

CARRANZA'S TROOPS EVACUATE CAPITAL AS VILLA ADVANCES

Situation in Turbulent Republic Is More Confused Than It Has Been in Many Months.

GEN. VILLA TO COMMAND FORCES OF CONVENTION

All Public Offices in Mexico City Vacated—Rumored That Zapata Has Occupied Puebla.

BLANCO IMPRISONED OBREGON, TAKES PLACE, SAYS REPORT

Vera Cruz, November 20.—An unconfirmed report has reached here that General Lucio Blanco, of the constitutional forces, by a coup d'etat, has imprisoned General Obregon and made himself executive head of the Mexico City government.

Washington, November 20.—Official advices to the American government today from its agents in Mexico pictured the situation as more confused than it has been in many months. The official telegrams summarized events as follows:

General Gutierrez, selected provisional president by the Aguas Calientes convention, has decided to continue General Villa in command of all the troops controlled by the convention. Villa has advanced to Irapuato without resistance, and American consular agents say he will continue to Queretaro and the vicinity of Mexico City without difficulty.

General Obregon, in the Mexican capital, loyal to Carranza, has formally declared war on Villa, but his troops have been evacuating Mexico City today. The purpose of the move is unexplained.

General Obregon will leave the capital on Saturday. One message said he would go to the coast, from which point it was thought he would move north to Guadalajara and attempt to get into the rear of the Villa forces. Another telegram spoke of the probable departure for Vera Cruz, where it is supposed he will join Carranza next Monday to take possession of the city when the American forces depart.

Public Offices Vacated.

All the public offices in Mexico City have been vacated. American agents there do not know whether the Carranza-Obregon faction will leave the place undefended, or leave a small garrison there, or whether the Villa forces and other Carranza forces move north to meet the Villa advance.

Railroad communication north of Mexico City is interrupted, and either Zapata followers or as federalists have cut the line from Mexico City to Vera Cruz at San Marcos.

There are rumors at Villa's headquarters, according to one consular dispatch, that Puebla has been occupied by Carranza's forces.

American Consul Silliman, in a dispatch filed in Mexico City at 3 o'clock last night, reported that General Obregon's troops are progressing favorably, and moving the offices of the government with them.

Enraged in City.

Consul Silliman added that the city was in a state of decided unrest. He did not indicate whether the Obregon troops were evacuating the city to leave it undefended before the troops approaching from the north or whether the Villa forces were progressing favorably, and moving the offices of the government with them.

VILLA'S MEN, 60,000 STRONG, MARCHING ON MEXICO CITY.

El Paso, Texas, November 20.—Villa's agents here declared tonight that three strong columns of Villa troops aggregating 60,000 men now were on the march: one headed by Villa himself, toward Mexico City; another from Irapuato, under General Rafael Madro, toward Guadalajara, metropolis of the west coast; the third, headed by George Garcia, from San Luis Potosi toward Tampico.

BLANCO TO GUARD CITY FROM ZAPATA RAIDERS.

Mexico City, November 20.—The military has taken complete command of all roads out of the capital, and troops of the substantial Zapata supporters, have been strongly repulsed. It is believed General Lucio Blanco will remain in command of the forces from a raid by Zapata adherents.

TRAFFIC IS INTERRUPTED ON MEXICAN RAILROADS.

Vera Cruz, November 20.—Traffic was interrupted today on both the railroads leading from Vera Cruz to Mexico City. Mexican officials said the constitutionalists had taken a rolling stock on that road between Mexico

SCHWAB IS OPTIMISTIC ON TRADE CONDITIONS

Steel Magnate Says Prosperity and Confidence Are on the Way.

New York, November 20.—Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, who returned from London today, declined to go into details as to his mission abroad, stating merely that his company had a number of large contracts in force in Europe and that his presence was necessary. He denied reports that the Bethlehem Steel Corporation had contracted to build twenty submarines for Great Britain.

Mr. Schwab gave what he said was the first optimistic statement on business conditions that had come from him in three years.

"I believe we are near the turning point for a full return of confidence and prosperity in the United States," he said. "We are being favored by the war as no other country. As an example, Germany normally produces from twelve to fifteen million tons of steel annually, of which about eight million tons are exported. This is a glut of steel and the advantage is in our favor."

"What is true of steel, is true of other commodities, but it is not the war supply trade alone that is turning the tide. We are recovering from the shock of the war, legislation is such that capital has more confidence and business is being stimulated. At Bethlehem some time back we were forced partially to suspend operations, but we are now in full action again and we will increase our production."

LOADED WITH COAL, GERMAN STEAMERS STEAL FROM PORTS

Lima, Peru, November 20.—The German steamer Luxor, of the Kosmos line, with 3,000 tons of coal on board, has suddenly left Coronel, Chile, without having received clearance papers. The German steamer Memphis also has secretly left San Diego Point.

The Chilean authorities have ordered the capture of the Luxor.

LOG CABIN CLUB. House of Famous Club Burns to Ground.

Macon, Ga., November 20.—(Special.) The old Log Cabin clubhouse, where much of the gay social life of Macon in the last score of years has centered, was burned to the ground this afternoon, the pine logs with which the building was constructed making a blaze that could be seen for miles. Four weeks ago the club sold the property to E. E. Powers, expecting to move into their new quarters at Idle Hour farm the first of December, and Mr. Powers was remodeling the clubhouse in order to convert it into a residence. The furniture belonging to the club was still in the building, and a portion of it was destroyed. The clubhouse originally cost $7,500 to build. No insurance was carried.

DEATH PENALTY STAYS; TWELVE MEN MUST HANG

Phoenix, Ariz., November 20.—Official returns from the recent election show that Arizona defeated an initiative measure abolishing the death penalty. Twelve men under sentence of death, reprieved by Governor Hunt, so the people might decide their fates, must hang. The vote was: Yes, 18,183; no, 19,329.

Governor Hunt, it is understood, will reprieve the convicted men until after Christmas, and then sentence the dates of execution.

AUSTRIANS ADVANCE AGAINST SERBIANS

Vienna, November 20.—(Via London, November 20.)—The following official communication was issued tonight:

"In the southern war theater there have been partial battles on our entire front. Our attacks are progressing favorably. Yesterday we captured seven officers and 600 men.

"The weather is unfavorable. There is one metre (about 3 feet) of snow on the heights; the flat country is inundated."

British Casualties.

London, November 20.—Casualty lists issued tonight show 5 officers killed, 44 wounded and 6 missing.

German General Dead.

London, November 20.—A Reuter dispatch from Berlin gives the official announcement that Major General von Verhags-Rhett, quartermaster general of the German army, has died suddenly from heart failure.

Cruiser Tennessee and Her Captain

U.S. CRUISER TENNESSEE. HARBOR OF SMYRNA. CAPTAIN DECKER.

A threat to force his way past the force guarding the entrance to the harbor of Smyrna was made by Captain Benton C. Decker, in command of the United States armored cruiser Tennessee, according to dispatches received from Athens. The action of the force in firing on a launch of the cruiser had been ill treated and the commander of the Tennessee to go into Smyrna harbor; that the commanders of both the Tennessee and her sister ship, the North Carolina, had been given instructions to remain in Mediterranean waters and look out for American interests. He was satisfied that neither of the commanders would take any step that might involve the United States in international difficulties. The Tennessee recently took $2,500,000 in gold to Europe to relieve the American situation there. The Tennessee carries a formidable armament of four ten-inch (forty caliber) guns in pairs in the fore and aft turrets; sixteen six-inch (fifty caliber) guns, twenty-two three-inch guns and four twenty-inch torpedoes tubes. Smyrna, at the head of Smyrna bay, is the largest and most important Turkish seaport on the west coast of Asia. It has a broad, artificial harbor; it is estimated that there are about 800,000 residents. The American residents are fewer in number.

AMENDMENT BEATEN, SAYS CHARLES BRANAN

Will Ask a Recount of Vote on Four-Year Term for County Officers.

Charles I. Branan, of Atlanta, who persistently fought the adoption of the amendment providing for a four-year term for county officers instead of two, says that, although the amendment was defeated, he will ask for a recount of the vote cast for and against the amendment at the general election. Mr. Branan says that his count of the vote shows that the amendment was defeated by a margin of 1,745 votes for the amendment and 365 against it, or a total of only 2,110. He says that the difference of 107 votes in the totals should have been contained against the amendment, bringing the total up to 472.

