View of the Ruined City of Termonde

LOOKING THROUGH RUINED GATES OF TERMONDE, BELGIUM.

This shows a view of Termonde, Belgium, looking through the shattered gate of the city. This place, which is about sixteen miles southeast of Ghent, was bombed and wrecked and burned by the Germans a few weeks ago. This picture was taken shortly afterward. A few days ago the place was again bombed by the Germans and very little left standing. This historic place, with buildings dating back several centuries is now a pile of ruins.

The resolution recognized "the wisdom of President Wilson in following the admonition of George Washington to have no entangling alliances with foreign nations," and applauded "his courage and steadfastness in carrying out to successful fruition the platform of his party and the policies of his administration."

The committee, in the resolution, pledged its undivided support to the election of Martin H. Glynn as governor.

YOUTH CONFESSES STEALING AUTOS

In Capture of Millard Williams, 17 Years Old, Mystery of Fully 75 Stolen Machines Is Cleared Up.

A handful of stick candy hidden in his father's rural mail box was the unique clue which led County Police men E. B. Harnie and Lieutenant W. H. Chesire to the capture yesterday at noon of a youthful bandit who confesses to the unparalleled theft of anywhere from fifty to seventy-five automobiles during this year.

He was taken in tow only after a chase on motorcycles which lasted from daybreak until noon. One of the stolen cars was recovered, ditched over an embankment in the woods of Habersham drive in Peachtree Heights.

He confessed to the theft of the automobile of C. E. Corwin, which was recovered from the embankment down which it had been plunged in an effort to forestall discovery, and which was stolen from in front of the Forsyth theater Monday night at 10 o'clock while the lights of the Forsyth foyer were at their height.

Both prisoners have been lodged in the Tower. The police are hunting for two other negro youths said to have been connected with the white boy in a number of his raids.

The committee added the medicine tax section to make up for any deficit which might be caused by the increase in the revenue as much as possible.

The amendment proposes a graduated stamp tax of 1-8 of a cent on articles costing less than 5 cents to 5-8 of a cent for more than 15 or less than 25-cent articles, and 5-8 of a cent for articles included in the list are pills, powders, troches, cordials, bitters, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, and all similar articles for which similar formulas are claimed.

WAR TAX BURDEN LANDED ON BEER AND ON WHISKY

Democratic Senators In Caucus Decide to Get Half of $100,000,000 Emergency Revenue by Levy on Intoxicants.

NO TAXES ON GASOLINE OR AUTOMOBILE SALES

Proposed Tax on Bank Capital and Surplus Is Cut in Two—Stamp Taxes on Patent Medicines Proposed.

Washington, October 6.—The caucus of the senate democrats on the war revenue bill failed to complete its labor tonight and recessed just before midnight to meet again tomorrow morning. Decisions had been reached, however, that impose the bulk of the $100,000,000 emergency revenue measure on beer and whisky, which will yield nearly $50,000,000 annually under increased taxation.

The caucus also eliminated proposed taxes on gasoline and automobile sales and on patent medicines, and cut in two a proposed tax on bank capital and surplus.

The first action of the caucus was to vote an increase in the proposed extra tax on beer from 50 cents to 75 cents a barrel, to make the total tax $1.75 a barrel, with a drawback of 5 per cent for purchase of revenue stamps in advance.

The committee has reduced the proposed tax on liquor from 5 cents a gallon to 3 cents a gallon, with a 5 per cent discount for prompt payment figured, the amount to be derived from liquor would be approximately $45,000,000.

After a two-hour discussion the caucus tonight voted 20 to 17 to strike from the bill the proposed tax on gasoline. The committee had reduced the house tax from 2 cents to 1 cent a gallon. The caucus then took up the proposed tax of 50 cents per horsepower on manufacturers' sales of automobiles.

After considerable discussion the caucus struck out the automobile sales tax, which, it is estimated, would have raised about $10,000,000.

Stamp Taxes on Medicines. The caucus on proprietary medicines, cosmetics, perfumes and chewing gum, such as were included in the war revenue bill, were voted into the war revenue bill today by the democrats of the senate finance committee before the measure was submitted to the senate for approval or revision.

