

CARRANZA AGREES TO CEASE FIGHTING TO DISCUSS PEACE

Rebel Chief Has Definitely Promised That He Will Meet the Three Agents Named by Carbajal.

HUERTA AND PARTY SAIL ON THE CRUISER DRESDEN

German Cruiser Will Land Fallen Dictator in Jamaica. No Shouts of "Good-by" for General Huerta.

Puerto Mexico, Mexico, July 20.—The German cruiser Dresden, with former President Huerta and his family and former War Minister Blanquet, Senora Blanquet and their daughter aboard, sailed at 7:30 o'clock this evening for Jamaica.

The departure of the former chief executive was without incident, there not being even any shouts of "good-bye" to him from the dock.

The others of the party remain here under the protection of the British cruiser Bristol, which is prepared to take them aboard in case of emergency. It is probable they will sail on a passenger steamer tomorrow or Wednesday.

CARRANZA WILLING TO CEASE HOSTILITIES

Washington, July 20.—General Carranza today informed the United States government he was ready to declare a suspension of hostilities against the government of Provisional President Carbajal, Huerta's successor, pending negotiations with his representatives for the transfer of authority at Mexico City to the constitutionalists. The constitutionalists' chief cordially expressed his views to John O. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson, and Consul General Hanna and Vice Consul Robertson, who interviewed him at Monterey. He voted a willingness to receive the commission or three appointed by Provisional President Carbajal to discuss peace.

Secretary Bryan announced the receipt of the message from the American representative with the comment that prospects for an agreement were favorable. He said as the three men favored by Mr. Carbajal are constitutionalists who have been in hiding in Mexico City, and are thoroughly in accord with General Carranza's policies, as well as personal friends of Mr. Carbajal, the negotiations for a transfer of authority of the government will be successful.

To Grant Limited Amnesty. General Carranza is insistent, however, that the surrender should be unconditional. He is willing, it is declared by his representatives, to grant a limited amnesty as a voluntary act of generosity on the part of the constitutionalists after they obtain the resignation of the government. It is the intention of the constitutionalists to give guarantees of safety to the people generally but to prosecute ring-leaders in the plot through which Madero was overthrown. Most of the latter, however, already have left Mexico.

The official information has reached Secretary Bryan as to whether the Carbajal commission has left Mexico City. Newspaper reports for several days have said they were en route northward.

Fernando Iglesias Calderon and Luis Cabrera, two confidential advisers, and General Carranza will leave here Wednesday or Thursday for Monterey. They, together with Jose Vasconcelos, who is now with General Carranza, were named as a commission to negotiate in the Niagara Falls mediation. If constitutionalists were admitted, it is believed General Carranza will call on the same commission to act for him in parleys with the delegation sent by Mr. Carbajal.

Protocol to Become Effective. Incidentally Secretary Bryan said that the protocol signed at Niagara Falls agreeing to recognize a government by the Mexican constitutionists, had become effective. It is a satisfactory agreement was reached in the proposed conference.

Ambassador Da Gama, of Brazil, and Minister Suarez, of Chile, discussed mediation in the Mexican situation generally with Secretary Bryan today. Mr. Da Gama said afterwards that from his point of view mediation formally ended with the constitutionists' general consent that while stories of a break between Carranza and Villa had reached him he was seeking, through consular reports, to obtain authentic information.

During the day Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, repeated his inquiry to Mr. Bryan concerning the French clerics who had been imprisoned by the constitutionists at Atlix, Yucatan. Mr. Bryan said urgent representation about them had been made to General Carranza, but no answer had yet been received.

FOUGHT AT ATLANTA FIFTY YEARS AGO; CELEBRATE TODAY

Washington, July 20.—(Special.)—On the fifth anniversary of the battle of Peachtree creek, General Isaac R. Sherwood, of Alabama, O. Harris, of Alabama, and both members of congress, who were pitted against each other in that sanguinary encounter, will hold a celebration here at the national capitol.

Today Representative Harris challenged Representative Sherwood to meet him tomorrow and fight with "fire crackers." The nature of the fire crackers was not disclosed. General Sherwood said it was the first challenge to a duel he had ever received. He promptly accepted.

It was only recently that the two old civil war veterans learned that they had been in such close combat at Atlanta. General Sherwood is a veteran member of the house. Representative Harris was only recently elected.

GARNISHMENT BILL FAVORED IN REPORT MADE TO THE HOUSE

Measure So Amended That Laborer Must Earn More Than $1.25, and Then Only 50 Per Cent Is Liable.

REGULATE EXPENDITURES OF GEORGIA CANDIDATES

Measure of Senator Tarver Will Prevent Spending of More Than 25 Per Cent of First Year's Salary.

The garnishment bill, which had already been passed by the senate, was favorably reported by the house committee on special judiciary Monday afternoon, with an amendment.

The amended bill provides that the wages of all mechanics and laborers can be subject to garnishment for debt, provided the person garnished is earning more than $1.25 a day. Under a further provision the wages earned by a garnishee, the senate bill fixed the amount of earnings to be exempted at $1 a day.

There were nine members of the committee present, and the vote stood: For the bill 6; against the bill 2; the chairman not voting.

GOES TO HOUSE NOW

The bill, which makes a drastic change in the garnishment law of Georgia, will now go to the house.

A number of speeches were made both for and against the bill. It was stated that the bill was being fostered by business men and especially retail merchants. The main opposition came from those representing labor organizations. The argument for the bill was that merchants who gave credit without protection, and that such a law could not work any hardship to the honest working man who paid his just debts. Against the bill the argument was that the garnishment law, under the most favorable conditions, caused honest men to be sued and garnished and resulted in them losing their jobs, and that women and children were made to suffer when they were innocent parties.

Those who spoke for the bill were Mr. Greene, of Houston; Mr. Aiken, of Glenn; W. S. Coburn, an attorney of Atlanta; Hudson Moore, an Atlanta attorney; Mr. Cheney, of Cobb; T. L. Walden, of Marietta; Louis W. Roberts, chairman of the Merchants and Business Men's Association of Georgia.

Against the Bill. Those who spoke against the bill were Mr. Olive, of Richmond; Mr. Slater, of Marietta; H. C. West, representing the Brotherhood of Conductors and Engineers; W. C. Puckett, representing the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; Mr. Moss, of Cobb; Tull C. Waters, railroad engineer; Senator Huie, of the thirty-fifth district, author of the bill.

The house committee on public printing acted Monday afternoon on a bill to create the office of superintendent of public printing. The committee heard from local publishing houses and statehouse officials who did not favor the bill. Several representatives of the Atlanta Typographical union spoke.

W. C. BRUCE MEETS DEATH UNDER AUTO ON PEACHTREE ST.

Injured Man Is Rushed to Grady Hospital, Where the End Came Before His Wife Could Reach Side.

ACCIDENT IS CAUSED BY SLIPPERY STREETS

R. N. Berrien, Jr., Driver of Car, Had Just Returned From Visit to Sick Wife at Sanitarium—Under Bond.

Slippery streets, due to a light shower last night, caused the death of W. C. Bruce, 51 years old, of 15 West End avenue, when he fell underneath the wheels of an automobile on Peachtree street in front of the Fourth National bank building, receiving fatal injuries.

Traffic Policeman Thornton was nearby, and rushed to the injured man's aid. His body had slipped entirely underneath the car, the rear wheels crushing his chest.

Thornton summoned the emergency ambulance from the Grady hospital, where Bruce was rushed, dying an hour later.

His wife was notified, but could not reach her husband before his death.

Had Visited Sick Wife. The auto was driven by R. N. Berrien, Jr., a bond dealer, living in the Wellington apartments, 120 Ivy street. Mr. Berrien had just visited his wife, who is critically ill in a local hospital.

He stated that he was going away from Decatur street toward Whitehall street and was noticing a man on his right. He declared that he was driving at a very slow rate of speed. Suddenly, he said, he saw a man slip near the rear end of his car. He heard his car bump as though the wheels had passed over something. He jumped out of the car and aided the victim of the auto accident as best he could, according to eye-witnesses.

Traffic Officer Thornton took Berrien in custody, but he was released under a light bond at police headquarters.

Told Brother to Be Careful. H. J. Bruce, brother of the deceased, when told at his office Monday morning by his brother that he was going to Lilburn, Ga., and return tonight, warned him to be careful in going about on the streets at night, on account of his being sick due to a recent illness.

Bruce occupied a responsible position with the government, being connected with the department of agriculture. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Joseph and W. C., Jr.; three daughters, Lucile and Ruby, of Atlanta, and a married daughter, Mrs. H. W. North, of Carolina; two brothers, H. J., of Atlanta, and J. A., of Lithonia, Ga., and a sister, Mrs. J. J. Tidwell, of Lithonia. General arrangements will be announced later.

GOOD ROADS BILL LOSES IN SENATE COMMITTEE

Shackleford Measure, Carrying $25,000,000, Is Turned Down for Bourne Bill.

(By John Corrigan, Jr.)

