Burns Detective Will Take Case to Higher Courts to Test the Constitutionality of the City Ordinance.

CONTEMPT CASES ARE DISMISSED BY HILL

Motion to Upset the Frank Verdict Will, in All Probability, Be Again Postponed When Case Comes Up.

Dan S. Lehon, southern manager of the Burns International Detective agency, was fined $100 and costs by Judge Nash Broyles Tuesday afternoon for violating sections 2025, 2026 and 2027 of the city code...

In addition to the nominal fine, which was imposed after a speech on the part of counsel for the defendant, Judge Arthur G. Powell, requesting the court to impose a small fine...

At the opening of the trial counsel for the defense entered a four-page typewritten special plea of not guilty in which the constitutionality of the city ordinances above named were attacked...

The special plea set forth that the ordinances were unreasonable in demanding that private detectives should cooperate with the city police...

At the close of the trial Judge Powell granted the intention of the Burns agency to take the case to the next court to decide the constitutionality of the city ordinances...

At the close of the trial a court session was created when Police Chief Beavers refused to allow Dan Lehon to give certiorari bonds...

When Lehon was introduced as a witness by the city, he testified that he was not a detective, and had not done detective work on the Lehon case...

Several charges of a sensational nature were made by her against the action of Jake Jacobs, manager of a pawn brokers' shop and Dan Lehon...

Proceedings against Dan S. Lehon and Detective William J. Burns in the contempt of court action instituted against them, were dismissed by Judge Ben Hill Tuesday morning...

Burns was represented by Judge Arthur Powell. Burns was not in the city, however, Judge Powell appeared in court with Lehon, prepared to fight the case...

The John L. Tye motion to upset the Frank verdict will, in all probability, again be postponed when it comes up.

SOME VITAL POINTS HAVE BEEN REACHED IN MEXICAN PROBLEM

Mediators and the Huerta and American Delegates Report Substantial Agreement in Many Particulars.

PLAN FOR RETIREMENT OF DICTATOR HUERTA

Reported That Huerta Has Consented to the Program. There Will Be No Split Over the Land Problem.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, May 26.—Substantial agreement in many of the main points involved in the mediation conference has been reached by the American and Mexican delegates.

The discussion today covered actual terms and details of many of the things deemed necessary to the pacification of Mexico. The mediators and the opposing delegates were decidedly optimistic.

The turn in the proceedings from a point where it seemed as if the land problem might cause serious embarrassment to an understanding as to the treatment of some of the delicate issues involved, came after a conference between the mediators and the American delegates.

From the mediators themselves it was learned that some of the vital points had been reached today. These were understood to include the manner in which the present regime in Mexico City would give way to a new provisional government.

That General Huerta had given consent to the program thus far outlined here was one of the reports from reliable sources, upon which some of the optimism displayed was believed to be based.

The Mexican delegates, as well as the Americans are anxious that the transition in Mexico City shall be smooth. So they are approaching the question of personnel for the new government with extraordinary care.

There is serious discussion as to whether the names of persons suitable for the provisional presidency should be made public until all is ready for the change in executives.

Desiring to avoid the appearance of having had their provisional president chosen at the international conference, the Mexican delegates have evolved the plan of suggesting to the mediators a list of names from which might be selected a number on whom the United States would look with favor with it from it were chosen an ad interim executive.

The actual choice of an individual from the list of eligibles would be sanctioned if it is suggested by the Mexican congress.

There is reason to believe, however, that before any list is approved by the American government some tacit endorsement from the constitutionalists must come. It is assumed here that the Washington government will be willing to assume the responsibility of trying to bring the constitutionalists into harmony with a provisional government thus created.

MARSHALL GIVEN REGULAR OVATION ON ARRIVAL HERE

Vice President Charms the Hundreds Who Meet Him at Various Functions Given in His Honor During Day.

GIVEN LOVING CUP BY ORDER OF MOOSE

At Piedmont Driving Club His Speech Was a Most Happy One and Reflected the Keenest of Humor.

Vice President Marshall said the last word on exactly what Atlanta thinks of him when he said to the members of the Local Order of Moose which presented him with a silver loving cup at the Piedmont hotel yesterday afternoon...

For that Atlanta liked him greatly. The vice president being vice president and a political Atlanta naturally expects him to say "fellow citizens" upon various and sundry occasions during his several speeches...

More of that later. The twinkle did not leave his eyes at any time. When the vice president espied the line of photographers, he lowered his head and gave them the once over from his glasses. Then he raised his hand and waved them through his glasses.

The photographers lined him up against the walls of the Terminal station and shot him from every angle. He was a captive in the hands of the Mexicans.

All day long he was lined up and done something to—handshakes to another and said, "I'll bet he's got a sense of humor that's worth paying attention to."

But the twinkle stayed in Mr. Marshall's keen gray eyes, and he seemed to enjoy the whole day.

From the Terminal station he and Mrs. Marshall were taken to the Piedmont hotel, where the vice president was met by a large delegation of Atlanta men and women in a number of other ladies, while he hastened to the basement and committed his face to the mercies of a highly-flattered barber.