Mr. Branan contends that the same condition applies to the total vote cast in the election. He contends that only eighty-two counties voted for the amendment, and that not a single senatorial district sustained it.

WIRE FROM TENNESSEE.

Daniels' Dispatch Acknowledged, But No News Given.

Washington, November 20.—Secretary Daniels received messages today from Captain Decker, of the cruiser Tennessee, and Captain Omar, of the cruiser North Carolina, acknowledging receipt of the Tennessee's launch at Smyrna several days ago. The state department also is still without advices from Ambassador Morgenthau.

Secretary Daniels said he thought Captain Decker probably was waiting to get into communication with Ambassador Morgenthau before making a complete report.

State department officials estimated that from past delays in messages from Constantinople they should hear from Ambassador Morgenthau tomorrow or Sunday and a more complete description of the incident was expected from Constantinople.

It is thought probable that as a result of the mining of several Turkish ports and the sensitiveness of the Ottoman government to the presence of the foreign warships, the American cruisers may be ordered to anchor off Chios, Greece, where the Tennessee now is. The North Carolina is at Beirut, Asia Minor, and the North Carolina is at the western Mediterranean. It was stated today at the navy department, however, that the Tennessee is at Smyrna incident. It is thought advisable that they be kept within easy reach of Turkish ports to afford assistance to distressed Americans should emergencies arise.

GEN. JOSE SALAZAR ESCAPES FROM JAIL

Albuquerque, N. M., November 20.—General Jose Ynez Salazar escaped from the Bernalillo county jail at Old Albuquerque tonight.

CANDLER SPEAKS ON UNIVERSITY

North Georgia Conference, in Session at Marietta, Decides to Meet in Rome Next Year.

Marietta, Ga., November 20.—(Special.)—The feature of the morning session of the North Georgia conference, now convened here, was an address by Bishop Warren A. Candler, of Atlanta, in behalf of the work of the new Methodist university being established in that city. Bishop Candler was formerly a member of the faculty of the university, and he has been elevated to the episcopacy, and is always welcomed in attending its sessions. As the bishop delivered his address standing room was at a premium, every available inch of space being used by the immense audience listening to him. The bishop spoke in part as follows:

"Nothing was ever more frequently stolen in America, except chickens, than colleges and universities. The issue before us today is education by church or education by irresponsible institutions. As for me, I would prefer the state university to the educational work being done by a board of trustees who interfere with our affairs. Methodism is the educational work and here to stay. They have tried to read us out; but we won't be read out. They have tried to read us out of the state and Romanism. Should that come to pass, it would be a sad calamity for our country, and for any other country where it could be accomplished.

Psychological Moment.

"This is the most important movement of my life, and it brings to me an opportunity that we are bound to take advantage of. In Europe, the universities are closed, and it will take fifty years to re-establish them as they were a few days ago, should the war be declared this hour. The tide of students is turning to us. Will we bear our part? We can, and we will. Should we fail in supporting this venture in Christian education, our missionary money will be largely wasted. From my own observation, I know that the native convert who is educated under our Christian influences softens the ground for the missionary in the foreign field."

Bishop Candler took a fling at modernism, with its science and evolution, and hope to redeem the race and save man from the misfortune of sin.

"We are not the founders of Christianity, and I thank God that my countrymen have declared this hour. The tide of students is turning to us. Will we bear our part? We can, and we will. Should we fail in supporting this venture in Christian education, our missionary money will be largely wasted. From my own observation, I know that the native convert who is educated under our Christian influences softens the ground for the missionary in the foreign field."

Immediately after Bishop Candler finished his address Dr. J. E. Dickey, president of Emory college, and affiliated with the conference board of education, read the report of the board of education, in which the plan proposed was endorsed that Emory college be merged into the new university, and that the university be named "Emory university," and be located near Atlanta, in DeKalb county. The conference unanimously adopted the report read by Dr. Dickey. The North Georgia and Florida conferences will take like action.

Franchises Who Hide.

Bishop Collins Denny, in his morning session, will take like action.

JACK F. LETTON FINED; HARRY SAPHIRE FREED

Recorder Johnson Threatens to Fine Sam Hewlett and Lee Jordan for Argument.

In a prolonged hearing, which was featured by the judge's threat to impose fines upon Sam Hewlett and Lee Jordan, opposing counsel, every phase of the fight which occurred between Jack F. Letton, manager of the Wincoff hotel, and Harry Saphire, the house officer, was brought out before the recorder Friday afternoon.

The hearing was called counsel for Saphire said his client would refuse to testify against his employer as it might prejudice his case when he goes on trial in the city court to explain why certain property, which it is alleged did not belong to Saphire, was found in his room. When the arresting officer did not appear, Recorder Johnson stated that he would accept Letton's own statement about the affair and fine him $675.

After hearing from the numerous witnesses to the fight in the barber shop, the judge ordered the case against Saphire dismissed. Last Saturday night Letton went into the barber shop to ask Saphire why he had not answered the call of a lady who claimed to have lost a silk coat. Both sides testified that Saphire was reclining in a barber chair. Several witnesses for the house officer stated that they had not seen Saphire do anything that would provoke the slap on the face which Letton testified that he administered. Letton, on the other hand, claimed that when he approached Saphire to request him to look into the case of alleged theft he was given a curt reply couched in insulting language.

While discussing the attitude of Mr. Letton towards the house detective prior to the fight, the argument between Hewlett, representing Saphire, and Jordan, representing Letton, became so heated that the judge threatened to the both lawyers.

ARMED DIRIGIBLE BEING CONSTRUCTED FOR UNITED STATES

Akron, Ohio, November 20.—(Special.)—A dirigible airplane equipped with machine guns, wireless apparatus and armored cages is being constructed here for the United States government, it was learned today. If the balloon proves satisfactory the government promises to place an order for six larger ones, with entire war equipment.

The dirigible under construction will be 160 feet long and 40 feet in diameter, with a raising capacity of nearly 12,000 pounds. It will carry twelve in a steel car suspended beneath it. The car will have machine guns, oxygen tanks and air pumps to supply the crew at any altitude. Two engines of 100-horsepower each will be used to propel the ship. Another 20-horsepower engine will be installed to start the larger ones. The carrier will be 75 feet long and 10 feet wide. The approximate cost of the airship will be $150,000.

Ralph H. Upson, pilot of the Goodyear balloon, which won world's honors last year from Paris, and R. D. Preston, his aide, are supervising work on the big dirigible. They expect to complete the bag within six months. It will be shipped to the seaboard for trial flights.

The largest of the contemplated fleet will be 350 feet in length, and will comfortably carry a crew of twenty men.

Germans and Austrians Engaged With Russians In Three Great Battles

ADVANCE CHECKED, ADMIT RUSSIANS

Only Partial Successes Are Claimed by Petrograd. Germans Attack Line Between Vistula and Warta.

Petrograd, November 20.—The following official statement from the Russian general staff was issued here tonight:

"The efforts of the Germans seem to be aimed at trying to break down our front between the Vistula and the Warta.

"Our offensive on November 19 met with partial successes. Northwest of Lodz we captured a battery of heavy artillery, ten machine guns and several hundred prisoners.

"Stubborn fight on the Czenstochowa and Cracow front are developing normally. On November 17-18 we took 3,000 Austrian prisoners.

"In Galicia we have occupied Wisnecz, Gorlice, Dukla and Ulok."

SIEGE OF PRZEMYSL IS APPROACHING END.

Paris, November 20.—A Havas dispatch from Petrograd says:

"It is announced here that the siege of Przemysl by the Russians is rapidly approaching its end. The trenches surrounding the fortifications are in the possession of the Russians. Many trenches are filled with lime, confirming statements of prisoners that cholera is raging in the garrison of Przemysl."

GOBEN PLANNED ATTACK ON CZAR'S SUMMER HOME.

Petrograd, November 20.—(Via London.)—From reports received here of the Russian Turkish naval engagement off Sebastopol it is apparent the Turkish cruisers Goeben and Breslau were on their way to bombard the summer residence of Emperor Nicholas just outside Yalta.

The news of the Goeben's planned attack on the czar's summer home aboard the Goeben when the Russian ship appeared 25 miles off the mouth of Sebastopol harbor. The Goeben made no immediately alteration in her course, but she was ordered to return to the Russian fleet steamed in battle formation, bringing the Goeben between them and the coast.