Washington, July 20.—(Special.)—As a substitute for the Shackleford good roads bill, which has already passed the house carrying $25,000,000 for road improvement, the senate postoffice and commerce committee today approved the Bourne substitute. It was a serious blow to the advocates of federal aid.

This amendment was carried by a vote of 7 to 4, two members present being paired, so that the vote really should have been 9 to 6. Those opposing the substitution were Senators Bankhead, of Alabama, chairman of the committee; Smith, of South Carolina; Smith, of Georgia; Swanson, of Virginia; Chilton, of West Virginia, and Lea, of Tennessee.

Senator Holke Smith, in discussing the measure tonight, said: "I favored the Bourne substitute. I favored a measure similar to the Shackleford bill which would provide for a straight-out appropriation from the treasury for highway improvement. Six members of the committee will oppose the measure on the floor.

"I have been so deeply occupied in the judiciary committee aiding in perfecting the Clayton anti-trust bill, that I left the fight for the good roads bill in the postoffice committee largely to the direction of Senator Swanson, of Virginia."

GEN. LEONARD WOOD VISITING ARMY CAMPS

Asheville, N. C., July 20.—Major General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., was the guest of Asheville today spending the day inspecting Camp Greva, the military camp for students located on Sunset mountain. General Wood was met by the mayor, Governor Locke Craig and other notables, and escorted to the camp, where he was received with full military honors by the soldiers and students. Tonight, General Wood and the officers of the camp were guests of honor at a ball given at the Hotel General Wood will leave early tomorrow, going to Augusta, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala., where he will inspect other camps.

Ladies, Here Is a Very Live California Wire! Mrs. Knowland Boosting Husband for Senate

CONGRESSMAN KNOWLAND'S WIFE CAMPAIGNING FOR HIS ELECTION TO U. S. SENATE.

Since the election of United States senators has been put into the direct hands of the voters all over the country it is probably sure that other women will follow the example of Mrs. Joseph K. Knowland, wife of Congressman Knowland, of Alameda, Cal. Mrs. Knowland is getting right out among the workers drumming up votes for her husband, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for the United States senate. She is going around the state in her auto, speaking noon hours and in the evenings in factory yards and in public squares. Her campaign is unusual inasmuch as her husband is held at Washington with his duties in the senate, while his wife is looking after his fences. Mrs. Knowland is a live wire. Recently she addressed 1,600 men during the noon hour at the Union Iron works, speaking from her automobile. "I want you to like me and to vote for my husband because he is always on the job!" cried Mrs. Knowland. She deliberately used campaign slang and in one of her remarks said "I did not come here to give you any of that suffrage stuff. But I rode in the suffrage parade in Washington, and some of the men must have liked my appearance, for they tried to drag me from the automobile and said, 'She is some chicken, some snob.' I want you men to like me, too, and to like my husband and vote for him for the senate."

PROBE MANY CLEWS IN NELMS MYSTERY

Mystery Surrounding the Strange Disappearance of Two Atlanta Sisters Deepened by Monday's Developments.

The telegraph companies in Atlanta will find themselves unable to comply with the order of the superior court to produce the "Nelms telegrams" within the stated time of the court's order, according to unofficial information received by court attaches on Monday.

The court's order, which was issued last Friday, demanded the telegrams within five days. It is expected that the telegraph companies, or such as have any telegrams bearing upon the Nelms case, will file an answer to the order within the next day or so asking more time in which to find these telegrams.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of the Nelms sisters, Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis, wealthy Atlanta girls, daughters of ex-Sheriff J. W. Nelms, of Fulton county, remained unsolved through Monday.

Chief of Police James L. Beavers received a letter early in the morning stating that on July 4 he boarded a Baltimore and Ohio train at Philadelphia for New York. He claims that two girls, one a blond and the other a brunette, were riding in the Pullman car, and he recognizes them as the Nelms sisters, by newspaper pictures he has since seen.

Would Not Give Name. Chief Beavers would not divulge the name of the Reading business man, but stated that the letter went on to say that the two girls left the train at New York city.

It will be recalled that New York city is the present home of Walter Dennis, formerly of Atlanta, the divorced husband of Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis. Chief Beavers is investigating the statements made in the letter. The original "murder note," signed "Elois Dennis," to Mrs. J. W. Nelms, wealthy mother of the two missing sisters, was mailed in San Francisco July 3. Marshall Nelms, brother, whose life was threatened in the strange "death note," has declared that the handwriting of this note was not that of his sister, Mrs. Dennis, but that of a man.

He has further declared that he did not believe his sister was in San Francisco on July 3.

The report sent out from the little town of Winooski, in the northern part of Louisiana, Monday, that part of a human scalp with long blond hair of a woman on it, had been pulled out of Hay's lake, which is three miles from the town, on a fish line by a negro fisherman, last Friday, created a great deal of interest in that section. The human scalp is not explained by

BARTLETT DECIDES TO RUN AGAIN AND PAYS ASSESSMENT

Macon, Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Congressman Charles L. Bartlett, contrary to all expectations, has decided to seek re-election as the representative from the sixth district, and today paid his assessment to W. M. Howard, of Barnesville, chairman of the district executive committee.

This announcement is somewhat of a surprise since Mr. Bartlett is credited with the statement that he would not again offer for the place if re-elected two years ago. He has only recently undergone an operation for gallstones and is still in a very weak condition, so that it is unlikely that he will do any campaigning, leaving his race in the hands of his friends. His only speech will probably be made in Macon when, it is said, he will give an account of his stewardship.

J. Walter Wise, of Fayetteville, who opposed Judge Bartlett two years ago and was defeated by only 500 votes, paid his assessment some time ago and has been conducting an active campaign for the place. He is much stronger now than he was in his first race.

COURTS TO REVIEW ANTI-TRUST ORDERS

Important Change Made in Clayton Bill—The Bill Is Ready to Be Presented to the Senate.

Washington, July 20.—After months of deliberation the senate judiciary committee tonight agreed upon final revision of the Clayton anti-trust bill to supplement the Sherman law which passed the house last spring. The committee will report the measure to the senate Wednesday.

Most important of the amendments recommended by the committee is one to provide for a court review of orders issued by the interstate commerce commission or the proposed interstate trade commission against corporations found to have violated the trust statutes.

The amendment would provide that in case corporations or individuals fail to obey orders of either commission, the commission may apply for enforcement of the order to the United States district court, transfer to the original record of the proceeding, including all testimony taken, and the ruling of the commission shall be taken as prima facie evidence. Either party, however, would be permitted to adduce additional material evidence.

Right of Appeal. Every party to any proceeding brought before the commerce or trade commissions, under the amendment, would have the right to appeal from any final order by either commission within ninety days by serving notice on the adverse party and filing it with the commission.

WELCOME PLANNED FOR MARYLANDERS

Mayor Preston and Party, of Baltimore, Will Be Entertained at Banquet at Winecoff Tonight.

City officials of Atlanta are preparing to entertain today Mayor James H. Preston, of Baltimore, who will arrive with a party of officials of that city in Atlanta at an early hour this morning. Mayor Preston and his party are making a tour of the south and west in the interests of the "Star Spangled Banner" centennial to be held in the Maryland city from September 6 to 13 inclusive.

Mayor Woodward went before the city council Monday and urged the members to meet at the city hall to receive the distinguished visitors. Atlanta's representatives will make an official call at the special train, and in automobiles they will take the party on a sight-seeing tour of the city. At 7:30 in the evening, Mayor Woodward and members of council will entertain Mayor Preston at a banquet at the Winecoff hotel.

Study Atlanta Improvements. While in the city, Mayor Preston will make a study of some of Atlanta's notable municipal improvements, which will include the new disposal plants, crematory and others. He will also explain in detail the plans for the big centennial in commemoration of the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," the successful defense of Baltimore at North Point and Fort McHenry, in 1814.

In the party accompanying Mayor Preston are Sheriff Thomas A. McNulty, of Baltimore; A. S. Goldsborough, secretary of the Baltimore factory site commission; Colonel John C. Legg, of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce; Charles Kreuder, Jr., chief clerk to Mayor Preston; E. Milton Athfield, members of the Maryland legislature; Raleigh C. Smith, of the Baltimore News; A. H. McDonald, of the Baltimore Sun, and J. Hampton Baumgartner, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Telegram From Edmonds. The following dispatch was received by The Constitution from Richard H. Edmonds, editor of The Manufacturers Record, urging Atlanta to accept the invitation which will be extended by Mayor Preston:

"Baltimore, Md., July 20.—In view of the visit of Mayor Preston, of Baltimore, to Atlanta tomorrow, to officially invite the people of your city to attend the 'Star Spangled Banner' celebration in September, may I suggest that a visit to this city at that time would give to business people and to city officials an opportunity to study to great advantage the remarkable municipal improvements that have been under way in this city for the last few years."

"For the first time in the history of the world a city of more than half a million people has undertaken to repave every street and alley at a cost exceeding over $15,000,000, and to build a complete sewerage system at a cost of over $25,000,000, and to make other

SECRET MENACED, HARASSED WOMAN SLEW THE EDITOR

Mme. Caillaux Tells Jury Gaston Calmette Threatened to Strip Her Honor Naked to the World.

