

THREE BURNS AIDS FINED AND BOUND OVER BY RECORDER

Detectives Are Charged With Operating in Atlanta Without Permission of the Police Board and Chief.

CITY'S LAW IS ATTACKED BY PRISONER'S ATTORNEY

Judge Powell Declares Ordinance Is Unconstitutional—Cases Against McWorth and Sears Are Dismissed.

W. W. ("Boots") Rogers, an operator of the local Burns Detective Agency, who has been assisting Dan S. Lebon, southern manager of the Burns International Detective Agency, in investigating the alleged illegal and "frame-up" methods said to have been pursued by the Atlanta police in securing evidence against Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, was fined $100.75 by Recorder Nash Broyles Wednesday afternoon in police court and bound over under bond of $200 for violating a state statute.

Two Others Fined.

Following the trial of "Boots" Rogers, the case against C. C. Tedder, of a similar character, was tried, and Tedder met with the same fate.

L. P. Whitfield, another Burns operator, was fined $100.75 and bound over under similar charges.

Each of the three detectives, in lieu of paying their fines, were given the alternative of serving thirty days in the city stocks.

All gave certiorari bond, and will appeal the cases to a higher tribunal than the city court, along with Dan S. Lebon, who was fined on Tuesday for similar infraction of the city's ordinance and state laws.

Judge Arthur G. Powell has, throughout the trials of these detectives, whom he has served as chief counsel, navigated the way for testing out the constitutionality of the city ordinance prohibiting persons from operating as detectives in or about the city under the supervision of the chief of police and the city's detectives. Judge Powell claims that the city ordinance is unconstitutional and void in that it further unreasonable because when working for the defense of Leo M. Frank it would have been impossible for the Burns agency to have worked under the supervision of the police and in co-operation with them.

Two Cases Are Dropped.

City Attorney James L. Maxson requested that the cases against W. D. McWorth and C. E. Sears, manager of the local Burns agency, be dismissed, as it was discovered that McWorth, while formerly in the employ of the Pinkertons, had been discharged by the police authorities to operate in the city as a detective, and that this permission had never been revoked through any official action of the police commission or the chief of police.

C. E. Sears' case was dismissed on the grounds that he had applied for a license from the city council and had not operated a detective agency, with out first securing permission from the police authorities. The city ordinance imposes the penalty of revocation of license of managers of detective agencies who employ or have employed in the city as a detective, and as the city council had already withdrawn Sears' license he was allowed to go without trial.

Rogers Attacks Police.

"Boots" Rogers, in an interview with a Constitution reporter last night, bitterly attacked the methods of City Detectives Starnes and Campbell in securing from him the evidence in the Britton Dorsey case recently. This statement detailed Rogers' work for the Burns agency.

Rogers stated that this statement was secured under the pretense of lifelong friendship, and that he was induced into the solicitor's office under the pretense of friendly interest in him on the part of the city detectives.

He branded the statement as a statement which he had given to them under the sacred ties of friendship in the prosecuting against him in police court as outrageous and unbecoming a detective.

He branded the prosecution of the Burns detectives by the police authorities as persecution, and a play for political favor, declaring that if William J. Burns had made a statement that Leo M. Frank was guilty the cases in police court against the Burns operators would never have been made for operating without permission of the police authorities.

Rogers declared that it was because the Burns operators sought to disclose the facts about the "alleged frame-up" methods that he had been persecuted by the city detectives and police in securing evidence against Leo M. Frank to convict him for the murder of Mary Phagan, that the police cases had been made.

"It is a well-known fact that every private detective agency works men in the city of Atlanta secretly, and these men have never been approved by the police authorities," said Rogers.

Rogers stated that he had been employed by the Burns agency to assist in the investigation of the alleged "frame-up" methods used by the city detectives and police in securing evidence for the prosecution of Frank.

Mrs. Pankhurst Released.

London, May 27.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant leader, again was released from Holloway jail today, suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" and refusing to eat from the moment of her arrest last week during the raid by the suffragettes on Buckingham palace.

The changes will be many, but sure prize is occasioned by reason of the fact that so few have shown signs of progress. While results seem to have been obtained by a few, by far the greater number are remaining stationary.

$25,000 in awards should be attractive enough to arouse the enthusiasm of the candidates.

BIG ALLIGATOR WITH HOG IN ITS STOMACH KILLED NEAR CAIRO

Felham, Ga., May 27.—(Special).—A R. Humphreys and Frank Tennison were exhibiting on the streets of Felham today a foot of a large alligator, which they killed in the Ochlocknee river, ten miles south of Cairo, Monday, while there on a fishing trip. The alligator measured 10 feet and 4 inches. When skinned and cut open he was found to contain a half-grown hog.

TOBACCO BANNED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Southern Assembly Opposes Use by Ministers and Church Officials—Northern Assembly for Grape Juice at Communion.

Kansas City, May 27.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States (southern) went on record late today as opposed to the use of tobacco among clergymen, candidates for the ministry and church officials.

Rev. J. S. Lyons, Louisville, Ky., retiring moderator, recommended on behalf of the committee on bills and overtures, that the assembly reply in the negative to a resolution that it should discourage tobacco.

The assembly overruled Dr. Lyons and adopted the overture.

When the committee on systematic beneficence presented its report several commissioners, led by the Rev. Egbert W. Smith, Atlanta, Ga., executive secretary of the foreign missions committee, pleaded that no change be made in the handling of the funds of the women's auxiliary. Finally the recommendation that a change be made was stricken from the report and an appreciation of the service rendered by the auxiliary was adopted.

The report asked for $1,000,000 for foreign missions.

An interesting feature of the discussion was the report by figures given to the session by the Rev. H. M. Pressly, of Charlotte, N. C., who says the coat to win one convert in the home mission is $40 and that churches spend $270 for every man, woman and child converted.

Liberals Claim Victory.

Commissioners who are inclined to hold liberal views, assert that several actions taken by the assembly are victories for the liberal side.

They point to the action yesterday in allowing the ruling boards of the various churches to choose between fermented wine and grape juice for communion services as a great step in advance.

"Several years ago a minister who would dare to vary the communion service a particle would have been regarded as a heretic," said Rev. Charles R. Nisbet, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, of Kansas City.

It is also said that the approval of the revised constitution of the reformed churches in America looking to closer relations and more effective administrative co-operation between the several Presbyterian churches, signifies a breaking away from the ultra conservative spirit which has dominated the church.

It is expected that business will be finished in time to adjourn at noon tomorrow.