The Russian flagship Levstovsk opened broadside with her 12-inch guns, hitting the Goeben's upper deck and setting the ship on fire. The Goeben replied, but in spite of her short range, "forty cable lengths," her shots resulted in no serious damage. It was claimed that her upper works and one funnel were badly damaged before she drew off.

While turning to pursue the Goeben the Levstovsk landed several more shells on the Turkish ship, evidently crippling the main turrets. The Breslau took no part in the fighting, standing a long way off.

TURK FORT IS FIRED BY RUSSIAN FLEET.

Petrograd, November 21.—(Via London.)—The following official communication from the headquarters of the army of the Caucasus was issued last night:

"Russian warships November 19 bombarded the port of Khopeh, in Turkish territory, which was repulsed. Whether Bulgaria should remain neutral or throw in her lot with the allies was discussed today in the sobor. Leaders of the democratic party suggested that the allies should be consulted as to their intentions regarding the future of the Balkans.

GERMANS REPULSED IN ARGONNE FOREST, SAYS PARIS REPORT.

Paris, November 20.—The following official statement was issued by the French war office tonight:

"There is no important incident to report."

A French official communication issued this afternoon says that yesterday there were heavy and infantry attacks on the part of the enemy, and that the artillery activity also was largely reduced. The text of the communication follows:

"The day of November 19 was marked by the almost total absence of infantry attacks on the part of the enemy; at the same time their artillery fire was much less violent than on the afternoon of November 18.

"To the north the weather has been very bad, and snow has fallen. All the region of the Yser canal, to the east of Dixmude is invaded by the waters.

"The front of Ramecourt was held withdrawn from the water, two 165-centimetre mortars abandoned by the Germans. There has been a very fairly intense artillery fire to the south of Ypres.

"On the center there have been no important actions to report. In the Argonne three vigorous attacks on the part of the enemy's infantry have been repulsed.

"As far as we know the Germans have reconquered the destroyed section of Chauvoncourt. Further to the east we have made some progress."

GERMANY IS PREPARING FOR DEFENSE OF BERLIN

London, November 21.—(2:50 a. m.)—The Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent says:

"In the new invasion of Poland, the Germans are using their heavy troops and depending on machine guns and machinery.

"As far as we know the Russians will continue to retire until the plan chosen by Grand Duke Nicholas for the final effort is reached. Meanwhile the Germans are engaged upon enormous military engineering works to defend Berlin, fifty miles east of the capital at Kustrin, where the Warthe flows into the Oder."

Kaiser Hurling Half Million Men in Effort to Break Russ Line Between Vistula and Warta.

STRUGGLE IN FLANDERS ALMOST AT STANDSTILL

French Claim Repulse of Germans in Argonne—Austria's Advance Into Serbia Is Arousing Bulgaria.

London, November 20.—Two big battles, both of which may have decisive results, are raging in Poland, and a third of almost equal importance is progressing in East Prussia.

Of the three battles, that now at its height between the Vistula and Warta rivers, and in which the Russians tonight claim partial success, is exciting the most interest. The Germans, it is believed, have brought up by their lines of strategic railways in Posen and Silesia at least half a million men in an effort to break the Russian line here. Weather conditions, the frozen ground and the situation of the battlefield favor a battle decisive to a degree not equalled on any other field in the present war.

The other battle in Poland is taking place on the Cracow-Czenstochowa front, and Russians and Germans each claim it is proceeding satisfactorily. In East Prussia the Russian advance is moving slowly through the wild country surrounding the Mazurian lakes. In Galicia the Russians are moving westward and at the same time are seizing the passes of the Carpathians.

INFAINT ATTACKS CEASE IN FLANDERS.

There now is almost a complete absence of infantry attacks in the western arena and the artillery fighting is much less violent. All that region about Dixmude through which the French canal is inundated and the only serious fighting appears to be taking place south of Yser, where cannonading is in progress.

Bad weather, which necessarily hampers operations, has been experienced and snow has fallen in some places.

There has been no important action in the French center, but in the Argonne region the Germans have made vigorous attacks, which, the French were repulsed. On the French right wing the Germans have taken Chauvon Court, part of which they destroyed a few days ago. German activity in the vicinity of Rheims has slackened.

Austria's advance into Serbia is creating uneasiness in Bulgaria, as to the future of the Balkan states. Whether Bulgaria should remain neutral or throw in her lot with the allies was discussed today in the sobor. Leaders of the democratic party suggested that the allies should be consulted as to their intentions regarding the future of the Balkans.

AUSTRIAN ADVANCE STIRS UP ITALY.

Italy, too, has been affected by the Austrian advance, and her ambassadors at the European capitals have been called home to confer with the cabinet. Marquis Imperiali, Italian ambassador to Great Britain, will leave for Rome tomorrow.

To prevent tea reaching Germany from England through neutral countries, Great Britain has prohibited its

BRITISH LOSSES HEAVY IN EGYPT, SAYS BERLIN

Germans Claim All Egypt Is in Favor of Holy War.

Berlin, November 20.—(By Wireless.) The following information was given out for the press today in official quarters:

"Advices from Rome are to the effect that in the fighting at El Arish, a fortified Egyptian town on the Mediterranean, the British suffered heavy losses. The Italian colony in Egypt is suffering from the prostration of all lines of trade. Major General Sir John Maxwell, commander of the British forces in Egypt, declared that it was only her treaties with the allies which led England to fight against Turkey. From all sections of Egypt come reports of enthusiastic manifestations in favor of a holy war. The Sheikh-ul-Islam has communicated with a majority of the Mohammedan princes of Asia and Africa, who declare they will assist Turkey in a war against England.

The London Times estimates the Russian losses in their last defeat by General von Hindenburg at 40,000 to 50,000. The Austrians captured 17 machine guns and several large field guns.

The Popolo Romano and the Preparazione, Roman newspapers, say that further resistance on the part of the Serbians is impossible.

Russ Standard Taken.

The information comes from the Turkish military headquarters that the fighting in Trans-Caucasia is proceeding favorably. A Russian standard, four guns and many prisoners were taken.

The Turkish troops have been reinforced by Persian tribesmen. Lord Newton estimates the British losses at 80,000.

Dispatches from Rome state that there is a serious agitation among the Sudanese working people of Alexandria, in consequence of the manifesto of the Calif decreeing a holy war.

Information from Durban, South Africa, is to the effect that 3,000 Boers have gathered near Bloemfontein, and that an attack on the town is feared. The garrison there numbers only 500.

Castle Not Damaged.

"Contrary to the false French reports concerning the destruction of the castle at Compiègne by the Germans, the conservator of the castle, the well known historian, Monroze, states in the Rome paper Tribuna, that no damage has been done to the castle.

"He says that the Germans were very polite and that he is grateful to them.

Press information given out in official circles today includes the following:

"Albert Ballin, director general of the Hamburg-American Steamship company, who was quoted recently by The London Times as saying that it was becoming clearer daily that England could not be defeated, denies that he ever said such a thing. On the contrary, he believes that England already has been defeated."

GERMANY NOT AFRAID OF RUSSIA'S NUMBERS

Berlin, November 20.—(Via The Hague and London.)—"The Russians have numbers on their side, but numbers alone are not the decisive factor. In the present stage of the war less than ever before we are not afraid of Russian numerical superiority. At Tannenberg the Russians outnumbered us three to one, yet the result was a notable German victory.

These are the views of General von Hindenburg, now facing the great Russian war machine, expressed in conversation with the Berlin correspondent of The Neue Freie Presse, of Vienna.

"The Russians," said General von Hindenburg, "are good soldiers and obedient discipline, but they lack of another sort than that of the Austro-German, which is based on thinking and the execution of command, while the Russian discipline is a mere blind, dull obedience.

"The Russians have learned much since the Japanese war, particularly in the science of entrenching, but when the ground is frozen they will no longer be able to dig themselves in. They will have a bad time of it. That is one of the advantages the winter campaign will bring us.

"It is a sad but good thing that war and sentimentality do not go together. In the end the most merciful, because war is sooner ended thereby."

"The war with Russia is now chiefly a question of whose nerves will snap first. If Austria and Germany have stronger nerves—and they have them—then they will be victorious."

Rescue of German Soldiers

RESCUING WOUNDED GERMAN SOLDIER FROM CULVERT.