SHE ENDURED AGONY BEFORE FINALLY ACTING

Accused Woman Thrilled Listeners by Story of Suffering—Shaken With Sobs, She Described Shooting.

Paris, July 20.—Mme. Henriette Caillaux, wife of Joseph Caillaux, once premier of France and former minister of finance, occupied the prisoner's enclosure in the Assize court at the Palace of Justice today and recited in a dramatic manner the circumstances leading up to the shooting on March 16 of Gaston Calmette, editor of The Figaro, with whose murder she is charged.

Judge Lois Albanet acted as president of the court; the prosecutor general, Jules Herbaux, had charge of the prosecution and Fernand Labori, the noted advocate who was closely identified with the Dreyfus case, was chief counsel for the defense.

Mme. Caillaux held the attention of the crowded court room for three hours. She told her story in short disconnected sentences, but showed remarkable skill in marshalling her facts so as to present them in the best light for her cause.

Mme. Caillaux was a willing witness throughout. After she had concluded her narrative and was asked if there were anything she would like to add, she thrilled her listeners when she described vividly the protracted agony she had endured because of the calumnies against herself and her husband.

Fearing Barbing of Her Honor. "For three months I mounted Calvary," she said. "Such I do not wish to my worst enemy. No one can imagine what I went through. I feared for myself, for my husband, for my child. I feared for myself because if those letters were published my—deposed—secret would be displayed before the world; my woman's honor stand stripped and naked."

"I had always been taught that a woman's honor consisted in having her life as open as possible. My poor father, who last year told me that a wife who had a lover was a woman without honor, never would have set foot in my house had he known of my liaison with M. Caillaux.

"We were reproached with being of the bourgeoisie. It is true. I am a bourgeoisie. When the letters were published, M. Caillaux and myself felt alike; we would have preferred to renounce our great happiness, rather than see our inner life blazoned to the world.

Fearing "Thy Joe" Letters. "I feared the publication of the letters. We had many friends, especially among the embassies, and in those circles people wished to humiliate and the publication of two letters, addressed to two different women, signed 'Thy Joe,' they wished to throw contempt upon the head of a minister of the republic, the chief of the radical party, and strike through him, the republic."

"Finally I did not wish to blush before my daughter; that is one thing a woman must not be asked to do. I deeply regret the present misfortune and I would have undergone anything in the world rather than have been the cause of my daughter's disgrace."

Her impassioned peroration was accompanied by eloquent gestures.

Mme. Caillaux told of the shooting in The Figaro office. Prior to this she had been asked by the judge regarding her interview with Fernand Monier, president of the tribunal of commerce, from whom she had sought information

COMMITTEE FLAYS CONVICT WARDENS

Report on State Penitentiaries—More Rigid Inspections and Enforcement of Rules Are Recommended.

The exhaustive report of the committee on penitentiaries, of which Senator M. C. Tarver is chairman, was read to the senate Monday morning. The document shows the status of the county camps of the state, the demeanor of their superintendents and road progress throughout the year.

"A more rigid inspection of the camps and enforcement of the very admirable rules of the prison commission is very desirable," states the report. It recommends the utmost care for the physical welfare of the convicts.

The camps of all but twenty-three counties in the state were examined. All the large camps of the state, with the exception of those which were not investigated, were declared O K. The report was featured by the remarkable progress in road building in practically every county investigated. Most of the counties have installed the latest road-building machinery, and the value of the farm lands has increased from 25 to 100 per cent as a result of the road developments.

Most of the counties have installed the latest road-building machinery, and the value of the farm lands has increased from 25 to 100 per cent as a result of the road developments.

Cost of Upkeep Varies.

The cost of upkeep of the convicts varied from 25 to 3 cents a day to $1.90 a day, the report says. The average cost of building roads in Georgia was $1,900 per mile. The least expensive are the sand clay roads of Decatur county, while the maximum cost is $7,500 for the stone highways of DeKalb.

In Screven county the camp was reported as very unsanitary. Here a convict supposed to have consumption was chained in a sleeping car occupied at night by well convicts for three or four months. Several cases of typhoid fever were reported of which no record was kept. The convicts were whipped on the naked skin.

The committee said that in Johnson county the conditions are insubstantial, and that the warden makes no attempt to comply with the rules of the prison commission, as he claims to know more than they do about how to keep convicts. He told the committee that the convicts get fresh meat when he can get it, and fish when he catches them.

Says Warden Drinks.

In Jenkins county the camp was reported as being filthy. In Emanuel county the guard stated that the convicts were given fairly fresh meat for three or four months. Neal Cross the warden denied the charge Saturday and Sunday, and makes the convict sing and dance, stated the report.

No action was taken on the report.

The bill of Representatives Olive Garlington and Pleasant, giving cities of the state the power to acquire fee simple title of land condemned for flood purposes was passed by a vote of 28 to 2. This bill is a general bill with local application to the city of Augusta in the building of that city's levee.

Senator Tarver was the only senator who spoke against the passage of the bill. Senators Sweat Allen and Kelly spoke for the bill.

Will Visit Athens.

An invitation was accepted by the senate to go to Athens next Saturday to a barbecue as guests of the Athens Chamber of Commerce. The invitation was extended through Senator R. T. DuBois, of Athens. A special train will leave Saturday morning with the legislators, and will return that night. The McCrory book bill was made a special order for Thursday. The bill creating Bacon county was made a special order for Tuesday. This bill was amended by the committee so as to take it out of the Waycross judicial circuit and place it in the Brunswick circuit.

The bill to co operate with the government in the agricultural extension work, which was reported favorably by the committee on agriculture, was recommended to that committee.

Street Car Company Denied a Franchise On North Pryor St.

Alderman Albert Thomson's opposition yesterday brought about the defeat of the ordinance giving the Georgia Railway and Power company a franchise to use Pryor street between Edgewood and Decatur for the Edgewood avenue line.

Alderman Thomson pointed out that the city owns the tracks over the Whitehall street viaduct from Decatur to Alabama, and stated that that privilege alone is worth more than $50,000 to the city. He also called attention to the fact that under the law the city by giving the franchise a franchise on Pryor street, would "bottle up" the only approach to the viaduct and render the city's possession of the tracks valueless.

The franchise went before council Monday as having the status of being approved by council and turned down by the aldermanic board. A conference committee was appointed to try and adjust the differences of the two bodies and two reports were submitted. The report unfavorable to the grant was finally adopted.

HOUSE FAVORS BOARD OF BARBER EXAMINERS

Bill Passed by Necessary Constitutional Majority, Speaker Casting Deciding Vote.

Four bills were passed by the house yesterday and ten new bills were introduced. Two of the bills passed were local and the other two were general bills.

The most important bill passed was that known as the barber bill. It creates a state board of barber examiners and prohibits any barber from carrying on his occupation in any city of over 5,000 population without having stood an examination and obtained from the board a certificate of registration. The law will not apply to any barber now engaged at work, but only to those who go to work in the future. The vote on the bill was close. The speaker having to cast the deciding affirmative vote. The roll call stood 45 ayes, 52 noes, 42 yeas and 93 votes for a constitutional majority.

Those speaking for the bill were Messrs. Smith and Blackburn of Fulton county, Messrs. B. M. McElwain of Richmond, Mr. Allen of Jackson who was the author of the measure. The members of the board are to be appointed by the governor.

A bill was passed which appropriates $1,650 to establish a department of legislative reference in the state library.

The bill abolishing the office of solicitor general and creating a county attorney will be a special order for Tuesday morning.

Among Bills Introduced.

Among the new bills introduced was one by Mr. McElwain of Early which provides for the destruction of all animals afflicted with hydrophobia, their deputies and baiffs in the state must kill any animal that has the light, or other person is authorized to kill an animal so afflicted and will be held free from prosecution for so doing. The bill also provides for a person killing an animal with hydrophobia the money to come from the light, or other person is authorized to kill an animal so afflicted and will be held free from prosecution for so doing. The bill also provides for a person killing an animal with hydrophobia the money to come from the light, or other person is authorized to kill an animal so afflicted and will be held free from prosecution for so doing.

Local Bills Passed.

The following local bills were passed by the house:

To provide for building bridges and underpasses over the Western and Atlantic railroad in Hartow county.

To permit owners of pilot boats to be allowed to act as commissioners of pilotage.

$1,325 IS RAISED IN TECH CAMPAIGN

Over Three-Quarters of the Amount Promised by Atlanta Already Secured and Other Gifts in Sight.

With subscriptions amounting to $1,325 on the first day, the Tech campaign workers have begun another week of the campaign, which promises to be one which will complete the fund of $100,000.

Three-fourths of the fund, or very nearly that amount, has already been secured, and strenuous efforts are being made to obtain the remainder.

A special meeting of the executive committee of the campaign was held Monday in the Chamber of Commerce building and plans were discussed, the outcome of which will probably mean the completion of the campaign within a very few days.