BIBLE STUDY URGED IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Chicago, May 27.—A resolution favoring Bible study in public schools and urging churches to petition state legislatures for laws to be passed in connection with the establishment of a permanent tribunal of arbitration at the Hague with a view of abolishing future wars was approved.

Reorganization of the board of home missions—in a manner to satisfy most of its critics—was accomplished today when the report of the standing committee on home missions presenting a plan of reorganization was adopted.

The plan, specific details of which remain to be worked out, enlarges the board from 24 to 28 members; takes the management from a general secretary and places it in the hands of four more co-ordinate secretaries; leaves general headquarters in New York city, but gives the west the headquarters of the church extension department, and allows synods and presbyteries supervision over home missions in their territory.

The use of non-alcoholic wine in the sacrament of the Lord's supper was ordered when a supplemental report from the committee on temperance was adopted by the assembly.

Many Contest Candidates Make But Slight Progress, Resulting In Races Continuing Very Close

Automobiles, piano-players and cash prizes may be won now by your best efforts during the next few days. For the second time the names of those who have been suggested as candidates in The Constitution's $25,270 contest will appear in next Sunday's issue of this paper.

The changes will be many, but sure prize is occasioned by reason of the fact that so few have shown signs of progress. While results seem to have been obtained by a few, by far the greater number are remaining stationary.

$25,000 in awards should be attractive enough to arouse the enthusiasm of the candidates.

CONFESSES THEFT OF $2,000 INTENDED FOR ATLANTA BANK

Oscar Williams, Express Messenger, Admits Stealing 7 Packages Containing in All Nearly $5,000.

DETECTIVES RECOVER $3,000 BURIED IN BOX

Thefts of Packages Unnoticed Until Sum Sent Local Bank Was Missed. Williams Out Under Bond

Macon, Ga., May 27.—(Special).—Oscar Lee Williams, a 24-year-old express messenger for the Southern Express company, and member of a prominent family at Fort Valley, has been arrested here on a charge of larceny after trust, in connection with the theft of $4,900 from the express company made up of seven different packages, all of which were stolen at different times.

Williams was arrested on a warrant from Warren county, issued at Camak, and has confessed, and returned $3,250 of the money. The balance he has not given up, and claims that $900 of it was given by him to Fred Thompson for safe keeping and that Thompson refuses to give up the money.

Thompson was arrested today on complaint of the express company and a charge of gambling made against him.

It is claimed that Williams lost $2,000 of the money to Thompson in a gambling game. Thompson has in turn made an accusation against Williams, charging him with gambling.

The arrest of Williams followed the discovery of the loss of a package containing $2,000 and sent from the Bank at Stone to the Lowry National bank in Atlanta. Up to that time none of the other packages stolen by Williams had been missed. In addition to the $2,000 package there were others containing $1,500 and $500 and smaller amounts.

Williams at first denied knowledge of the missing money, and for two days maintained his innocence. Finally he broke down and confessed, and with special agents of the express company went to the home of his widowed mother, at Fort Valley, where he recovered $3,000 of the money he had hidden in a cigar box under his mother's house.

Williams' run was between Macon and Camak on the Georgia railroad. He is out under bond.

ELOPERS ARE FOUND AND YOUNG GROOM PUT UNDER ARREST

A sad and anxious mother came to police headquarters during the latter part of last week and reported to Chief Sanford that her daughter had eloped. Chief Lanford detailed three detectives to investigate the case.

About the same time the Pinkerton National Detective agency was notified by the Fourth National bank of an alleged swindle perpetrated by C. W. Dean, Jr. of Dayton, Ohio. W. H. Smith, assistant superintendent of the Atlanta Pinkerton office, was detailed to investigate Dean, who had disappeared.

Pinkerton man traced the missing suspect to Marietta, where it was found that he had married the girl whose mother had feared kidnapping, and that they had secretly left Atlanta for Marietta.

Black and Rosser, of police headquarters, accompanying Superintendent Smith, found the couple keeping house at 149 1/2 Spruce street.

The husband was arrested on a charge of suspicion. His tear-stricken wife was returned to the home of her mother. He will be put through a trial in the next few days.

At headquarters Wednesday afternoon he is said by the Pinkertons to have admitted procuring the money from the Fourth National.

The marriage took place in Marietta on May 18. The youth and girl—both of whom are in their twenties—stole from the city and hurried secretly to Marietta. They returned quietly to Atlanta and took up their home at 149 Spruce.

Dean is a mechanical engineer. He came to Atlanta a short time ago from Dayton.

CERTIFICATES FILED FOR RESERVE BANKS

Washington, May 27.—Organization certificates incorporating the twelve federal reserve banks were received today at the treasury department.

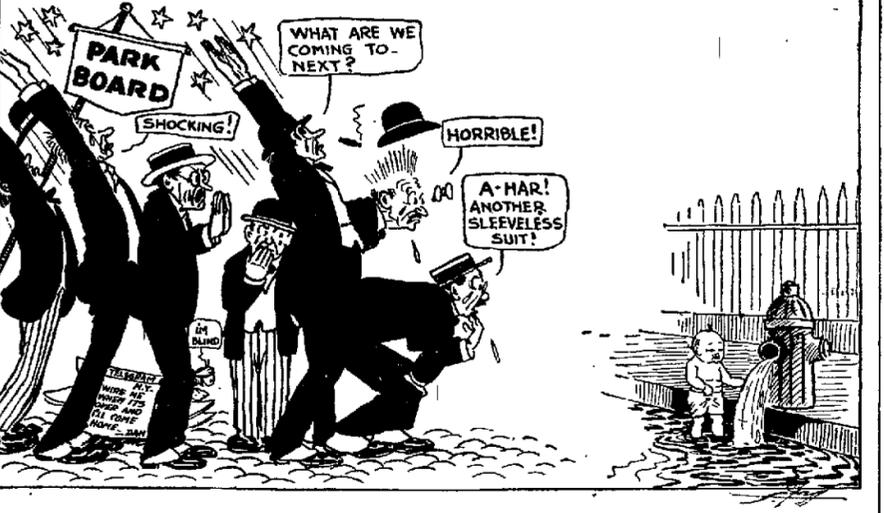

Election of directors, classes A and B, for each bank will be taken up at once and it is expected that the forms of ballots will be sent to the 7,705 member banks this week.

The college authorities today announced the suspension of twelve members of the junior class for taking part in the bazing. Later in the day the board of visitors of the college directed the faculty to hold action in the matter in abeyance, as that body desired to handle it itself.

Jury Couldn't Agree.

