RUSSIAN ARMIES ARE CARRYING WAR HOME TO GERMANS

On East Prussian Frontier Germans Are Dislodged and Russ Horsemen Have Made Raid Into Silesia.

AUSTRIANS HARD HIT BY RUSSIAN HAMMER

Reports Indicate That Russians Have Captured Thousands of Prisoners and Much War Material.

Petrograd, November 8.—(Via London.)—Owing to the Russian outflanking movement on both right and left of the main German line from Sieradz to Czenstochowa (Russian Poland) the German position in Russian territory is regarded here as fast becoming untenable.

On the north the Russians have taken Kolo and the Germans have retreated 10 miles to Turck.

Meanwhile it is apparent that communication between the German East Prussian army and Poland army has been severed.

RUSSIAN CROSS GERMAN FRONTIER.

Petrograd, November 8.—This official communication was issued today: "On the East Prussian frontier our troops have dislodged the Germans from the region of Wirballen, which was strongly fortified, and have progressed as far as Stalluponen (16 miles east-northeast of Gumbinnen)."

"In the region of Rominten forest and Lyck our troops continue to press the rear guard of the enemy."

"On the left bank of the Vistula our cavalry has penetrated German territory, damaging the railway near Pleschen station, to the northwest of Kalisz."

"On the roads to Cracow on November 6 we attacked the Austrian rear guards along the Nida river and the next day were operating on the river Nidzica."

"In Galicia our troops are continuing their offensive movement. In the latter engagements on the San we captured 125 officers, 12,000 soldiers, rapid-firers and munitions of war."

"South of Przemysl on November 6 we took more than a thousand prisoners."

AUSTRIANS TAKEN BY THOUSANDS.

London, November 8.—The Rome correspondent of The Weekly Dispatch says: "According to the Russian embassy the Russians took 30,000 Austrian prisoners, 200 guns, 6 trainloads of supplies and 40,000 rifles in a victory on the San, in Galicia. The Russian attack on Przemysl has been renewed violently."

"On the East Prussian front thousands of bodies of Germans have been burned because the frozen ground will not permit the removal of the wounded, large numbers of them die of cold."

"The Germans, in retreating, destroy every town through which they pass."

MILLIONS OF MEN OPPOSE RUSSIANS.

London, November 8.—"It is asserted."

Kaiser Badly Worried By Repeated Reverses And Calls Conference

Reports Indicate That the Germans Have Been Thrown on the Defensive East and West.

Berlin Admits That the Drive for Channel Ports Has Failed—Germans Have Fought Desperately for a Week to Get Through at Ypres, But Have Been Repulsed With Fearful Slaughter—Reported That the Kaiser Lost 100,000 Men in the Fighting Around Ypres. It Is Said Germans in West Are Preparing to Retreat.

London, November 9.—(12:25 a. m.)—A Reuter dispatch from Rome says:

"German advices received here say that Emperor William, much affected by the Russian victories, has held a council of war, attended by General von Hindenburg, the Duke of Wurttemberg and the Austrian chief of staff, Field Marshal Baron Conrad von Hoetzendorf, to decide on a further plan of campaign."

Germans Forced to Defensive Both on East and West Fronts

London, November 8.—The German and Austrian armies now are on the defensive both on the east and west.

They have given up at least for the present their efforts to break through the allied lines around Ypres, in Belgium, where the British and French have taken the offensive, and, according to the reports from French headquarters, have commenced to advance.

In the east they have fallen back over their own frontiers in East Prussia and in Poland, while Russian cavalry has penetrated Silesia to the north of Kalisz, and cut the German railway.

The Russians also are following up their advantage in Galicia, and it is said have cut the retreating Austrians off from Cracow, while the Germans are retiring through Poland.

"WOE TO NIPPON," SHOUTS GERMANY

Fall of Tsing-Tau Bitterly Resented—Declared That Germany Will Yet Settle With Japan and England.

Amsterdam, November 8.—(Via London.)—The Berlin Lokol Anzeiger commenting on the fall of Tsing-Tau, says:

"Germans never will forget the heroic fighting at Kiaochow and still the day when the German flag shall wave over the city of Tsing-Tau, we shall not forget the brutal violence of the yellow robbers, nor England, who instigated them. We know we can not settle our account with Japan at present. Our mills will grind slowly, but even if years should pass before the right moment comes, a shout of joy will resound through Germany, 'Woe to you, Nippon!'"

GERMANS YIELDED WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

Tokio, Japan, November 8.—Japan still is celebrating the fall of Tsing-Tau with extraordinary enthusiasm.

RUSSIANS TO RAID EAST GERMANY.

The presence of the Russians in East Prussia and Silesia, however, will, it is believed here, prevent the Germans from sending any more troops to the west, if it does not compel them to withdraw some already at that front.