The subscriptions reported Monday were as follows:

American Book company	$ 250
Carolina Portland Cement Company (material)	100
J. L. Singer	100
T. W. Webb	100
H. L. Singler	100

NEAR BEER SALOON WILL KEEP LICENSE

On the recommendation of the police committee, council yesterday declined to revoke the permit given to Davis & Humphries to operate a near beer saloon on Hunter near Broad street.

The police committee authorized the insurance of the permit some weeks ago and after the saloon was fitted up and ready to do business a complaint was made by business men that the saloon's opponents declared that it was located too close to the shopping district, and offered the argument that there are already too many saloons in the district.

The committee turned down the application of H. R. Carman to operate a saloon on Hunter near the hotel. The committee's action was based on the fact that there has never been a saloon in the hotel and the further fact that Carman failed to get the consent of his next door neighbors.

LAY CORNERSTONE TODAY OF LUCKIE LODGE HOME

The cornerstone of the handsome new building of W. D. Luckie lodge No. 82 I. O. O. F. and Accepted Masons at Lee and Gordon streets in West End, will be laid this afternoon at 5 o'clock in appropriate ceremonies. The exercises will be conducted by Grand Master Robert L. Golding.

This new building is one of the prettiest of the smaller structures of any sort in the city. Its cost is approximately $20,000. The structure is three stories high, the first floor containing two stores, one of which has been leased to the city as a station for the new postoffice. On the second floor are the lodge library and banquet hall, and on the third floor are the lodge rooms.

RECOVERS STICK PIN MISSING TWO YEARS

Demanding that the last memento of graduation days be returned to him, James Vance colored brought Clarence Upham into the recorder's court to account for a stickpin.

Vance who is a butler claimed that the pin had been given him as a mark of friendship by a departing classmate in 1905 at Orangeburg, S. C. He maintained that the cherished ornament had been constantly worn until two years ago when it was stolen. When riding on the car he had seen it in the lap of Upham.

By tracing its title the recorder found that it was sold to the defendant for a dime. The bauble was awarded to Vance on the ground of prior claim.

COOL, DRY WEATHER PROMISED TO ATLANTA

The weather report for Atlanta today follows:

A brief period of comparatively cool dry weather is now indicated, and as the wind will be easterly, the maximum during the day will not exceed 75 degrees. But there will be considerable humidity in the air, and a slight drizzle is possible. Wednesday will probably also be fair, but slightly warmer.

Veto of Curb Tiling Ordinance by Mayor Sustained by Council

Council yesterday sustained the veto of Mayor Woodward on the resolution passed up by the street committee requiring property owners to lay curb tiling on Bellwood avenue to the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad. Councilman Jesse B. Lee, of the fifth ward, opposed the mayor.

In his message to council, Mayor Woodward took the position that the city could not force the property owners to put down the curb in the absence of other improvements, and that if the curb was laid the city could not make assessments.

Councilman Lee said that the curb should be laid, because the property owners want to make the street a sixty-foot avenue, and he explained that the county wants to pave the street.

HOOPER ON THE STAND IN EMPIRE LIFE CASE

Refers Counsel to President Reid for Details of Management of Company.

The hearing of the evidence in the case of Judge James R. Brown against the Empire Life Insurance company, on yesterday, was consumed by the completion of the testimony of Frank H. Hooper, vice president and general counsel of the company.

Mr. Hooper testified that the executive management of the Mutual Building company, the English-American Loan and Trust company and the Empire Life Insurance company was principally conducted by William W. Reid, president of these companies, and to many questions of plaintiffs' counsel concerning the financial condition and investments of those companies, referred counsel to Mr. Reid as being more familiar with such matters.

The examination will be resumed tomorrow, and it is estimated that the remainder of the present week and all of next week.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS IN FRANK CASE HEARD

Two Hours Were Given to Each Side by the Supreme Court on Monday.

The supreme court Monday morning heard argument on the bill of exceptions brought by Leo M. Frank to the action of Judge Ben Hill in overruling the extraordinary motion for a new trial some weeks ago.

Practically the same ground was some over as when the case was originally argued before Judge Hill, and little new in the way of argument was presented.

The defense sought to show that certain evidence discovered after the conviction of Frank and his denial of a new trial by Judge Roan was sufficient to warrant him a new trial.

Two hours to a side were given Luther S. Hosser and Reuben E. Arnold spoke for Frank, and Attorney General Warren Grice and Hugh M. Dorsey represented the state.

Revival at Canton.

Canton, Ga., July 20.—(Special)—A two weeks' revival was concluded at the First Baptist church here last night. The preaching was very ably done by the pastor, Dr. W. L. Cutts, and Rev. B. C. Smith, of Atlanta, and the singing was in charge of T. A. Henry and daughter of Mayville. There were forty-seven accessions to the church.

MAY PLAY SATURDAY AT PONCE DE LEON

Crackers and Billies Trying to Transfer First Game of Series to Local Lot.

The Crackers and the Billies may play at Ponce de Leon on Saturday instead of Montgomery.

Montgomery is willing to swap and President Callaway of the local club, wired the other presidents last night for their consent.

The local club wanted to transfer the entire series here, but the Montgomery magnates would agree to only one game.

So, if Saturday's game is transferred here the teams will jump out to Montgomery that night, playing three Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

As the Crackers have a postponed game with the Billies, it is possible that a double-header will be staged Saturday afternoon.

PLAY NEARS END IN CITY TOURNEY

Only Six Players Left in the Singles Round—Good Tennis Played.

Only six players are now left in the singles round of the men's singles event of the city tournament.

In the doubles event, one team is in the semi-finals and one in the final, while two will play today for the other place in the semi-finals.

Several matches, both in the men's singles and doubles event, were defaulted by the referee, as the different players did not show up.

The result of all matches played through Monday is as follows:

MEN'S SINGLES. First Round. Francis Peoples defeated F. R. Hoffman, 6-4, 6-2.

J. E. Crenshaw defeated C. I. Collins by default.

J. E. Bivins defeated E. R. Black, Jr., by default.

MEN'S DOUBLES. First Round. Strong and Blosser defeated McKinnon and Green, 6-4, 6-2.

Everett Ramsbeck, Burton and Wooten match was defaulted.

Henry and Stevens defeated Taylor and Font, 6-0, 6-3.

Richard and Smith defeated Haddock and Black, 9-1, 8-7.

Rhett and Hunt defeated Brewster and Richardson, 6-0, 6-2.

Taylor and Holland defeated Mangat and Seaman, 6-3, 6-2.

Boykin and Stewart defeated Crenshaw and Von Maurer, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Second Round. Trimble and Smith defeated Taylor and Holland, 6-0, 6-2.

Rhett and Hunt defeated Stevens and Henry, 6-0, 6-0.

Woman Seen in Shreveport.

A second report, giving the name of color of the woman, of the Bay Lake mystery, comes from Shreveport, La., 120 miles west of Winnboro.

A woman said to have been recognized by pictures appearing in the public print as Mrs. Dennis was registered at a hotel there recently, declares the report.

Another report, also from Shreveport, is that a train conductor remembers two women passengers on the Shreveport train, who were in the field, a town of less than 2,000 people, where they changed cars for Naborton, a few miles east, the end of the line, in the late night session.

The dispatch from the little town of Winnboro, covering the finding of the human scalp of a woman, states that the authorities are trying to identify any strange woman who might have been seen in that section during the last three or four weeks.

The lake is being dragged, but the authorities hold little hope of recognizing any strange woman.

The dispatch from Shreveport stated that an acquaintance of Mrs. Elois Dennis, missing from Atlanta, recognized her as being there recently.

James Not Missing. A report was received from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., that Victor E. James, the mysterious lawyer hypnotist in the case, and married fiance of Mrs. Elois Dennis, was not in the city.

any recent tragedy, and no woman in that part of the countryside has been reported missing.

The scalp, according to doctors who made a minute examination of it, was at least three weeks or a month old.

Thinking that this may be a clue to the Nelms mystery, the authorities of Winnboro have dynamited the lake to bring the remaining part of the woman's body to the surface of the water. Their efforts so far have failed.

Miss Beatrice Nelms was a blond, and she and her sister, Mrs. Dennis, have been missing about the length of time that the doctors state the decomposition of the scalp indicates that it had been in the lake.

AT THE THEATERS.

'Keith Vaudeville.' (At the Forsyth.)

The bill at the Forsyth this week gets away from the post to an awfully slow start, and winds up like a "run of show."

The man of the woman, who on Monday afternoon or night left before the finish, certainly made a goodly part of the worth of their money for the last two acts are decidedly the class of the program.

When Miss Odette LeFevre slips out on the stage and starts to sing, you know that you are glad you are sitting there.

She sings in wonderfully clear and sweet tones of "A Little Love, a Little Kiss," and you feel that you have missed the show if it had been your last half dollar you were spending, with the possibility of going back next morning.

Miss LeFevre is an opera singer of rare quality, but as yet she knows little of the tricks of the trade in vaudeville, and this is largely the reason that she does not go even better with her audiences.

She is on the stage almost before the actors before her have taken their last bow, and people are not ready to give her the recognition of her appearance keeps her from getting "the hand" she should get after her first number.