When the first question was fired at him he raised his head, and recognizing the breed, blew the foam from his lips and mustache and proceeded forthwith to an answer.

The vice president declared that the government is not seeking war with Mexico, but intimated that if force of arms is necessary to its making, or if the United States has its hand, the government stands prepared to act in this policy, he declared.

The annual tolls repeal bill, he believes, will be passed by the senate but knowledge of when that august body will make up its mind, or become so exhausted that voting is necessary he acknowledges is beyond his ken.

He said that business is adjusting itself to the new tariff and currency legislation, and that what of trust legislation may be enacted will not be such as to unsettle financial and business conditions.

The vice president declined to discuss the criticism coming from Colonel Roosevelt, acknowledging with a grin and a drawl that he lays claim to the distinction of membership in the Anaconda club, being so honored by no other than the organizer of that illustrious body.

Long Sleeve Edict of Park Commission Kicks Up All Sorts of Lively Rumpus

GRAPE JUICE WINS IN THE ASSEMBLY

Southern Presbyterians Prefer It for Communion Service—Northern Presbyterians Ordered to Quit Clubs.

Kansas City, May 26.—The question of the use of fermented and unfermented wine in the communion service today provoked commissioners attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States (southern) into a lively discussion.

The discussion was precipitated when Rev. J. S. Lyons of Louisville, Ky., presented a committee on bills and overtures, read an overture from the First Presbyterian church of Savannah, Ga. asking if the session (the ruling board of the local church) was to adopt fermented wine or grape juice apparently were victorious.

A second question which the church asked the assembly to answer was: Is unfermented wine equally scriptural with fermented wine?

The committee recommended that the general assembly give the sessions the right to choose between fermented and unfermented wine for use in communion.

After a great deal of discussion the part of the committee report permitting the sessions to choose the wine used was adopted.

When the general assembly decided last night to submit the proposed basis of union between the Southern Presbyterian and the United Presbyterian churches in the United States to a referendum vote of the presbyteries, the final settlement of the question was postponed at least two years.

Big Time Expected At Today's Game

The Ad Men Will Be in Charge and Record-Breaking Crowd Is Expected.

The enthusiastic interest which is being shown in the On-to-Toronto baseball game this afternoon at Ponce de Leon park is causing the ad men of an attendance which will break some records.

Answering the invitation for every Atlanta booster to buy a ticket for the game to the game, the Atlanta folk who believe in Atlanta, and who believe in boosting Atlanta, have kept the ad men busy supplying them with tickets.

But the ad men want every booster not only to buy a ticket, but to come out to the ball park, and show themselves to another committee of ball players take the game away from Mobile.

And it's going to be a good game, too. If you don't believe it, come out and see for yourself. Tyre, who has just been purchased from the Chicago Cubs, is slated to catch the On-to-Toronto game, and Billy Smith is slated to pitch.

The money which will be raised by this game will go into the fund to advertise Atlanta before the Ad Men of America at the continental convention in Toronto in June. The value of this as an advertisement to Atlanta is realized by those who know that the Associated Advertising Clubs of America represent the brightest and most progressive thought of the business world.

It is expected that the convention will be attended by ten thousand people, representatives from every state in the union, and from England and Hawaii. Not only the matters of advertising interest will be discussed, but the funds to be raised by the ad men will bring Atlanta forcibly to the attention of each one of the representatives of the various states at the convention, and cannot help but be the means of advancement of Atlanta in their estimation, and the ultimate good of the city, and of the state.

HIGHTOWER WINS BY THE RECOUNT

Figures Compiled by Subcommittee Give Hightower 4,211 and Turner 4,191—Report Will Be Approved.

Official recount of all ballots cast in the recent county primary will return to J. Hightower, Jr. of Battle Hill neighborhood, winner over Charles G. Turner in the contest for commissioner from the county-at-large.

Figures compiled by the subcommittee of the county executive committee late Tuesday afternoon give Hightower 4,211 votes against 4,191 cast for Turner in every county and city precinct.

When the general committee meets—probably Saturday at noon—the subcommittee will report Hightower the successful candidate, with a majority of 20 votes.

In the count which was contested by Hightower on charges of irregularities, the election managers gave Turner 4,248 votes against Hightower's 4,211 or a majority of 7 votes in favor of Turner.

Indications are that the Fulton county democratic committee will approve the report of the subcommittee and will declare Hightower one of the primary choices for commissioner at a special election to succeed Charles G. Turner.

Dr. W. L. Gilbert, who leads over the other candidates was so great as to leave no lingering doubts in the minds of his opponents.

RIVER OF DOUBT 1,000 MILES LONG, SAYS ROOSEVELT

The Colonel Appears Before a Washington Audience as a Discoverer and Is Cheered to the Echo.

CHALLENGE TO WORLD ISSUED BY COLONEL

He Says Geographers and Cartographers of All Nations Are Wrong in Maps of Brazil.

Washington, May 27.—Proclaimed tonight before a great audience of scientists from many cities, the discoverer of the River of Doubt, a 1,000-mile-long river in northern Brazil, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt assured the National Geographic society that he had put the river on the map and challenged all the cartographers in the world to disprove his achievement.