The roads in Russia are hardening with frost and armies now can be moved quickly. Silesia, too, with better going for the horses, offers an excellent field for the use of cavalry in which Russia has proved herself superior to the other nations of the world. The Cossacks are regaining the reputation which they lost in Manchu.

The Austrians apparently have sent stronger forces against Serbia and have driven the Serbs out of Slavonia. Of what is going on in Bosnia which the Serbians and Croats have invaded, almost to the capital Sarajevo nothing has been disclosed for weeks but operations against their northern border must have had an effect on the Serbian plans there.

TURKEY NEAR WAR WITH GREECE

Nothing of first class interest has occurred in the east but Turkey is being attacked in isolated spots by the Russians and British. The Turks also are apparently coming very close to war with Greece. The situation being very tense, the Greek government has been threatened by the Turks in the threatening of Greece in a major. Neither Bulgaria nor Albania has yet made any move.

The Greek army is continuing to rout up the rebels in South Africa. Those in the northern part of Cape Province which have been in a state of rebellion have been completely crushed while those in Transvaal are another four hundred being captured and scattered.

In Orange Free state however several small commands have been looting towns and dumping railways. 100,000 GERMAN FELL AT YPRES

London, November 8.—A Times dispatch from Dunkirk, France, filed Saturday night says:

After a desperate attack lasting the whole week the German attempt to break the allied line at Ypres has failed.

It may be admitted the position at Ypres two days ago was serious. Under the fierce cannonading the allies had to withdraw from the town which became a no man's land across which the shells from both sides burst.

The German attack was a superbly planned effort under cover of a fierce bombardment. Masses of men were launched in succession at chosen points on our front. Two regiments went down with losses to stem the advance. It was the most terrible bayonet charge of the whole war. It succeeded. The break in the line was repaired and the German attack once more was driven back.

That was their last effort. Today the Germans are dropping only an occasional desultory shell into Ypres. There are attacks on the line to the south but not with the same fury as in the onslaught of the past week.

The German casualties around Ypres are believed to have reached 100,000.

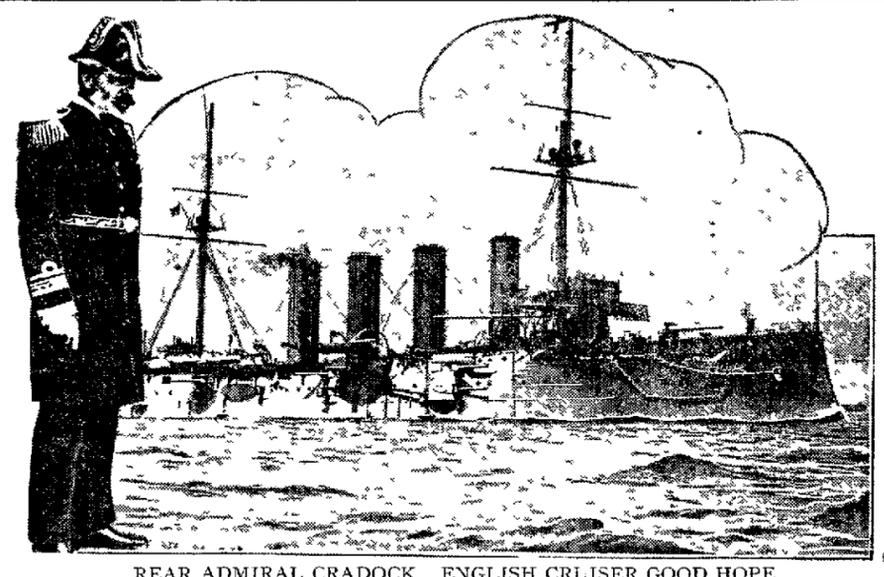

GERMANS PREPARE FOR A RETREAT

The Hague, November 8.—(Via London)—The severity with which the German order against looting Belgian territory is enforced is indicated by the retention of the official courier of the Dutch foreign ministry who has been accustomed daily to drive by automobile between Brussels and Antwerp. He was forced to return to Antwerp and released only on a special permit from the commander of the town.

Several Dutch correspondents who have managed to cross the frontier have reported that the Germans apparently are making preparations to retreat. Northern Belgium is being evacuated. A balloon station which was being erected at Knesselare has again been destroyed.

Violence in the regions of the front have suffered most severely in several villages. The Germans have been in the region for four weeks in their cellars living on uncooked beans and potatoes. Trains loaded with these commodities were sent northward to Belgian cities.

