Stated That He Was Willing to Reply to Any Questions That Might Be in the Mind of the Public, and Asked to Answer Any Such That Might Be Propounded to Him.

TELLS HOW JIM CONLEY COULD HAVE SLAIN GIRL AND ESCAPED DETECTION

Asserts That Very Fact That He Admitted He Had Seen Mary Phagan on the Day of the Murder, Thus Placing Himself Under Suspicion, Was Proof in Itself That He Was Innocent of Crime.

Probably the most interesting statement yet issued by Leo A. Frank in connection with the murder for which he has been sentenced to hang, is one that he has furnished to The Constitution in the form of a series of answers to questions which were propounded to him bearing on the case.

These questions were prepared by a representative of The Constitution who visited Frank at the Tower last week.

"All the questions you wish," Frank told the reporter.

In accordance with that, the reporter wrote out a list of questions which, he asserted, comprised the most salient points the prosecution had brought out against him, and to each of these Frank has given an answer.

Question 1. Why did you let Newt Lee off that afternoon, the first time he was ever off, as Leo testified?

Question 2. The last thing known about Mary Phagan's movements being her visit to your office, and the body being found in the basement of the factory in the same building as your office, what is your explanation of how she could have been murdered without your knowing anything about it?

Question 3. You say the wording of the notes is plainly that of a negro. Isn't it possible that the negro could have written only the substance, in his own way, of the notes dictated by you?

Question 4. Evidence was offered to show that on previous occasions you had given Mary Phagan's pay to Helen Ferguson when the latter called for it. Is it true that you told Helen Ferguson on the day preceding the tragedy that Mary Phagan would come for her pay the following day?

Question 5. You said you examined the alleged blood spots on the second floor on Monday following the murder. Evidence was offered to show that the blood spots had been cleaned up before you could have come to the factory. How do you explain this? Was anyone with you when you examined these alleged blood spots?

100 DEAD TRAPPED BY FIRE MANY LOSE LIVES IN ST. LOUIS CLUB

St. Louis, March 8.—Fire early this morning was discovered bursting from the windows of the lower four stories of the Missouri Athletic club, at Fourth and Washington avenues. The first cry drove scores of roomers at the club into the street in their night clothes.

Of 155 roomers at the club not more than twenty have been accounted for. The remaining men are believed to have been trapped on floors above the fourth. If this proves to be true not one of them will escape alive, as the entire building is now a mass of flames.

At 2:45 this morning the roof of the massive structure, occupying half a city square, caved in, carrying down with it several floors and it is believed more than one hundred are dead. Every available ambulance and police patrol wagon in the city has been called to the scene. A careful census of those who escaped from the building was taken by the police and an officer of the club and not more than two dozen men were accounted for. It is almost certain all the others were burned to death.

HELD ON CHARGES OF LOOTING STORE

The Atlanta Police Believe They Have Man Responsible for Sensational Robbery in Milledgeville.

Sergeant George C. Bullard, of the plain clothes squad, and Plain Clothes Policeman T. D. Shaw and Night Chief E. L. Jett Saturday morning arrested W. L. Lunford, alias "Fack" Lynch, a gang of crooks, who is the leader of whom the police suspect is the leader of a gang of crooks who are responsible for a number of the best safe robberies that have been committed throughout this section during the past several weeks.

It is said that the prisoner admits his implication in a recent robbery in Milledgeville, Ga. This report, however, has not been verified. Police officials will neither deny nor affirm it.

R. Dunn, a night watchman of the Milledgeville store, which was recently rifled by the gang, has identified Lunford as the leader of the burglar gang. Dunn, several nights ago, was bound in the store at which he was on duty, and relieved of his pistol by a gang of yeggs who plundered the store, robbing it of a large amount of money amounting into the thousands.

First Call for Grand Opera

Atlanta awakes to-morrow this morning with a vague sense of important plans pending.

Atlanta rubbed its sleepy eyes and wondered what it had planned to do the next thing after breakfast.

Atlanta smiled broadly as the realization dawned upon her that tickets for grand opera go on sale this morning, and she must needs hurry down immediately to test all the good seats be picked over.

And so it was with considerable zest that all Atlanta—for who in Atlanta loves not grand opera—bounced out of bed to its shower and breakfast, and hustled down to the stores of Phillips & Crew or the Cable Piano company, where tickets are on sale.

That there will be no disintegration of the Bell House colony was decided at a meeting of "The Bell House Boys" at the Bell house Sunday morning.

Charles E. Currier, the oldest member of the colony in point of seniority, was elected president of the club.

Should the resolutions be adopted by the church, it appears that there will be no dodging the issue on the part of any of the members of the church.

London, March 8.—Militant suffragettes fought the police today on their favorite battlefield—Trafalgar Square—and in a pouring rain.

Several hundred women and men late today had marched in procession to the square to attend a meeting of the men's federation for woman suffrage.

When it was discovered that Miss Pankhurst had been abducted, the chairwoman, Miss Patterson, who later was among those arrested, shouted to her supporters: "Follow the flag and see if we can't find something to do."

CANAL TOLLS QUESTION HAS A VITAL BEARING

President Believes Repeal of Exemption Clause Will Have Broad Effect on Relations With the Powers.

Washington, March 8.—Development of the American foreign policy as an influence for commercial expansion and the cause of universal peace is a vital concern of the Washington administration in its efforts to have repealed the Panama tolls exemption clause.

Behind the protest of Great Britain, it has become known authoritatively, stands the united support of European nations whose formal objections have been held in abeyance to await the outcome of England's negotiations with the United States.

Though there exist no agreements or obligations or understandings with Great Britain to this effect, the contention of England's diplomatists, can- didly admitted by the British minister in Mexico, is that the Panama canal may be opened in an era of diplomatic good feeling.

TEXAS RANGERS CHARGE ACROSS THE MEXIC BORDER AND GET VERGARA'S BODY

Mounted Texans, After Crossing the Rio Grande, Made for Hidalgo Cemetery, Disinterred Corpse of Murdered American Rancher and Returned With It to Soil of the United States.