All of Them Wrong. The colonel had appeared before a Washington audience on a previous occasion in an exploratory, but never as a discoverer and he was cheered to the echo as he declared the cartographers and geographers of all nations were wrong in their maps of the wilds of Brazil where he found and traced the Duvida river or as now more familiarly known the River of Doubt.

Scientists the colonel declared had attempted to disprove his discovery. Tracing one's backboard with the discoverer of the river of his finding he declared emphatically.

I say you put it on the map and I mean what I say. No map has ever yet shown this river. Scientists have said we might have traversed the river Tapajoz or the river Madeira but the fact is that some of our party went down one river and some went down the other while we went down a river in between them which no man had ever saw. I can direct you to rivers there to find this river and men stay put so that the discovery we have made may be verified.

Hardships of the Trip. The colonel described in detail the hardships of his trip into the Brazilian wilds, and particularly the hardships endured in navigating the rapids of the River of Doubt. In the upper part of the river he said the rapids were so severe that it required forty-two days for the party to traverse one degree from 11 45 south to 10 45 south. During the hazardous trip they nearly lost all their food and belongings.

"We were forced to eat monkeys to ease out our rations," declared the colonel. "Don't shudder, for I assure you that after this experience you might leave me in the monkey house without my making any mistake."

There were many Indians in the upper regions of the Duvida, the colonel said. They were seemingly very timid and in some cases hostile. He added: "I believe they were hostile only because they were timid but it is almost impossible to be so shy because he is afraid of you as if he killed you because he disliked you."

No Questions to His Face. At the close of his statement Colonel Roosevelt offered to answer questions anyone in the audience might ask. After a pause during which no questions were propounded he said: "No questions are asked me to my face."

The big auditorium of Washington's convention hall was crowded with members and guests of the society, many of them in life and of society. Colonel Roosevelt made his talk from a big temporary stage filled with maps of South America, a big screen and a blackboard on which was drawn a scale chart of a portion of the Amazon river with its tributaries Madeira and Tapajoz. The chart showed the lower course described by Colonel Roosevelt in dotted lines.

Long before the colonel reached the hall the crowd began to arrive filling the huge auditorium and the temperature well on its way to 80 degrees. When the colonel reached the platform...

Weather Prophecy PARTLY CLOUDY. Georgia—Partly cloudy Wednesday night, Thursday, probably local thunderstorms. Lowest Daily Weather Report. Highest temperature 84. Mean temperature 76. form a chorus of cheers greeted him. He was introduced by G. H. Grosvenor, president of the National Geographic society and applause broke out again as he reached from the stage to shake hands with Major General Leonard A. Wood and Chief Justice White of the supreme court.

He Apologized for "Dryness"

The colonel was attired in evening dress and seemed to feel the heat. He apologized for the dryness of his address.

Nothing of note can be done here unless you build on the work that has been done by your predecessors.

He said he had built on the work done by South American explorers particularly during the last eight years. He characterized his South American expedition as a zoogeographic reconnaissance and said that exhaustive investigating work could not be done properly by the first expedition to penetrate the wilderness.

The colonel said the work of early Spanish explorers who discovered the Amazon river made the exploration of our day seem like child's play. He added that these explorers also discovered the mouths of several tributaries of the Amazon.

Some of these rivers were not known but their mouths for centuries had been known to the Indians. He said the colonel even at that time knew of the mouth of the river. He was going to speak about, was all.

The colonel said he had not gone to South America to discover rivers but on a purely zoogeographical mission but that Dr. Muller, Brazilian minister of foreign affairs, had inspired him to seek out the now famous "river of doubt."

Dr. Muller told me Mr. Roosevelt declared that as a result of the work of the Brazilian telegraphic commission in western Brazil all the maps in existence of that part of the country would have to be changed.

Maps All Wrong, Says Colonel.

"Some of these maps," were drawn by fellows of the Royal Geographical society and they are all wrong," he said. "I showed you that the whole region would have to be remapped. He said the telegraphic commission had discovered the sources of two new rivers but they knew not where they went. One of these was the river of doubt and Dr. Muller asked me why I didn't investigate it. I told him by George that's what I would like to do."

Assuming that he made up his mind to undertake this task the colonel continued.

Everything we did was based on what the telegraphic commission of Brazil under Colonel Rondon had done the past seven years. All we did was to map the pyramid of which they laid broad and firm the foundations.

Colonel Roosevelt urged that the geographic society recognize in some way the work of Colonel Rondon and the telegraphic commission adding they have had not too much recognition at home in Brazil.

Colonel Roosevelt criticized the modern maps which he said were "all wrong."

It is almost impossible for me to show you what I did on these maps he said because they are so preposterously wrong.

He presented a letter he wrote to

Dr. Muller after he left the jungle, describing the trip.

We Put It on the Map.

After reviewing the statements made in his letter to Mr. Muller, Colonel Roosevelt turned to the blackboard and drew the river which he said he had "put on the map."