ENGLISH CRUISER GOOD HOPE REPORTED SUNK WITH REAR ADMIRAL CRADOCK AND 900 MEN

REAR ADMIRAL CRADOCK ENGLISH CRUISER GOOD HOPE

There is little hope remaining in the Scharnhorst the Glossemau the Nurnberg the Leipzig and the Bremen participated have been obtained from the German admiralty. The loss of the Good Hope almost a certainty although the English admiralty has resolved to send only forces to the north of the English Channel. The Nurnberg detached from the fleet when a terrific explosion followed an outbreak of flames aboard Rear Admiral Cradock's vessel searched for her until morning in the gale whipped sea. Although at the time the Good Hope withdrew from action only 4,500 yards separated the fighters the Nurnberg was unable to find a trace of her opponent. During the night she picked up numerous wireless calls from the Good Hope and the fact that these calls were not answered tends further to confirm the belief that the first and greatest of the Good Hope to the bottom with all her crew. German officers said that before the big cruiser disappeared they saw her masts falling into the sea. A dispatch from Lima, Peru, threw doubt on the German story of the fight and indicated that the Good Hope was not in the action.

RUSSIA GIVES THE LIE TO TURKISH CLAIMS

Statement Issued Telling How Turks Began Hostilities in the Black Sea.

Petrograd, November 8.—The Russian admiralty today issued this statement to establish the falsity of Turkish claims that hostilities in the Black Sea were begun by Russia.

On October 25 the Black sea fleet after a cruise reentered the roads of Sebastopol without having sighted Turkish ships. On October 29 at 5 a. m. the commander of the fleet received word from Odessa that at 2 a. m. two Turkish torpedo boats with red and green lights flying Russian flags entered the port of Odessa. The gunboat Kubanets on look out having received no reply to the stipulated signal opened fire. Several other gunboats in the road the Donets before she had time to fire was sunk by the first Turkish torpedo.

Turkish Boats Took Flight

On the night the Kubanets took flight, losing one smokestack. By their fire they inflicted insignificant damage on the Russian torpedo boats by mercurial vessels and upon a night the night.

Having received the report from Odessa the commander of the fleet informed the coast batteries of the attack and ordered the Russian ships to take pre-emptive measures. Some of the Russian torpedo boats were in the morning in a gulf the cruiser Goeben approached the coast of the Black sea. The Russian forts replied vigorously. The Goeben a fire caused no damage in the city but the shells fell harmlessly in the city but one struck the oil depot another struck a hospital killing two patients and wounding eight.

At the same time a torpedo boat attacked the Goeben but the enemy's shot prevented it from prolonging the attack. The Russian torpedo boat Pushchin made hit water and was set afire. The attack lasted twenty minutes after which she withdrew.

Sunk His Ship

Sleeping from Sebastopol the Goeben fled to the Bosphorus. The Russian fleet called upon her to surrender. The transport having no armor and no guns the Goeben was ordered to surrender. The shore batteries ordered the magazine opened to sink her. During the night the Goeben was in pursuit of the enemy who took refuge in the Bosphorus.

Loss of the Goeben, were two officers a chaplain, twenty six sailors on the torpedo boat Pushchin were killed. During the night the Goeben was in pursuit of the enemy who took refuge in the Bosphorus.

the remainder of the line we are holding out around everywhere.

On the east the Allies have reached the northeast of Ypres on which we have not yet gained a foothold.

Elsewhere there is nothing to report.

The Sunday afternoon French official war statement says:

Yesterday between the North sea and the Lyx the fighting was less violent. Some attacks not general of the enemy were repulsed in the direction of Dixmude and to the northeast of Ypres.

On almost all of this front we in turn took the offensive and advanced in the region of the north of Messines.

In the neighborhood of Arrmentieres the British troops progressed slightly between La Bassée and Arras the attack of the enemy were repulsed.

At Arras a serious nothing worthy of note took place.

Around Soissons our forces made a marked advance. In the region of Vailly and equally on the right bank of the Aisne we strengthened our progress to the north of Chavonne and Soupir. A German attack on Craonville and Heurtebize was repulsed.

In the neighborhood of Verdun to the northwest and to the southeast of the place we are establishing the supporting positions recently gained.

A dense fog prevailed all day in the north as well as in Champagne and Lorraine hampering the action of the artillery and the aviation corps.

ALLIES TAKE YSER BRIDGE

Paris, France, Nov. 8.—The Belgian government at Havre today issued this statement:

The head of the bridge over the Yser at Neuport has been recaptured by the allies. The enemy hold the front on Lombardzyde to the southeast of Neuport. Our reconnaissance to the west of the Yser were successful.

The Germans again occupy St. Georges and Denton which now are being bombarded by our heavy artillery.

Styvenkerke has been evacuated. It is filled with the corpses of Germans. A very strong attack there was repulsed.

In the region of Ypres the enemy made violent attacks upon Rixschote and west of Witschaete. They all have been driven back by counter offensives.

NO NEWS IS RECEIVED OF MISSING WARSHIPS

London, November 8.—No information has been received here of the whereabouts of the missing British naval vessels which have taken refuge off the coast of Peru and off Comodoro. Both reports now to be considered baseless.