NO COMMENT MADE ON RAID OF RANGERS AT NATION'S CAPITAL

Washington, March 8.—No official advice had reached here tonight at either the state or war department about the recovery of the body of Clemente Vergara, Secretary Bryan was an exile from Springfield, Mass., where he addressed a Young Men's Christian association meeting today, and was not expected here until early tomorrow.

While official comment on the incident was lacking, the fact that permission had been given by the Mexican federal authorities for recovery of the body was believed to remove the possibility of international complications.

The evidence gathered by the Texas authorities as to Vergara's execution will be used by the state department in renewing its representations to the Huerta government for punishment of the offenders. A full report is expected by state department officials from Consul Garrett tomorrow.

Laredo, Texas, March 8.—Texas rangers, who secretly crossed into Mexico last night, today brought to the American side the mutilated body of Clemente Vergara, Texas ranchman, and established the fact of his death after he was seized by Mexican federalists.

The rangers were not opposed, accomplishing their search without the slightest violence, taking the body from a grave in Hidalgo cemetery almost within sight of the Texas border.

NO INTERNATIONAL COMPLICATIONS.

The seizure was divested of possibly grave aspects in international complications by reason of the fact that the rangers were practically making use of permission granted officially by Mexican federal authorities several days ago for recovery of the body.

Identification was made by the dead man's son and by numerous friends, many of whom were in the party of ninety, led by the state border patrol, which made the grim journey to the Hidalgo cemetery during the early morning hours today.

General Villa in response indicated that the ransom had been largely a pretext to cover his real purpose of preventing any aid reaching the federalists from the head of the Terrazas family.

With the stand of General Villa, his agents say there can be no quarrel. They maintain that the older Terrazas is far from being the person he now claims to be and that he is a serious menace to the rebel rear through his alleged ability and readiness to equip himself for expeditionary warfare.

General Carranza's telegrams to General Villa were not peremptory, but pointed out that the sender was in the best position to judge the international aspect of the case.

Great interest was manifested today in the case of General W. B. Snyman, the former Boer general who has been taken from his ranch as a result of the recent military operations in the Rio Grande, forty-five miles south of Chihuahua, and the estate itself confiscated.

Snyman is well known here. He was one of the leaders in forming a Boer force against the United States in the latter part of the Boer war, and before the war was elected to the Cape assembly. He turned rebel against his adopted country, however, but was restored to citizenship several years ago by King Edward's proclamation of amnesty.

Snyman is accused of allowing federal forces to use his ranch as a recruiting headquarters, and there is said to be further allegation that he has not paid for his ranch. Friends of Snyman and his son, E. C. Snyman, now here, deny the charges.

VILLA TAKES REEF IN KILLING POLICY

Rebel General Says He Won't Execute Luis Terrazas, Jr., for Non-Payment of Ransom.

El Paso, Texas, March 8.—Failure to pay the ransom demanded by Luis Terrazas, Jr., will not result in the prisoner's execution, according to a telegram received here tonight from General Villa at Chihuahua.

News of the telegram came from rebel agents tonight. The agents declared, however, that General Villa certainly would expose Terrazas to the mercy of the Torreon mob unless the prisoner's father, General Luis Terrazas, refrains from political activity.

The younger Luis, it is asserted, always has been held principally as a means of control. If possible, his father's efforts to behalf of General Huerta. Even after repeated warnings, it is declared the elder Terrazas has staid the Mexican government with men and money, until a week ago when he had declared that his patience was at an end.

Villa's decision to waive the matter of ransom came through representations made by General Carranza and his agents.

Barbary Would Arouse World.

A telegram to Villa from Federico Gonzalez Garza today pointed out that to execute Terrazas for non-payment of ransom would be a barbary which would excite indignation throughout the world.

General Villa in response indicated that the ransom had been largely a pretext to cover his real purpose of preventing any aid reaching the federalists from the head of the Terrazas family.

With the stand of General Villa, his agents say there can be no quarrel. They maintain that the older Terrazas is far from being the person he now claims to be and that he is a serious menace to the rebel rear through his alleged ability and readiness to equip himself for expeditionary warfare.

The veteran Boer fighter was outspoken against the United States in the latter part of the Boer war, and before the war was elected to the Cape assembly. He turned rebel against his adopted country, however, but was restored to citizenship several years ago by King Edward's proclamation of amnesty.

Great Britain's alliance with Japan, it is believed, already has been a factor in the dispute over the California anti-alien law, and the increasing friendship of the United States and Great Britain, it is admitted, would render it difficult for Japan to expect support from her ally in controversies with the United States.

Today Is the Day of The March Sale of Muslin Underwear

With Which We Record a New and Great Economy Event

It is axiomatic or bromidic—as you please—to say that values are relative. We know no other way of picturing for you the possibilities of this March Sale than by weighing its values against those of the Great White Sale of January.

Judging from the height the sales reached then, we have every reason to believe that that was the most value-ful White Sale Atlanta has known.

We inaugurate this March Sale on the proposition that the values are finer than those you took so well to then. Nor do we hesitate to make the comparison between the two sales. The one of January stands firmly on its merits the best until now. We have outstripped it partly through good fortune, partly through what we are pleased to call shrewd merchandising.

A new maker was anxious to get more of our business, perhaps he made us concessions he would not have made under ordinary circumstances. We were not slow in appreciating the opportunity at hand.

So we shall show you finer hainsooks, cambrics and muslins; daintier laces and embroideries and ribbons;
neater stitching and workmanship; more charming;
more womanly and daintier and NEW styles at either the same price or a lower price than heretofore.

In several instances we have had to lower prices on garments on hand in order to meet our own competition! It is particularly fortunate that we can offer such an opportunity at this moment when "spring clothes" is the very air that most women are breathing.

Now it is yours to profit! The covers will be lifted at 8:30 o'clock, and you will find—

Corset Covers
At 25c, at 39c, at 49c—All exceptional values.