When I say we put it on the map, I am speaking with scientific precision, and I mean what I say. It has never been on any map—English, Spanish, French, Brazilian and American cartographers know nothing about this river at all, but it is on the map for good.

If you states that he has climbed up a snow-capped peak and that later there will be no signs of his bay and that he has seen a river stays put and that he has seen a man how to get to it. If an organization will send a man down to that river I will give him directions that will enable him to go up the river and map and sketch it thoroughly which we of course could not do in detail.

"River of Doubt" Described.

The letter to Dr. Muller in part follows:

We have put on the map a river about 1,000 kilometers in length running from just south of the 13th degree to north of the 8th degree and the biggest affluent of the Madeira.

Until now its upper course has been utterly unknown to everyone and its lower course although known for years to the rubber men utterly unknown to all cartographers. It runs between the 12th and 13th parallels latitude south and between longitudes 60 degrees and 65 degrees west from Greenwich. We embarked on about at latitude 12 degrees 18 minutes south and longitude 60 degrees 18 west. After that its entire course was between the 50th and 61st degrees of longitude and the 8th and 12th degrees of latitude. It is about 15 miles long.

The first rapids were at Navante in 11 degrees 44 minutes and after they were continuous and very difficult and dangerous. The rapids named after the murdered Sergeant Fishman in 11 degrees 23 minutes. At 11 degrees 23 minutes the Marcellano Avila entered it from the north and 18 minutes later the Taunay entered from the left. At 10 degrees 58 minutes the Cardozo entered from the right. At 10 degrees 24 minutes we encountered the first rubber men. The Rio Branco entered from the left at 9 degrees 28 minutes.

We camped at 8 degrees 49 minutes or approximately the boundary line between the Mato Grosso and Amazonas. The confluence with the Arripua which entered from the left was in 8 degrees 34 minutes. The mouth where it entered the Madeira was in five degrees 26 minutes and the stream we have followed down in that which rises farthest away from the mouth and its general course is almost due north.

DIXIE-RAISED MEAT GIVEN BIG EXHIBIT

First Animal Industry Convention Held at Quitman Under Auspices of Georgia Chamber of Commerce.

Quitman, Ga., May 26.—(Special)—With 1121 automobiles and floats in a parade more than three miles long which took two hours to pass the reviewing stand and with 3,000 people on foot, the annual animal industry convention of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce today at Quitman held its first Georgia animal industry convention.

Thirty eight prominent railroad officials from all parts of the country were present in the private cars. Fifty seven newspaper men from all parts of Georgia and Florida and sixty nine prominent government and state officials were all on hand to lend their silent testimony to the impressive occasion. Those who have taken hold of the campaign in a business like spirit are to be congratulated. Little opposition has developed.

Eight thousand people fed to meet a single occasion occurred to not a single ground was broken and everything went forward with the utmost ease.

Eight thousand people were fed on the grounds. The menu was a splendid one. There were chickens, chickens and various vegetables.

The little town of Barwick in the northern part of Brooks county, was the headquarters for several hours in the parade and had a float that was the marvel of the crowd containing live cured and cooked products of Brooks county. The top of the float was a large goat and over him was a banner saying "Come on bus! Barwick's got your goat."

Many Special Trains.

Delegates in automobiles came from as high as 100 miles and as far west as Waycross and special trains came from every part of the state. There were special trains for several hours of meat containing more than one hundred thousand pounds of various kinds of meat to the impressiveness of the parade.

Get Busy and Win an Auto

Now for There Will Be No Larger Extra Vote Offers

Three hundred thousand votes for every $25 worth of new year subscriptions until midnight May 30. This is the most important period of the contest. The opportunities offered wide awake energetic people by the Constitution through this contest are remarkable. A more generous distribution of gifts could scarcely be devised and yet the smallest number of really energetic candidates are desirous of this contest. Never before in fact has the Constitution made such magnificent offers. Thirteen high grade automobiles, piano players and cash awards.

The large number of readers within the city's limits alone make the gathering of votes very easy for those whose search is systematic. As yet very few have evidenced a desire to acquire a share of the costly awards. Those who have taken hold of the campaign in a business like spirit are to be congratulated. Little opposition has developed.

so far and the course seems perfectly clear.

Those who have not taken advantage of the opportunities offered them are urged to do so quickly. The campaign is now beginning in earnest but it is not as yet under full headway. It is time to begin right now. The length of the contest is short and a few days lost might mean a little more action to make up.

You can secure high value in return for the efforts you make in this contest. There is no reward which should not enter and obtain the most costly motor car in the list of thirteen. It is certainly worth strong effort to obtain.

At midnight May 30 the offer of three hundred thousand extra votes for clubs of $25 in new year subscriptions will close. Those who would enter the campaign and have not done so should use this offer especially in your name at once and take advantage of this offer. Those who use the mail to reach this office are entitled to recognition if the postmark on the letter shows it was mailed not later than midnight, May 30.

ZAPATA SENDS AGENT TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Washington, May 26.—An agent of General Emiliano Zapata is here and has laid before President Wilson the state department information that Zapata is merely a holder of free booters. The agent stated that in his settlement of the Mexican problem full consideration be given to the Zapata cause as a leading element in the Mexican revolution.