The report that a Japanese fleet has been seen off the coast lacks confirmation.

Failure of Drive at Dunkirk Is Admitted by the Germans

Berlin, November 8.—(Via London)—The following communication from German general headquarters was issued today:

Our attacks near Ypres and west of Lille continued yesterday (Saturday).

An important elevation near Vienne la Chateau on the west side of the Argonne which has been the object of fighting for weeks past was taken. Two large guns and two quick firing were captured.

For the rest the foggy day passed calmly on the western theater of the war.

Major Morant military correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt discusses the western situation says the last three bulletins have reported the highest tuck on a large scale against Dunkirk.

has been rendered impracticable. He says however that the allies left in its efforts to force the Germans back upon Antwerp has failed hopelessly.

The Germans he adds now are able to use the troops from the Yser district in front. There was a meeting to check any enterprise along the Dunes artillery preparations between the Ostend Holland frontier being sufficient to repulse any attempts to determine an expedition against the Germans.

A decisive struggle continues Major Morant says. The Germans are now in the east, south and southwest making the allies retreat only in northerly or westerly direction.

Death-Daring Life Led BY THE ARMY AVIATORS

Heinrich Binder, German War Correspondent, Graphically Tells of Work of Birmen.

Berlin, October 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—A graphic description of the hazardous life of army aviators has been written by Heinrich Binder, one of the best German war correspondents.

Describing the work of two German aviators on artillery reconnaissance he writes:

At an average height of about 3,000 feet the aviators circle the hostile position. The aeroplane vibrates. The motor rattles and roars and hums and hums. The aviator is so loud in the quiet in the upper air that it drowns the thunder of even the heaviest artillery. With these field glasses the aviator observes the hostile positions and notes the effect of our artillery. Signals are given—fall to the right, fall to the left, fall short and overshoot mark.

French Change Positions

The French follow their well known tactics of changing their battery positions continually. But the aviators return again and again, dashing along at over a mile an hour and report the new positions.

It is a murderous flight. As a hawk circling around a chimp before seizing it, the aviator circles around the artillery positions of the enemy, heralding death and destruction. When his approach is observed the hostile position batteries fire their shells upon him and the infantry concentrates its fire upon his aeroplane. The aviator goes higher and higher till he can no longer see a man and the trenches appear as mere scratches on the ground. The sharp and bright colors where the French infantry lies their line red trousers and bright colored caps betray their position.

French Airship Appears

The motor continues its rattle and chatter suddenly a little French aeroplane emerges from a cloud. It is smaller and lighter than our airship of the type known as the Peasants Terror. It makes an average speed of 75 miles an hour and it is armed. Now there is a chase as of one bird by another. They try to approach and then to elude each other. The aviator can scarcely feel when the other's bullet strikes his own machine.

The two aerial combatants soar higher and higher till they disappear in a protecting cloud. The white and moist around him. If the aviator homes to threatening a gliding landing bridge. A victory within their own lines. They must be shot down before they get into the line of fire of their own troops for some of the big mortars throw their shells a mile or more into the air.

APPEAL TO AMERICANS TO AID THE BELGIANS

All Contributions Will Be Handled by the Rockefeller Foundation.

New York, November 8.—An appeal to the American people for foodstuffs for the Belgian relief was issued tonight by the Belgian relief committee of New York in co-operation with the Rockefeller Foundation.

The committee has arranged to send food to Belgium as rapidly as it can be collected.

To avoid competition in purchase of supplies and the consequent increase in prices the committee urges that the chambers of commerce, boards of trade, women's clubs or other organizations send money contributions or non-perishable foods to the committee's care.

The Rockefeller Foundation will take charge of the ocean transportation. In addition to relief measures initiated by itself the foundation has arranged to provide a steamship pie chart, maps and the convey free of charge to Belgium all supplies contributed by the American public. The foundation is now negotiating for an other large neutral ship to follow the Massachusetts which sailed for Rotterdam last Tuesday with a $300,000 cargo of food, wheat flour, rice, peas, beans, canned goods, cured or salted meats and coffee and the supplies most desired.

A commission engaged by the Rockefeller Foundation to determine the best methods of relief in all the warring countries will sail for Europe next Wednesday. The commission will be composed of Wickliffe Rose, chairman, director general of the international health commission, Henry James, manager of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and Ernest P. Rich, of Belgium.

The American Red Cross, the Lapland will be conveyed by the British navy according to a cable message from Ambassador Page in London to the American Red Cross.

It is officially announced that there were 26 cases of cholera in Galicia last Thursday. Of these 126 cases were in Przemyśl.

FOOD DELIVERED TO SUPPLIERS

THE BAFFLING BRITISH NAVY.
One of the unfathomable paradoxes of the European war is presented by the British navy.