Norfolk, Va., May 27.—Unable to agree on a verdict after several hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of L. Unger, charged with aiding and abetting bookmaking at the Jamestown race track, was discharged by Judge Coleman in the Norfolk county court today. This makes the third case heard, and there have been two dismissals. There are eleven more cases to be heard.

"Sleeve" Situation Reaches Poetry Stage; Members of Park Board Are Standing Pat

AN EXPOSURE. The naked hills lie wanton to the breeze; The flocks are nude, the groves unfringed; Bare are the shivering limbs of shameless trees; What wonder is it that the corn is shocked?

By Britt Crain.

The above poetic outburst of the versatile Mr. Sam W. Wilkes discloses the fact that the "sleeve" situation at Piedmont park has reached the rhyme and verse stage.

It is a "bare" that poem, you'll admit it, providing, of course, that you're not artistically lenient. It is plainly evident that Mr. Wilkes does not agree with the beloved park board on the question of sleeves.

In submitting this particular verse, the writer insists that the park board refrain from being overly shocked at its theme. The board, however, gives no assurance in this respect. About the only thing that honorable body is assuring these days is that there positively must be sleeves.

Board is Standing Pat.

Besides the frequent explosions of poetry and protests against the sleeve edict there were varied and sundry other developments in the affair at Piedmont Wednesday. Among them were numerous interviews emanating from stand-pat members of the park board, who have taken it enthusiastically upon themselves to defy most anything from petitions on up to the deep-seated grudge that is likely to take root in Piedmont's loyal patrons.

Mayor Woodward, who quite obviously hasn't forgotten that he once was a boy, has taken a stand in support of the irate bathers. He avers that the sleeve rule impresses him considerably on the order of comic opera stuff. Harken to his words, ye faithful followers.

"It's just for the world like come opera. If a man or boy goes to the lake with a suit that is immodest, let the policeman or the park attendants eject him. Everyone who goes to a park or place for public amusement should behave himself. If they don't, they should be in jail.

But my impression is that a majority of the bathers do behave themselves. There is no sense in burdening a large majority with an irksome rule in order to keep a check on the few who occasionally misconduct themselves. I believe in decency, of course, but I am also a great believer in common sense."

The burden of the mayor's remarks is that a move will be made at the next park board caucus to rescind the restriction. But, no sooner do Piedmont customers become elated over this rosy prospect than comes this edict of the board in the words of Commissioner L. C. Green:

"I don't think we'll change the rule of the board." Can you conceive of disaster any worse? Not content with inflicting such a thing, the park board goes ahead and steals its obstinate self against changing it.

"In the first place," Commissioner Green continues, "a majority of the people are under a misapprehension as to what the regulations really are. The board, when it considered the bathing rules, sought to regulate the costumes in order that decency might be maintained at the lake and to prevent bathers using such suits as were dispersed last season.

"If one will not stand for a change in the rule unless it can be shown that a hardship has been imposed upon the bathers. Honestly, I believe that the rule is a good one and should be allowed to stand. I can't see that it is going to hurt anything, but on the contrary, it will dignify our popular recreation."

A reply to this—if given by a Piedmonteer—could be in query of whoever heard of a dignified swimming pool? However, there are no Piedmonters around, and the accurate must go unchallenged for the present.

And McDonald Says.

Then, added to other calamitous sayings, Commissioner C. C. McDonald had this to assert:

"I think that the exposure of the arm-pit is immodest. I'm going to stick by the action of the board. A short sleeve doesn't hamper a swimmer. Some of those bathing shirts I saw at the lake last year looked to me like—Well, I won't say it—I don't want to hurt anybody's feelings. I am content, furthermore, that the board is going to stand by its action."

More still. It would be very weak in the board

CANAL ZONE SHAKEN BY A SEISMIC SHOCK

Disturbance Very Severe But Reports Indicate No Damage to the Canal.

Colon, May 27.—A severe earthquake shock, lasting more than thirty seconds, occurred tonight. It was much stronger than any of the seismic disturbances felt in the canal zone last October.

No damage was done locally so far as reported. Officials at Gatun describe the shock as strong, but had no knowledge up to a late hour of any damage to the canal.

No Damage to Locks.

Panama, May 27.—A severe earthquake shock was felt here about 10:25 o'clock tonight. The disturbance lasted half a minute. Reports from Gatun, Miraflores and Pedro Miguel indicated that no damage had been done to the locks there.

The seismograph record indicated that the new point of origin was within 100 miles to the southwest.

No Extensive Damage Possible.

Washington, May 27.—Experts of the isthmian canal commission claim no extensive damage to the Panama canal can be caused by any earthquake. No official report of the latest seismic disturbance had reached either the commission or the war department late tonight.

Records studied by the canal designers fall to show anything more than light seismic shocks on the isthmus as far back as its history is known. There are standing in the zone today several structures erected several centuries ago.

Army engineers base their belief in the safety of the canal largely on the durability of the masonry work embodied in locks, dams and approaches to the canal.

HE RECEIVED A BULLET WHILE TRYING TO HAZE

Annapolis, Md., May 27.—The condition of William B. Bowles, of Middletown, Md., the St. John's college cadet shot while engaged in an alleged attempt at hazing, was reported to be grave today. Bowles was one of a party of upper class men who attempted to force entrance into a room in which freshmen had locked themselves. The freshmen have refused to give the name of the one who shot the shot. They are at liberty on bail.

The college authorities today announced the suspension of twelve members of the junior class for taking part in the bazing. Later in the day the board of visitors of the college directed the faculty to hold action in the matter in abeyance, as that body desired to handle it itself.

Jury Couldn't Agree.

Norfolk, Va., May 27.—Unable to agree on a verdict after several hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of L. Unger, charged with aiding and abetting bookmaking at the Jamestown race track, was discharged by Judge Coleman in the Norfolk county court today. This makes the third case heard, and there have been two dismissals. There are eleven more cases to be heard.

LOOKS LIKE ATLANTA MAY GET GOOD RAIN BEFORE DAY IS OVER

Old man K. Thor, who is mythologically reputed to be the supreme thunderbolt of the sides, will very likely assist that eminent prohibitionist, J. P. Duvall, in a joint cloud performance this afternoon.

Or, at least, that's what the weather report says. If you're addicted to believing in signs, premonitions and weather prophecies, it can be taken for granted that the community will get that long-needed supply of rain along about the time luncheon is digested today.

To give the exact facts in the case, here's the report:

"Weather for Atlanta, Thursday, May 28, 1914: Conditions are gradually becoming unsettled over the greater portion of the country and are favorable for summer thunderstorms, but as the atmospheric pressure is still high over Georgia, the change to showery weather is slow to come at Atlanta.

