven machine guns.

Another Russian force is holding the passes of the Carpathians, preventing the Austrians from sending relief to their Galician army.

SERVIANS WIN IN THE BALKANS. The rehabilitated Serbian army continues victorious in the Balkan area of the war. The battered Austrian right crossed the Drina into Bosnia, where it was attacked by the Montenegrins near Visegrad and had to leave another toll of prisoners, killed, wounded and war materials. Meantime, the Austrian army from Bolgrade has attacked the Serbian right and been repulsed. It is unofficially reported that the Austrians are preparing to leave Bolgrade.

Montenegrin troops have occupied Visegrad, to the southeast of Sarajevo, after fierce fighting, according to unofficial dispatches from Cetinje, and the Austrians have retired to the west bank of the river Drina.

Bulgaria, according to a Paris report, has expressed to the powers of the triple entente her desire to remain neutral. This is taken to mean that Rumania, if she so wished, could join the allies without fear of being attacked by Bulgaria.

APOLOGY FROM TURKEY DEMANDED BY ITALY

Satisfaction Wanted for Violation of Consular Rights.

Rome, December 13.—Italy has reiterated her urgent demand for satisfaction from Turkey for the forcible removal of G. A. Richardson, British consul at Hodeida, from the Italian consulate, where he had taken refuge, and for his immediate liberation.

It is understood Germany has advised Constantinople to satisfy Italy's demand and avoid complications with Baron Sonnino, the foreign minister, discussing the incident yesterday, in the chamber of deputies, said that Signor Cecchi, Italian consul at Hodeida, who came to the property of Cumberland, was obliged to remain in his own house, which was watched, until arrival of the Italian coast guard ship (Guliano) and the Italian armored cruiser Marconello.

Baron Sonnino said he did not believe the Ottoman government wished to share the responsibility of such a patent violation of consular rights.

Weather Prophecy FAIR AND COLDER

official communication was issued by the war office tonight. It is announced that two German attacks at the two extremes of the front have failed. One was to the northeast of Ypres and the other against the railway station at Aspach (Alsace).

An important advance by the French troops in the forts of La Pretre, in France, and the repulse of three violent German infantry attacks to the southeast of Ypres, Belgium, were the outstanding features of the French official communication issued this afternoon. The text of the statement follows:

The day of December 12 was particularly quiet. The enemy's activity was shown especially by an intermittent bombardment at different points on the front. In the region to the southeast of Ypres there were ventured, however, three violent infantry attacks, which were repulsed.

In the woods of La Pretre we have made important progress. In the Vosges the enemy has attacked on various occasions the post of La Mère Henri, to the northwest of Sennece, but was repulsed.

Servia.—The extreme Servian left wing pursuing the enemy has forced him to recross the Drina near Bainska. On the remainder of the front the Servian armies continue to drive back the Austrians to the north and northwest.

German Soldiers Equipped for Winter

(1) WITH HELMET OUTSIDE. (2) KNITTED WINTER HOOD. (3) WITH HELMET INSIDE. What do the German soldiers do in winter? How are they protected from the icy blasts? This picture illustrates the novel, yet simple, knitted hood which all German soldiers wear when the cold becomes severe, as it is gradually growing to be now in Flanders and in Poland. The hood fits snugly over the head and hangs down over the chest. The soldier's helmet can be worn over it or under it. It has been said that the Germans are better prepared for this winter's campaign than any of the allies.

tion of Milanovatz and Belgrade the enemy's attacks have been unsuccessful. Along this front the enemy has retreated and our troops are advancing.

On the Danube front there is no change. On December 11 we captured seven officers, 4,770 soldiers, three quick-firing eight inch guns, a mountain mortar, ammunition wagons, several automobiles and a large quantity of war material.

A Havas dispatch from Cetinje says: "The Montenegrin army operating in Bosnia is continuing its advance. On December 11 it occupied Visegrad, forty miles southeast of Sarajevo, after fierce fighting, and captured a large number of prisoners and a great quantity of war materials and provisions."

No floating mines it was stated, had been found."