There's a lot of human interest in this war picture. It was taken at Ruters, Belgium, not far from Dixmude, which the Germans recently captured. It shows German soldiers rescuing another from a culvert. His story is interesting. He had been waiting in fighting five days before and had crawled into the culvert to escape being captured by the Belgians. He expected his side would win a quick victory and that he would not have to remain in concealment long. But the tide of battle turned against the Germans and they retired from the town. Rather than face capture this brave soldier remained in his hiding place for five days without food and with only a little foul water that remained in the tiny stream that ran through the culvert. When rescued he was more dead than alive. He received the iron cross.

1,500 BRITISH DROWNED, CLAIMS BERLIN REPORT

French Lost 20,000 Around Dixmude, Says Dispatch From Holland.

Berlin, November 20.—(By Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—Reports received to-day from Holland, according to information given out in official circles here, are to the effect that in the fighting near Dixmude and Dixmude the French lost 20,000 men and that 1,500 British were drowned in the Yser canal.

The opinion was expressed in military circles here today that notwithstanding the great number of Russian troops in Poland, estimated at 900,000, excluding those in the Schirwinitz region, General Von Hindenburg would soon be able to report a decisive victory. The position of the Russian forces is considered unfavorable, both on account of the nature of the ground and because such large forces are concentrated within a comparatively small territory.

Interest in the situation in the west is momentarily eclipsed by that in the east.

Reports from Vienna tell of successes in Galicia, including the occupation by the Teutonic allies of Tarnow and Wlaczka. According to these reports, 7,000 prisoners were taken.

Constantinople reports further victories near Azov, Salmas and Zavatlar. It is also said that in consequence of the advance of the Arabs, several of the governmental departments of Port Said, Suez and Ismailia have been transferred to Zagazig, an Egyptian town 49 miles from Cairo. The government of the Suez canal is reported to have been taken over by the military authorities.

The Congo crisis has reached another high notch, a new community in West Virginia being named Tango. Curiously enough there is not a resident who is familiar with the dance.

SUPPLIES FOR BELGIUM WILL BE CARRIED FREE

New York, November 20.—To facilitate transportation of food and clothing for Belgian relief, all railroads of the Trunk Lines association, covering territory east of the Mississippi and north of Norfolk, Va., will transmit such supplies without charge. It was announced tonight. The commission for relief in Belgium is trying to effect a similar arrangement with lines west of the Mississippi.

The next relief ship sailing under charter of the commission will load next week at Philadelphia, taking on supplies from the northwestern states and Pennsylvania. About December 1 another ship will be dispatched from New York with a cargo of western contributions.

Mrs. Herbert C. Hoover will sail next week to join her husband, chairman of the London committee and assist him in his work. She was chairman of the American woman's relief committee in London during the early days of the war.

Take the edge off the cold these days with a gas room-heater. See the gas company.

In its experiments with the production of steel by electric methods the United States Steel corporation has expended more than $500,000.

The Canary Islands, last year, shipped 3,500,000 crates of bananas and 5,025,000 boxes of tomatoes to the United States.

"Here We Are, Safe and Sound"

Golliwog, Chief High Zing of the Toys

Gives Out Interesting Interview on His Arrival at His New Home.

Bids All Atlanta, Young and Old, to His First Public Appearance Saturday In the Bazaar, at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Long live Golliwog, Chief High Zing of the Toys! He is here safe and sound, and all his followers. Today he holds public reception for the children and grown-ups of Atlanta; he wants them all to come and make merry.

He was in high spirits when interviewed; filled with the joy of living; glad to get to his new home after a wonderful trip across the Atlantic.

Golliwog a Quaint Fellow.

But to quote him—he is a merry little fellow, although chief high zing of the whole populous toy world; very plain, with none of these high-sounding phrases that the other great kings affect—so his own words:

"Gee, it's great to be here in this big, fine city; well worth the long trip we had to get here.

"Let me tell you about it—

"You know they are shooting up everybody and everything over in Europe. The minute a boat pokes its nose out of Germany—zip, zowie, boom—good-bye!

Plans Christmas Trip.

"Well, it came along time for me to start my Christmas trip and my brave lieutenant Zis came to me and asked would we risk it.

"Sure," said I. "We must make it to Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s; think of all our little friends over there waiting for us."

The Gathering of the Clan.

"Aye, aye, Captain, your word is the law," spoke gallant Zis, and was off taking the word to all my peoples throughout Toyland to gather themselves and their belongings for the trip to Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s.

"Well, str, finer lads you never saw! Every gallant son and daughter of the land of Toys made ready at once.

"Here we are, you see, every one of us, and all our belongings, our tools, our baggage, our beds, our pets, everything. But how did we get here?"

The Flag of Santa Claus.

"Well, we set sail from Bremen. On the second day out we were all on deck having a merry time, bands were playing, the young folks dancing, when Zis, on the lookout, saw a big warship ahead. I went to the bridge.

"Hoist the flag of Santa Claus," was my first order. "Continue full speed ahead; let the bands keep playing; young folks dance on."

"Up went the flag of Santa Claus, and watching through my glasses I soon saw that the warship recognized the flag. All hands on deck seemed busy—then from the topmast mast we saw the White Flag spread to the winds.

The Wireless and the Salute.

"Soon a wireless message came: 'We salute you, Golliwog, Zing of the Toys—continue your journey in peace; and as we passed their band was playing and all hands had lined up on their port side to wave us bon voyage and Merry Christmas.'

"And so it was, all during the trip, with the flag of good Santa Claus flying, every ship we passed saluted us.

"It was a happy, happy voyage—not an accident to mar it; all were in high spirits; we had games and music and banquets and dances all the way over.

All Ready.

"Now we are here all safe and sound. Today we shall hold our first public reception—and bid all Atlanta, young and old, welcome to our new home—The Bazaar, at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s."

NOVEMBER RECORD FOR COLD BROKEN

Associated Charities, City Warden's Office and Christian Helpers' League Have Many Calls for Aid.

This is a weather story based on one of the most severe weather aigets Atlanta has experienced since the weather bureau was established.

It deals with the Christian Helpers' League, the warden's office and two strange and weary young chaps who blew in on the blinds of the Dixie Flyer at 2:30 a. m. Friday morning.

In the first place there's no use setting forth the fact that Friday and Thursday night were mighty cold. But there is some little consolation in the news that the wave will be checked considerably today, and that Atlanta may begin looking for higher temperatures this morning.

It was the coldest November day in Atlanta's weather history since February 4, 1912, when the mercury dropped to 10 degrees.

It was the coldest November day in history. The thermometer registered 14.05 degrees at 6 o'clock in the morning and set up an average velocity of 36 miles an hour.

When their doors were thrown open early Friday morning the Associated Charities was besieged with calls from less than a dozen wanderers who had come south to cheat the snows of the north and found it just as cold here as in the regions they had fled.

More than 100 applicants applied for food, work and shelter. Many of them were mothers with children, hungry little ones who huddled before meager fires throughout the day to stave off the chilling weatherboards through broken panes.

The city warden's office was the scene of many tragic examples of a city's dependents. Women and children came all the way from the place pleading for food, firewood and clothing and shelter.

LEO FRANK AGAIN LOSES BIG POINT

Supreme Court Declines to Certify Case to Supreme Court of U. S.—Dorsey to Fight Further Effort.

On the ground that no constitutional point exists in the Leo Frank case, in which he proposes to be substituted by the state supreme court in its refusal to grant a writ of error, Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey will make a fight against the move of Frank's attorneys to gain a hearing before the supreme court of the United States.

Immediately following the declaration of the Georgia court to issue a writ of error, attorneys Harry Alexander and Henry Peoples, counsel for Frank on his constitutional motion, left for Washington to confer with Justice Joseph P. Lamar of the United States supreme court, with a view to getting him to issue the writ.

No light on this move will be made by Dorsey. In view of the declaration of the defense appeal, however, the solicitor will present an argument in rebuttal to the effect that no constitutional point exists in the famous case, and that the Georgia court is not justified in their effort to carry the case into the highest court.

He will present as corroboration the precedent established by the Georgia court when it refused to grant the writ. "Will Be Reinstated." The remittitur on the supreme court decision will be sent down within the next ten days.

By the time it reaches the lower court, habeas corpus proceedings will be taken out against Frank and he will be permitted to return to the state, where he will be reinstated.

The action of the supreme court in refusing to certify to the proposed writ of error came as a distinct shock to the Georgia lawyers, who are expected to carry their case to Washington, unhampered, through this channel.