Drawers
At 25c and 49c—Two styles at 25c, a half dozen at 49c, including crepe knickerbockers.

Gowns
At 50c, 69c, 75c, 89c, 98c, $1.25 and $1.50 to $5.00.
Some of the finest values of the sale here.

Petticoats
At 75c, 95c and $1.25—Those at 75c are crepe; the others have the double panel, fitted styles.

Combinations and Teddy Bears
At 79c (combinations reduced from $1.25 and $1.50); at 98c, $1.25 to $2.98. Charming styles!

Princess Slips

GERMAN COLONISTS URGE FRIENDS TO LOCATE IN GEORGIA

Cordale, Ga., March 8.—(Special)— Several families of a colony of twenty-two German families from Pennsylvania and Indiana, induced by the local chamber of commerce to locate in Crisp county, arrived in Cordale yesterday.
Two of them have already purchased farms, and will engage in truck farming, which is the chief occupation of this enterprising colony of Germans.
The several families here wrote back to their friends that there were splendid opportunities awaiting them and a splendid field for their occupation, and urged them to make arrangements to come as soon as possible.
The chamber of commerce is also communicating with a number of Austrian families in some of the northern states with a view of bringing a colony of this nationality of people to the section to engage in the occupation of truck farming and cattle raising.

MEETINGS TO CONSIDER RELIGION AND FARMING

Dawson, Ga., March 8.—(Special)— Rev. T. D. Ellis, the new presiding elder of the American district of the South Georgia Methodist conference is certainly a progressive in discharging
the duties of his important office,
and is pursuing novel and interesting methods in connection therewith. He has planned to have a series of meetings at different places in the district before, at which, besides religious services, there will be discussion of subjects relating to the material welfare and agricultural interests of the people. Dinners will be served on the grounds. The primary object which Dr. Ellis has in view in these meetings is to make the country churches social centers and to improve rural conditions.

SOUTHWEST GA. UNITED IN WAR ON WEEVIL

Albany, Ga., March 8.—(Special)— Southwest Georgia is showing her progressive spirit in many ways and the determined effort of the people of this section is what has caused the remarkable growth here during the past few years.
The latest step forward by the section is in the work of preparing for the boll weevil. Following the campaign of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce against the weevil, the Albany Chamber of Commerce called a weevil meeting. Following the meeting, representatives from the counties surrounding Albany met in Albany and determined to start a campaign in each county to secure funds for a farm demonstrating agency. That the work proved a success is attested by the fact that each county raised its money and demonstrators are now at work or will be in the immediate future.
On the honor roll of counties preparing to engage in the fight against the weevil are the following:
Dougherty, Mitchell, Worth, Lee and Calhoun.

DR. WALKER TELLS WHY HE IS LEAVING ATLANTA

First Presbyterian Pastor Asks Presbytery to Dissolve Pastoral Relations.

Ret. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, announced his decision to accept the call from the presbytery of Atlanta for a pastoral relation with the First Presbyterian church of Long Beach, Cal., if the way should be clear for him to do so. In order that the way might be clear, he asked that the congregation join him in a request to the presbytery of Atlanta for a dissolution of the pastoral relations existing between himself and the First church,
the dissolution to take effect April 1.
The session, which had been previously consulted, ordered a congregational meeting to be held after the morning service next Sunday to take action upon Dr. Walker's request.
The final decision of the matter rests with the presbytery, which will be asked to meet in special session to consider the question of dissolving the pastoral relations. The presbytery of Los Angeles, in the meantime, has found the Long Beach call in order and has sent a communication earnestly urging the presbytery of Atlanta to accept Dr. Walker's request and transfer him to that presbytery at the earliest possible moment.
Tells Why He Leaves.
In his statement to the congregation
Dr. Walker referred to the reasons which led him to accept the call to the First church something more than two years ago. He spoke of his love for his native southland, of his attachment to the First church, and of the church organized in Augusta Ga., on the very day he was born back in the mountains of East Tennessee, of his admiration for Georgia, the Empire
State of the South, and for Atlanta, which he considered the cleanest city morally and the best spiritually of any city in the country. He mentioned such men as Governor John B. Gordon, Colonel George W. Scott, Colonel Milton A. Candler, Professor R. P. Word and Ben R. Legg and other distinguished laymen in the churches that he then served.
Dr. Walker paid a deserved tribute to the Rev. Dr. E. H. Barnett who was then pastor of the First church speaking of him as one of the most eloquent and interesting of preachers, the most devoted of pastors, the most magnetic and lovable of men, and he confessed that it had been his only ambition at one time to be worthy of the friendship of this ideal minister and to succeed him some day as pastor of the First church.
He mentioned his long-time friendship for S. M. Inman, whom he called "the First of Atlanta," and of how Mr. Inman and other East Tennesseans, including Judge W. T. Newman, Dr. John G. Earnest and S. W. Carson had suggested him to the church, which called him away from the Emmanuel Presbyterian church in Lost Angeles, in which pastorate he had remained for more than fourteen years.
Refers to Protestants.
Dr. Walker referred to the kind and cordial relations which had been made against his leaving Atlanta.
He referred to the fact that Mrs. Walker's health was much better in southern California, on account of climatic conditions, to which she had been so long accustomed, but insisted that this was not the controlling motive for making the change, that so was an early conviction that he could be of greater service in the kingdom of God out on the Pacific coast than in Atlanta, pleasant and delightful as his life here had been.
Dr. Walker expressed his deep appreciation of the kind addresses of his own people and of all the people in the city. He expressed his great regret in leaving and his hope that he might fast by the policy already outlined and carry out their plans for moving the church to Long Beach and Fearless streets at the earliest day possible.
The church at Long Beach to which Dr. Walker is expected to go has a membership of about one thousand and a church building costing more than $100,000 with seating capacity of nearly two thousand. The prospect for growth is very bright, and the opportunity for work is unlimited. He

CONDUCTOR HURLEY TELLS OF CAPTURE OF ALLEGED YEGGS

Americus, Ga., March 8.—(Special)— Seaboard Railway Conductor H. E.
Hurley, who is in Americus, returned here this morning from Montgomery, and tells an interesting story of the capture in Montgomery yesterday of the four alleged professional yeggmen who had previously boarded his train at Lumpkin and Lovale, near Americus, and whom he afterwards pointed out to the Montgomery officials as suspected crooks. The four men are high-class professionals it is believed and during the past week had visited Americus, Montezuma, Oglethorpe and Albany, according to their statements.
Five thousand dollars is the reward offered for the men who recently held up the Southern railway train at Birmingham and if these are the guilty parties, as is strongly suspected, Conductor Hurley will share in the reward.

for the book; but it would be an extravagance for you to pay it needlessly, by neglecting this opportunity to pay less.