The Zapata cause is the most important movement in the most thickly settled portion of Mexico containing 75 per cent of all the population. Zapata has an army of about 20,000 men and controls the states of Morelos and Guerrero and parts of Puebla, Guanajuato and Mexico and the federal district.

The agent said that Carranza and Zapata, while not united have the same purposes and were working in concert.

Delegation From Moutrie

Moutrie, Ga., May 26.—(Special)—Over 100 members of the leading citizens of Moutrie county are here to attend the live stock convention being held here for several hours. The delegates are decorated with advertising matter conspicuous among which were banners for the Facking House (City of Georgia) 150,000 by 1920. In addition to those banners were several automobiles. The Moutrie delegation is composed of two public trucks and the procession formed in the edge of the corporate limits of Moutrie and entered the city in a body making a parade over a mile in length. It was the most impressive of the Moutrie delegation ever represented any city.

SOME VITAL POINTS HAVE BEEN REACHED

al (U. S. American view that some expression is desirable to point the way for its eventual settlement by Mexico. The delegates stated that the terms of the last two days indicate that a declaration of principles on land reform is the subject of some agreement. The delegates have no objection to this while they do not admit the land problem has been the chief cause of their revolutions. They said no political party in Mexico has picked themselves to land reform. It would create no surprise here if one of the results of mediation should be recognition of the Moutrie principle of the legality of some of the important financial transactions of the present Mexican congress which were made the subject of formal resolutions by the delegates. The delegates have no objection to the powers of U. S. continued hostility by the Wilson administration against these acts. The delegates have no objection to the financial relations of their country.

Some of the delegates and delegates predicted that the cabinet would be adjusted before the constitutionalist army possibly can reach Mexico City.

The mediators and all delegates will go to Toronto tomorrow to attend the garden party given by Sir John Gibson last night. Government in honor of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia but mediation will not be interrupted long as there will be informal conferences of the train.

PRELIMINARY BASIS HAS BEEN REACHED

Washington, May 26.—Cabinet members were optimistic today after an exhaustive review of all communications that had passed between President Wilson and the American commissioners to the Niagara Falls Mexican mediation conference.

It was declared that negotiations had progressed so far that a preliminary basis for peaceful solution of international difficulties had been reached. This it was said soon would take the form of a protocol, which probably would be signed by agents of General Huerta's government and the United States. No disclosure of the details of the terms of such a protocol.

When the cabinet met the president laid before the delegates the preliminary basis for day in the exchanges between the American commissioners and the mediators. Among the messages received from the seat of the peace conference was one confirming of press dispatches that one of Huerta's own envoys had declared that the agrarian question would not be permitted to disrupt the international efforts to avert war between the United States and Mexico and to insure the ultimate restoration of a constitution.

No Cloud on Peace Outlook

While none of the cabinet members would talk of details disclosed concerning the mediation effort, it conveyed the impression that nothing had occurred to cloud the horizon of peace. Secretary Daniels' too was the personification of hopefulness. The secretary said that a message was received on evidence of apprehension.

Failure thus far of the Mexican constitution to indicate a willingness to participate formally in the conference again was a subject of discussion in official circles. The Carranza agents in Washington were expected to hear from their chief delegates in the next few days. A message had come from these agents regarding it as probable that some representative would be sent to Niagara Falls.

The purpose of the constitutionalist predicted that the cabinet would in any way check the march of their secretaries. When the cabinet met the government at Mexico City will be in the hands of the Carranza government. When the government at Mexico City will be in the hands of the Carranza government. When the government at Mexico City will be in the hands of the Carranza government.

SILLIMAN IS SILENT ABOUT HIS TREATMENT

Vera Cruz, May 26.—John R. Silliman, the American vice consul at Saltillo, whose arrest there by federal forces is the subject of many reports, brought vigorous protests from the state department at Washington. Silliman was today from Mexico City bearing passports issued by the Brazilian minister. The vice consul made the journey from the capital without an escort and was not molested.

Silliman declined to tell of his arrest or of the treatment he had received at the hands of the federal forces. He indicated however that the tales of facing a firing squad and of other indignities he was reported to have suffered were much overdrawn.

Mr. Silliman said he felt it was his duty to report fully to the department a detailed account of his arrest and his release. He said he was active in the British vice consul at Saltillo. The vice consul personally conducted the American officials to Mexico City after his release, taking him to the British legation at the capital.

The trip to Mexico City from Saltillo was interrupted several times by skirmishes between small detachments of constitutionalists and federal forces at points along the route. The train on which the consul traveled was preceded by a troop train which was fired upon repeatedly and which was delayed by torn up sections of the track.

Mr. Silliman left Saltillo on May 14 and reached the capital three days later. While he would not go into details as to his experiences there it is understood that his protracted stay was due to a slight illness.

Mr. Silliman still is in Saltillo under the protection of the British consulate. His husband apparently feels no anxiety regarding his safety.