Front of the Great Battle Seems to Be Extending More and More Widely

French Official Report Describes the Action North of the River Oise as Growing More and More Violent—Germans Have Evidently Rushed Reinforcements to Right Wing to Meet the Attack of the Allies—Paris Very Confident of the Outcome—Russia Continues to Report Successes Against Germans and Austrians, but These Reports Are Denied in Berlin and Vienna.

London, October 6.—The sixty-third day of the great European war saw a repetition of what the peoples of all the countries concerned have forced themselves to expect, perhaps for months to come—no decisive conflict on land or sea.

From Berlin to London came nothing in the way of German claims to progress or reverses. From Petrograd came what has flowed without interruption for weeks—consistent claims of progress for Russian arms.

From Paris, at the usual midafternoon hour, was issued the usual communication, so-called, interpreting the situation along the battle line of the western theater of war in the light of those opposing the German invasion. There were in the closely worded statement, cryptic to an extent as always, hints of a greater diversity of operations than it ordinarily contains.

ANTWERP PEOPLE GIVEN WARNING TO LEAVE CITY

Military Governor Informs the Burgomaster German Guns Are About to Open. City Will Be Defended to the Last.

London, October 7.—(1:45 a. m.)—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Antwerp gives the following official communication, issued at 10 o'clock last (Tuesday) night: "The military governor has informed the burgomaster that a bombardment of Antwerp is imminent and that the people who wish to flee from the town are requested to leave."

"The bombardment will have no influence on the town's resistance, which will be pushed to the extreme limit." The Exchange Telegraph company adds that the foregoing message has been passed by the British censor for publication.

WINSTON CHURCHILL REPORTED IN ANTWERP

Bordeaux, October 6.—News described as "most encouraging" was received here today from Antwerp. It is said German attacks on that place seem to be slackening, or at least that German troops reported in today's official announcement to be near Lille, in the department of Nord, indicate in the opinion of French observers that Germany has been forced to draw off forces from Antwerp to relieve the German right wing in France.

It is said here that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the British admiralty, is at Antwerp consulting with the Belgian general staff.

GERMAN TROOPS MOVING TO FRANCE. London, October 7.—(2:50 a. m.)—A dispatch to The Times from Ostend, dated Monday, says: "A very important movement of German troops in southern Belgium was reported late today. A column of 20,000 strong, of horse, foot and artillery, with a commissariat, convoy and wireless apparatus, marched through Treppeuve, five miles north of Tournai, in the direction of the French frontier to the west. All the troops were young men."

operations of the Russian, German and Austrian armies in the east may bring the solution of the war first. Petrograd official statements continue to report in a general way what has been accepted here as a fact for days—that the German army along the East Prussian frontier has been routed more or less and cut to pieces, but as this is only a small portion of the front, it is exceedingly hard to see anything like a clear-cut perspective of the conflict.

on the East Prussian frontier, making no mention of the situation either in Galicia or Hungary. The much heralded battle of Cracow, which, it seems, all the correspondents anticipated, yet has to be recorded as a matter of history.

FROM HUNGARY—Not often heard from as a source of war news, Hungary is reported by the council. In a dispatch saying that, though no battles in Hungary had been decided yet, the invaders, were being repulsed.

GERMAN GENERALS ARE SHAKEN UP. Whether it can be accepted as true or not, a Bordeaux special dispatch reports a general shake-up in the German army command, following, but not necessarily the result of, the reported removal of General Von Moltke as chief of the general staff.

NEWS IS SCANT FROM THE EAST. "Broadcasting the Carpathians and pouring on to the plains of Hungary" by the Muscovites has been so often referred to that it is becoming trite, and the fact remains that, generally speaking, aside from the defeat of Rennenkampf in the east, the stages of the war in Poland, his revenge by a crushing return and a steady advance of the Russians through Galicia, there has been nothing from the east to stand out in the nature of a clearly defined conflict like the battle of the Aisne.

Today's Petrograd official statement deals entirely with the German stand

Paris, October 6.—The French war office at 11 o'clock tonight made public the following official communication:

The characteristics of the situation continue the same. On our left wing to the north of the river Oise the action grows more and more violent.