If you have a healthy man's interest or curiosity in

Medicine and Surgery

or if you are a physician or medical student,

you will find that the new Encyclopaedia Britannica (11th edition)—"a different kind of book," different from all other works of reference—has a remarkably full, clear, authoritative, and up-to-date treatment of medical science, more than 600 separate articles containing information not to be found in standard special text-books of medicine or even in Proceedings of Medical Societies, and all written by great experts and specialists, such as:

- INSANITY, about 35,000 words by Sir J. Batty Tuke, John Macpherson, L. C. Bruce, and Frederick Peterson
- DIETETICS, 10,000 words by W. O. Atwater and R. D. Milner
- PARASITIC DISEASES, 35,000 words (with 21 illustrations, 9 in color) by G. S. Woodhead
- PHYSIOLOGY, about 6,000 words by Prof. Max Verworn of the University of Bonn
- PATHOLOGY, about 20,000 words (with 51 illustrations, many in color) by D. J. Hamilton and Richard Mann
- ANATOMY, about 35,000 words by F. G. Parsons

Each of these articles is supplemented by more special articles, as Insanity by Parsons; Physiology, Pathology, and Anatomy by separate articles on every disease or ailment and every organ of the human body. For example:

Eyes, Ear, Blood, Liver, Heart, Spinal Cord, Nervous System, Brain, Skin, Diphtheria, Tuberculosis, Cholera, Cancer, etc.

In all other branches of knowledge—geography and exploration, music, and other fine arts, industrial chemistry, practical research, engineering, outdoor games, physics and chemistry, ancient or modern history, mathematics, philosophy and religion, zoology and ethnology, astronomy, botany—in any subject—the new

Encyclopaedia Britannica

has the same satisfactory treatment

1—an attractive, interesting style
2—a careful co-ordination of parts
3—not the usual bald, abbreviated "dry-as-stuff" article, but a full, lucid and readable account of just the things you want to know, or may need to know any minute, to make yourself more efficient

This remarkable and altogether "different" sort of summary of human knowledge and achievement is in a library of 44,000,000 words, in 40,000 articles, written by and signed by the leaders of the world's thought, work and research

And this enormous amount of material is compactly and conveniently presented to you in the new Encyclopaedia Britannica in 29 handsome, light volumes, each only one inch thick. ANTI-COWS WIN FIRST FIGHT IN STATESBORO

Statesboro, Ga., March 8.—(Special)—
The first round in the fight against the cow on the streets of Statesboro went to the Civic Improvement League of Statesboro in a meeting held in the courthouse last night, and if such an expression is shown at the ballot box on March 18, the cow will receive a decisive knock-out blow and put off the streets of the city.
Some time ago the women of the town formed an organization and have been fighting for the elimination of the cow. Petitions were circulated asking the mayor and council to call an election, and March 18 has been set.

CHURCH IS TARGET OF LAWLESSNESS

Drink, Lust and Materialism Hold Enmity Against Church Only, Says Dr. H. M. DuBose.

The church of Christ, as the exponent of truth, law and salvation, is the target of all lawlessness. Drink, lust, materialism, together with the other organized forces of the world, are arrayed against the church, which is to say against those who would enshrine Christ as king and would make His law the law of the world. Against lawlessness, the church, alone, must stand always.

This statement was contained in an absorbing sermon delivered last night at the First Methodist church by Dr. H. M. DuBose. The theme of his discourse was "A Successful Stand." His text was taken from Ephesians, 6:13, a section of which reads:

"Wherefore, take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

Combat Evils of Drink. His theme was the duty of the church to combat the evil of drink.

Such a time of odds and reaction against the church is the life of today. The life of the nation and city does not describe an aggregate loss to the cause of righteousness, but it does register a pause in the march of truth.

Suggests Organization. The figures used in scripture are military ones, and suggest the wise choosing of ground and the posting of an army with a view to receiving and repelling the assaults of an enemy. Practically all the battles of the world have been won by armies trained to stand in the crucial moment.

The church has chosen and must forever choose to make its stand on the obedient of its members to the highest law of righteousness.

The soldier may be assaulted. What is the Christian's duty? He must meet temptation and evilness. He is the Christian for but to stand up in these and other similar attacks.

The Christian who stands up will inevitably withstand the attack.

COTTON TRADE WATCHES WEATHER CONDITIONS. New Orleans, March 8.—Cotton traders will pay much attention to weather conditions prevailing over south Texas.

The pending signaling report will receive much attention. The estimates of the amount of cotton to be returned, lint and all, have been as high as 100,000 bales.

Estimates can hardly go higher than that figure, and probably this week the tendency of opinion will be to seek more conservative levels.

Hard and fast estimates of the coming report may be expected from private sources this week, and they will do much to shape the market.

At the same time a continued large crop and a slight renewal of confidence on the bear side.

TROOPS ARE ON GUARD TO REPRESS STRIKERS. Rome, March 8.—The police department head today was personally supervising the general strike of workmen called for tomorrow.

The entire garrison of Rome will be ready for duty. Fifteen thousand men will be available.

While the avowed object of the strike is a protest against reforms in Rome hospitals, it is said to be really the growth of a desire to test the strength of the workmen's organizations.