Now, however, they will have to depend entirely upon the view of any one of the justices of which they can appeal. If Frank loses in this final court fight his only hope lies in the prison commission and the Georgia legislature.

It is expected that the Georgia legislature will pass a law which will give the state supreme court the right to issue a writ of error in such cases as that of Leo Frank.

8 BODIES WASH ASHORE AFTER STORM ON LAKE

Grand Marais, Mich., November 20.—Eight bodies are known to have perished in the gale which has swept Lake Superior for the last three days, and grave fears are felt that there may have been greater loss of life.

The bodies were found today on the shore 8 miles from the life-saving station here. The Peterson carried a crew of only seven.

Storm warnings were displayed and a heavy north-west gale was blowing when the C. P. Curtis, towing the two barges, left Baraga. That was the last heard of the boats until wreckage from the Peterson came ashore today.

Life-saving crews in power boats immediately started out to search for more wreckage, but none had been found tonight.

DREADFUL PAINS GREAT SUFFERING
Was the Lot of This Lady Who Tells the Story of How She Recovered Her Health.
Dallas, N. C.—Mrs. Thomas Davis, of this place, says: "About two years ago, when I was eighteen years old, I was in a bad condition from womanly troubles. I felt off until I weighed not more than 85 lbs.
I suffered dreadful pains in my hips, sides and abdomen, for about 5 days out of every month.
I couldn't sleep at night, and the pains were so dreadful I couldn't lie down, for the blood would seem to rush to my head.
I felt I must have some relief, for it seemed that the awful suffering would surely kill me.
I had read of what Cardui had done for others, and thought I would try it.
After the use of one bottle the pains had entirely stopped and I was able to sleep.
After using four bottles I was a well woman. I was regular, I got back my flesh, and I now weigh 126 lbs.; and am able to do all my work without any trouble.
I certainly recommend Cardui to suffering women, for I know it cured me. My friends who saw me when I weighed 85 pounds and would see me now would know what Cardui had done for me."
Try Cardui.

Dargan-Lowndes Wedding Brilliant Social Event

An event of distinguished social interest was the marriage last night of Miss Helen Dargan and Mr. Dooler Lowndes. The ceremony at 8:30 o'clock was solemnized at All Saints' Episcopal church, with a large congregation of friends present, and afterwards a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan, on Ponce de Leon avenue.

The scene at the church was one of picturesque brilliance and the impressive nature of the occasion was heightened by the use of a chorus service. In the chancel palms were massed, and Easter lilies were a graceful decoration in vases on the altar and in great bunches on the choir stalls and behind the chancel rail.

The Processional.
The vested choir, entering the church through the doors at each side of the chancel, passed up the side aisles and down the center to the altar, singing the wedding song, "From Lohengrin's 'Faithful and True'."
The ushers then led the way of the bridal party down the center aisle—Messrs. John D. Little, J. H. Hilsman, F. M. Mikkil, Utric Atkinson, Edward C. Peters, Dr. Willis Westcott and Messrs. W. E. Chapin and Thomas Eggleston.

The bridesmaids, coming out of the doors at each side of the chancel, ascended the middle aisle to meet the bride at the altar. These, who had joined the groomsmen, and came back down the aisle in couples to form a line inside the chancel rail. They were Miss Louise Riley, Miss Rosa Briscoe, of Knoxville; Miss Mary Helen Moody, Miss Jennie D. Harris, and Miss Eugene Kelly, Dr. J. D. Osborne, Mr. Charles Sciple and Mr. Clarence Knowles were the groomsmen.
Miss Jeannette Lowndes was maid of honor, Mrs. Milton Dargan, Jr., matron of honor, and Mr. Milton Dargan, Jr., best man.

Rev. W. W. Mlemminger was the minister officiating, and Mr. W. E. Arnaud, at the organ, played an appropriate selection during the ceremony.
The Bride's Beauty.
The bride came down the aisle with her father, and her fresh young beauty was at its height of charm in the bridal array. Her gown was of white satin with court train of white tulle broadened in the skirt. Her coat effect was of the silver threaded brocade, and a tulle panel of white tulle accented plaited, which was set into the corsage and finished with a spray of orange blossoms. The white satin corsage, threaded with silver, was accented with a silver cord, where it joined the shirred tulle yoke, and the long shirred tulle skirt, which was accented with round length, and the slippers were of silver threaded brocade.
Which was one thickness of tulle worn back from the face and drawn tight over the bride's beautiful hair, was adjusted by a chaplet of laurel. The bridal bouquet, a sheaf of valley lilies, showered with lilies.

The Bridal Party.
The bridesmaids were gowned in apricot charmeuse and each wore a fashioned differently, and they carried bronze baskets of autumn leaves and lady hillington roses. The decoration swung from their shoulders by ribbons of brown tulle.
The matron and the maid of honor were gowned in white. Mrs. Milton Dargan, Jr., wearing white chiffon trimmed with pearls and silver, and Mrs. Lowndes wore a gown of satin draped with white tulle and silver lace. Mrs. Milton Dargan was gowned in apricot charmeuse, made with a wide tunic opening over a silver lace petticoat. The corsage finish was a burnt orange velvet ruche and blue chiffon trimmed with shadow lace and pearls.
Mrs. H. H. West of New York, was gowned in black satin, draped with white tulle, accented with sequins.
At home several hundred guests were entertained, and a beautiful hospitality was expressed.
The guests were received in the long reception hall, Mr. Lowndes and his bride and bridesmaids were seated at one end, palms massed behind them. White chrysanthemums, with bay trees and palms, completed the decoration of the apartment. In the library, American Beauty roses and ascension lilies were used, and in the drawing room there were bronze chrysanthemums.

Lecture on Exposition Given by the Ad Men Enjoyed by Big Crowd
A crowded theater greeted the appearance of C. Lane, when he delivered a highly interesting illustrated address on the Panama-Pacific exposition at the Atlanta theater last night under the auspices of the Atlanta Ad Men. The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon slides.
During the course of his lecture, he stated that the war situation would not interfere with the exposition, but, indeed, would be a help. He declared, each of the warring nations had notified the exposition promoters that they would double the amount to be expended in their share of the fair, and that they would send still larger delegations.
The lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views and moving pictures. It dealt with everything one could possibly care to see in the journey to the exposition, including the route from St. Louis to San Francisco. Views were shown of the exposition grounds as they now stand and of the work of construction on the Panama canal.
The lecture was preceded by a short address by St. Elmo Massengale, in which he explained the purposes of his organization and the importance of building the advertising craft in Atlanta. He was roundly applauded. A boost for the exposition was given by the coming of the Hominy carnival under Ad Men auspices, to be held December 2 and 3.

repeated in details of service. The bride's souvenirs to her attendants were silver powder puff boxes.
The French bowl was set in the midst of smiles and roses on the porch, which was enclosed and embowered in bamboo, palms and bay trees. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Emily Lowndes, Miss Marian Atobison and Miss Virginia Bowman.
Miss Atobison was gowned in white satin, with drapery of green tulle. Miss Bowman wore white tulle, the short waist finished with a circle of shaded pink rosebuds and the full skirt looped up with the same flowers. Miss Lowndes was gowned in white charmeuse with tulle of iridescents on white net.
An orchestra upstairs played a bright program.
The bride, before her departure on the wedding journey, dropped from the stairway to her bridesmaids below the shower of lilies from her bouquet, and attached to three of the ribbons were little envelopes holding the traditional ring, tulle and dime.
Mr. and Mrs. Lowndes went to New York, and on their return they will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. Dargan.
The bride, a debutante of three years ago, is pretty and notably clever, and she has a distinctive style and charm. She is one of the most popular young women in her own set, and she has the regard and affection of the friends of her parents, who are leaders in the social life, her father a foremost figure also in the insurance world.

THE ONE MAN NOT FOUND. Whatever other interpretation one reads in the writer of circumstance in Mexico one fact stands out in indisputable relief. The one strong man admittedly needed for the pacification of the country has not yet put in his appearance.

Villa comes as near filling the prescription as any individual yet developed but Villa as president and executor seems to be an impossibility. In the saddle and as a hurricane fighter he commends himself to admiration. Administering government he is not so strong and thus far he seems to have the strength and candor to recognize that fact.