Petrograd, December 13.—This official statement regarding the Turkish bombardment of Batum, the Russian port on the Black sea, was issued today by military headquarters. "On Saturday, December 12, toward 2 o'clock in the morning, the German battle cruiser Goeben, accompanied by the Turkish torpedo gunboat Eridan, bombarded Batum and attempted to bombard it. The forts opened fire, and the Goeben, after firing fifteen shots, rapidly withdrew. The damage was insignificant."

When Mrs. Johnson, of 16 Connally street, opened the back door to her house last night about 8:30 o'clock to get some coal out of the coal box on the back porch, she saw a long, black arm and big hand, poked through the lattice work of the back porch door. She quietly walked back into her room, secured her pistol and, returning to the back door, opened fire on the hand, which was now working at the latch to the lattice door. Call Officers Milam and Evans arrived upon the scene, but the would-be burglar was gone.

About 9 o'clock last night the neighbors of J. Henry Porter, president of the Atlanta Athletic club, who lives at 78 Elizabeth street, Inman Park, were startled by the ringing of the burglar alarm bell in Mr. Porter's home. The neighbors all knew that the Porter household were away for the evening, and all were sure that a burglar was seeking entrance to the Porter residence.

Major R. J. Guinn, who lives at 180 Elizabeth street, at once telephoned for the police officers. Officers Milam and Evans hurried to the Porter residence. Major Guinn and the neighbors are certain that the burglar alarm was set ringing by some one prowling around the house for a part of the evening. The officers, after investigating the house, were satisfied that no burglar had set the alarm off. They reported that the "heavy atmosphere" of last night was responsible for the ringing of the alarm.

About 10 o'clock a burglar attempted to break into the kitchen window of the residence of J. H. Haunay, 133 Pulliam street. Burglar Makes Escape. Colonel George W. Goethals, governor of the Canal Zone, announced today that his request that two swift American torpedo boat destroyers be stationed at the entrance of the Panama canal was promptly received and that the United States warships and colliers in the vicinity of the Isthmian waterway.

The action of the Australian collier Mollina in leaving Balboa without clearance papers and the fact that other colliers have shown a disposition to disregard Canal Zone shipping laws convinced Colonel Goethals that decisive action should be taken to preserve the neutrality of the canal.

Nearly all the colliers in canal waters arrived with health certificates, and in several instances sailed without clearance papers. It is presumed the colliers will be ordered to leave the Canal Zone waters, which concentrated recently in the vicinity of the Pearl Islands, less than sixty miles southeast of Panama City.

The torpedo boat destroyers requested by the governor are expected to do patrol duty and overhaul belligerent craft attempting to disregard the canal regulations. Alleged violations of the canal shipping laws have, it is said, been the subject of complaint to Sir Claude G. Bissell, British minister to Panama, and also have resulted in orders that the fortifications prevent unauthorized colliers remaining in ports on the zone in disregard to the orders of canal authorities.

In the case of the collier Mollina it is stated that she arrived without clearance papers and a health certificate and with no coal or supplies. She attempted to buy $3,000 worth of supplies, consisting largely of articles intended for a Christmas dinner for a large force. She was refused the supplies and was ordered to depart, because she refused to state her destination, as required by the Canal Zone laws. The collier Proteus is reported to be in a similar case. It is stated that there has been much wireless interference in canal waters and also by large warship fleets, recently in the vicinity of the canal and also by large warship fleets, of both ends of the canal.

Washington, December 13.—Colonel Goethals' request for two torpedo boat destroyers came as a surprise to officials here, who had received no previous indication that neutrality was being violated in the vicinity of the canal. A restorer Daniels prepared to order the destroyers to depart, because she refused to state her destination, as required by the Canal Zone laws. The collier Proteus is reported to be in a similar case. It is stated that there has been much wireless interference in canal waters and also by large warship fleets, recently in the vicinity of the canal and also by large warship fleets, of both ends of the canal.

A COMMUNITY ISSUE.
The bond committee of council meets this afternoon to make up its final recommendations to council as to a bond issue that shall avert the threatened calamity to the schools and standardize other of Atlanta's inadequate municipal facilities.