In the center comparative calm prevails. A little ground has been gained in the northern part of the heights of the Meuse.

Front Greatly Extended. During the afternoon the war office gave out the following statement: On our left wing the front is extending more and more widely.

On the right bank of the Aisne, north of Soissons, we meet with the co-operation of the British army, made a slight advance. We also have made some progress in the vicinity of Berry-Au-Bac.

Paris Confident of Victory. Despite the official announcement yesterday that the allies had yielded somewhat, confidence today in the ultimate success of the French and English in the great action on the left wing of the battle front in northern France was undiminished.

Yesterday that the allies had yielded somewhat, confidence today in the ultimate success of the French and English in the great action on the left wing of the battle front in northern France was undiminished.

The tremendous battle of millions of men continues. "North of the Oise" has appeared for the first time in a war office statement. Lieutenant Colonel Roussel on the right bank of the Oise river have been mentioned as either in the region of Roye or between the Somme and the Oise.

Military critics refuse to attach importance to the setback or the yielding of territory. Lieutenant Colonel Roussel, of The Petit Parisien, cites the fact that Napoleon Bonaparte at Marengo had to retreat three times in the face of the Austrians, which did not prevent him from finding there one of his most brilliant victories.

The familiarity of the French with the territory is frequently of considerable advantage to them. The marshes of Saint Gond near the Petit Morin river, so solid in the dry season, when the Germans here had made preparations for a surprise attack.

A force of ninety architects and engineers and 3,000 workers is ready to repair damage in the war zone. The Institute of France, an association of the members of the French Academy, met yesterday to consider excluding German associates and correspondents.

Germans Weaken Their Center To Strengthen Their Wings

From the Battle Front, October 6.—(Via Paris, October 7, 1:00 a. m.)—German cavalry made its reappearance on the scene of action in great force today, thus disproving the reports that all of its horses had been rendered useless, owing to an epidemic of the glanders.

The eastern wing also was the scene of severe combats today, but there the battle was between infantry and artillery, and the allies were sent to push forward. In the center, where the infantry had been deeply entrenched since the commencement of the battle, the French and English commanders took the opportunity to relieve many trenches held by the Germans.

French and Russian Defeats Are Claimed by the Germans

Berlin, October 6.—(By wireless to Savannah, L. I.)—An order of the day, written by General von Hoehen, published officially today, says that Fort Camp Des Romains, on the river Meuse, near St. Mihiel, after a number of days' fighting, has been taken by the Germans. Five French officers and more than 500 men were made prisoners. The remainder of the French force perished in the ruins of the casements. It is officially stated that the Russians in the combat near Suwalki and Augustow, on the East Prussian frontier, October 1 and 2, the German batteries had been taken by the Germans. The situation, it is announced, is hopeful everywhere for the Germans and Austrians.

Writers in the German Papers Admit Situation Is Desperate

London, October 6.—The correspondent of The Daily News at Copenhagen telegraphs the following:

"Vivid accounts of the fighting appear in German newspapers, and the writers admit the situation is desperate.

"The Norddeutscher Allgemeine Zeitung, describing frontier fighting in the Vosges region, says: 'Officers and men have been fighting day and night for thirty-seven days, and the Germans are rendering superhuman services, chiefly in water-filled trenches.'"

"The situation is said to be almost unendurable. No German troops have been able to retire from the fighting line for rest. The army chaplains accompany the troops right to the front and are holding religious services and preaching sermons in the trenches.

"Bad weather is causing much sickness. Telegraphing from Belfort, France, the correspondent of The Daily Mail says: 'The Germans are trying to make the world believe they still hold Alsace, but the French are there in thousands, and so well established, that the enemy has not dared attack them.'"

"There is no fighting in front of the French forces of occupation, and they wish they can walk right through to the Rhine."

MORE CANADIAN TROOPS WILL BE SENT TO FRONT

Second Force of 22,000 Will Be Raised—32,000 Canadians Have Already Sailed.