But to those who are increasing number in this city—she is a joy forever, and one and all will give her a hearty "hello" to another song, before the next act is flashed.

Her performance was marred Monday night by the entrance of a number of members of the militia who staked up and down the aisle looking for refreshment.

It was apparent that the audience was not pleased by the interruption. As the militia is seeking at the present time to be sent to the front, it is probable, it would have been better policy

Investigation today before the state railroad commission into the withdrawal of Patrick Calhoun, former president of the United Railways, of $1,088,000 ostensibly for investment in the Salinas Irrigated Farms project, L. R. Reynolds, auditor for the state railroad commission, testified that there actually existed a deficit of $4,880,471 at the time of the last annual report of the corporation.

Of this amount, said Reynolds, $3,506,895 cannot be accounted for.

That the entire $1,088,000 was withdrawn in cash from the treasury of the United Railroads on orders authorized by Reynolds, Reynolds testified, said to the president, by direction of Calhoun.

That Charles N. Black, general manager of the company, did not know the money was gone until June, 1913, when Calhoun retired as president, Mulhally, Black and F. L. Ford, former director and counsel for the company, asserted that they did not know what Calhoun did with the money for, and that they had not asked him.

Calhoun's withdrawal of the money was a surprise to the management, although it has long been conceded that book plays have come back with a vengeance.

The leading role, that of Lena Rivers, is played by Miss Rose Morris, who filled the theater for thousands among local theatergoers. Her work is most effective and convincing, and she has received the highest praise from the audience.

Special mention must be made also of the splendid work of Vernon Wallace, the leading actor of the company. The balance of the cast was good and the performance throughout showed careful stage management.

It is not out of place to mention the fact that the Bijou is well cooled and ventilated, and no theater is more inviting these hot days than the Bijou.

J. R. HOLLDAY, Constitution Building, sole Advertising Manager for all territory outside Atlanta.

The Constitution is on sale in New York City at 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had at the following Newsstands, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner), Thirty-eighth street and Broadway and Twenty-ninth street and Broadway.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payment to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents.

ALL ALIKE TO THIS LAW.

The Constitution is in receipt of the following query, the answer to which may afford useful information to other Georgians who, like Mr. Maddox, have been deceived by the demagogues about the new tax law.

Editor: Constitution How is the state tax equalization law construed as regards money and other evidences of money value?

Answer: The law is construed to mean that all property should be valued on an equal basis as regards all sorts of property—whether land, money, mortgages, property, money, property or other property.

The tax equalization law applies with equal force to all forms of property.

The law has but one definition so far as property is concerned, and that is that it should have—Value.

It is property has value, whether in the form of mortgages, of securities, of wild or improved lands in the country or of corner lots in the city; whether as a horse or a cow or an automobile; whether as a saw-mill or a power plant; whether in the most rural corner of a remote militia district or a city skyscraper—

That property must stand its share of taxes under the tax equalization law.

The board of tax equalizers for Bibb county has stated the principle of universal responsibility of all forms of property for taxation with a clearness that leaves nothing to be desired.

In pursuit of the principle that all forms of property must bear their share of taxation, the board rounded up a large number of holders of mortgages. These gentlemen complained. The board answered that simply because a money value had been transformed from land to a mortgage was no reason why that value ceased to be property and why it should be exempt from taxation.

And that is the universal principle. Values are values, whether visible or invisible. As such they are taxable. To take money from land and put it in a mortgage does not destroy a taxable property value; to take money from a mortgage and return it to land does not exempt the land.

Here's the governing principle: The tax gatherer follows the property value wherever it goes and in whatever form.

When the law first got under way, a few reckless demagogues sought to trade on just such misapprehensions as that of Mr. Maddox. They told those who would listen that only land values were being assessed. The disclosure of the real facts has abruptly put the demagogues out of business and killed the effort at repeal.

Under the old "pass-the-hat" law one man would return his land at a fair valuation and pay taxes honestly. The man owning the next lot, just as valuable, would not return his lot at all, or for what he pleased. And the first man, who was honest, was paying the tax debt of the fellow who was willing to accept the advantages of government without paying his share.

The tax equalization law has stopped that. It has made all pay on a fair valuation—visible and invisible property alike.

It is the process of equalization applied to all forms of property all over the state that will in a few years reduce the tax rate from five to two and one-half mills. Kansas has a law much like Georgia's. It reduced the tax levy from six mills to one mill and the squirmers were buried under an avalanche of approval. Now the farmers of Kansas are the mainstay of the law.

AN UGLY INCIDENT. While there is no use for our jingo friends in California and elsewhere to rear up and say, "I told you so," the violence growing out of the effort of Canadian officials, at Vancouver, to deport 250 Hindus is disturbing, to put it conservatively.

The Hindus claimed the right, as British subjects, to land in Canada, off whose shores they have been detained for three months. The matter was exhaustively tested out in the Canadian courts, and the contention of the Hindus disallowed. Then came the order for deportation, which the Hindus have resisted to the point of a pitched battle with the officials. Of course, sooner or later they will be deported. If that ended things, the matter would be had enough.

Over in India, and in other British possessions, are many million Hindus, of all castes and conditions. Even now, a sullen and rebellious murmur over the treatment of the Hindus by Canada is going through their ranks. The great and inscrutable empire has not yet quieted from the trouble with East Indian subjects in Africa. No one knows when a common racial resentment may not fire the dark hordes that have before shown their ability to make such bloody chaos once they slip the leash of the white man's authority.

That is one feature. Another is, and this is not reckoning with foolish hysteria, that wherever the dark races show economic or industrial ambitions, whether in New Zealand or Australia, in South Africa or in Europe itself, there is a feeling of uneasiness and, here and there, some attempt at prescriptive laws.

This delicate, subtle and many-sided problem is slowly and inexorably pressing itself upon the world's attention. There will be a solution for it, of course, when it matures, but the "watchful waiting" is not a soothing process.

"WHY NOT TAFT?" The Constitution has been overwhelmed with letters from democrats, confederate veterans and others commending its recent editorial, "Why Not Taft?" In that editorial it was suggested that the peculiar circumstances of the case would make strikingly appropriate the appointment by President Wilson of former President Taft to fill the supreme court seat vacated by the death of Justice Lurton. The following letter from J. W. Stafford, one of the most prominent and representative business men of Georgia, is typical:

Editor Constitution: I see Ex-President Taft's name suggested for judge of the supreme court. I agree with the Constitution's suggestion and trust that President Wilson will appoint him. I am a thoroughbred, neck-and-neck Georgia democrat and never voted or considered anything but a democratic ticket since the war.

It seems queer to me that I should favor the appointment of any republican over any democrat, but I heartily favor Mr. Taft's appointment.

Sincerely, J. W. STAFFORD. Barnesville, Ga.

There is a reason for this striking spontaneity of response to what was at the least an unique suggestion. The explanation is this: If there is one southern characteristic more dominant than another it is, to use the vernacular, the refusal to let the other fellow do more for you than you will do for him.

From this angle, the wonderful response to The Constitution's suggestion, while a tribute to Judge Taft, is even more a tribute to the south itself.

It has been said of the south that it is emotional. If emotionalism means a sense of loyalty, a sense of justice, a sense of gratitude and of appreciation, then the south is emotional. President Taft broke political and other conventions in the appointment of Justice Lurton to the federal supreme court, and the elevation of Justice White to the chief justiceship of that court.

Taft, a republican president, appointed Lurton, a democrat. Taft, whose entire affiliations, family and otherwise, were union, appointed Lurton, a confederate veteran. Justice White was a democrat and a southerner, a confederate veteran. He elevated him to the chief justiceship. He expressed in deeds and not words the conviction that the bitterness of the civil war was sufficiently cured, the chasm of the sixties sufficiently healed, the country sufficiently united to treat all as—Americans.

He made no petty affirmation of this faith. But he chose the two highest offices in his gift as proof of his creed.

A man who is big enough and broad enough to exhibit such practical patriotism is worthy of the highest honor at the hands of a democratic administration. If the appointment were a political one, it would be different. It is not political. It is non-political and judicial, and in a branch where politics should not enter.

President Wilson is himself a democrat, a southerner. The positions are reversed. The broad thing to do is to pay Taft back in his own broad coin. The act would bring the nation to its feet cheering.

MISPLACED ZEAL.

Manufacturers of Atlanta are justified in protesting against a bill, now pending before house committee on agriculture No. 2, which requires that date of packing be stamped on all canned and packed and re-packed goods shipped within Georgia.

It seems the present legislature is to be made the battle ground for many varieties of well-meant but far-fetched extremism in the regulation of marketing of food and food products. The present bill is an instance.

One of the first effects of such a measure, if enacted, would be to put the manufacturers of Georgia at a fatal disadvantage with the manufacturers engaged in interstate commerce. In other words, the federal department of agriculture has definite regulations bearing on stamping and dating. The department employs the best experts. It is assumed to be regulated by the most scientific rules. Cans and packages coming into Georgia from, say, Chattanooga, will comply with the interstate regulations laid down by the department, but can ignore the state regulations. The tendency on part of the public will be to purchase these packages guaranteed by the government and to ignore the package under state regulation.