There is no doubt as to public sentiment in the premises.
Organized labor endorsing the bond campaign and specifically commending The Constitution, took the position that the schools should be put upon a safe basis without haggling as to pennies.

There is no question that many fires come under this class. The insurance companies and the fire wardens of various states are scrupulous enough in issuing instructions as to the equipment to stop fire in its incipency, or the precautions to render fire less probable.

These are the chief principles that will undoubtedly guide the committee in its important task of this afternoon.

Fire Commissioner Adamson, of New York, well known in Atlanta, has discovered at least a partial cure for fires. He would fine the man or corporation whose carelessness was contributory to the blaze.

These two classes of fire-makers, not to mention the outright incendiaries, could be eliminated, the destruction from fires in this country would go down to a minimum, and business profit generally by a decrease in insurance rates.

One thing that makes for recklessness with fire in this country is that people have an idea the universal loss ceases after the insurance companies settle. The objection to this reasoning is that there is only so much wealth in this country, and that destruction of it by fire, or any other agency, hurts all business and industrial factors.

THE WHOLE COUNTRY IS TO BE CONGRATULATED on the ending, or at least the temporary cessation, of the coal strike in Colorado. The underlying principles for which the operators and the miners so stubbornly and bloodily contended have not yet been settled. But the miners go back to work, and the prospects are that an amicable adjustment will be arranged through neutral channel.

The Colorado strike belongs in the history of industrial disputes which should never have been allowed to happen, or which, developing, should never have been permitted to perpetuate itself for any length of time.

A good effect of the strike, if any benefits can issue from such a tragic and confused affair, is that it will bring nearer the day of universal and compulsory arbitration. In this connection it must be remembered, to their credit, that upon several occasions the miners were ready to submit their cause to an impartial tribunal.

The time is coming, and soon, in this country, when people will not tolerate the indefinite tying up of industry and commerce by two great disputing parties. The third party to such affairs, the public, has rights that must be considered. They were flagrantly ignored in the Colorado outbreak, as they generally are in such developments.

THE RIGHT OF NEUTRALS.
The Latin-American republics, through their representatives recently at Washington, took what bids fair to be a far-reaching step in international history, when they insisted on the rights of neutrals as against the rights of belligerents.

The action grew, of course, out of the energy displayed by the war vessels of European nations in Latin-American waters during the past few weeks. The countries to the south of us have been sorely embarrassed and perplexed by the problems presented of preserving their neutrality and at the same time not offending powers with the ability to exact drastic reprisals.

Previous history has laid down the precedent that the neutral had few rights deserving recognition unless the neutral were capable of enforcing them. And today the Latin-American republics find themselves in the position of having their trade relations semi-paralyzed and their immediate future made uncertain, for the very simple reason that they are unable to command observance of their requests from the belligerents.

It would be a salutary chapter if this present war would establish that the neutral had some enforceable rights, that the nations had minded to tend their knitting and keep the peace should be disturbed to the minimum by the nations with the desire to smash in each other's heads. In times like these, however, when old standards are being shaken to their foundations, it is doubtful if we shall be able to achieve anything so prosaic as a sharp definition of the rights of neutrals.

The Moslems have company in the holy war business. The chorus of Christian kings is "Same here!"

"Kings at the front." But to get a glimpse of them the men on the firing lines have to glance away back.

"Know all men by these Christmas presents," is a good beginning for an early shopping tour.

It congressmen didn't take themselves so seriously the revered Congressional Record might incorporate a capital humorous column.

JUST FROM GEORGIA
By Frank L. Stanton
When it's getting 'long to Christmas.
When it's gettin' 'long to Christmas, even a rainy day has light;
To the travelers on Life's highway shines the goal—at last in sight!
And you ask the little fellows 'til 'bout the answer's prime:
'I'll soon be 'bout two minutes to the happy Christmas Time!"

Mighty slow the time's been goin' to them little fellows sweet;
Never need to tell the hours—know 'em by the heart's glad beat!
Every year a corn-cob story to the little ones is told;
Only chimney-corner people think o' Christmas gray an' old.