Thursday afternoon is likely to give a light local thundershower. Temperature will continue between 88 and 92 during the middle of the day, with light southerly winds."

AUGUSTA IS SELECTED FOR THE MILITIA CAMP

Guardmen of the Ninth Division to Gather in the Georgia City.

Columbia, S. C., May 27.—Official notification by the war department of the selection of Augusta, Ga., as the site for the joint maneuvers encampment of the Ninth militia division, to begin about July 15 and continue two weeks, was received by Adjutant General W. W. Moore, of South Carolina, today from Governors Island, N. Y., headquarters of the department of the east. No definite date was set for the beginning of the encampment.

The selection of Augusta is the result of a disagreement between Governor Huger, of South Carolina, and Secretary of War Garrison. The Isle of Palms, near Charleston, was first selected as the encampment site.

WHITE SLAVE CHARGE FACED BY CRAWFORD

Tampa, Fla., May 27.—J. L. Crawford, formerly of Cheraw, S. C., was arrested here tonight on a charge of violating the Mann "white slave" act, following an investigation of several months by the government officers. Crawford is engaged in the jewelry business here.

The arrest followed the raiding of a house in the fashionable Hyde Park section of the city by the police and the arrest of two women there, Mrs. Alice Limrick, one of these, preferred the charges against Crawford, alleging that Crawford brought her here several months ago from Fredericksburg, Va., and until recently had lived with her as her husband. Crawford gave bond.

GENERAL SUMMER GETS INTO ACTION

Heat Wave, Accompanied by Enervating Humidity, Is Prevailing—Suffering Is Caused in Many Cities.

Washington, May 27.—A wave of midsummer heat, accompanied by enervating humidity over the Atlantic states, the Ohio and the Mississippi valleys today caused suffering in many places. In the north, the temperature of 95 degrees, was the only place where the mercury established a new record.

In Washington the enclosed thermometer at the elevated weather bureau registered 95 degrees, while those on the streets marked 100, the official figure within one degree of the record for the warmest May day since 1870.

At Philadelphia the thermometer showed a showing of 94 degrees. In the west St. Louis, Evansville and Terre Haute had temperatures of 92 degrees.

Weather experts tonight promised slightly cooler weather for the remainder of the week, but the indications are that no real relief will come until Friday when a disturbance from the northwest may bring general thundershowers.

Two Persons Overcome.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—Two persons were overcome by the heat here today. A school boy was stricken while attending class and a factory girl was overcome while at work. Neither case is regarded as serious.

The temperature reached 88 degrees. At La Fayette the thermometer registered 95 degrees.

Four Deaths at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 27.—The hottest day of the year in this city and vicinity was brought to a close today by an electrical storm that set fire to several buildings and shattered numerous trees and poles. Four deaths were reported as being due to the heat in this city. The maximum temperature was reached at 1 o'clock, when the thermometer registered 94. This is the highest temperature recorded here on May 27 since 1880.

Storm Relieves New York.

New York, May 27.—The heat wave which for two days past had sent the mercury here to unwonted heights for May was broken by a storm late today. Two men were killed by lightning and several persons were hurt by falling timbers or other objects blown about by the gale. Many buildings were struck by lightning and damaged.

Two deaths today were attributed to the heat and there were more than a dozen prostrations. The maximum temperature was 94.

One Death at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 27.—The thermometer registered 89 degrees here today. One death and several prostrations occurred.

Richmond, Va., May 27.—Richmond was the hottest place on the weather map today, the official thermometer showing 95. No prostration were reported. Reports from throughout the state say that crops have been nearly ruined by the drought and heat.

HUERTA AGREES TO A COMMISSION TO YIELD POWER

It Is Said Dictator Has Communicated His Determination to His Delegates at Niagara Falls and Also to Washington.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT BY THE MEDIATORS ON ALL MAIN ISSUES

Predicted That Peace Protocol Will Be Signed Within a Week—Points Yet to Be Taken Up Relate to Internal Problems—Carranza May Send a Representative to Niagara Falls.

Vera Cruz, May 27.—Reports reaching here today from confidential sources declare President Huerta has communicated himself specifically to turn over the government to a commission of prominent members of various factions in the republic, such as has been suggested at the Niagara conference. He is said also to have agreed to relinquish power to any successor such a commission might select.

The report further says Huerta's determination has been communicated to the Mexican delegates and probably directly to the Washington government.

The belief is held in the capital that the Mexican peace delegates will be named to represent the Huerta faction on the proposed commission and that they may return soon to Mexico City.

It also is thought that possibly representatives of the United States and the A. B. C. mediators may accompany them and that the final plan for the restoration of peace and for a constitutional election may be drafted in Mexico City.

PEACE PROTOCOL WITHIN A WEEK

Niagara Falls, Ontario, May 27.—Disposition of the Mexican problem by mediation had progressed so far at the end of today's conferences that those close in touch with the deliberations predicted that a protocol would be signed within a week. The main issues are understood and in principle satisfactorily worked out in principle. Minor issues were understood to have been the subject of a conference held today in Toronto between the mediators and the American delegates before attending the garden party given to the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the mediation colony. En route tonight from Toronto back to Niagara Falls the mediators communicated the American views to the Mexican delegates.

Internal Problems.

Points yet to be taken up, it is understood, relate chiefly to internal problems, and it is known, if it is decided to seek an agreement upon them at all, the mediators desire to treat them only in the broadest manner. The attitude of the Mexican representatives is that these internal problems should be left entered into this tribunal, inasmuch as the discussion of one would lead to another and so on.

In this connection the Mexican delegates brought up as an illustration the governorships of Mexican states, and the problem of the relation of the state governments to the provisions of the federal government, when it shall have been established. They pointed out that to attempt to formulate a plan dealing with provincial control of the state governments would involve the mediators to the point of tedium in the solution of local problems peculiar to each state. The Mexican envoys hold that these problems can best be worked out by agreement upon them. It was intimated today that the mediators also desire to exclude as closely as consistent from their general plan all details that may be more practically worked out by the Mexican people.

The mediators remain reticent as to

WAR WAS PLANNED BY COL. ROOSEVELT TO END COAL STRIKE

He Frankly Admits That When President He Had Arranged to Send U. S. Troops Into Pennsylvania.

NO WORRY ABOUT LAW; HE'D HAVE FOUND A LAW

Roosevelt Says He Just Wanted a Chance to Send Army and Settle Things. Would Have Risked Effort to Impeach Him.

New York, May 27.—Theodore Roosevelt, as president, was ready to take measures equivalent to action in time of war to end the strike in the anthracite mines in 1902. He was determined to take action, even though an effort should be made later to impeach him for it.