There can be no questioning of the federal regulation and its strictness. Why is Georgia called upon to exceed the government in carefulness and exactness? Why should the carefully built-up business of Georgia manufacturers be exposed to this disadvantage, which strictly favors outside competition?

The proposed measure will hamper, without helping.

The intent of the bill is, doubtless, commendable. But it should be remedied so that it will not attempt to set up a standard higher than the federal government's, and so that it will not benefit the out-of-state manufacturer at the expense of the Georgia manufacturer and, at that, without insuring any additional protection.

L. W. ROGERS—GOOD CITIZEN.

The death of L. W. Rogers removes a man who was conspicuously and unliquely a good citizen, and a no less than wonderful type of the successful American citizen in business—alert, self-effacing, achieving. His career is eloquent with lessons.

A little more than twenty-two years ago Mr. Rogers came to Atlanta with $300 and a plentiful supply of backbone. With that modest capital he opened a small grocery store on Whitehall street. Today forty-seven retail grocery establishments in the city bear his name, not counting others in suburban and nearby towns.

The story is told in one paragraph, but the pluck, the resourcefulness and the dogged perseverance behind it all comprise one of the commercial Odysseys which have characterized the development of this country. Rogers had a theory, and he stuck to it relentlessly. He believed in little profits, big sales and, always and ever, cash sales. He believed in efficiency in service, shrewd buying in big lots, discounting of bills. That is the formula that carried Rogers to a phenomenal success. You might say that anyone could carry the formula into effect. The proof is that the great majority who have tried have failed.

Rogers was the exception, and it was because of innate qualities of intuition and enterprise in the man himself.

Everybody knew of "Rogers' store." Not one Atlantan out of two hundred knew Rogers himself when he saw him. Rogers' other name was modesty. He hated publicity, save publicity for his enterprise, and for that he paid liberally. In private life he was quietly cordial, considerate, gentle. He believed in the church and he met his church duties as he did his business obligations.

Rogers did big good in two other ways. His scientific efficiency in buying and selling saved money for a great many people. He broke a great many people of the pernicious credit habit, the habit that creates the tyrant of debt that overmasters or retards so many men and women. This service alone would have made him an asset to the community.

A man of his variegated virtues must leave an impress on the city. It is not every community that has a Rogers, not every community that, in its practically swaddling clothes, can attract and hold a man of the bigness that went to make Rogers.

Davison's Textile Blue Book.

The twenty-seventh annual edition of this well-known publication has just been issued and the following statistics covering the volume will be of interest to the textile trade.

The new volume contains mills as follows: Cotton mills, 221; woolen mills, 1256; silk mills, 197; knitting mills, 1467; jute, linen and flax mills, 165; dyers, bleachers and finishers, 454; Canadian mills, 413; a total of 7,274 mills.

Mills have been added to the volume as follows: Cotton mills, 1374; woolen mills, 197; silk mills, 165; jute, linen and flax mills, 19; knitting mills, 301; dyers, bleachers and finishers, 52; Canadian mills, 40; a total of 248 plants added.

There has been removed from the volume 449 mills as follows: Cotton mills, 87; woolen mills, 66; silk mills, 83; jute, linen and flax mills, 3; knitting mills, 14; dyers, bleachers and finishers, 20; Canadian mills, 27.

The number of changes made in the mill reports were: Cotton mills, 1,374; woolen mills, 495; silk mills, 584; jute, linen and flax mills, 85; knitting mills, 1,950; dyers, bleachers and finishers, 144; Canadian mills, 451; a total of 5,958 changes.

Besides the regular reports, a separate list of the new mills shown and this should be useful in collecting trade from the new concerns. The textile maps, showing all towns where there are textile plants or dyers, have been carefully revised to date.

The salesmen's directory, elegantly bound in leather, size 3 1/2 x 5 1/2-inch thick, is much smaller than the pocket edition, but has a full report of every mill, dyer, etc., these being arranged alphabetically, all mills and each town.

The blue book, which subdivides into cotton, woolen, silk, etc., can be obtained from the publishers, Davison Publishing Company, 407 Broadway, New York. Prices delivered, of which $1.00 per packet edition $3.00, salesmen's directory $3.00.

Collier's Weekly Defends Sleeveless Bathing Suit

The following defense of the sleeveless bathing suit appears in the current issue of Collier's Weekly.

Two somewhat conflicting bits of information are borne into this editorial office on the summer breeze. From Atlanta, Ga., comes news that sleeveless bathing suits are not to be tolerated at Piedmont Park—even on men, whereas Paris, France, reports that Gaiety manlyness is freeing itself from the tyranny of the starched collar. Anatole France, who is a socialist as well as an author, heads a league which declares for soft collars open at the neck. People have even invented toward rolling collars that leave free the throat: Byron and Shelley and Walt Whitman were all alike in that. But which is the real tendency? The Atlanta policy of cruel repression or the Parisian ideal of increased latitude?

Paris for once sets a reasonable style. For a great while men have been moving more and more generally away from stiffness in shirts and hats and collars (to say nothing of manners); men who wear crash suits in summer are more numerous, and less conspicuous than once. With erudite Philip Hale of the Boston "Herald" we vote for soft madras shirts with collars and cuffs attached—and may the laundress forget that starch exists to try hot-weather tempera. In all things temporal we are on Freedom's side. Women's summer fashions are made for greater comfort than are men's—yet men fix women's fashions. Arise, ye Gosh! And let us begin by defending the sleeveless bathing suit and donning the Anatolian soft shirt.

By Glenn of Whitfield—To amend the charter of the city of Dalton.

By Culpepper and Williams of Meriwether—To amend the charter of the city of Manchester.

By Sparks of Toombs—To provide for four terms for the superior court of Toombs county.

New Bills in Senate. The following bills were introduced in the senate Monday.

By Senator Sweat of the Fifth—To amend an act creating the court of Douglas.

By Senator McNeil of the Fifth—To amend section 3268 of the code relative to garnishments.

By Senator Bush of the Eighth—To create a system of parole or conditional pardons of persons convicted of crimes.

By Senator McNeil of the Twenty-second—To levy a tax of one mill on notes, judgments, liens and mortgages for maintenance of common law.

The following bills were passed: By Messrs. Garlington, Olive and Picquet—To allow cities to acquire fee simple title to property for purposes of flood protection.

DAILY GRIT FROM THE STATES POLITICAL GRIND

CHARLES BARRETT IS TAKING GREAT INTEREST IN BROWN CAMPAIGN

Conspicuous among those who have frequented the Joe Brown headquarters in the Kimball house during the past several days is Charles Barrett, president of the Farmers' Union. Mr. Barrett has been a daily visitor at former Governor Brown's rooms since they were thrown open to the public. He has taken a prominent part in all the discussions and deliberations of Mr. Brown's close friends and advisers, and has made many suggestions regarding the conduct of the campaign. His words of advice have been eagerly listened to.

Mr. Barrett's activity in the Brown campaign and the rumor now afloat that he would probably make one or two speeches during the next two weeks, are the more notable for the reason that, as president of the Farmers' Union, Mr. Barrett wields a wide influence among the farmers of the state. However, this is the first campaign in which Mr. Barrett has taken any considerable influence. Heretofore he has remained in the background and has contented himself with voting for the candidate of his choice, leaving the fighting to the politicians.

In the present campaign, however, Mr. Barrett has made no secret of the fact that he was in the thick of the fray, and would do all in his power to further the interests of "Little Joe."

Mr. Barrett's past aloofness from anything that savored of active participation in politics has caused a good deal of comment. Senator Hoke Smith's friends explain the present activity of Mr. Barrett on the ground that he has aspirations to become secretary of agriculture under President Wilson, and that Senator Smith did not accord him the support he thought he ought to have.

Be that as it may, Charles Barrett is working tooth and toe nail for "Little Joe," and he has taken no pains to conceal the fact.

R. O. COCHRAN HAS WITHDRAWN FROM THE SENATORIAL RACE

Hon. R. O. Cochran, representative from Fulton county and for some months a candidate for the United States senate, has withdrawn from the race. He gives as his reason the fact that he does not care to complicate the present situation.

BRITAIN AND PARK PAY UP THEIR ENTRY FEES FOR RACE

M. L. Britain, state school commissioner, and L. M. Park, candidate for state treasurer, have paid their entry fees. Candidates have until August 1 to qualify, and quite a number have not yet paid.

JUDGE POWELL INDORSSES STEPHENS FOR THE APPEALS

Alex W. Stephens, candidate for the court of appeals, has received the following endorsement from Judge Arthur G. Powell, former judge of the court of appeals and now a member of the well-known law firm of Little, Field, Hester and Goldstein.

Mr. Alexander W. Stephens, Atlanta, Ga.—My Dear Sir: I take pleasure in endorsing you for the unexpired term of Judge Ben Hill on the court of appeals. I remember with gratitude the great assistance you gave me in my first race for the position of this same court, and I trust that my friends throughout the state will also appreciate your activities in my behalf at that time and will support you. From my personal knowledge of you, I believe that it would be a great honor to have you in the position, if you are elected to it, in such a manner as will reflect credit upon that great Georgian and relative of yours, whose name you bear. With kindest regards, sincerely your friend, (Signed) "A. G. POWELL."