Spread of Woman Suffrage Described by Mrs. Neely

Mrs. Frank Neely, in a series of clever articles she is writing in anticipation of the woman's suffrage rally Wednesday evening, March 11, illustrates aptly the spread of woman suffrage in the states, when she quotes as follows:

"In her masterful book, 'Woman and Labor' on the feminist question, Olive Shreiner tells a very significant story that it might do well to dwell on again. It seems there was a bird's egg picked up upon the water's edge, and home and placed under a barnyard fowl. In due time that chick hatched out and was named 'Great.' In the barnyard, Great was the speculation as to what manner of bird she might be. Some thought it was a water fowl, a duck or goose, and others objected because its feet were not webbed. Then came the suggestion that it might be a barnyard fowl, and it turned loose would scratch for its living. Still others thought it a parrot, but it scratched and scratched. A prominent hawk but another small fact held that it was a bird of great flight. The name of its wings and feet, 'Why should it fly?' retorted the skeptical. 'No one has ever seen it fly, do you suppose it can do anything that no one has ever seen it do?'

So they talked and, in the meanwhile, the bird sat upon its egg and gazed at the sky—the blue blue sky. And one said, 'Let us turn the bird loose and see what it will do.' And the bird, shivered.

General A. F. Sanford, of The Knoxville Journal and Tribune, president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association which meets in Atlanta, March 16 and 17, it was learned that the day has been arranged upon for appendicitis, and will be unable to attend the convention.

There will be about thirty or forty of the most prominent newspaper men of the south in attendance upon this meeting, and the Atlanta newspapers are making elaborate arrangements for their entertainment.

Many of the attendants upon the convention will arrive in the city next Sunday, and will be entertained by the local men at the clubs, golf courses and at informal affairs.

The business sessions of the convention will be held from 10 o'clock in the morning to 5 o'clock in the afternoon with intermission for luncheon, on Monday and Tuesday at the Ansley hotel, which has been selected as the headquarters and the place for the luncheon for the visitors on both days of the Southern Publishers' association which meets in Atlanta, March 16 and 17, it was learned that the day has been arranged upon for appendicitis, and will be unable to attend the convention.

PRESIDENT OF EMORY SPEAKS IN ATLANTA

Delivers Sermon on "Living Sacrifices" at College Park Methodist Church.

Dr. James E. Dickes, president of Emory college, also president of the Georgia Board of Missions, spoke on "Living Sacrifices," at the First Methodist church of College Park, Sunday morning. He took his text from the twelfth chapter of Romans—"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

He said that God's sacrifices were not confined to this world, and that our sacrifices should be transformed by the renewing of our minds that we may prove what is good, and acceptable, and perfect, to God. Having gifts he said, differing according to the grace that is given us, whether prophecy, to prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or love, to love given without dissimulation; or a sacrifice according to God's will, abhorrence of evil, and adherence to that which is good, are God's commands for sacrifices.

Dr. Dickes said that one of the greatest sacrifices man can make is to be kind and affectionate to another. He said that happiness is to be found in rejoicing in hope, patience in tribulation, and continuing instant in prayer. Other sacrifices of the living, he said, are the blessing of them who persecute, rejoicing with them who rejoice and weeping with them who weep.

Dr. Dickes reminded his congregation of the duty of the church to be with evil, but overcome evil with good.

Large congregations attended both morning and night services at the College Park church, and the visiting minister a warm welcome.

Dr. Dickes was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Richardson Sunday afternoon.

RELATIONS OF MORGAN AND NEW HAVEN ROAD

New York, March 8.—In a letter to Howard Elliott, chairman of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, J. P. Morgan & Co. has announced its policy in regard to public a statement of fiscal relations between the house of Morgan and the railroad and its allied companies, during the twenty years from 1894 to 1914, in which those relations were maintained.

The statement shows that in this period the Morgan house took part in the handling of New Haven and subsidiary companies securities to the value of $32,982,893 from which the firm realized a total net profit of $30,265, being "at an average rate of $17,900 a year." The statement shows that on some purchases of New York securities the Morgan firm sustained a net loss.

The letter was in reply to one from Chairman Elliott requesting a detailed statement of the financial relations of the Morgan firms and any member of them ever had any interest in any properties "such as West Chester, the steam railways, the trolley lines or any of its subsidiary companies" with the exception of the fact that the late J. P. Morgan inherited 1,222 shares of the stock of the South Bay Wharf and Pier company, and later sold them for $14 shares of New Haven stock.

The letter says J. P. Morgan & Co. advised the Millbrook company various sums aggregating $11,165,000 and that these advances were made by order and for account of the New Haven Railroad company. In none of these transactions was there any profit or commission to our firms or to any member of them, says the letter, which adds that none of the Morgan firms or its members had any interest in securities or properties purchased by the Millbrook company or in any other enterprises or properties that afterward became a part of the New York, West Chester and Boston.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 8.—Mrs. Arthur Ruffly, who resides near Salisbury, committed suicide here today at the home of Mrs. J. P. Keener, after shooting herself twice just below the heart. Mrs. Ruffly was in poor health, and had been brooding over her condition ever since her arrival here three weeks ago.

Injured by the shots, her relatives found the woman stretched on the floor, the weapon still clutched in her hand. Slight cuts on her throat and an open razor in the room gave rise to the belief that she had committed suicide. Her throat and when her nerve failed, secured the revolver with which she shot herself. She is survived by a husband and four children.

WIRELESS TELEPHONY ATTEMPTED BY MARCONI

Syracuse, Sicily, March 8.—W. M. Marconi arrived here today, bringing with him apparatus for radio telephony experiments. He was received on board by the Italian navy, and by the Duke of the Abruzzi, who tonight gave a dinner in his honor.

Mr. Marconi expects to spend ten days in this city, exchanging wireless telephone messages with various points on the Mediterranean.

Athens, Ga., March 8.—(Special)—The University of Georgia Glee Club of this city will give their first performance at the Colonial here Wednesday night. The club has a fine orchestra, is admittedly stronger than for years, more varied and better staged.