Mr. Roosevelt so testified today in giving testimony here today before a referee in the suit of Alexander T. Wales, a lawyer of Birmingham, N. Y., against John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, for fees he alleges are due him for the part he took in settling the strike.

"In September," said Mr. Roosevelt, "the situation began to grow acute. It was a situation full of menace to the country. I asked permission to appear before the representatives of the operators and of the miners. I regarded the attitude of John Mitchell, then head of the miners, as reasonable and the attitude of the operators as unreasonable and offensive."

"I intended to use army. After telling of his efforts to settle the strike through a committee of arbitration, which Grover Cleveland consented to head, he continued:

"I made up my mind that I would have to take drastic action unless the operators and miners got together. I intended to send in the United States army—I only wanted to get it in there, and I'd take care of the situation."

"I told Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, I'd act, and I'd guarantee that the people of the eastern seaboard would have coal and have it right away. I told him that if he would help me he could vote to impeach me later if he wished. I asked Quay to arrange to have Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, when I notified the governor, send word to me that he was unable to control the situation, and then I would send in the army."

"I planned to have General Schofield go in and take charge with the troops and act practically receiver for the mines. I told the general it would be equivalent to action taken in time of war and that he must pay no heed to any other authority—no heed to a writ from a judge or anything else except my commands. He said he would do so."

Kept His Plan Secret.
Colonel Roosevelt said he kept his plan secret even from the members of his cabinet. The operators, he said, persisted in their uncompromising plan until finally a change came and after many disputes about the membership of the commission one was appointed and the strike ended.

Colonel Roosevelt was constantly sparring with Mr. Wales, who conducted his own case, when, under cross-examination, Mr. Wales frequently angered him and he bent forward, shaking his finger at the lawyer and scowling at him. He said he had never seen Mr. Wales before and knew nothing of any part which the plaintiff took in settling the strike.

Mr. Wales tried to make Colonel Roosevelt admit he was willing to violate the laws, defy the courts and disregard the constitution to settle the strike.

"I wouldn't accept your interpretation of the constitution," Colonel Roosevelt retorted. "I proposed that every action I took should be in accordance with the constitution as Abraham Lincoln construed it."

"You have settled the strike, law or no law?" persisted the plaintiff.

"I'd have settled it, Colonel Roosevelt said. "I'd have found a law."

GOV. HOOPER ARRIVES IN ATLANTA TODAY

Will Make an Inspection of the Convict System of the State.

Governor Ben W. Hooper of Tennessee accompanied by several members of the highway commission of that state will arrive in Atlanta this morning for the purpose of having a conference with the members of the prison commission and later of making an investigation of Georgia's plan for working convicts on the public highways.

Several counties will be visited and the workings of the Georgia system will be thoroughly gone into.

At present the convict of Tennessee are largely worked in the coal mines of that state and for some time there has been considerable opposition to this plan.

Governor Hooper is undecided as to the best method and for the reason determined to make a first-hand investigation. Members of the prison commission of Georgia will afford the governor every opportunity for getting all the information he desires.

JOHN R. COOPER SPEAKS IN RABUN COURTHOUSE

Clayton Ga., May 27.—(Special)—Hon. J. R. Cooper, of Macon, candidate for United States senate to succeed the late Senator Bacon, spoke for about one hour and a half to an audience in the courthouse in the interest of his candidacy Tuesday at 2 o'clock. He paid his respects to all his opponents except Mr. Hutchens, and did not fail to handle them with gloves off. He was given strict attention and at times applauded.

He promised that if he was sent to the senate that he would always work for the interest of the farmers and the common people. The crowd was not very large owing to the fact that Rabun superior court had adjourned the day previous.

The man who travels on his cheek ought to have a pretty strong face.

MARSHALL SCORES ARTIFICIAL WOMAN

Vice President Tells Agnes Scott Girls That Charm Is Not the Product of Intellectual Attainments.

Vice President Marshall warmly scored the artificial, beauty-craving women of today in a ten minutes' talk Wednesday morning at the commencement exercises of Agnes Scott college in the college chapel.

"Charm, dear girls," he said, "is not an intellectual attainment. The smartest woman I ever knew affected me like the sound of a rat tail file on a cross-cut saw. She had no charm which, after all is a tenderness, a graciousness the product and the fountain of religious influence."

The vice president said he remembered his mother as an angular, raw-boned woman of great bulk, who would have never taken a prize at a beauty show, but whose "unattractive shell inclosed what was the greatest thing of all—a woman."

Full of Pathos and Wit.
The vice president was introduced by Dr. F. H. Gaines, president of the college. Mr. Marshall's talk was full of pathos and wit and held the students in rapt attention throughout his discourse. He spoke of the tendency of universities to exclude the dead languages from their curriculums, declaring that some of them no longer require Latin and Greek for the A. B. degree, and he was afraid that before long we will not know the difference between an A. B. and a veterinary. He added, however, that he did not deary this tendency in modern education, for in some instances Latin and Greek are not necessary to an education or career.

The vice president said he didn't believe to be the equal of man, but the superior. He concluded by asserting that after all life narrows down to two things—faith and friendship.

Senator Hoke Smith was on the program to speak after the vice president, but was unable to be present. The scholarship announcements and prize awards were made and Mr. Marshall applauded with the audience as each name was read.

The scholarship awarded to the student most proficient in studies was given by Miss Frances Thatcher, of the freshman class, honorable mention, Miss Jeannette Victor.

Other awards were Music scholarship in piano, Miss Myrtle Blue, music scholarship in art, Miss Dorothy Brown, scholarship in art, Miss Hattie Smith, Laura Scott medal for highest average in mathematics, Miss Margaret Waldron, honorable mention, Misses Laura Cooper and Lucile Finney.

Certificates Awarded.
Certificates were awarded to the following in history to Miss Gertrude Pressnick, in Latin, to Miss Louise McNulty, in music, to Misses Isabelle Norwood and Amelia Sadler, in piano to Miss Mary G. Boddinger.

Debating pins were awarded to Misses Emma Jones and Mary Schneider, who won the debate against Sophie Newcomb college, and to Miss Marguerite Wells, alternate in the debate.

Degrees were conferred to Misses Mildred Holmes, Kathleen Kennedy, Theodosia Cobbs, Mary Pittora, Marguerite Wells, Helen Brown, Nell Clark, Sarah Hansell, Ruth Blue, Louise May Blair, Louise McNulty, Ethel McConnell, Lunda Miller, Florence Brinkley, Charlotte Jackson, Anne McLorty, Mary Brown, Martha Rogers.