WARREN GRICE MAKES SPEECH IN THE LEGISLATURE

Hon. Warren Grice, attorney general and candidate to succeed Judge Powell, first mentioned the celebrated Leo M. Frank case Monday morning, when the extraordinary motion for a new trial was argued before the supreme court. Mr. Grice's speech was extremely brief, but he received considerable attention on the subject, in which he presented the state's position in regard to the appeal.

The duties of the attorney general will be particularly trying this session. There are some important cases to be argued, and an extensive litigation in the State Mutual Life, of Rome, to be disposed of.

SITUATION CREATED BY COOPER'S LIQUOR CHARGES AGAINST HARDWICK

The situation created by the liquor charges against Judge Hardwick, which have been the subject of the last week have been the attacks of candidate for the short term in the United States senate, John R. Cooper, against Congressman Hardwick, in which, at Dalton and elsewhere, he has made the charge that the liquor was being backed straight out by the organized liquor interests of the country. This was a sensational feature of Cooper's speech at Dalton.

The story goes that Cooper is prepared by the committee on the subject of liquor, to make several recent visits to Atlanta Hardwick being met agents known to represent the organized liquor interests of the country and that he has been in private conferences with them on frequent occasions at the Kimball house. These are pretty strong charges, but it is said that later on times, places and names will be given, if necessary.

Whether or not this feature of the campaign assumes more interesting proportions remains to be seen. John Cooper is about the boldest campaigner that ever took the stump in Georgia, and there is a "rattling of dry bones" whenever he speaks.

HARDMAN'S FRIENDS THINK HE WILL CARRY THE NINTH

Dr. L. G. Hardman, candidate for governor, will carry the ninth congressional district certainly and very probably the eighth district, also, according to State Senator John T. Peyton, of Mt. Airy, in the thirty-first senatorial district, who was in the Dr. Hardman headquarters in the Kimball house on Monday.

Dr. Hardman's chances in my section of the state are brighter now than they ever have been, he said, and he is steadily gaining in strength. There is no doubt that he will carry all of the eighteen counties in the ninth district, and it would not at all surprise me if he carried the eighth district, too.

GOVERNOR SLATON WILL ADDRESS THE VOTERS OF HALL COUNTY

Governor John M. Slaton will tomorrow make the second of a series of speeches on the state equitation. At the earnest request of a number of prominent citizens of Hall county, he will go to Gainesville, and the prospects are he will have a rousing audience, as the impression he recently made at Cartersville has caused thousands of persons to want to hear him.

HUGH M. DORSEY TO SPEAK AT GAINESVILLE NEXT WEEK

Rendez, Tetzell, campaign manager for Joseph M. Brown, announced Monday that Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey will make his first campaign speech at Gainesville, July 28. The following day he will speak at Royston.

In addition to Mr. Dorsey, the following speaking dates have been arranged: Hon. Julian McCurry, Lexington, July 25; Lawrenceville, July 27.

Hon. Grover Edmondson, Moultrie, July 25; Cairo, August 1; Douglas, August 8; and Baxley, August 15.

Hon. E. J. Dwyer, Ashburn, July 25; Sylvester, July 27; Dublin, July 29; Crawfordvilles, Conyers, August 4; Fairburn, August 4; LaGrange, August 8.

Other speakers will be announced in a day or so.

W. H. BURWELL CASTS FIRST VOTE OF THE PRESENT SESSION

Hon. W. H. Burwell, speaker of the house of representatives, cast his first vote of the present session when he voted for the "barber bill" and thereby secured its passage. There was a reason. Five years ago Mr. Burwell encountered a barber who more properly should have been employed in a butcher's shop. The result is he has shaved himself since that time. He is in favor of anything that will raise the standing of the tonsorial profession.

J. R. SMITH ISSUES A REPLY TO THE REPLY OF ALFRED C. NEWELL

J. R. Smith has issued a reply to Chairman A. C. Newell's reply to Mr. Smith's attack on Governor Slaton. In his last Mr. Smith says:

"In admitting that every word that I said concerning Governor Slaton's record was true, Mr. Newell says that it was his job as chief clerk of the office for Governor Slaton. I confess that he has named one action which I have always found it very difficult to defend. I can say this, however, with emphasis, that had Slaton failed to promise the people of Georgia to return to the office of campaign manager, after making the charge will not show the white feather and prize, I would not have voted for him or supported him. I never anticipated or expected at that time to be called upon to give an account of my record in that office. My reasons for being so named in that office, I believe, remained at home on election day. However, defending Governor Slaton and his record is Mr. Newell's job and not mine."

Mr. Smith then reiterates his charges against Governor Slaton, concluding: "I am sure that it was his job as campaign manager to show where I have ever asked for appointment to any political office, including this senatorship. When this point has been settled (and I am sure it will be) or's campaign manager, after making the charge will not show the white feather and prize to the woods, then I hope to get back to the paramount issue, which is Governor Slaton's twenty years' record" which he himself has made his platform.

SHAW DECLARES HARDWICK AND FEIDER ARE LIGHTWEIGHTS

Cordela, Ga., July 20.—(Special)—Hon. Emmett R. Shaw spoke to several hundred people here Saturday evening, concluding his attack on Governor Slaton and his attention, however, to the short term senatorship.

He took Thomas S. Feider and Thomas W. Hardwick to task and classed them as political lightweight candidates. He said they were converting up and down the country assailing Slaton who was at the job he asked the people for and attending to their business.

He charged that Feider led the fight to put that other Dalton dollar tax on the back of the farmers of Georgia.

MISS GORDON HERE TO URGE SUFFRAGE

Woman Must Have Vote Before Child Labor Problem Can Be Solved, Says New Orleans Leader.

Miss Kate Gordon, of New Orleans, La., president of the Southern States Woman Suffrage association, arrived in Atlanta last night from Washington, in company with several other prominent women suffrage leaders in Georgia, to speak before the state legislature on the question of "votes for women."

In an interview with a Constitution reporter last night at the Piedmont hotel, Miss Gordon declared that before the child labor problem would ever be solved woman must be given the vote.

Miss Gordon is a sister of Miss Jean Gordon, factory inspector of the state of Louisiana, and has been closely associated with her sister in her work, thereby knowing the evil conditions surrounding child labor.

"I would not say that men are incompetent in solving the child labor problem," said Miss Gordon, "but men look upon the vital problem from a too conventional viewpoint. This viewpoint prevents them from being able to cope successfully with this problem."

"With the woman it is different," continued Miss Gordon. "Women recognize the need of education and home raising for the child. The child labor problem is essentially one to be solved by women. Men, with the aid of women, will be able to handle the question, man never alone. History has proven this."

Miss Gordon said that the privilege of the ballot box would be gained by southern women within five years.

HARDWICK ADDRESSES COBB COUNTY VOTERS

Marietta, Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Hon. T. W. Hardwick addressed Cobb county voters for an hour and a half at the noon recess of court today. Court was in session and he had a good audience of the people. He was introduced by Solicitor E. H. Clay, who expressed the intention of supporting him.

Mr. Hardwick referred often to Governor Slaton as the man he had to beat in order to win the election. He attacked the governor's record as one of doing nothing till he saw what the popular trend was. He attacked the governor's record as one of doing nothing till he saw what the popular trend was.

WADSWORTH TO MANAGE BIG FAIR IN FLORIDA

Quitman, Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Announcement has just been made through the recommendation of Secretary Clarke, of the Brooks County Industrial club, that W. G. Wadsworth, of LaGrange, Ga., who had charge of the Group county fair last year and who has had wide experience in fair work in Ohio, has been tendered the management of the Alachua county fair, and will leave for his new work on Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

FLETCHER'S SON-IN-LAW AND PRESIDENT WILSON

Washington, July 20.—Republican Leader Mann introduced a resolution today requesting President Wilson to transmit to the house, if not incompatible with the public interest, all papers and correspondence in the name of Thomas J. Kemp, of this city, a son-in-law of Senator Fletcher, of Florida, convicted of illegal use of the mails and sentenced to two years and a fine of $500. President Wilson commuted the sentence last week to payment of the fine.

TARIFF NOT BLAMED FOR SLOW BUSINESS

Washington, July 20.—President Wilson said today that during his recent conference with business men those men do not hold the tariff responsible for the slow business conditions. The consensus of opinion he gave was that business needed time to adjust itself to the tariff.

A Sensible Plan For Selling Diamonds On Easy Payments
You can take the diamond you select by making a cash payment of one-fifth of its price.
To the balance we add six percent simple interest. This balance may be divided into as many as ten equal monthly payments.
Under this plan, you know exactly the difference between the cash and time prices and can choose the plan which suits you best.
We send diamonds anywhere on approval—paying all express charges.
Write or call for our booklet, "Facts About Diamonds." It quotes net prices and explains clearly our many attractive selling plans.