Caranza is rapidly degenerating into a farce. A trouble maker and a repudiator of promises. If we are to credit the original dispatches from Mexico he promised as plainly as any man can promise to eliminate himself simultaneously with Villa and turn the reins over to Gutierrez, the choice of the convention of Aguas Calientes. Now he squarely reneges on that promise.

It looks indeed as though it will be Caranza that is responsible if internal war again breaks out in Mexico. On three separate occasions Villa has deferred to him and on each occasion Caranza has found some loophole through which to slip to the end of prolonging his own tenure on power.

WITH A GOLDEN TROWEL. We must build our trade structure with Latin America with a trowel of gold. The Constitution has long recognized this as one of the cardinal principles of the extension of our commercial relations and it was emphasized by John Barrett, director of the Pan American union at a recent trade conference at Memphis.

Mr. Barrett who knows his subject said that $300,000,000 loaned to Latin America over a period of five years would return a total of $1,500,000,000.

There is no question that he has his proportion right and that he has not overstated the financial factor in the game of gathering in Latin American trade.

Europe especially England, Germany and France won their greatest trade conquests in South America because they extended liberal credits. The United States was and is handicapped because it failed to take cognizance of the principle.

It may sound a trifle daring to tell the country at this particular juncture that it must prepare to meet a huge tortoise to win a tortoise even larger.

AS HE WOULD HAVE DIED. Contemporaneous England will see few funerals of greater pomp or underlying significance than that of Field Marshal Lord Roberts who now rests in St. Paul's Cathedral by the side of Nelson, Wolfe and Wellington and other men who have bulked large in the military and naval history of the nation.

and that is its psychological conjunction with the fulfillment of his continued prophetic warnings. For many years Lord Roberts or "Bobs," as the troops came to know and love him, had been an imperious and a big army man. He had seen the shadow of Germany looming in menacing fashion atwart England's pathway. He had pleaded with people and government upon every occasion and at every opportunity to create a huge army of reserves, capable of being thrown quickly into the field at the word of necessity.

That Roberts' death should have come at the moment when his prophecy was being fulfilled is strange, to put it mildly. Undoubtedly he died as he would have died had he been given the choice—as near the field of battle and center of hostilities as his advanced age would permit and seeing his country roused to the truth of the words he had many times sounded in his ears.

TUBERCULOSIS SUNDAY

Sunday, November 29, will be observed as Tuberculosis Sunday throughout the United States the day being dedicated to an intensifying of the propaganda of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. In most of the pulpits throughout the land some direct or indirect reference will be made to the fight against the great white plague.

In the past fifteen years we have made substantial headway in combatting tuberculosis. The first battle had to be fought and won against ignorance and preconceived notions. The mania for the hermetically sealed room had to be supplanted by the continual out-of-doors doctrine.

States and municipalities have been roused to their duty wonderfully in the way of erecting sanatoria and of maintaining free clinics. Much is to be done yet in this direction. Not every state and not every city or considerable town has its tuberculosis institution.

On the sides of education and prevention much has been done. People have been shown the dangers of tuberculosis as well as its curability how to avoid contagion, and the man and woman infected is being taught how to protect other people.

Even with all this accomplishment to our credit we have yet a far way to go. The disease and death rate continues high despite all the money and effort expended. Science begins now to suspect that each person may be born with the tubercle bacillus, as they are with the colon bacillus and that as with the latter it remains harmless except under as yet not understood conditions. There is however encouragement in the progress we have made.

POLICEWOMEN

All big cities throughout the land will sooner or later adopt the suggestions of Miss Mary E. Brown of Seattle, Wash. when she told the national convention of the W. C. T. U. the other night that only when cities employed policewomen would they be able to cope effectively with the social evil and feminine phases of criminality.

The matron at police barracks and the woman rescue worker have long been regarded as indispensable. No city in the land would undertake to administer its police department without the co-operation of such forces. They have been there in no doubt responsible for much mitigation of misery and for the reclaiming of women before they became incorrigible prostitutes or criminals.

It follows that since in these phases, trained and devoted women have been of such great assistance in the preservation of law and order and the lessening of vice and crime women will be employed to a greater extent as cities take cognizance of the possibilities for their service. In Chicago for instance it is said that the policewomen employed in a supervisory capacity have rendered wonderfully effective service. They have been able to spot possible violations which would have escaped the uninitiated eyes of the male officer and in delicate situations they have been able to employ diplomacy and persuasion which would have been hopeless to the mere man.

The history of all administration of law as of all progress of government is that of evolution and of the introduction of innovations proved to be sound and practical. From this point of view it is evident the policewoman has come to stay. She makes for morality and for lower taxes both ends that appeal to the taxpayers.

The Holland Letter

In the letter to Judge Juson C. Clements, of the Interstate Commerce Commission from B. T. Yoakum which was made public a day or two ago, Mr. Yoakum says that in order to bring the transportation facilities of the United States up to the level of those in the hands of the railroad companies, to a point adequate for the public needs as much as $750,000,000 must be expended each year for several years. This does not include new construction. The sum named by Mr. Yoakum is greater than the estimate made by James T. Hill two or three years ago. Mr. Hill was quoted as having said that at least $500,000,000 a year must be expended by the American railroads in perfecting facilities if these are to be made equal to transportation demands.

When Mr. Hill made this estimate he was apparently of the opinion that the managers of the railroad companies would be compelled to seek the fresh capital needed in European money markets principally London, Paris and to some extent Holland. Owing to various conditions, some of them, the estimate is now a small chance of securing needed funds abroad except possibly upon short time notes which carried a high rate of interest.

Various Estimates Made. The opening of the federal reserve system carries with it a promise of such a change in our own financial situation that it is possible for the railroads to secure in the United States even as soon as the year 1916 such funds as are needed in that year. Various estimates have been made of the aggregate of our foreign trade within the next twelve months. Some of these estimates forecast an international trade balance in favor of the United States of not less than $1,000,000,000. The balance for the next twelve months will escape some of the heavy invisible items which in recent years have cut down our visible international trade to anything from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. For it is now deemed certain that comparatively few Americans will make excursions across the sea next summer. The aggregate of the letters of credit which now for several years have annually been sold to American travelers was estimated at $150,000,000. This sum has seriously offset the visible trade balance. The present indications are that there will be next year only a small amount of letters of credit sold.

We shall probably have to pay less in the way of freight charges than any that have been exacted from us in recent years. The cost of our exports will be carried in American vessels. The establishment of the federal reserve system if this be supplemented by the first of the year by the opening of the securities market will undoubtedly greatly facilitate our export movement. There must be in our country an amount of banking assistance which in the aggregate will be enormous in order to provide the means by which these exports can be carried. The American manufacturers. There are some indications that the American people are beginning to realize the magnitude of the foreign purchases in this country which are now in the course of negotiation and which probably will be continued not only as long as the war lasts but for several years thereafter.

The presumption is strong that one American manufacturer has already negotiated or is in the course of negotiating contracts involving about $100,000,000. The commodities enumerated in the contract are to be used for war material equipment and accessories of a great navy or perhaps two. The enormous quantities sufficient completely to absorb our own surplus are to be sold at high prices to belligerent and neutral nations and the commerce of this kind will aggregate hundreds of millions of dollars. With the opening of the market for exports the cotton goods manufacturers in England and in France will make heavy demands for American cotton and thus an additional factor which will make for American prosperity will be added.

What the New System May Do. The new federal reserve system which is enthusiastically supported by the leading bankers of the United States is likely to reveal its influence within the course of the next two or three months. Some time in the winter or early spring there will undoubtedly be disclosed as great an influence for good as any that has ever been exerted by this federal system. The new system is likely to make a demonstration of the fact that it is enabling banks of the United States to get the reserves under such complete control as will insure easy mobilization and there will be also great credit-creating resources. An early realization of this will be the beginning of a diminished demand for capital from other countries than our own and as a consequence of this it is also likely to be demonstrated within a year that we are able to take care of our own money needs. It is sometimes said that a change of this kind will make the United States a great creditor nation. That depends upon the sense in which the term is used. England for instance imports commodities of a money value many times greater than the value of her exports and her gold is recognized as the great creditor nation of the world. This is so because she not only imports commodities in large amounts but she also imports enormous amounts of capital which represents the income upon her investments in other lands.

The United States may in 1915 secure a visible or apparent international trade balance aggregating $1,000,000,000 and still remain a debtor nation. But if the new banking law stimulates as it is expected to do a concentration of banking reserves and a complete command of gold then we shall accumulate capital rapidly as to enable us to lend portions of it to other countries. None of the leading bankers of the financial district doubts that when the war is ended propositions will be made to the United States by other countries looking to the placing of their loans here.