Ruth Hick, Zolite McArthur, Elsie Roberts, Bertha Adams, Annie Jenkins. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall took luncheon at the Piedmont hotel at 1 o'clock and were then escorted to the Terminal station, leaving for Washington at 2:45 o'clock.

YAARAB'S LITTLE STUNT MAY COST ATLANTA DEAR

Camel Runs Into Physician During Shriners' Parade, Injuring Hand and Shoulder.

Atlanta is facing a $2,500 damage suit and the blame has been placed squarely on the shoulders—rather the hump—of Yaarab the pet camel of Gress zoo at Grant park.

Yaarab is the protege of the park department and Dan Carey. Prior to this date Yaarab enjoyed the distinction of being the very best behaved camel that ever roamed the Sahara.

But during Shime week Yaarab overjoyed because he was allowed to mingle with the fezzed hordes as a bona fide member of Yaarab temple, put on a stunt at Whitehall and Mitchell street and not only caused painful injuries to Dr. David Moury of Atlanta, but did something which no well behaved camel has ever been known to do.

To make a long story short, Yaarab leading the processions to and from the Terminal station, tried to set a pace for the visitors to follow and in so doing he ran pell mell into Dr. Moury, injured the doctor's right hand and bruised the doctor's shoulder.

The result is a claim for $2,500 against the city. The claim was brought to the attention of the claim's committee Wednesday afternoon.

The accident will be investigated by Investigator Cochran and will be reported at council's next meeting.

Mobile Ala., May 27.—Surgeon General William C. Gorgas returned to the city of his birth today to be the guest of the University of Alabama medical department at its annual commencement. Dr. Gorgas will be principal orator at closing exercises tomorrow and will speak at two banquets and two luncheons during his stay here today. Dr. Gorgas visited the house in which he was born.

STRIKERS ARE FINED ON RIOTING CHARGE

Recorder Nash Broyles, in imposing heavy penalties upon the three strikers Wednesday morning charged with disorderly conduct and rioting at the Fulton Bang and Cotton mills last

Monday, declared that if he was an employee of a mill he would most probably belong to a union, but that he would not tolerate violence on the part of unions to obtain their demands. The three strikers, who were charged with rocking a switch engine while it was backing some freight cars loaded with mill supplies into the mill yards, were each fined $100, and bound over under $500 for trial by the supreme court under the charge of rioting. The defendants were W. E. Fleming, president of the Atlanta local Textile workers; C. F. Rudder, a striker, and

A. C. Bradley, a former employee of the cotton mills, and a strike sympathizer. Their fines are being fought, certiorari proceedings being entered, and a final decision will rest with a higher tribunal. J. A. Strickland, 23 years old, a youthful member of the striking employees, was brought into the court under the charge of having made several threats against the Hon. Oscar Elkins, vice president of the mills, and a prominent citizen of Atlanta. Mr. Elkins produced witnesses who stated that they heard Strickland threaten to kill the mill official, and Recorder Broyles thereupon imposed a fine of $100 on Strickland.

JEWELL KELLEY CO. TO RETURN TO BIJOU

For the first time in nearly two years the doors of the Bijou will be closed for a period of two weeks during which time the popular Marveta street theater will undergo some needed repairs and the house will reopen for the summer season on June 8 with the Jewell Kelley company. It will be remembered that the company filled an engagement of over twenty weeks at the Bijou earlier in the season. It will be pleased to local social leaders to read of the return engagement of Jewell Kelley and his popular organization, which includes such strong favorites as Vernon Wallace, Len Harvey, T. C. McDonough, Rose Morris, Alvin Finney, etc. The management promises a season of stock in which the very best of New York successes will be elaborately staged. The opening bill for the week of Monday June 8 will be Al H. Wood's great melodrama, "Why Girls Leave Home." A great scenic production, complete in every respect. The sale of seats will begin on Monday, June 1, when tickets for the entire season will be on sale. The house will be admitted free Monday night when accompanied by an escort hold a paid 30 cent ticket, purchased before 8 o'clock Monday.

DAUGHTER'S LOVE LOST, MOTHER TRIES SUICIDE

Mrs. Netta Wallace Swallows Dose of Laudanum, and is Rushed to Hospital.

A woman whose identity could not be learned for several hours Wednesday morning swallowed laudanum on Hemphill avenue, near the corner of Kimball street, and was found by pedestrians lying unconscious upon the sidewalk with a bottle in her hand. She was rushed to the Grady hospital and the stomach pump applied in time to save her life. When she regained consciousness in the afternoon she gave her name as Mrs. Netta Wallace and stated that she lived with her mother, a Mrs. Vaughn, at 21 Fowler street. She recovered sufficiently from the effects of the poison during the afternoon to be removed to her home. Mrs. Wallace declared that she tried to kill herself because her 18-year-old daughter, Viola, did not love her, and for this reason she did not want to live.

T. S. FELDER SPEAKS IN FANNIN COUNTY

Blue Ridge Ga., May 27.—(Special.) Thomas S. Felder spoke to a large audience here today in the interest of his candidacy for the United States senate. He was introduced by Homer Logan, chairman of the democratic executive committee of Fannin county. He spoke for three-quarters of an hour and his speech was free from mud slinging and bitterness. Mr. Felder advocated a better system of credit for the farmers, federal aid for postmaster federal pension law to cut out unmeritorious claims and a law to elect United States judges for a term and not for life. He lauded President Wilson and his policies, stating that Wilson has already done more for the United States than has been done in the past fifty years and declaring that Wilson is the greatest president this country has ever produced barring none and expressing his intention if elected to back up the president in his policies.

HOSPITAL IS NEEDED TO TREAT PELLAGRA

Pitiful Case of Sam Fortune and His Family Proves Atlanta Should Have Such an Institution.

Secretary Joseph C. Logan, of the Associated Charities, yesterday fully pointed out the distressing need in the city for an institution for the treatment of pellagra. Mr. Logan cited the case of a south Georgia lumberman, Sam Fortune, who had spent practically all his small savings for the purpose of bringing his 4-year-old son James and his 11-year-old daughter to this city for treatment Wednesday morning and after visiting every hospital in the city due to the nature of the disease was refused treatment for his stricken family. Many Cases Reported. Mr. Logan said that the association had under its care fully twenty similar cases in the city at this time, and that pellagra cases were being brought to their attention and appeals made for help. There is only one hospital the United States Marine hospital in Savannah, which does not harbor helpless victims of this mysterious and baffling plague and the wards set aside for treatment of these cases are crowded to overflowing. The Grady hospital was finally appealed to, Mr. Logan almost demanding that admittance be given to the stricken victims who are slowly withering away from the effects of the disease due mainly to lack of medical attention. The Grady finally made arrangements to take the little boy and Mr. Logan after several attempts, as secured a house for the mother. So pitiable was the sight of the helpless father carrying his little son around the streets upon his shoulder and insisting that he take donations of money from them with which to supply his family with the necessities of life, and aware that his little daughter had gone for several weeks living on dry bread in order to be able to buy medicine for his wife and son. His condition was very critical.