Apparently England, certainly Japan and also presumably other nations expect, even hope, that the United States will speedily undertake international financing upon a large scale, not only while war rages upon the continent of Europe, but also for some years after.

Developments have not borne out these expectations. It is true, to do the English sea-fighters credit, they have kept the bulk of the German navy bottled up in the Kiel canal and the Baltic, and permitted free landing of British troops in France and fair safety on the ocean lanes.

But the last accomplishment must be qualified. The German cruiser Emden has been at large since the war broke, and it has damaged British and French shipping to the extent of millions. It has come to be known as the phantom of the sea.

The tradition of invincibility was again broken by the battle between the English and German squadrons off Chile, when the former were drubbed soundly. It seems the English squadron had been sent forth with orders to overtake and destroy the Germans.

It, from the non-partisan standpoint, comparisons be instituted between the English army and navy, it must be admitted that thus far the honors fall to the former. Critical events yet to happen may even the scales.

Apparently England, certainly Japan and also presumably other nations expect, even hope, that the United States will speedily undertake international financing upon a large scale, not only while war rages upon the continent of Europe, but also for some years after.

Already the United States has begun international financing in the form of loans. Some of these have been acknowledged, as for instance, the one which has been recently made to France.

Leading to Canada.
The magnitude of our trade with Canada and the market which we find in Canada for our commodities is a subject which has been now and then discussed in financial circles here.

Those who are now occupied in part with arranging to make foreign loans, and especially England, are still holding their interests in the National City bank are convinced that the wealth-producing capacity of the United States is so great that if we practice reasonable economies we shall have accumulated in the course of years an amount available for foreign use which may approximately compare with the new capital which, in the past, has been accumulated each year by Great Britain through her investment in other lands.

CATERPILLAR SIEGE GUNS.
BY GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Swash."
In the feverish march of progress nowadays, no one can tell what will happen when a brand new war breaks out and begins to make messy marks on an otherwise perfectly good map.

A picture of a caterpillar and a person.

There was much speculation a year ago as to what a European war would do to Europe. It was unanimously agreed that when the Zeppelins, the aeroplanes and the submarines had gotten through with their appointed tasks there would be no war left for want of belligerents.

NEW PRESIDENT
JAILED BY VILLA

Alleged Gen. Gutierrez Has Been Imprisoned by Carranza's Foes for Refusing to Yield to Their Demands.

New York, November 8.—General
Enrique Gutierrez, president of Mexico at the Aguas Calientes convention, has been imprisoned by General Villa, according to a telegram said to come from General Carranza and made public here tonight by the Mexican bureau of information. The same agency last night announced Gutierrez had repudiated the acts of the convention.

The telegram accredited to Carranza did not say where the new president was captured or where he was imprisoned. The reason for his seizure and confinement was that he had refused to be dominated by Villa's demands.

The telegram follows:

"I wish to inform you that General
Gutierrez, who repudiated the Aguas Calientes convention and the Villa coup, has been captured by General Villa and imprisoned. The reason for the action was because he failed to live up to the dictations and demands of the Villa people.

"I wish further to inform you that I consider the actions of the convention
as a farce and for that reason alone I am forced not to recognize it.
The convention, which was dominated by Villistas and reactionaries, failed to accomplish the task it set out to do. Instead of working out a set of regulations and rules by which even might attain its normal conditions of peace and prosperity, they went and appointed another provisional president, hoping to be dominated by him. When they realized that Gutierrez would not follow the dictations of Villa they imprisoned him."

NOTHING TO ALARM
AT VERA CRUZ.

Washington, November 8.—There is "nothing alarming" in conditions at Vera Cruz, Boston reported today in Secretary Garrison. Rumors of possible attacks on the American outposts had prompted Mr. Garrison to ask for information. General Funston's dispatch follows:

There is nothing alarming in local conditions. Many unusual rumors have prevailed for some time. I think it better to discredit all such rumors which are contrary to the rules by which one of the Mexican delegates to the Niagara Falls mediation conference and who is reported to have been thrown into prison at Mexico City, are preparing to lay the matter
before the mediation conference.

The charge against him is not known. Señor Rodriguez, who is more than 72 years old, was many friends in this country at the time of the mediation conference.

GUTIERREZ REPORT
NOT CREDITED.

El Paso, Texas, November 8.—The report that Villa had imprisoned Gutierrez and that Gutierrez had resigned was not credited by Carranza's Villa agents here.

The latter pointed out that Gutier-rez was not a delegate to the mediation conference and that he had not been willing to accept Rafael Muñoz, the Carranza delegate, as president of the conference. He had received no advices of the reported arrest.

AMERICANS ASKED TO QUIT VERA CRUZ.