Ottawa, October 6.—Canada will raise immediately and send to the front a second expeditionary force of 20,000 men with a first reinforcement of 10 per cent, making 22,000 in all. This decision was reached at today's cabinet council.

Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier, spoke tonight the motion taken by the council. In a statement regarding the situation he said: "The government proposes forthwith to organize and train a second expeditionary force of 20,000 men, with first reinforcement of 10 per cent, making 22,000 in all. This force will be organized as expeditiously as possible, and the arrangements for providing the necessary arms, ammunition and equipment are already in progress.

Field troops, including a first reinforcement of 2,000 men, total force at the front 28,000. Lieutenant Colonel Roussel, who will constitute a reinforcement of nearly 20 per cent for the men at the front.

GERMANY EXPECTED WAR BEFORE SARAJEVO CRIME

London, October 6.—A dispatch to The Times from Cape Town states that an intercepted letter addressed to the German ambassador in London, dated June 14, a fortnight before the Sarajevo murders, revealing a complete agreement between the German and Austrian governments to start a secret war through secret agents in Cape Town, New York and Chicago.

FRANCE PUTS MINES IN THE ADRIATIC SEA

Bordeaux, October 6.—The ministry of marine today issued the following notice: Austrian navy, having laid mines in the Adriatic, the French fleet has been obliged to go likewise, but the German general staff, in shipping, as the Austrians have done, the French have laid their mines in the Adriatic, in violation of the Hague convention of 1907.

He was in an ambulance with the archduke at the time of the tragedy.

RUSSIANS BATTLE WITH GERMANS

Heavy Fighting Reported on Eastern Front—Russians Are Trying to Advance Across the Frontier.

Petrograd, October 6.—The following official statement was given out today at Russian general headquarters: "The Russian offensive campaign continues, and the front is advancing on the enemy on the frontier are under a heavy artillery fire. The enemy has received reinforcements from the garrison at Konigsberg. There has been no change in the fighting in the vicinity of Bialskargow.

Railroads in East Prussia are crowded with troop trains, and our aerial scouts report an uninterrupted movement of German troops in a westerly direction. German columns and German troop trains are withdrawing across the frontier."

RUSSIANS TO FOLLOW THEIR ADVANTAGE

London, October 6.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Petrograd, referring to the defeat of the Germans, says there is little doubt that the Russians intend to follow up the advantage gained and continue their advance across the frontier, but that the problem confronting them is very difficult.

The Mazur lake region, whether the bulk of the beaten army has retreated, according to the correspondent, is one huge armed camp, and is well adapted for a stubborn defense, both in natural formation and because of its strong fortifications.

London, October 6.—An official statement issued today at Vienna says the situation in Russian Poland and Galicia is favorable to the Austrians. A dispatch from the Austrian capital by way of Amsterdam.

GERMANY WAS DEAF TO BELGIUM'S PLEA

In 1911 Belgium Asked Germany for Pledge But Kaiser's Government Refused.

London, October 6.—The Belgian government has issued a gray book of correspondence relative to the war. The Belgian government has been most completely covered by similar British correspondence, but the interesting revelation is made that in 1911, the Belgian government sought to obtain from the German government a declaration that Germany had no intention of violating Belgian neutrality.

The German chancellor replied that, although Germany had no such intention, a public declaration to that effect would weaken Germany's military position by reassuring France, which would, in that case, concentrate all her forces on the east.

It was for this reason that no declaration of the kind Belgium sought was made in the reichstag and this is held to prove that Germany, for a long time contemplated a dash through Belgium on France.

FRENCH VINEYARDS NOT HURT BY GERMANS

London, October 6.—Telegraphing from Epervan, France, The Times correspondent says: "The vines of the vineyards of Epervan, France, have been saved by the presence of numerous refugees from the north, who are only too glad to earn good wages offered by the vineyard owners."

JAPAN'S SEIZURE OF JALUIT ISLAND

Washington Expects Official Statement as to Ultimate Purpose of Act—Not Believed Japan Will Retain Island.

Tokio, October 6.—The navy department, explaining the landing of Japanese bluejackets and taking the German island of Jaluit, says the move was for "military purposes" and not for permanent possession of the place. Jaluit is the seat of government in the Marshall Archipelago in the South Pacific ocean.