MRS. PATE DENIES THAT COURT ORDER WAS NOT OBEYED

Mrs. Louise Pate, mother of little Jewell Pate makes a statement to The Constitution denying the story told by her husband to an Atlanta newspaper a few days ago in regard to Mrs. Pate's having violated Judge Pendleton's order that he be allowed to see the child once a week. Mrs. Pate claims that never since the order of the court instructing her to let the father see the little girl for a few hours each week she has ever failed to have the child at the appointed place except when the little girl was too sick to be allowed to leave her home. She further denies that any contempt proceedings have been entered in court by her former husband against her for not sending the little girl to the place. Mrs. Pate claims that her husband did not ask for contempt orders from Judge Pendleton but merely asked Judge Pendleton to lengthen the hours in which he has been allowed to see his little daughter on Saturdays. Mrs. Pate said that even the length of the time in which he had been allowed to see his child was shortened by order of the court. Some time ago by order of the court the custody of little Louise was awarded to Mrs. Pate with the understanding that A. T. Pate, father of the child, could see her once a week on Saturday. She denies the charge her husband makes that she keeps her child up late at night while she attends dances. Pate is a street car conductor Mrs. Pate lives with her father.

HE BLINDFOLDED SELF GOING TO DEATH CHAIR

Trenton N. J., May 27.—To shut out the sight of the death chair and the witness Rafael Longo who was put to death in the state prison here last night insisted on blindfolding himself before leaving his cell. The mask was not removed from his eyes and the blackcap was adjusted over the mask. Longo never saw the death chair. Longo was married in the death house Monday night so that his wife to whom he had been joined by religious ceremony many years ago, could obtain some property he possessed in Italy. His execution was for the murder of Antonio Nuchore, his cousin in Elizabeth nearly two years ago.

PECAN GROWERS' SOCIETY MEETS IN THOMASVILLE

Thomasville Ga., May 27.—(Special.) That the pecan in this section is not abated in this section is shown by the attendance at the Georgia Florida Pecan Growers' Association which has been in session here today and which has called together a number of the men most prominent in the pecan industry in connection with the growing of this nut. This association was organized a few years ago at a meeting of the National Nut Growers' association and was formed primarily for the purpose of the conditions attending the growing of pecans in this section of Georgia and northern western Florida. It is said that there are more of the improved varieties of pecan trees grown in this section of the country than in all the rest of the United States and with more capital invested in them, so that there are problems connected with their culture that need to be considered and worked out on business lines. The Georgia Florida Pecan Growers' Association has been chosen as the place for the annual meetings of the association. The visitors were met by committees and taken to the Tocco hotel where they are quartered and where the meetings are being held. Auto mobile rides to the various pecan groves around the county and to some of the beautiful estates of the northern residents will be planned. The features that will vary the business of the meetings.

Human Factors in Good Service

THERE are three parties to each telephone connection—the party who calls, the trained operator, and the party who answers.

The telephone user shares with the operator the responsibility for good service.

Accuracy in calling, promptness in answering, clear and deliberate talking and patience on the part of the user and the operator, are essentials of good service.

In making 26,000,000 calls daily, millions of telephone users become integral parts in the Bell system and contribute to the success of the service.

The Fakers

A new novel that tells the "inside story" of the fake reformer—the fraudulent "friend of the plain pee-pul," and his wife, who is a social adventuress. A marvelous study of political and social ambition and chicanery.

TODAY is the LAST DAY

Your Order Must Be Mailed Before 12 o'clock Tonight

NOW, while this newspaper is in your hand, you can cut out the order form printed below, and, by mailing it today, secure a copy of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica before the present low prices are advanced.

On the right is a table showing you side by side the prices at which the work, in various styles of binding, will be supplied to those who send their orders today and the increased prices---$29 to $50 more---which will have to be paid by those who send their orders tomorrow or at any later date.

Can you afford to waste money by allowing today's opportunity to pass? You know that you will buy the Encyclopaedia Britannica sooner or later. You have our guarantee that the increase in price will be maintained.

You know that the Encyclopaedia Britannica is the most useful work you could possibly purchase, and that its acquisition for your own use cannot fail to give you lasting pleasure, as well as to increase your personal efficiency.

You know that it is the most up-to-date book in the world.

You know that its 29 large quarto volumes, its 44,000,000 words of text, its 41,000 articles by 1,500 of the most distinguished men of our day, its 15,000 illustrations and 300 maps, make up the most comprehensive library that has ever been assembled. Printed on India paper, it is very compact, easy to house, easy to read---the ideal Encyclopaedia, in every respect.

You know by the many letters that have been published that subscribers are delighted with the book.

You know from the reviews that have been published that expert critics unanimously praise it.

You know, too, that if you lay your newspaper down at this moment with the intention of cutting out the order form later in the day, you may forget to cut it out at all.

The time is indeed so short that you will do well not only to mail the order form today, but also to send such a telegram as is indicated here in order that you may not be too late. A telegram alone, however, will not be accepted unless remittance follows by next mail.

The Last Advertisement

This is the last of a series of advertisements which have dealt with the most extraordinary offer in the history of bookselling; the offer on behalf of the Cambridge University Press of England of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica at prices far less than new editions of this celebrated work have heretofore been sold.

The purpose of this campaign of publicity has now been achieved. The new Britannica is widely known as the best book of universal reference in existence. Hereafter it will be supplied in exactly the same bindings, at the higher prices to go into effect after tomorrow, through booksellers and agents.

A success beyond all anticipation has been accomplished. On the one hand this wonderful new edition of the standard work of reference has found the public eager to welcome the appearance of so useful and so authoritative a summary and digest of all human knowledge. On the other hand, subscribers by whom the volumes are being used in the business office, the factory, the library, and the home have given the most enthusiastic expression to their appreciation of the book, and thousands of them have remarked upon the remarkably liberal terms upon which it may be obtained.