When it's gettin' 'long to Christmas—then old Winter smiles like May;
Never sign-marks where you travel, for the whole world knows the way!
Know it—though you never listen to the bells in merry chime,
For the child-heart still seems sayin':
'It is always Christmas Time!"

Holiday Briefs From Billville.
Of course, with Christmas times at hand, they'll say we've had the moonshine stills workin' overtime, and that we have had a dozen Jimmy Johns hit out, but our consolation is that the Righteous have been pursued that way from the beginning of time.

UNCLE JULES SAYS
The Muskiet Ridge man offers these brief holiday memorials.
"Thin ice, scorned advice, Paradise.
"Gun, no load, shell explode, Heavenly abode.
"Wine and sherry, Making merry, Cemetery."

They're Still Looking for the Text.
Philosopher Vance contributes this one to The Dalton Citizen:
"Notice in The Kansas Klapper where a real estate man joined the church and went to preaching, and the first time he got up before the drove he opened up this way:
'Brethren and sisters, you will find my text in Matthew's addition, Lot 4, Block B.
He adds that the deacon who put him out of business "was exonerated."

Just Where You Pitch Your Tent.
They ain't no "Holiday Country"—
It's Jes' where you pitch yer tent
An' stir the boys
To a world o' joys
Growin' wild in the settlement!

No "Hills of Hallelujah."
Specially made for sich,
It's ever the place,
Where you see Life's face
An' a smile makes the poor folk rich.

There is the "Holiday Country"—
Not in place that's set apart;
The story it tells
In no chime o' the bells,
It's the holiday of the Heart.

Kitchener's Mistake.
Mr. J. L. Brady, of Lawrence, Kan., is quoted as having "the theory that Lord Kitchener thought he was giving forty minutes of his valuable time to Ty Cobb instead of Irvin S. Cobb."

Two "Hits" With One Brick.
Here's "ad." enterprise for you. The Kansas City Star says that in the town of Hutchinson an intoxicated man threw a brick through a store window, whereupon the merchant put up a large sign reading:
"Owing to the Rush of Business Another Entrance Has Been Added."

When You Feel That Way.
Joy's all 'round you when you feel that way;
This for the feeling every minute;
'Here's to Life and the glory in it!"

Like Noisy Next-Door Neighbors.
(From The Boston Globe.)
Perhaps even if the Mexicans fully realized how waxy we all are of the civil war in Mexico they would keep right on fighting.

The Holland Letter
Very likely nothing will be disclosed by transactions on the floor of the stock exchange which will serve to show whether England and other nations across the sea now own American securities of the estimated value of $5,000,000,000.

There is, however, one interesting feature associated with foreign investment in the United States, although it is one concerning which little is known. In the vaults and the aggregated international banking houses there were held as recently as June 1, of this year, securities aggregating many millions of which English investors held the swarms.

Some have estimated that the aggregate income received by English investors in American properties and securities each year is considerably in excess of $300,000,000. This, however, is an estimate not to be taken too literally, as it is entirely guesswork.

Herman and Pappas Ready For Battle Tuesday Night; Other Good Bouts on Card

Two little bantamweights, a Greek and an Italian, Jimmy Pappas and Kid Herman, will be the principals in a quarrel tomorrow night that ought to be one of the classic scraps between little fellows ever staged in Atlanta. They are billed to travel over the ten-round route to a decision, with Mike Saul the third man in the ring.

Herman and Pappas have completed training for their bout. They will do but light work today, just to keep their muscles on edge for the big battle. Both boys are confident, and can see nothing but victory ahead.

Pappas tomorrow night gets the chance of his career. Herman, the southern champion, must defeat him or drop from his high position in the Atlanta night division. Pappas, the underdog, will enter the ring to put up the very best battle in him. A victory will mean $10,000 in money to him in matches.

Jimmy has worked faithfully for this fight, and he has been spent by this last preparation for this mill. He may never get another chance like this, and he knows this better than Jimmy himself.