Vera Cruz, November 8.—Many Vera Cruz residents, the best of the constitutionalists, have petitioned the American authorities to leave the city. The petition says the United States is not to be the reliance of the people to put down and take the country, but that if the American forces will depart they will make the second payment. A few merchants who withheld their signatures from the petition said to have been reprimanded with the constitutionalists finally recover the port of Vera Cruz.

EDITORIAL INSPIRES SONG

"Goodbye to Cotton Pickin' Days" to Be Published.

"Hard times comin' on the old plantation;
Nigger's heart is feelin' mighty lonely
'Cause it's lost that old-time tune.
And we are grieved
For the days that are no more
The fields of white now are gone from sight,
There's sorrow 'round the cabin door."
CHORDS.

"Goodbye to cotton pickin' days,
The days that are no more
To the banjo's strummin'
And the fiddle's hummin'
With a little old-time
There's no more harmonizin'
The moon is risin'
Yes, it's goodbye to cotton pickin' days."

Edison Brown, 32, law graduate, an attaché to the federal department of commerce, promises to become well-known in the field of song writers.

Inspired by The Constitution's recent editorial on the outcastment of the cotton crop, he has written a ballad which has been accepted by a big New York publishing house. It will be sung this week in a downtown moving picture theater, and will be played by the orchestras in a number of cafes.

Also, his offering, "She Had to Stop to Powder Her Nose," a rollicking rag, has been sought by Raymond Hitchcock for his new musical comedy, to be sung by that star in his newest offering. A personal letter from Hitchcock, pronounced the song "a knockout."

Brown's cotton song, "Good-Bye to Cotton Pickin' Days," is a country melody, full of the plaintive harmony of the cotton fields. It tells of the grief of the negroes at the outcast-ment of their crop. The song, which one crop takes away their fields of white.

Ed Brown is a graduate of the law school of Georgetown university. His home is at 164 Ponce de Leon. He has just completed his law studies, and his graduation day, but never had the courage to take any of his offerings to market. He is now in New York but, upon going down through
"Tin Pan Alley," the famous music publishing house, thoroughfare, he lost his courage.

With his productions now in demand, he has sent north a number of copies of his new offering, "Good-Bye to Cotton Pickin' Days," and has sent "Funeral March and Play
Some Rag," "Will You Love Me When I'm Old," "The Old-Time Fiddle,"
"The Old-Time Banjo," "The Old-Time Club," which song deals with a dependent negro, who, upon joining the country club, is rebuffed by the club members. "Bring Your Whole Family Along," a syncretic creation, which, with "Snooze Me Through the Panama Canal," promise to be hits.

EPIDEMIC OF MURDERS.

Dr. Proctor Preaches on Killings of Negro Women.

"Another Negro Woman Found Dead"
was the subject of the sermon of Rev.
Dr. Proctor, at the First Congregational church, colored, last night, when he contended that the real responsibility for the recent slayings among the colored women in this city rested not on the police, but on the white community.

"We have been placing more stress on the material than on the spiritual,
and as a result we are reaping a harvest of death," he said. "We have failed to emphasize the proper respect for law, and men have done these lawless deeds. We have neglected to place the proper emphasis on the distinction of honest labor, and men have remained in idleness because they could not find work. Depending on these victims for support whom they have slain.

"We have not placed the proper emphasis upon respect for human life, and these murderers have felt at liberty to slay these helpless victims. We have not placed the proper emphasis of womanhood, and these soundrels
have felt encouraged to kill these black women."

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID
TO CLARENCE GROOVER

Columbus, Ga., November 8.—(Special)—The funeral of Clarence I.
Groover was conducted this afternoon at his late residence and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. S. A. Wragg, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member, and Dr.
T. S. McElroy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

His public work during the twenty years he conducted The Enquire-Sun was highly appreciated by the people of Columbus. His personal way he was very popular and the large attendance upon his funeral and the many tributes which were offered testified to the esteem in which he was held. Interment was in Linwood cemetery.

STRUCK BY MOTORCYCLE
AFTER LEAP FROM BUGGY

Athens, Ga., November 8.—(Special)—The eight-year-old son of J. H.
Young, of this county, is at a local hotel, his fate hanging between life
and death as a result of an unusual accident which occurred on his way from Athens to Jefferson. The child, who is named as the mule head, became frightened as the mule began to run away. The boy jumped from the buggy and fell in front of a motorcycle ridden by Walter J. Walker, a rural mail carrier of Jackson county.
The machine hit the child and then turned over to the side, throwing the rider out of the road and fracturing badly the skull of the child. The cyclic rider was not injured. The boy was operated upon Sunday morning,
it is hoped successfully.

Rev. Robert MacArthur
Meeting With Success
In Work at Baltimore

The many Atlanta friends of the Rev. Robert Stewart MacArthur, D. D., president of the Baptist World allegiance, and at one time acting pastor of the Tabernacle, will be glad to hear that as permanent pastor of the First Baptist church, of Baltimore, he is having a wonderful success.