Nearly every reader of this advertisement has already given some thought to the question whether he will subscribe. Many of them have doubtless said: "That is a mighty fine book. I shall get it some day." But after today it will be too late to get it unless they wish to pay more; it will be too late for anyone to get it at the present low prices, unless he dispatches an order by post, or by telegraph, before 12 o'clock tonight.

CRACKERS ON ROAD FOR SEVEN GAMES

Open in Birmingham Today—In Montgomery Sunday—Home Wednesday. C. Frank Day Thursday.

The Crackers left here last night for Birmingham where they engage the Atlanta Braves in the first series between the teams on Rickwood field this season.

The Crackers have two victories to one with the Braves in their visit to Atlanta. Both teams are reputed to be stronger and in better physical condition than when they met here.

Friday will probably mark the opening game of the series for the Crackers with Joe Dunn receiving the hard row which probably will be the barons.

Joe Dunn will play their first scheduled double header of the season Saturday in Federal Memorial day. The games will be doubled in the afternoon.

The Crackers open a three game series with the Montgomery Blkings playing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday with the Blkings has been transferred to Atlanta by the unanimous consent of the league.

This transfer was made to have a baseball game here for the Revell drug store who convene here on that date. Thursday the New Orleans Pelicans will be here. They will play Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Charley Frank Day Thursday will be Charley Frank day at the ball park. On this day Charley Frank the manager of the New Orleans team last season that defeated the Mobile Gulls in the final game of the season will be here at the game and the local fans have a little surprise for him a token of their esteem for the manager of the last season. This will be presented to him at the game. Right after the New Orleans series the Crackers hit the road again playing in Nashville and Memphis.

Joe Agler the Cracker's first baseman last season who is now playing with the Buffalo Federals will be out of the game for at least a week as the result of an injury sustained on Tuesday.

Joe was hit on the hand by a pitched ball the horse matching one of his fingers against the bat.

Dick Kinsella here Giants' scout is "Lookin' Em Over" in this League.

Dick Kinsella scout of the New York Giants is a visitor to Atlanta spending Tuesday and Wednesday here looking over the players on the Crackers and the Gulls.

Win Final Game--In Birmingham Today

Dent Holds Gulls Safe; Crackers Hit Ball Timely; "Steamer" and "Mac" Star

By Dick Jenison Bill Smith & Co. two games won. Rudderham O'Toole & Co., one game won and Briscoe Lord & Co., no games won.

The final returns on the three cornered baseball series which started at Forces de Leon Park this week and brought to a close with the game for the benefit of the Ad Men yesterday. With good umpiring Tuesday all three games ought to have been in the local papers at the time.

A fine crowd gathered at the On to Toronto game and yelled lustily for the Crackers with good results. The Ad Men were there in a body singing their songs and cheering heartily when they were not singing.

Wednesday's game resulted in a 10 to 2 victory for the Crackers the locals romping on the Mobile hurlers and bunting their hits with errors by the Gulls.

Big Ed Dent after twirling three splendid games finally managed to get a winner across and get a real easy game for once this season. He was never in danger after the first inning when the Gulls scored a run. They tallied after the eighth.

The Stars Steamer Flanagan broke back into the hit column with a vengeance Wednesday, rallying the ball on the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth where they are. One of his drives was a home run.

Assisted by McConnell Long and Dent he did the majority of the offense for the Crackers.

Amby McConnell was the defensive star of the game the midget keytoner saving the day with eight assists without a bobble during the afternoon.

Amby and Joe Dunn pulled the feature play of the game in the second inning. With Dobard on second Keely pitched to the batter and McConnell went back of second base to the outfield for the bouncer and with McConnell on first and Keely on second at the plate Dunn blocking the former Cracker off the pan and touching him out.

Al O'Dell featured for the Gulls scoring both of their runs and making three of their errors. The former Cracker was in the game every minute.

The second inning was the feature of the game. McConnell pitched to get Dent out of the one real play he got into.

How They Scored The Gulls tallied in the opener O'Dell smacked the first ball pitched through the Cracker's hands. McConnell sent him to third with a double to center Kirby tallied O'Dell with a fly to Flanagan.

The Crackers tied it in their half of the first when McConnell hit the three top hitters giving the pennant for a home run beating the relay by a split eye at the plate.

Three of the Cracker's in the last of Southpaw Townsend who started the game Keely being pushed to the rescue. Mr. Townsend could hardly have fared any worse than Mr. Keely did.

In the second Steamer steamed one to right for a cushion Jennings scored. Label walked. Then Joe Dunn.

DUTCH MUNCH WILL GO BACK TO WASHINGTON

Bill Smith Leaves Young Receiver at Home—Awaits Instructions From Griff.

Julius (Dutch) Munch the young receiver secured this spring by the Crackers from the Washington Americans is soon to receive the pink slip.

Manager Smith left Munch in Atlanta last night when the team went to Birmingham and is awaiting advice from Griff as to what disposition to make of the young catcher.

The releasing of Munch will make room for the new twirler that is coming in a day or so.

EPISCOPAL COUNCIL FORMALLY OPENED

Annual Sermon by Bishop Nelson Is Feature of First Day—St. Paul's Parish School Dedicated.

The seventh annual council of the diocese of Atlanta, of the Protestant Episcopal church, met in the Church of the Incarnation, West End, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

At this service the bishop delivered his annual address to the council, dealing with conditions in the diocese and the church.

Officers Are Re-elected. Robert C. Alston, of Atlanta, chancellor of the diocese.

The report of the Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese, presented by Mrs. J. W. Harrell.

The board of missions met on Tuesday, presenting their report to the annual missionary meeting.

Bishop Nelson's Sermon. In his annual sermon Bishop Nelson took the following text:

Isaiah lxii, 6. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem.

He interpreted the text in this way: "Examination of the context will leave the impression of three special lines of duty for every watchman of the church."

Scientific negation, the dread of a past generation, is far less arrogant than the scientific method of the present.

Combats Criticism. The bishop combated the frequent criticism of the present day as a Godless and irreligious age.

One of the most interesting exercises of the day was the first of the dedicatory program of St. Paul's Parish Training and Industrial school.

The exercises were held in the auditorium of the building at 5:30 o'clock.

The room was decorated in palms and ferns. Songs were sung by about 100 children of the school.

The new school building was presented to the diocese by Rev. A. Eustace Day, pastor of the church with which the school is connected.

Wednesday night's session of council concerned itself with matters of home and school interest.

The program of Thursday is as follows: 8:30 A. M.—Celebration of the holy eucharist.

Morning prayer. Morning session begins. 1 P. M.—Lunch.

Service of the Holy Communion and the sermon by the Rt. Rev. C. K. Nelson, bishop of Atlanta.