Pappas and Herman are down to weight. They are both in the ring, and the boys will enter their weight in at the Bilou theater, so that the public will know the exact weight of the rival gladiators when they toe the mark for action.

It is expected that the camps of the two scrappers stated that each was well below the required figure. It should be a dandy battle between two ambitious little fellows, with much in store for the victor.

The Greeks of Atlanta are all excited over the mill. They realize the fact that their boxer has a grand chance to win a world championship. Jimmy says he will win sure, and that's good enough for them.

Despite the confidence in the Pappas camp, local fans have made Herman a favorite. He has been a wonder of a record. They say that any boy who can hold his own with Jimmy Pappas, the world's champion, is good enough to win Pappas. However, none of them will see him in action.

Four other bouts will also be on the program. Joe Paddy will meet Kid Reeves in a six-round bout. The champion tackles Battling Sheppard in a six-round bout. Terry Nelson clashes with Young Seymour over the eight round, and another will also be put on. This is surely an attractive card.

Ringside seats sell for $2. The first ten rows on the main floor sell for $1. All these seats are reserved, and can be purchased at the Bilou theater. The balcony seats for $1 and 50 cents. The gallery for colored fans sells for 50 cents.

NATIONAL LEAGUE BATTERS SHOWED TWISTS IN DOPE

New York, December 13.—(Special.)—A comparison of the official batting records for the National league for the seasons of 1913 and 1914 develops some interesting and puzzling features, including all those players who were in the lineup in any month, in fifteen or more games each season. The roster for this year shows 188 names, with an understanding this increase in the total number of batters entered in the record book.

When these lists are again reduced by eliminating all those players who did not participate in at least fifty games or approximately one-third of the season, the record shows that fourteen batters qualified in 1913 to nine this season. Of this number, but four—Daubert, Beckley, Wheat and Merrett—appear in both lists.

Cravath, of the Philadelphia club, who was batting second in 1913, was dropped from 317 to 265; Zimmerman, of Chicago, from 313 to 212; Evers, of St. Louis, from 312 to 288; Robert, of Philadelphia, from 300 to 275; and Wagner, of Pittsburgh, from 297 to 255.

BRICKLEY'S RECORD

Made 287 Points for Harvard in Four Years.

Speaking of records and averages brings to mind the name of Ed Brickley, the captain of the Harvard football team of 1914, who will leave quite some time before he is graduated next spring.

Brickley, since he entered Harvard as a freshman in 1910, has made 287 points for the Crimson, sixty-five of which were made on the freshman eleven and the balance on the varsity eleven. During the three years that Brickley played on the varsity eleven, Harvard teams scored 638 points, of which he made 222.

Football in Fine Tangle Two Classes Not Practical; Herein Was Week

Will Play Maiden and Mann in Two Thirty-Six-Hole Matches—First on December 26

Chick Evans and Francis Ouimet will play over the Atlanta Athletic club and Druid Hills club courses next week.

Mr. Evans has been a yearly visitor to Atlanta as the guest of G. W. Adair. Mr. Adair has invited Ouimet also this year.

Mr. Adair has received a cordial acceptance of his invitation from "Chick," but the action on playing anywhere near a comparative schedule.

The two amateur champs will make a two weeks' trip to the south and after their visit to Fair and Atlanta will probably visit Nelson Whitney, southern golf champion, at New Orleans.

Saturday, December 26, Evans and Ouimet will play a 36-hole match over the Atlanta Athletic club course. The match will be played in the forenoon and a like number in the afternoon. The match will be duplicated on Sunday.

Prep Basketball Season Will Be Best in History

Many Winter and Spring Tournaments for the South.

Now that football has been relegated to history and the fans have gotten over the huge surprise allotted them by Boys High on Thanksgiving day, the prep mind is turned towards basketball and wherever there was a tie as to whether the season will be the best in history.

The prospects for a brilliant season are very bright, and while it will have to be a hard campaign this year, it is expected that the season will be the best in history.

$1,000,000 A DAY WASTED BY NATION

Because of the Waste in Mineral Resources—Director Holmes, of the Bureau of Mines, Presents Some Startling Facts.