Richard H. Edmonds, editor of The Manufacturers' Record, a deacon of that church, who is in Atlanta, in speaking of Dr. MacArthur, said:

"So far as I can learn the attendance of Dr. MacArthur's preaching, especially on Sunday evening, is far ahead of any other church in Baltimore. The Sunday evening before I left, people were standing outside at eleven o'clock waiting for the doors to open for the 8 o'clock service. The auditorium is so crowded every Sunday evening that the adjoining chapel has to be used for the overflow.

Dr. MacArthur has many friends in Baltimore, and I have never heard him preach with such wonderful mental, physical and spiritual fervor as at present. His ministry is attracting very great attention in Baltimore, and many of the deacons and other dominationists—judges, lawyers and bankers, as well as a good many ministers, when they can get away from their own churches—are regular attendants."

JOSEPH MURRAY DIES.

of Marietta, died at noon Sunday after a short illness.

1844. He served nobly throughout the civil war as a member of the First Georgia Cavalry.

He is survived by his wife and children, Misses Lottie Lou and Ella, and a son, Joseph H. Murray, Jr., of Cincinnati, also one brother, T. A.
Murray, of Atlanta. The funeral will be at the home today at 3 o'clock.

TEDDER TO SURRENDER
TO THE SHERIFF TODAY

Other Indictments May Be Announced, Following His Return to the City.

Startling developments are expected
this morning in the indictments against an alleged gang of bond forgers, when Carlton C. Tedder surrenders at 11 o'clock to Sheriff Man-gum.

Tedder was indicted several days ago. A large number of indictments, which were kept secret, were also returned at the same time. Harry Latham, another figure in the Frank investigation, was indicted and is being held under bond of $5,000.

Tedder disappeared at the time the true bills were returned against him.
Police headquarters was notified last night that he telephoned over long distance to his attorney, Joseph A. Hokin, that he would return to Atlanta this morning from Cartersville and surrender to the sheriff.

Bond of $1,000, it is said, will be assessed against him. Arrangements are being made to put up this amount and obtain his freedom at once.

Tedder was formerly an assistant to Attorney William M. Smith, Conley's lawyer and accuser. Tedder was sought into the limelight frequently during the Frank case. At one time he admitted having been in the employ of the Burns agency while he co-operated at the same time with Jim Conley's counsel.

Harry Latham are accused of being involved in bond swindles,
alleged to have been perpetrated at police headquarters. Detectives from Goliver's office have been engaged for months in securing evidence against this alleged gang.

It is believed that with Tedder's surrender the solicitor's office will make known the identities of the other men indicted.

EACH DRINK OF LIQUOR
IN ATLANTA WORTH $100

Opportunity to Make $1,000
Offered Drinkers by Anti-Saloon Leader.

Rev. G. W. Eichelberger spoke on the "Greatest Question Before the American People Today" at the Union Congregational Tabernacle Sunday night.

"I was talking to a man recently
who told me that I can buy one hundred drinks of whisky in Atlanta in one day," asserted Dr. Eichelberger.
"I quickly replied, 'Well, my friend,
if you can do that, you can make $1,000
just about as easily as you ever made money in your life. I will give you $10 for every drink of whisky you buy and pay for in the city of Atlanta.
The only condition that I impose is that you must not be a drunkard. I may select, to see that it is a bona fide sale.'"

"He said, 'I don't care to see my friends in trouble.' I now still make this offer and I will pay $10 for every drink of whisky bought and paid for in Atlanta, and I am to have a man standing by to see it well done. Now, Mr. Whisky Friend, put up or shut up. You can make good money at that, unless you are a drunkard, and committing your crimes in the dark or under cover."

"Here is another thing. I am strongly opposed to woman's missionary conventions, and I have been a member of one of these temperance conventions, and I have seen the women crying at the hotels where liquor is sold, and I have seen the women of my own church subjected to the same kind of thing. I am at stopping at a hotel, owned by the biggest brewer in the country, with a fine bar attached. At Atlanta City next July, when the National Anti-Saloon league meets, we have engaged one hundred hotels where no liquor is sold, and we will have a man standing by to see that it is a bona fide sale."

OLD-TIME MELODIES
SUNG BY CONVICTS
FOR ROAD EXPERTS

As thirty convicts of the Wieuca
convict camp, on the Andrews avenue
convict road, Sunday afternoon, sang old-time "jigger" songs, such as
"Dinah, Sing Low, Sing Low," and
"De Ribber Jordan Flow, Flow, Flow,"
L. W. Page, of Washington, D. C., president of the American Highway association, took out his kerchief and wiped away the tears from his eyes.
When the negroes finished their melodies, Mr. Page took out his purse and distributed a dollar bill to each of them.