FOR ONLY ONE DAY MORE

The sale of the new 11th Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica at the present low prices ends

TOMORROW

Today you may secure the 29 volumes, and with them a bookcase, if you desire it, for a first payment of only $5.00, the purchase to be completed in 12, 8 or 4 months, if you do not wish to pay cash in full. Or, you may pay as little as $5.00 per month.

After tomorrow the same book will cost $29.00 more (cloth); $36.50 more (Full Sheepskin); $45.00 more (Full Limp Suede); and $50.00 more (Full Morocco).

This change of price is a matter of great importance to everyone who has not subscribed for the Encyclopaedia Britannica. This new summary and digest of all human knowledge, based upon the latest research, was all written and published as one complete book, and it was then offered to prompt subscribers at "temporary" prices, very much less than ordinary prices as books are sold in the trade.

Tomorrow that offer comes to an end. $1,500,000 had been spent merely to make the book, and a great deal more than that had been spent to put it on the market. At one time more than $4,000,000 was locked up in the enterprise. The only way to get this back was by a rapid sale of a large number of sets and at very low prices.

It was a better Encyclopaedia Britannica than ever before, for the reason that all the volumes were written and edited simultaneously, and all were equally up-to-date. This method of issuing the work was revolutionary in publishing.

Several men sat down together in London—and discussed ways and means of making a completely new edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica—the great standard work of reference of the whole world.

At this meeting in London, an idea was advanced and afterwards adopted, which was literally Napoleonic in its boldness.

"We will go to work," said one of the men, "and make the whole Encyclopaedia Britannica, the whole story of human knowledge down to date, as one complete work, before we put a line of it into type, or print a copy for sale. This is the way the book ought to be made, but has never been made."

More than 65,000 persons have had the benefit of this revolutionary idea and of the low prices due to manufacturing the complete work in enormous lots—10,000 sets (290,000 volumes at one time). You can have the benefit of it only by acting in the matter at once.

TODAY'S PRICES and FRIDAY'S PRICES

Compare Them

TODAY	After TOMORROW
CLOTH $137.75 cash	Higher prices as follows:
Full Sheepskin $166.75 cash	$29.00 more or $166.75 cash
All Leather
Full Limp Suede $210.25 cash	$36.50 more or $203.25 cash
All Leather	$45.00 more or $255.25 cash
Full Morocco. $217.50 cash	$50.00 more or $267.50 cash
All Leather

Subscribers may pay, if they prefer, in 12, 8 or 4 months at a little more than these cash prices, or they may pay at the rate of only $5.00 a month.

The sale of the 11th Edition since the editors and their staff of 1,500 contributors completed the task of making it, has reached the total of more than $13,000,000; but if the volumes had been brought out one at a time and sold at the regular price charged for previous new editions, bookbuyers collectively would have had to pay for exactly the same books more than $20,000,000.

How much will be saved in the course of today and tomorrow?

After tomorrow the price will be from $29 to $50 more, and the book will be manufactured in much smaller lots, and therefore at a higher manufacturing cost. You will save this $29 or $50 as the case may be, if you buy the work in the course of today or tomorrow, instead of later on.

Will you be one of those who buy the great book cheaply by buying it promptly? That is for you to decide. Perhaps you already know what the Encyclopaedia Britannica is, perhaps you have seen copies in the houses of your friends. If that is the case, all that you have to do is to sign the order form that is printed on this page.

The success of the low price offer has exceeded the expectations which were based upon the reception given to the new 11th Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica when it appeared.

Thousands of people who inquired about the book during the past two years, but arrived at no decision about the matter, are sending in their subscriptions this week.

Our office is overwhelmed by the orders which each mail brings. Receipts are being sent out as rapidly as possible, but if you send your subscription this morning and fail to receive an acknowledgment by return mail you will find that there will not in any case be a delay of more than one or two days, and no check or money order is collected until a receipt for it has been sent.

RITCHIE IS BEATEN BY CHARLIE WHITE

Ritchie Was Decisively Defeated—Bout Vicious and Bloody—Ritchie a Sorry-Looking Champ at Close.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 26.—Charlie White, of Chicago, decisively defeated Willie Ritchie, of California, in a ten-round bout here tonight. White out-fought the westerner in almost all the rounds.

The bout was vicious and bloody at all times, with Ritchie bleeding profusely from the face and nose. His eyes were nearly closed at the end of the fight, and he was a sorry-looking champion long before the bout ended. White bled some, too, but was far the fresher at the end.

White took the lead in the first round, and had the Californian hanging on and groggy most of the round. The Chicagoan slowed up, however, and Ritchie came back and took the lead in the second and third rounds.

The remainder of the battle was White's except the seventh and tenth periods, which were even.

The battle was one of the hardest ever seen here. Ritchie realized he was against a hard boy early in the fight, and did most of the boring in, but always was met with hard left jabs to the jaw.

White fought by the cleaner battle. His judgment of distance was right, and his lefts to the face and right to the body were too much for the champion.

Ritchie used a left swing repeatedly, but frequently missed, and was forced to clinch. Twice Referee Harry Stout wrenched the defeated man's hands from the ropes while in clinches.