WEATHER KEEPS MANY FROM SUNDAY CONCERT

The most conspicuous feature of the Sunday afternoon free concert of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra at the Auditorium-Armory yesterday afternoon was the small crowd in attendance. That this was due to the weather, to the cold wind and the occasional flakes of snow there is no doubt. The Atlanta orchestra, however, with a good book, to braving the weather.

Mrs. Hurt, who had been expected to sing at the concert, it was announced at the Auditorium was unable to be present on account of the weather. Her part was sung by the organist, Edwin Arthur Kraft. His program was enjoyed especially was this true of his rendition of Lord's fantastic on "My Old Kentucky Home."

ROASTS GRAND JURIES.

Wink at Sin and League With Devil Says Pastor.

Dr. A. R. Holderby, at Moore Memorial church, on Sunday morning, continued his series of sermons on "The Creation," taking as his subject, "God's Prohibition Law in Eden."

"In pursuing our studies on the Creation," he said, "we are sure to come to the last and the best of all creative works, and that this being made in the image of his Creator is the only creature who is guilty of rebellion and the only creature that has sinned."

"Man, as soon as he was made, was placed under law, and it was a 'prohibition law.' 'Thou shalt not. Lusting after the voice of the tempter, Adam and Eve obeyed the tempter rather than God. By this one act of disobedience to the law of God, Adam and Eve, for which we must suffer the penalty."

The prohibition law enacted by the Georgia legislature is God's law, and not man's. And the man who violates that law is as much guilty as Adam and Eve, and he will receive the punishment whether a 'Grand Jury' returns a 'true bill' or not. God is not dependent upon the Grand Jury. "What does the Lord God Almighty care about our little grand juries, that wink at sin and league with the devil?" But the almost unthinkable thing in the present conditions is, that we wink at sin in church as well as only winking at the violation of the law, but are aiding and abetting the forces of evil, and evading the law with the pronounced enemies of Jesus Christ.

SITUATION IN MEXICO AND MONROE DOCTRINE

Philadelphia, March 8.—The Mexican situation and the present status of the Monroe Doctrine will be principal subjects discussed at the national conference on foreign relations of the United States under the auspices of the American Academy of Political and Social Science to be held here April 3 and 4. Delegates have been appointed by governors of nearly all the states, and delegations from leading trade and industrial organizations throughout the country are expected to attend.

The conference has been divided into six sessions, and addresses will be delivered by naval officers, scientists, members of congress and men prominent in the business world. Although the program has not been completed, those who have already accepted invitations to deliver addresses include Admiral F. B. Chadwick, U. S. N. Rear Admiral C. M. Chester, U. S. N. and Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, U. S. N. Representatives of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Dr. S. P. Rowe, professor of political science, University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, professor of government, Harvard University, Dr. C. C. Rowell, professor of international law, Columbia University, and A. Maurice Law, American correspondent of The London Morning Post, Washington.

ALLEGED SUNDAY TIGER RAIDED BY DETECTIVES

Officers Roberts and Dorsett arrested a white man named J. V. Pain and gave his wife a copy of charges Sunday about 2 o'clock when they discovered an alleged blind tiger being kept in their home at 328 Simpson street. They found seven cases of whiskey in the house. Pain was released on a $1,000 bond and their cases will be tried today in police court by Recorder Broyles. Several witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear in court against them.

"Cream-of-tomato" That's easy!

Certainly it is. And this is one of the most delicious and satisfying ways to prepare Campbell's Tomato Soup.

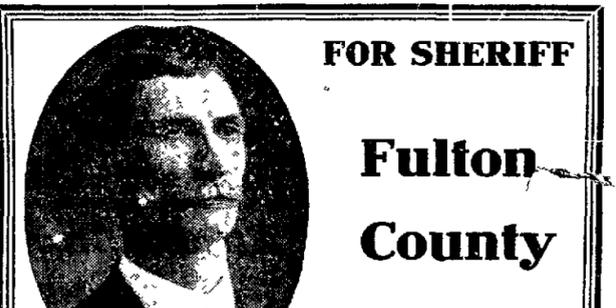

Just heat the contents of the can; heat separately an equal quantity of milk or cream; bring them to boiling-point but do not let them boil. When ready to serve take them from the fire and pour the soup into the milk (not the reverse). And there you have it—a soup fit for a queen's table; and for yours.

2. I feel that I have the ability and experience to fill the office.
3. I expect to do my full duty if elected.

I have lived in Atlanta for many years, and have served as first Deputy Marshal of this city for the past three years. I have always tried to be a clean man, and expect to run a clean race and conduct a clean office if elected. I ASK YOUR SUPPORT.

HARRISON JONES, Campaign Manager. FRANK WELDON, Secretary.

DEPUTIES: Walter C. Lawrence, Pat J. McGuire, Geo. W. Seals, W. T. Wattle, Geo. D. Coleman, Aaron T. George.

DEPUTIES: E. A. Baughan, A. M. Copeland, J. Todd Harwell, John W. Murtry, G. P. Oliver, T. J. Powell, J. D. Whaley.

APRIL 1, LAST DAY TO REGISTER. BE SURE TO REGISTER!

Open Letter to Capt. W. M. Mayo

It being reported to me, that you and some of your deputies have stated publicly that I am running for Sheriff in the interest of some one else, I emphatically deny the charge.

I call on you to publish in the city newspapers the fact that on several occasions, I made you this proposition:

That each of us would select one or more men, they to select another; this committee to confer and decide which of us is the stronger candidate, we agreeing that the weaker man would come down out of the race.

Also, please say that you declined to accept the challenge.

Respectfully yours, L. O. WRIGHT.

"Ze Tango and ze Trot Are Rot" Declares Incomparable Pavlova

ANNA PAVLOVA As she appears when dancing the Bacchanale.

in giving out the information that the czar of Russia would not permit the art of the tango to be taught in school to indulge in such horrible steps. Pavlova stated that the old and beaten tango and the other vulgar dances were danced by society, declaring that the rage for the present steps was only a fad that was bound to come out in popular favor. There is no dancing in such ugly movements, she declared, and the people are bound to tire of the fads.