One factor which will facilitate the beneficial influences of the federal reserve system is our possession of an enormous supply of gold. This can be concentrated and controlled if the federal reserve system is operated with wisdom so that we shall have abundant supplies of capital or abundant resources in the form of credit with which not only the needs of our railroads can be met and funds which are to be used in the development of our national resources supplied but we shall also have money which can be utilized to meet the needs of South America and the Far East.

Investments of this kind will offer a while cause large imports not reported in the custom house statistics to come to the United States for they will be in the form of money investments in other lands. When this kind of imports become sufficiently large we shall be a creditor nation. Furthermore the wise administration of the federal reserve system and sympathetic management of the stock exchanges together with long continued and heavy exports should enable the United States easily to absorb in due time if there be need of it all of the American securities now held for investment abroad.

An Investment That Pays Big Interest

Editor Constitution: During this week I have seen 225 boys and more than 100 girls being fitted for useful lives, who would not have had this training without Miss Berry's help at her school, located a few miles out from Rome. Each department cooking the dairy the laundry, dressmaking, weaving and basketry, is taught in the most thorough way possible. We sat down to a dinner of home products prepared as well as any cook could do and served in the most appetizing manner all done by these girls. Think what it will mean for a hundred girls to go back to their homes and there use the knowledge they have received at the Martha Berry school.

How Miss Berry has done all she has with the limited means at her command is the question. Every body works at Berry's school, and with such enthusiasm as one rarely sees.

Of the fine manly boys work we leave for another time. What I want to tell you is that for $60 a girl can have a year at Berry's for $30 a month. On down to the widow's mite will help. Can you think of anything that will bring as great returns? The wife of our president recognized the wonderful work this school is doing and gave liberally from the sale of her pictures.

It was a cold afternoon that I went to Myrtle Hill cemetery. Coming down the winding path were three Berry girls. They were there each to bring a flower to lay on Mrs. Wilson's grave. And when I stood beside this mound it was covered with these flowers that they had themselves planted and cared for and now placed there as a loving tribute.

Christmas will soon be here. How many who read this will make a scholarship to the Berry school one of their Christmas of ferings? Some are waiting to enter the school now.

Good Roads Special Issue Of The Industrial Index

Among the special editions issued by various trade papers in connection with the fourth American Road congress in Atlanta that published by The Industrial Index, Columbus, Ga. was notable for its excellence. This good roads number consisted of forty eight pages and the present strong sentiment throughout the south for better highways and the manner in which this sentiment is crystallizing into action in hundreds of progressive counties is well reflected by the special articles and illustrations in this number. The photographs of fine roads in the south are interesting especially those of model highways in Fulton and Muscogee counties, Georgia.

The point is well made in this number and is quite properly emphasized that during the next decade there will be far more road building in the south than in any other part of the country. This is generally recognized as the great field of road construction activities during the next few years. It is already seen that the recent road congress has generated new enthusiasm on this important subject and has given a tremendous impetus to road building in the south. In order to further the good movement The Industrial Index is quite appropriately sending a copy of its good roads number to every county commissioner in 44 southern counties a total of about 3,000 commissioners.

Postal Superintendent Sees Brighter Times Ahead

(G. W. Ribble, Superintendent Postal Telegraph Company.)

The cotton exchanges have reopened the federal reserve bank and are opening to the general money situation a fund has been provided to aid in the protection of cotton interests. On food products are in world wide demand and factories are beginning to operate to their capacity and our exports (except cotton) are high. In the last year with the prospect of permanently widened market the demand for cotton abroad is increasing and its movement depends only upon the supply of ships.

Tourists will spend their money in the south this winter instead of abroad. Our farmers are teaching that hog and poultry can be raised at home and we are living in a section of the United States favored in climate and production above all others. In a period of depression has in a measure checked the wild orgy of extravagance in which we as a people were living, and has brought us back to the sane.

We should now turn our faces to the rising sun of prosperity and meet it with a wholesome welcome of renewed optimism and vigor.

Preservation of Battleships.

BY GEORGE FITCH, Author of "At Good Old Swash."

The war has now progressed for over three months and its most amazing feature has been the success with which the hostile countries have guarded their battleships. This fact is not a single battleship has been damaged through the cruelties which are perpetrated in running ground nights and getting in deep water have been sunk. Lively battleship owned by France, Germany and England at the beginning of the war is still perfect though in some instances hostile spies may have had a little peep at their sides. We can't say they have a word.

This shows the marvellous advance of naval science. Thirty years ago battleships received as hard treatment as halfbacks in a debilitated football game. They were abused and even shot at by the enemy. Many battleships were riddled and blown up in the Russo Japanese war and for many decades the shocking cruelties perpetrated against them have gone unrepented.

That a hundred battleships could spend three months within a few hundred miles of each other without so much as tossing a brick is an evidence of the relentless sweep of science. The new methods used to insure the longevity of the battleship are partly but not entirely known. The vessel is first anchored securely in a capacious harbor. It is then protected by mines, torpedo boats, submarines, and heavy cruisers which are sent to neutral countries by parcel post. But for the present they are quite safe and if kept well painted and protected from rain by canvas they should last through the war—provided no sea-raid and other terrors of the deep are not allowed to stab them in the thorax after bedtime.

WORK OF THE SUNSHINE. (From The Ohio State Journal). Whatever disappointments may have come to one out of the political clamor he may be certain to ease his soul when he looks at the blue skies and feels the gentle influx of the fresh and triumphant air. The days seem to bring us protest against all the little excitements and unwholesome things of the political clangor has created. Who can feel hatred or a spite against his neighbor on account of politics when the sun is shining and the birds are singing? The blue skies? How can we remember the unkind and unfriendly events of the past campaign when he feels in his heart of hearts the blessings of the pure sweet air? All nature gathered its beneficent forces to gather to brighten the situation and drive away the gloom of a dismal day which were threatening to submerge it. Let us give thanks that the good Lord has brought us these gentle days to gladden the heart and enable us to transmute our little misfortunes into the faith that brighter and happier days are soon to come.

SOME RESULTS THAT ARE INEVITABLE. (From The Abilene Reporter). As sure as night follows day some of the results of the great European war will be the readjustments of the system of market cotton. The source of power the people is being awakened and they are seeing that it is possible for public sentiment to handle even so mighty a thing as the cotton market. The handling of the market however means co-operation of the farmers. They must adopt a system that will control the number of bales that are produced as well as have a system of warehousing that will take care of all surplus cotton. There are many details that have to be worked out but the agitation that has been carried on in the press of the country is bound to meet unexpected conditions which arise, and the sudden destruction of the cotton market will cause new methods to be adopted which will be of benefit.

IF YOU LEASE A HAUNTED HOUSE. (From Case and Comment). As to the right of the tenant of an alleged haunted house to have his contract annulled the authorities are not exactly in accord. The cases are generally settled in favor of the landlord. The suggestion of Alphabet who says in brief that the fear must be genuine and that reason for no ordinary dread must exist. Hence, Arnauld Fertou in his Custom of Burgundy advises that legitimate dread of phantoms which trouble men's rest and make night hideous is good reason for leaving a house and declining to pay rent after a day or two of departure. The parliament of Grenada in one of two cases has decided in favor of the tenant and against the landlord of houses where specters ricketed. And in an Irish case decided in 1899 the tenant was allowed to give up the house without paying his rent.

STORY OF A FAMOUS HUNY. (From The Home Herald). Not one in a thousand who sings the old hymn "Be Thou the Lion of the Bands" knows its history. It was written by the Rev. John Fawcett who in the eighteenth century was the pastor of a poor little church in Yorkshire, England. In 1772 he felt obliged to accept a call to a London church. His final sermon had been preached six weeks and his furniture and books stood by the door. His congregation—men, women and children—were in an agony of tears.

Looking up Miss Fawcett said: "Oh John, John I cannot bear this!" I know you are going to leave me. "No I said he nor will we go. Unload the wagons and put everything back. His letter of acceptance was recalled and he wrote this hymn to commemorate the episode.