FIRST HONORS WON BY MRS. TOM PAINE

Atlanta Woman Victor in Golf
Tourney—Mrs. Sam Phillips, of Memphis, Second.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 26.—In the Women's Southern Golf Tournament here today Mrs. Tom Paine, of Atlanta, won first honors in the Atlanta, won first honors in the Atlanta, and putting contest with a score of 7, and second honors were captured by Mrs. Sam Phillips, of Memphis, with a score of 8. Mrs. H. L. Taylor, also of Memphis, and Mrs. Phillips were tied for second place, but the latter won in the play-off.

The driving honors for early flight players were won by Mrs. K. G. Duffield, of Memphis. Miss Serena Kirkpatrick, of Birmingham, won the honors in the second flight. Handicaps were awarded the winners in these contests:

Mrs. F. G. Jones, of Memphis, runner-up in 1913, defeated Mrs. W. O. Came, of Bristol, 2 up, 20 holes.

Miss Lillian, of Birmingham, defeated Miss Loveman, of Chattanooga, 4 up and 2 to go.

Mrs. M. C. Montgomery, of Memphis, 1 up.

Miss Kaiser, of St. Louis, defeated Mrs. D. C. Gault, of Memphis, 1 up and 19 holes.

Mrs. H. Woodward, of Knoxville, defeated Mrs. Sam Phillips, of Memphis, 1 up.

Mrs. T. B. Paine, of Atlanta, defeated Mrs. D. C. Chapman, of Knoxville, 4 up and 2 to go.

Mrs. K. G. Duffield, of Memphis, defeated Mrs. A. B. Howell, of Nashville, 4 up and 2 to go.

Mrs. Thompson Frazer, of Asheville, defeated Mrs. Henry Howze, of Birmingham, 4 up and 3 to play.

The second round of the tournament will be played Wednesday morning beginning at 9 o'clock. Players participating in the first flight will be as follows:

Mrs. F. G. Jones and Miss Bland Tomlinson.

Mrs. Meehan and Miss Kaiser.

Mrs. Hu Woodward and Mrs. T. B. Paine.

Mrs. K. G. Duffield and Mrs. Thompson Frazer.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. Henry Howze, Birmingham, president; Mrs. Frank Meud, Knoxville, vice president; Mrs. K. G. Duffield, Memphis, secretary-treasurer.

TERRIFIC SPEED MADE BY MAXWELL RACERS

Indianapolis, Ind., May 26.—(Special.) Maxwell cars proved the sensation and surprise of the speedway trials today. Teddy Tetzlaff rolled out with his Maxwell No. 8 and lowered all previous records and established a new record of 1:33.40 for the 2 1/2 miles. A few minutes later Carson, with his Maxwell No. 35, did his qualifying lap in 1:36.80.

By establishing these records the Maxwell racing cars have established a mark even in excess of the hopes of the designers. Walter Planders was communicated with by long-distance phone, and was highly pleased at the result obtained in making a lap in 1:33.40. Tetzlaff made a complete lap at the rate of 90 miles per hour and attained a speed of 115 miles per hour on the straightaways.

CARL RAMSPECK ONLY ATLANTIAN STILL IN

Local Tennis Stars Not Faring Very Well at New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 26.—By eliminating Henry Bruns, of New Orleans, in straight sets in today's play of the southern championship tennis tournament, being held here under the auspices of the New Orleans Tennis club, Irving Wright, of Boston, smothered his prospects for the singles title.

Bruns, though a youngster, is rated one of the local players but could do nothing with the speedy and shaggy stroke of the Bostonian. The first set was a close one, but Wright won a better game in the second set, but Wright's speedy shots, which were well placed, brought him the set and the match by the score of 7 to 5.

Douglas Watters is rated the most formidable remaining player for Wright to meet.

E. S. Mansfield was eliminated today by Bland Logan, of New Orleans, beating him in the singles tourney. Former champion Carleton Smith and John Orr were eliminated in the first round.

Playing in men's doubles continues and tomorrow the playing of ladies' singles will begin. Owing to the large number of contestants playing begins early each morning and continues until dark drives the players from the courts.

Second Round.

C. Ramspeck, Atlanta, defeated E. Reddel, New Orleans, 6-2, 7-5.

W. C. Alexander, Memphis, defeated H. McCall, New Orleans, 6-0, 8-0.

B. Logan, New Orleans, defeated R. B. Mayfield, New Orleans, 6-1.

Eaton Mangfield, Atlanta, defeated R. C. Kelly, New Orleans, 6-1.

C. B. McGinnis, New Orleans, defeated J. P. Hudson, New Orleans, 6-0, 6-1.

C. Williams, New Orleans, defeated A. L. Leverick, New Orleans, 6-4, 6-7, 6-4.

H. Sanders, Memphis, defeated E. Hall, Dallas, 6-2, 6-1.

J. Wright, Boston, defeated Henry Bruns, New Orleans, 6-2, 7-5.

C. H. Watters, New Orleans, won by default from L. E. Clarke, New Orleans.

WOMEN VANDALS GIVEN LONG TERMS IN PRISON

One Frail Suffragette So Weak From Hunger Strike She Had to Be Carried.