Pavlova admitted finally after a flux of questions for some time comprehensible to her that there were certain movements in the tango that were danced by society, but that they were not danced by society. She would say nothing favorable about the tango, but she did not object to it as such. She insisted on describing as ugly and horrible.

She expressed her surprise that the American people were not originators of the tango, but that they were only stuck to the same old dances. In my country, she said, when the profession of the tango was first invented, new steps and continually new ideas were introduced. Beautiful and original dances are practiced by all the dancers.

Statement May Pave Way for the Settlement of Question. Storm Likely in Commons.

London, March 8.—Premier Asquith tomorrow will make his promised statement in the house of commons, which is expected to pave the way for settlement of the Irish home rule question. Not since the days of Gladstone has an occasion been awaited with such intense interest.

The day, it is regarded, will be as important in the stormy career of the present liberal government as when Lord Morley announced the intention of the government to force the passage of the Home Rule bill.

MISSING GIRL IS FOUND BY CHARLESTON POLICE

15-Year-Old Maud Pricer Ran Away to Support Herself.

Charleston, Ga., March 8.—(Special)—Miss Maud Pricer, the 15-year old girl who disappeared from her home in Charleston several days ago was believed to have been the work of kidnappers or white slave traffickers, as located by Charleston police this morning.

She slipped away from her father voluntarily in a shopping expedition with her father's car. Her home is in Pritchardville, S. C. and she spent one night in Savannah and, after leaving the papers the next day, which told of the sensation her disappearance had created, she took a train for Charleston. It was on the advice of a Charleston girl who had visited in Philadelphia that she decided to run away, she said. The girl had rented a room in Charleston, and was preparing to leave when the police of that city located her.

Elliott Dent Joins Squad; Dunn, Eible, Reynolds Due; Practice Game Week Away

Elliott Dent the Cracker's big right-hander was Sunday's only arrival in the Cracker's training camp, bringing with him a record of 10 wins and 10 losses. He was wired that he will be ready to go to work in a week or two. The Potomac being frozen over, he was unable to even make a start for this year.

Good Weather Wanted.

That is necessary to whip the Cracker into the games listed above is a little warm, clear weather for the coming week. The Cracker's pitcher and another infielder will be slated to every day this week and a little assistance from the weather man will be appreciated.

Good Exhibitions.

The present list of games arranged for the Cracker's camp is an excellent practice and at the same time what the appetites of the fans, who are here for the Cracker's, will probably be played with the squad divided into two teams. This will give the Cracker's an opportunity to test all his players in action.

Many Arrivals Today.

Some of the players probably are already here, but in an undisciplined manner last night of daybreak train this morning.

Two Suspensions.

The two suspensions reported as being suspended by Manager Smith for failure to report this morning are one that Manager Smith should have left last Saturday night. This should bring him in here this morning.

Atlanta Motorcyclists' Second Endurance Run

DESCRIBES WORK FOR CHILD LABOR

Miss Grace Waldemar Makes Interesting Address on Important Subject at Wesley Memorial Church.

Before an interested, if not large, audience of Atlantans, Miss Grace Waldemar, of New York city, nationally known advocate of uniform child labor laws, told her work Sunday afternoon at the Wesley Memorial church.

Miss Waldemar stopped off in Atlanta on Sunday at the earnest solicitation of the members of the Atlanta Suffrage association. The noted lecturer was on her way from her northern home to Florida, where she will appear on the chautauqua platform, when she was intercepted by telegrams and stopped off here to speak to Atlantans upon her favorite theme.

TRADE EXPANSION SOUGHT BY WILSON

The settlement of the tolls question on the basis of equal payment by all nations will find favor at Boston, where an exemption in favor of American coastwise shipping was regarded as a serious blow to prospective Japanese trade with South Atlantic cotton states of America. Japan withheld any proposal on the tolls question, it is known, just as did European nations, because of the feeling that Great Britain had superior and prior rights of protest.

ors or the parents of children employed in the mills. "Much necessary legislation on this subject can be put through the moment women are given the vote," declared Miss Waldemar, "and the sooner this fact is recognized the better it will be for this entire nation."

Other Speakers. Rev. Fred A. Line was introduced as master of ceremonies for the afternoon by Mrs. Amelia Woodall, president of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage association. Rev. J. Wade Conding delivered the invocation, and the audience sang "America." Dr. Line delivered an eloquent address before introducing the first speaker.

Just now France has a grievance against the American government which recently was the subject of a strong protest by Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador here. The French government objects to inequitable features of sections of the tariff law in connection with the valuation of goods. To this and many other European affairs the state department is now giving its attention.

Germany Has Vital Interest. Germany, too, has a vital interest in the settlement of the tolls question. In fact, while there have been no formal communications on the subject, American ambassadors and ministers abroad have not been slow to collect the opinion expressed by high officials everywhere of their belief that the United States was "sailing close to the wind" as the president recently put it, in interpreting the promises of its treaties.

negotiations for a treaty with Nicaragua, in which rights for another interoceanic canal are involved. Prospects for a settlement of the dispute with Colombia through the payment of an indemnity are considered bright. The Nicaraguan negotiations are proceeding slowly. Continued occupation with the Mexican question has kept administration officials from giving much time to these controversies, but there are hopes that by the time the canal is opened they will have been disposed of.

In the cultivation of better relations with the countries of Central and South America, Secretary Bryan's proposed trip to the Argentine Republic and visit to other countries on which is expected by the administration to supplement efforts in this direction begun by previous administrations and carried on by the Pan-American union.

AID FOR TRUCK GROWERS IN MARKETING PRODUCE

Washington, March 8.—In an effort to aid fruit and vegetable growers and shippers to put their perishable shipments on the market in first-class saleable condition, the Southern railway and Georgia Southern and Florida railway have issued an illustrated circular on "Rules Governing the Proper Marking and Loading of Perishable Freight."