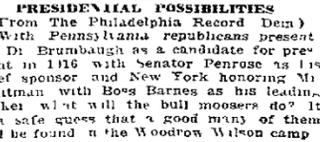

CONCERNING PNEUMONIA. (From The Chicago Journal). The pneumonia season has arrived. Not because the weather is colder—arctic explorers do not get pneumonia until they return to civilization. Not because of raw winds from the lake though these chill the body and thereby reduce resistance to the disease. Pneumonia comes at this season because people close doors and windows to keep out cold air and thereby condemn themselves to breathe the foul air in which the deadly pneumococcus rejoices and multiplies. Keep your houses and offices warm as you like. Americans are accustomed to warm rooms and it would be foolish to make a sudden change. But see that the place where you live and work has plenty of fresh air. A closed window shuts sickness in, not out.

A STING IN HIS COMPLIMENT. (From The Kansas City Star). We hear that Mr. Hawkins is his best friend. The other day he was talking that you have one of the best voices in the world. Indeed replied the delighted Mr. H. with a flush of pride at the compliment. "Do you really think so?" "Certainly," he continued. The heartless husband answered: "It would have been worn out long ago."

PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES. (From The Philadelphia Record Daily). The dead republicans are presenting Dr. Brumbaugh as a candidate for president in 1916 with Senator Penrose as his chief sponsor and New York honoring Mr. Whitman with Boss Barnes as his leader. What will it be the bull moosers do? It is a safe guess that a good many of them will be found in the Woodrow Wilson camp.

MODERN EVANGELISM. (From The Louisville Courier Journal). The Christian nations believe in turning the other cheek to those who smite them.

A SHEDDING PROSPECT. (From The Indianapolis News). It rather makes one shudder to wonder if the next war will be as much more profitable than this one as this one is more profitable than previous wars.

HE WHO DOESN'T BELIEVE IN "PALPERIZING" THE POOR. No doubt this is a splendid theory. But it is also a good conscience. For in stance when we have a fish that will fill our road we want—and we suddenly see a poor hungry looking beggar approaching us it is so nice to have that theory to fall back on. We keep him a beggar by helping him. This type of persons tells himself: "He must find work if he gets a living easily. This way he stays in the work and all developments will be working out our own side. But perhaps the tide has been too strong for us and we are returned for the moment are we still to be judged as swimmers—when we haven't the strength to swim at all. Let the man who refuses help imagine himself in the position of the one in need. He can't go far wrong in giving a hand to his heart. He shed his theories and lived to his heart's content."

The Hupmobile

Car of the American Family

A Comfortable Winter Car. The 1915 Hupmobile puts a new aspect on all-year-use of a motor car, according to John M. Smith company, local Hupmobile representative.

"A greater proportion of Hup owners always have driven their cars in winter, as compared with owners of others," says the John M. Smith company. "This winter this proportion will be increased. With its splendid starting system and equally splendid curbation, the new Hup will be equal to the severest cold. Furthermore, the detachable Hupmobile seats and coupe top, being going to change people's minds about winter driving. The new top confers all the advantages of the permanent closed car, without the high extra cost. Buyers quickly realize that, and we attribute largely to these moderate-priced, detachable tops that make the Hupmobile a two in one car."

MASSACRE AT TANNES CLAIMED BY BELGIANS

Commission Declares Germans Used Machine Gun to Slay 650 Before Church.

London, November 20.—The Belgian commission of inquiry into alleged German violation of the laws and customs of war has issued another lengthy report which is published today by the British official bureau.

It covers what is described as the "massacre at Tannes, in the Sack of Dinant" and the "Outrages in the Province of Belgium Luxembourg." The report states that over 600 persons were shot by the Germans in the village of Tannes. Referring in detail to this alleged massacre, the report describes how about 400 men were collected in front of the village church, as shooting machine guns with rifles proved too slow, German officers ordered up a machine gun, and those not killed by the bullets from this weapon were finished with bayonet thrusts.

According to the commission's report 650 persons, including 100 women and children, were killed. Eighty-four of those were shot to death on parade square and fifty others outside a church from which they had been driven by the Germans.

The report alleges that over 1,000 similar executions occurred in the province of Luxembourg.

MORTUARY

600,000 MEALS SUPPLIED EVERY DAY IN BELGIUM

London, November 20.—Notwithstanding the extensive relief work already done in Belgium, conditions there are becoming more serious. Jean Van Bredon, of the Belgian national relief committee, who arrived here today from Brussels, said the figures were pouring into that city at the rate of 25,000 a day.

"This influx," he said, "is due to a lack of fuel as well as food. Brussels has plenty of coal, but it is impossible to carry it to remote villages. Refugees also are flocking to Liege and other cities where food is becoming scarce."

The committee now is supplying 600,000 meals daily in Belgium to 3,000,000 persons. These meals consist of potato soup, some rice and a piece of bread. The situation is becoming more serious every day. Even the rich and almost impossible to obtain bread in Brussels and soon the whole population will form into a vast breadless sea.

POLAND'S CRY FOR HELP REVEALS HER DISTRESS

(From The St. Paul Pioneer Press.) We in America have been disposed, by the very exigencies of Belgium's misery, to believe that no other people, among the nations of the world, are suffering more than the Polish people. It is believed here that the conflict has been the arena of awful strife, and that it is Poland, as if her lot were not already heavy enough, that the military circumstances has brought on her the additional calamity of warping her territory. The message did not already have the myriads of soldiers in Belgium have held that country in a stranglehold. The Polish National Council of America is appealing to the people of this country for aid, and a most eloquent appeal it is. Here is but an extract from it:

JAP MINISTER TO ASK LARGER ARMY AND NAVY

Tokyo, Japan, October 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) A larger army and navy were recommended by Count Okuma, the premier, at a meeting of the government parties to arrange the program for the imperial diet, which will assemble December 5. The Okuma program calls for two new army divisions.

"After careful consideration of the problem of national defense from the viewpoints of diplomacy and finance," said the premier, "the ministry has concluded that the international situation does not permit postponement of an increase in the army."

"Army increase is opposed on the ground of our growing intimacy with Russia. The ministry is doing its best to secure a diplomatic relationship is no reason for neglecting an expert measure of national defense. We must remember that the solidarity of the Anglo-japanese alliance depends upon the strength of this empire."

"The strength of this empire is a strong nation as we are, ours is a sea girl country, and an efficient navy is needed to maintain our contact with the continent and to fulfill our mission."

MERRIMACK RESCUES DISABLED SCHOONER

Savannah, Ga., November 21.—Nearly 15 hours behind her schedule, the Merrimack and Miners' steamer Merrimack will arrive here this morning about 8 o'clock with a disabled schooner in tow. It is believed here that the schooner is the Henry W. Crump, abandoned by its crew on Wednesday morning at Cape Lookout Lightship. The local agent of the line was notified by wireless today by Captain Herbert, of the Merrimack, that the schooner had picked up a disabled schooner off Cape Roman Thursday and was proceeding with her to Savannah. The Merrimack did not give the name of the schooner, nor did it state whether the crew was aboard. A tug will leave early this morning to take the schooner in tow and bring her from Tybee bar to the Savannah harbor. The Merrimack is bound for Jacksonville from Baltimore.

(From The Pittsburg Gazette-Times.) "There's a saying in the country that a man's got to look like Lincoln to be elected to congress. If the time were coming in this country when a man's got to look like Bryan in order to obtain preferment there'll be a great slump in the sale of hair restorers."

MANAGEMENT WAS TOLD SCHOOL WAS FIRE TRAP

Warning Came True, and Ten Lost Lives in Florida Industrial Institution.

Tampa, Fla., November 20.—Representative W. T. Martin, a member of the committee which severely criticized the management of the Florida Industrial school, where ten lives were lost last Tuesday morning when the main building burned, issued a statement today, citing that a joint resolution was passed at the 1913 session of the legislature referring to conditions at the school, calling attention that "all windows in both departments where children are kept are heavily barred and resemble a prison instead of a reform school."

There is but one door leading to the hallway, and stairs from each dormitory, and should a fire start and get headway on the wooden stairway, it is no possible escape on the second and third floors. "This, we think, is inexcusable—criminal carelessness."

W. H. Milton, chairman of the board of directors, who is in New York, was formerly United States senator from this state under an appointment by Governor N. B. Hardaway.

Marina, Fla., November 20.—Students of the Florida Industrial school, investigating the burning of the main building of the school last Tuesday morning, with the loss of ten lives, were adjourned today until Monday, when it is expected Governor Graham and other officers of the state now at Kansas City, will return.