Washington, December 13.—A national loss of not less than $1,000,000 a day is a reasonable estimate of the present waste, in large measure unnecessary, of the mineral resources of the United States, Director John A. Holmes, of the bureau of mines, declares in his annual report, made public today.

"At the present increasing rate at which we are using and wasting it, our one supply of a number of these resources will be either exhausted or largely depleted while the nation is yet in its youth," says Mr. Holmes.

"Of the several lines of mineral industry in which this waste calls for investigation, only two—of the most special urgency and importance—are the present needs of the bureau of mines, namely, the waste and losses in coal mining and in petroleum operations. But the enactment of pending legislation in congress providing for the establishment of a bureau of mining states, of a number of mining experiment stations, will render possible similar researches looking to the lessening or preventing of the waste.

Probably the most notable accomplishment of the bureau of mines has been the developing of the movement for greater safety and better control in the mining industry. The bureau has been conducting its campaign for greater safety and efficiency in the mining industries there has been adopted the following general plan of co-operation between the national government and other large agencies: (1) That the national government conduct the necessary general inquiries and investigations and disseminate the most effective information obtained and the conclusions reached; (2) that each state enact needed legislation to make ample provision for the safety and inspection of mining operations within its borders; (3) that the mine owners introduce improvements with a view to increasing safety and reducing waste; (4) that the mine owners and mine managers co-operate, both in making and in enforcing safety regulations; (5) that these are shown to be practicable. The states, the miners and mine owners and other agencies, such as the mining and engineering societies, are now showing a willingness to co-operate in this work.

During the year, bureau of mines rescues were responsible for saving the lives of seven miners, sixty-three rescues were made by miners, others in connection with the bureau. The training of these rescuers, for the most part, was started by the bureau, but continued by the operators, or, in some cases, by the miners themselves.

Although the number of fatalities in coal mines during the year, owing to two large accidents, was 252, men were killed, and at Eccles, W. Va., where 181 were killed and 100 were injured, the bureau visited the cars and stations, 23,233 attended lectures and safety demonstrations, 5,780 first aid instructions and training, and 3,774 certificates were issued to those who had passed the bureau's training as prescribed by the bureau.

The bureau's investigations relating to the waste in the treatment of rare minerals and the utilization of coal.

Some Figures on Waste.

A preliminary inquiry as to the collection of waste oil has shown that the total value of the by-products annually lost in this country through the waste of such waste amounts to $15,000,000.

The annual waste of metals in brass foundry amounts to more than $1,500,000.

The bureau's work looking to the recovery of waste oil has cost by an expenditure of less than $15,000 during the past eighteen months, has brought about a saving of $1,000,000 worth not less than $15,000,000, a sum many times greater than the total cost of the work done by the bureau.

During the four years of its existence chemists and engineers of the bureau have devised for the extraction of radium from its ores can be successfully used in the treatment of cancer.

A careful preliminary inquiry shows that the country's greatest pie eaters waste 5,000 pies in four months.

Director Holmes states that the fact that the government's demands made on the bureau, both by the government and the general public, have from time to time been met by the increased appropriations for the work of the bureau are urged.

KING GEORGE (RIGHT) AND GENERAL SIR JOHN FRENCH.

This picture is of particularly timely interest since it was announced that King George of England had gone to the front to visit his troops. He crossed the channel unexpectedly and was met by the general at the front. The picture shows the king and general French as they appeared inspecting troops at Aldershot before the war began.

Faithful Work for Wounded By French Ambulance Dogs

Dogs Find Soldiers Who Are Missed by the Ambulance Helpers—Taught to Seek Wounded.

(Paris, December 4.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Through the courtesy of Dr. Kresser, of the National Society of Ambulance Dogs, the Associated Press has been shown a dozen letters from army surgeons and soldiers telling in interesting detail how the ambulance dogs find their masters.

"This duty is further complicated by the fact that it must be done at night, as the intensity of fire makes it impossible for the dog to find his master during an engagement, in this work of seeking the wounded at night the ambulance dogs are trained to be especially alert.