Decline in Bank Clearings. Bank clearings still show declines from a year ago, the gross income of clearing companies reporting for three weeks of February decreasing 4.5 per cent from the same period of last year. The decline in the volume of banks this week showed a loss of 7 per cent. Improvement occurred in business generally, as indicated by the fact that the clearing companies drew another $2,000,000 in gold from New York without affecting local money rates. New business in the road and industrial corporations in February was on a more extensive scale than for some time past, although the figures did not equal the total last year, when the output was unusually heavy.

Week's Trade Irregular Say Financial Reports Trade Seriously Handicapped by Great Storm in the East, Says Dun. East, Says Dun. Says Bradstreet.

Dun's report says: "Further interruption to business was caused this week by the greatest snow-storm since the section of the country has experienced in a quarter of a century. Trade in general was seriously handicapped for the week, and transportation and warehousing facilities temporarily paralyzed, while the extent of the snow-storm was such that the distribution of foodstuffs and other necessities was seriously retarded. Recovery from the effects of the blizzard was completed by the first of the week, and reports from the leading commercial and industrial centers, however, continue to indicate a tendency toward dullness in certain directions contrasting with a tendency toward dullness in others."

While stormy weather greatly helped eastern retail trade in rubber goods, footwear, heavy apparel, snow shovels and other necessities, it retarded early spring buying, though it is probable that the net results of the week have been about equal to the previous week. Retail dealers' stocks of winter goods. Labor is in better call, industrial operations are active, and the general indoor occupations idleness is of negligible proportions.

Trade in Coal Good. Trade in coal holds the improvement recently in other commodities. Temperatures over a wide area, and prices for bituminous grades are buoyed by apparent concern over labor troubles. The mine workers want higher wages, whereas some of the operators seem to think lower instead of higher compensation should be enforced. Still, the plain fact is that labor has not been wont to strike, and the depression following 1907 has not the same concern over labor troubles. Demand for lumber has not improved to any great extent, but in the Pacific northwest settlement is optimistic and mills are making preparations in consequence therewith.

Bradstreet's report says: "Mixed aspects loom large in this week's trade reports. Stormy weather in the east tied up traffic and kept business away from the markets during the fore part of the week, and at the same time poor roads, as well as the falling away from the markets during the house trade, restricted the volume of rail orders generally. Moreover, while the market is active, the buying has not any of its optimism, actual buying is rather conservative, being well close to real needs, and general propensities are conspicuous by their absence. The holding buying is a factor in the other hand, sections outside of the storm-stricken zone report satisfactory business, although in parts of the south-west country buyers are not numerous, probably because the full effects of last season's crop shortages now are being felt."

Spring Buying Hampered. While stormy weather greatly helped eastern retail trade in rubber goods, footwear, heavy apparel, snow shovels and other necessities, it retarded early spring buying, though it is probable that the net results of the week have been about equal to the previous week. Retail dealers' stocks of winter goods. Labor is in better call, industrial operations are active, and the general indoor occupations idleness is of negligible proportions.

Overwhelming Verdict

A few months ago, a man in no way connected with the making of Postum or the marketing of coffee, wrote to quite a number of physicians all over the country asking their unbiased testimony in the case of Postum vs. Coffee.

The following excerpts from their letters constitute an overwhelming verdict in Favor of Postum

"I have discarded coffee altogether in my family, and instead use Postum which we find makes a rich, delicious drink, without any of the deleterious effects attendant on the continuous use of coffee."

"I have used Postum in my family for years with the most satisfactory result,—so much so that we have practically abolished coffee, and with it the coffee headaches, nervousness, and lying awake the best part of the night."

"I have used Postum for the past eight years in place of coffee. Before that I was troubled with frequent bilious headaches due to excessive use of coffee, and was then advised to use Postum. Since that time I have not had a single attack, which effect I attribute entirely to Postum. I frequently recommend it to others who experience equally gratifying results."

In the light of such testimony it would seem the part of wisdom to stop coffee and use Postum. Postum is a genuine food-drink, made of whole wheat and a small percent of molasses. Contains the nutritious values of the grain, but is pure and absolutely free from the coffee drug, caffeine, or any other harmful substance.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM —sold by grocers everywhere

Planting Corn. The characteristic and most important operation during this month, in the greater part of the south, is the planting of the main corn crop, and what may be said now will apply to the same force to sections farther north where this work does not commence until April.

When to Plant. I have never believed in planting corn or any other crop in a hurried way to the phases of the moon, nor even by the show of dogwood blossoms, or the fact that the water is soft. The only thing that should be considered is the soil and the weather.

How to Plant. It has grown to be a very common practice to bed up the land in rows about 3 feet apart, and plant in a "water furrow." If by this means a mean that the middle furrow that holds out the seeds is to be planted, it is about the best plan for the fertilizer to be covered in by the furrow, when planting in the second bed, I see no objection to it, and it has the advantage of being a method that much more prepared.

Fertilizers for Corn. In my judgment—and it is based largely on actual experience—there are two ways to apply more than 200 or 300 pounds of commercial fertilizers per acre. The first is to apply 100 per cent of a very "seasonable" year—meaning a regularly distributed abundance of rain—before planting, and the other is to apply 50 per cent before planting and 50 per cent after planting.

FIRST WARD RACE CENTERS INTEREST

Mayor Woodward Silent on Successor to Alderman Harwell, and Citizens League Is Taking No Part.

With Mayor James G. Woodward silent, and the announcement of the Citizens League that it will not attempt to influence council in the election of a successor in the first ward to Alderman John H. Harwell, candidates are seeking the race as busy today...

Members of the first ward delegation—Councilmen Wardlaw and Alver—are certain. It is understood that to name J. R. Seawright for the place, Seawright would not be the choice of Mayor Woodward...

Seawright Confident. While there are many things which can happen before the next meeting of council to change the complexion of the contest, indications now point to the election of Seawright...