London, May 26.—An almost uncanny stillness, in marked contrast to recent police court scenes in which militant suffragettes had been paraded today at the London sessions during the trial and conviction of the women vandals of the National Gallery and Royal Academy. Several window panes which were smashed in recent suffragette raids in the west end, were sentenced at the same time.

Six months' imprisonment was ordered for each of the picture destroyers while the window smashers in cases were condemned to terms of four months. Several of the women refused to give their names and were identified by numbers.

One girl, convicted as a window breaker, was so weak from the effects of a hunger strike that she had to be carried into court by women wardens. She collapsed in a huddled heap, her body quivering and her hands clenching convulsively at the sleeves of bystanders. Eventually it was necessary to give her a restorative.

Elizabeth Graham, the cardsharp who slashed several valuable paintings in the National gallery on May 22, told the jury, however, that she had attacked the picture gallery as a protest against King George's illegal and unconstitutional action in refusing to receive a legal deputation of women suffragettes. "What are five pictures compared with 80,000 pictures by the greatest artist of all, which have been fully damaged and degraded by men's hands?"

Mary Spencer, who damaged a picture at the Royal Academy on May 22, also told the jury that she had only left for women to express their views on the damage to property, as they regarded human life too much to destroy.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken at the Empress race course to prevent a repetition of last year's tragic interference with the running of the derby, which Emily Wilding Lytton met her death by jumping in the course. A force of 2,000 police will be on duty during the racing, and while extra barriers have been put around the course.

The arrangements to prevent King George and Queen Mary being subjected to annoyance by suffragettes have been made as perfect as possible. Five suffragettes, who were arrested by the police during a raid on a West London factory, were taken to court before a magistrate today. After seeing the exhibits he took such a serious view of the case that he refused all offers of bail.

The exhibits seized in the raid included a new shrapnel grenade of industrial manufacture, coils of fuse and plans of houses with instructions as to reaching them and as to the usual movements of the police in the vicinity.

W. J. Harris Is Preparing Reply to Judge Nat Harris

Comprehensive Statement Will Probably Be Ready for Publication on Next Sunday.

Macon, Ga., May 26.—(Special.)—W. J. Harris, candidate for governor, who is in Macon attending the grand lodge session of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Georgia, today declined to state whether or not he would accept the challenge of Judge Nat E. Harris, of Macon, made at Bainbridge Monday for a joint debate on the issues of the campaign.

"You can say for me," said Mr. Harris, "that I am preparing a comprehensive statement in answer to the points raised by Judge Harris in his Bainbridge address and I will probably have it ready for the Sunday papers. Other than that I have nothing to say. I am here attending the meeting of the Odd Fellows and will endeavor to forget politics for the time being."

Mr. Harris did not have the appearance of a man who was casting politics aside in order to mingle with his fraternal brothers. This afternoon he stood in the lobby of the Tanier hotel and for a time he appeared to be a public reception. Several of his supporters were out rounding up friends and acquaintances and bringing them to the hotel to meet the census director. It was noticed that the conversation was all about politics and it was seldom that the words "Odd Fellows" were mentioned.

With Mr. Harris in the Dempsey lobby this afternoon was Clifford Walker, of Monroe, candidate for attorney general. Like Mr. Harris he also held a handshaking reception.

HE KILLED SWEETHEART AND COMMITTED SUICIDE

Barr Says Girl Was Accidentally Killed While He Was Trying to Kiss Her.

Lisle, Ill., May 26.—Reginald A. Barr, leaving a note declaring that his slaying of his sweetheart, Florence Bentley, at Downers Grove, three miles from here, last Saturday night was accidental, jumped beneath a moving train here early today and was killed.

It was his fourth attempt at suicide. In the note he said that he took a drug twice in an effort to die beside the body of his sweetheart, but both times failed.

In an agony of remorse and fear he sat beside her for some time seeking to find a spark of life. Finally he gave up hope and went to Aurora, where he purchased poison. He returned and lying beside the girl's body, swallowed it.

After a while he awoke. Again he made the trip to Aurora, says the note, and again returned with poison. This attempt also was a failure. The jump into the quarry at Naperville between here and Aurora, followed.

FOUR WITNESSES HEARD IN NAVAL STORES CASE

Judge Overrules Objection to Jurors From Box Prepared by Speer.

Savannah, Ga., May 26.—Selection of a jury was completed and four witnesses testified today in the trial of E. S. Nash, S. P. Shetter, J. F. G. Meyers and Carl Moller, officers of the suspended American Naval Stores company, charged with violation of federal laws in seeking to monopolize the naval stores trade.

Counsel for the defense objected to the panel of jurors on the claim that the jury box had been illegally prepared by United States Judge Emory Speer on April 30, 1910, when the names were placed in it. Federal Judge W. I. Grubb, presiding at the trial, overruled the objection.

Testimony given today related to contracts existing between the American Naval Stores company and other naval stores concerns.