SENATE LACKS QUORUM FOR A VOTE ON JONES

Washington, July 20.—Difficulty in maintaining a quorum in the senate was ascribed today by administration leaders as one of the reasons for delay in consideration of the nomination of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, as a member of the federal reserve board. The senate must muster a quorum for a vote, said Senator Lewis, of Illinois, who is leading the fight for Mr. Jones' confirmation. "I hope we can reach a vote before the end of the week," he said today. No word has yet reached the committee from Paul M. Warburg, of New York, who is waiting to be asked to appear before the committee for examination as to his financial attainments.

DIES FROM PARALYSIS AFTER SWIM IN SURF

H. D. Adams, Jr., of Macon, Is Fatally Stricken at St. Simon's Island.

Macon Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—H. D. Adams, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Adams of Vineville and junior member of the firm of H. D. Adams & Co. of Macon, died this morning at St. Simon's Island, from a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered yesterday just after he had finished bathing in the surf.

Mr. Adams went to St. Simon's last Tuesday night to spend his vacation and appeared in the best of health at that time. Yesterday he went in bathing with friends and after leaving the water was walking up the beach when he was stricken. He was at once removed to the hotel and a physician called. He remained unconscious until 11:30 o'clock this morning when his death came. Relatives from Macon reached his bedside an hour before he died.

Mr. Adams was one of the best-known young business men of the city, having entered business with his father following his graduation from the University of Georgia. He was 22 years of age.

ROY STUBBS ELECTED MAYOR OF EATONTON

Eatonton, Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Former Representative Roy D. Stubbs cleared the deck today in the most hotly contested election held here in many years for municipal officers. Stubbs defeated J. K. Matthews and J. C. Reid, a prominent business man, at the end of his first administration. He attacked the governor's record as one of doing nothing till he saw what the popular trend was.

TWO CANTRELL BROTHERS HOPE FOR COMMUTATION

Gainesville Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Over six hundred citizens of Gainesville and adjoining county visited Jim and Bartow Cantrell, who are to hang here next Friday. Watson the boys' spiritual adviser, held services at 11 o'clock in the jail yesterday and the jail was crowded, and from then until late at night the people poured into the jail to talk with the boys, and extend sympathy from their own city for the part they spent the day in jail with the boys.

U. S. AGENTS ACCUSED OF DEBAUCHING NATIVES

Washington, July 20.—Five government agents are under arrest on the Florida islands in the Serris pending investigation of grave charges of their conduct with natives now under military order of Secretary Borden. A. H. Proctor and P. R. Hatton, agents, S. McClure, a naval aviator, and Dr. C. J. McGovern, former physician, and L. J. Tongie, a physician, are charged with debauching natives and other charges by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitney, teachers on St. Paul island.

FOUR MURDER CASES ON HALL COURT DOCKET

Gainesville, Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Hall superior court convened here this morning, Judge Jones calling the court to order at 10:30 o'clock, postponing it until that time that people coming from the Southern road could get in. Perhaps the criminal and civil docket is the heaviest ever known in the history of the court. There are four murder cases to be tried at this sitting. Will McKinney and Ed Harris, charged with the murder of Isaac Christler, Jesse Johnson, charged with having killed another negro woman, and several others charged with the murder of Pete Grier, over near Gillesville, Ga., last week.

EIGHTH VICTIM CLAIMED BY THE BUBONIC PLAGUE

Residence of Latest Victim Far From the Point of First Infection.

New Orleans, July 20.—The eighth case of bubonic plague was discovered today at 2845 Barrone street, the principal residence of the city, when taken ill Thursday and his case was diagnosed as plague today. The residence of the eighth victim is thirty-three blocks from the point of the first infection and the retail store at which he was infected is thirty blocks from where the first case was discovered on June 27.

It was feared today that the plague death list of three would be increased before the day ended as Helen Soell, the 10-year-old child whose illness was diagnosed plague Saturday, would die. She is now in the hospital, but the disease took a sudden turn for the better and she was able to leave the hospital Sunday afternoon. One of the persons stricken has been practically cured and Dr. W. H. Rucker, federal assistant surgeon general in charge of the plague work at New Orleans, said today that the chances for saving the other four victims was good.

COTTON SWELLS VALUE OF AMERICAN EXPORTS

Washington, July 20.—Foodstuffs cotton, cotton seed oil and mineral oils cleared almost half of the $2,884,384 of domestic exports from the United States during the fiscal year of 1913 or about $38,000,000 more than during 1912 according to figures made public today by the department of commerce.

RASH OVER BABY'S HEAD AND BODY

Scarf on Scalp, Grew Worse, Very Restless, Formed Crust, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, Trouble Disappeared.
1341 Parkwood Pl., N. W., Washington, D. C.—"When my babe was about two weeks old I noticed a scurf on her scalp which gradually grew worse. It started with a red rash over head and body and made her very restless at night. The rash left the thick scurf on her head. We used a well-known antiseptic and other remedies recommended by friends, but nothing seemed to do any good. This continued until she was three months old and she had a crust, so formed sort of a crust, so thick that she could not see. It was especially bad on the soft part of the head. Nothing helped until we used the Cuticura Soap to bathe her and Cuticura Ointment to anoint her. They acted like magic, clearing the scalp entirely. The trouble disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. E. L. Anderson Mar 20, 1914.

18 MONTHS IN PRISON FOR HARDWAY YOUNG

Mobile Ala., July 20.—Hardway Young former president of the defunct Southern Hardware and Supply company, who pleaded guilty to the United States district court during the term to a charge of using the mails to defraud, was sentenced by Judge Toussaint to federal prison for eighteen months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500. Young was formerly president of the Southern Hardware and Supply company before its failure, which he is charged with bringing about, being one of the largest firms in the south.

WOMAN BADLY BURNED WHEN DRESS IGNITES

Columbus Ga., July 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. F. Patterson, 1032 1/2 Second street was severely burned early this morning when her clothing ignited from a lamp which she lit on the floor. The flames ascended her body and she was burned from feet to waist. While the injuries are painful, they will not prove fatal.

FIRE SLIGHTLY DAMAGES OLD BAPTIST TABERNACLE

The old Baptist Tabernacle at Luckie street and Tabernacle place was slightly damaged by fire Monday night about 3 o'clock, which originated in some mysterious manner in a bird's nest in the tower of the building. The prompt arrival of the fire department prevented spreading of the flames. It is believed that a bird from some chimney landed in the bird's nest setting it on fire.

RAMBLING STORY TOLD BY REV. LEWIS PATMONT

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—The Rev. Lewis R. Patmont, a temperance lecturer, who it is alleged was kidnaped and held in Detroit last and later mysteriously disappeared from Detroit, today told a rambling story of his recent wanderings at Rib Lake, Wis., where he was identified last night by the Rev. C. M. Milton and George H. Klapp. Patmont said a strange man warned him if he did not leave Detroit he surely would be killed. After traveling about the country, visiting Kansas City, Minneapolis and other cities and suffering intense mental agony, he finally reached the lumber regions of northern Wisconsin. He was said to be in a constant fear and at times appeared to be in a state of coma. A faint moment he recognized Milton and inquired as to the welfare of his wife and children in Detroit.

WEEK-END GAETIES WERE MUCH ENJOYED

By next week everybody will have caught the refrain of the rather subtle sounding little waltz which is played for the new dance called the "half and half" and which pleased the many who saw it danced at the country clubs this past week. It is not so difficult—no, not when it comes to the actual steps in it—but "you have to dance it well when you do dance it, otherwise you don't look well dancing it," declares an artist in discussing it.

The "half and half" was one of those "standardized" at the international meeting of dancing masters some time ago, and though you may hear that it is danced different ways in different places by different people, there is a certain way to dance it which can be danced anywhere—that certain way everybody, it is predicted, will know by Saturday.

NEW DANCE IS POPULAR.

The new dance was seen at the Druid Hills tea dance and at the dinner-dance at the Piedmont Driving club Saturday night.

The Maxixe, too, is becoming better known and each evening brings out another couple who have learned it and commence timidly, ending with graceful easy finish. Among the ladies dancing the Maxixe gracefully Saturday night were Miss Esther Smith, Mrs. Frank Meador, Mrs. Wilner Moore, Mrs. Tom Daniel, Miss Margaret Grant.

SOUTHEASTERN FAIR BACKED BY COUNCIL

Resolutions Urging Appropriation of $75,000 in 1915, and Asking Aid of County, Is Adopted.

Atlanta's city council placed itself squarely behind the Southeastern fair project yesterday by adopting a resolution sent up by Mayor James G. Woodward urging an appropriation in 1915 of $75,000, and recommending that the county commissioners appropriate a like sum, either in cash or work.

Only four votes were offered in opposition to the mayor's resolution. Alderman John S. Candler, mayor pro tem, relinquished his place as presiding officer to take the floor in opposition. When the vote was taken Alderman John S. Owens, and Albert Thompson and Councilman S. L. Dallas joined with the opposition.

Mayor Woodward declared, following the favorable action of council, that he was very much pleased with the progress the fair project is making.

The resolution will go before the aldermanic board for final disposition Thursday afternoon.