W. "Tom" Wilson, Fulton county
highway engineer, had taken Mr.
Page and Austin B. Fletcher, of Sacramento, Cal., who is president of the association, on an inspection tour of the new concrete road on Andrews avenue.

Mr. Austin and Mr. Page wanted to see the bloodhounds chase an escaped convict. Mr. Wilson instructed a trustee to make a tour of the camp.
When the bloodhounds, in hot pursuit, overtook him and chased him under a tree, Mr. Page and Mr. Austin were convulsed with laughter. The blood-hounds were well trained and the negro was in no danger of being injured.

editor of The Manufacturers' Record.
The young groom is the son-in-law
of Mr. Edmonds. Howard L.
Clark is his name, and he and his pretious bride are at the Wincoff

Yale Has Won Twenty, Princeton Ten Games; Nine Have Been Ties

Yale and Princeton, those deadly rivals, meet on the gridiron Saturday in a contest which has resulted in two ties.

Of the thirty-nine games already played, Yale has won twenty, Princeton ten and nine have resulted in ties.

The 1913 and 1912 games were the affairs, last year's being 3 to 2 and the 1912 engagement, 6 to 6. Here are the scores of the first nine years:

1872—Princeton 3 goals, Yale 0. 1873—Yale 2 goals, Princeton 0. 1874—Princeton 1 goal, Yale 0. 1875—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1876—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1877—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1878—Yale 2 goals, Princeton 0. 1879—Yale 1 goal, 1 safety. 1880—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1881—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1882—Yale 2 goals, touchdowns; 1 safety. 1883—Yale 1 goal, 1 safety. 1884—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1885—Princeton 6, Yale 0. 1886—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1887—Yale 12, Princeton 0. 1888—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1889—Princeton 10, Yale 0. 1890—Yale 22, Princeton 0. 1891—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1892—Yale 12, Princeton 0. 1893—Yale 6, Yale 0. 1894—Yale 24, Princeton 0. 1895—Yale 20, Princeton 10. 1896—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1897—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1898—Princeton 6, Yale 0. 1899—Yale 19, Princeton 0. 1900—Yale 23, Princeton 0. 1901—Yale 12, Princeton 0. 1902—Princeton 11, Yale 6. 1903—Princeton 10, Yale 0. 1904—Yale 23, Princeton 0. 1905—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1906—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1907—Yale 11, Princeton 0. 1908—Yale 17, Princeton 0. 1909—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1910—Yale 6, Yale 2. 1911—Princeton 6, Yale 2. 1912—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1913—Yale 0, Princeton 0. 1914—Yale 0, Princeton 0.

Note: The game of 1913 was played under the old rules, under which the association edict, the games of 1876 and 1877 were played under the intercollegiate rules, but the adopted the score should be computed by goals only. Under the rules of 1882 two safeties equaled a touchdown. Princeton having scored 6 points and Yale 12, the game was a tie. The game of 1880 terminated similarly to the game of 1884, Yale having scored 4 points and Princeton 0.

Bugs That Sleep Upside Down. (From The Searchlight.) Somebody is always discovering something new to us. Somebody is not the subject upon which discovery is fastened is very, very old. Somebody is a person who finds out that something about them is distinctly unusual.

Now, who would expect to find a conch, a garden variety insect doing anything out of the way? Nevertheless, this is what certain professors of the biological university of St. Petersburg have done. They have unearthed an insect that sleeps upside down.

Standing on its head, with its legs straight up in the air, this insect sleeps profoundly for four or five hours a day. It is a new discovery, which the only way they could prove this strange creature, which they have named "the stick insect," was to pinch vigorously their upstanding legs or otherwise to excite them. When standing on their merging into their surroundings, and heads asleep they look just like sticks, hence their unusual name.

Cure for Snake Bite. Many are the curious methods adopted for curing snake bites, but surely none can be more so than a way of curing them by means of a snake. Two natives in a village near that station were, he says, brought back to life after being bitten by a cobra.

The victims were seated on the ground and their heads from a height of 15 feet gallons of hot water were poured over their heads. Presently they awoke to the correspondent and the victims took a new lease of life and are now as well as though they had never been in the jaws of death at all. The story is a new one, but probably is that the snake, as often happens, bit its victims, but inflicted no poisonous bite. Thus the men were merely terrified and continued to be frightened until the pain caused by the stinging of hot water drove them something else to think about.

Looking Both Ways. Two things govern the selection of lenses and mountings for the glasses which we wear. There's the way you look in them and there's the way you look through them. Our aim is to see in both ways as satisfactory to you. J. B. Moore & Sons, Opticians, 32 N. Broad street.—(adv.)

The first bombardment of the town was not followed until the first days of September, when a captive balloon appeared in the air across the river and the German army commenced maneuvering over the town.