Washington, October 6.—Declining in the absence of all facts, to express any opinion as to whether the Japanese landing on the island of Jaluit, one of the Marshall group in the Pacific ocean, is in violation of the announcement by the Japanese foreign office at the beginning of the war that Japanese activities would be confined to the Far East, Secretary Bryan for the transfer of authority at Vera Cruz are making little headway, due to Carranza's refusal to comply with the conditions laid down by the United States.

The question of safe conduct out of the country for Mexican refugees, who feel that their lives will be jeopardized under the incoming regime, is one of the many problems with which the officials here are dealing. The next passenger steamer will leave Vera Cruz next Saturday and assurances have been given that the evacuation by the American forces will not take place before next Sunday. Behind that no announcement has been made.

The most important economic question under discussion between General Carranza and the American authorities is the transfer of more than $1,000,000 in customs receipts collected during the American occupancy of Vera Cruz. Word has come to Washington that Carranza proposed to reimpose these customs duties on all goods upon which payment has been made to the American authorities at Vera Cruz. To this proposition the United States government which received payment from Vera Cruz importers in good faith, has let it be known that unless assurance came that no one would be subjected to double taxation the money collected would be turned back to those from whom it came. Officials were reticent today in discussing this question.

MEXICANS SHOOT AMERICAN SOLDIER.

Naco, Ariz., October 6.—Private Leroy Bradford, of troop C Tenth United States cavalry border patrol, was struck in the breast today by a bullet fired from trenches occupied by troops of General Benjamin Hill, during the capture of Naco from the attacks of Governor Maytorena.

Bradford was in a trench dug for the protection of the American troops on the border line. His wound is said to be serious.

Bradford, the second American soldier to be struck by Mexican bullets yesterday, and his Villa adherents began their attack four days ago on the Mexican town. Private William of the same troop was hit Sunday. A boy was hit in the hand by a stray bullet yesterday. Two cavalry horses also have been shot. This loss on the non-combatant side is almost as great as that suffered by the United States army officers reported today in every time they stood up in their observation trenches 200 yards north of Boundary Monument.

Captain Holcomb, commanding troop B Tenth cavalry, said a machine gun was turned on his men yesterday and sixteen bullets flew over their heads. Captain Holcomb himself was the target for five Mexican bullets as he was riding back to camp last night.

Colonel Guilfoyle, commanding the American troops notified Hill that he would be personally held responsible for more Mexican bullets fired into American territory. Hill sent messages to his men that death would

Cotton Planters—Hold Firm Store and Protect Your Cotton

Tarpaulins are widely used by railroads, seaports, warehouses and progressive farmers. Logs or timbers placed on the ground, cotton piled on top, covered with a heavy tarpaulin and the ends sealed, with a barbed wire fence built around constitutes a good warehouse.

It is most important that you take every precaution with your money crop and store it in the best possible way. While the cotton is in storage where it must remain for some time if the farmers are to secure anything like a fair price.

NEW TARPULINS are expensive. They are made of heavy cotton duck, treated by our special process which makes them durable and absolutely waterproof. Will last for years, and may be used as a covering for hay and for protecting most anything from the rain.

Write for full information. Tell us the number of bales you wish to store. We will tell you the size tarpaulins you need and the price. Cotton is moving now.

WILSON AND CABINET PLAN FOR CAMPAIGN

Strong Effort Will Be Made to Keep Congress in Control of Democrats.

Washington, October 6.—President Wilson and his cabinet gathered today as a political council and laid plans for the coming congressional campaign. Itinerary of cabinet members' campaign tours were taken up and subjects to be discussed in campaign speeches were discussed.

The fact that the United States is at peace while Europe is at war, the currency tariff and conscription bills, and the handling by the president of the crisis following the outbreak of the European war are to be the principal points to be dwelt upon by the cabinet members.

In this connection it was reported in official circles that Henry Clay, of Kentucky, The Louisville Courier-Journal, would follow the example of George Harvey and call at the white house to and the incident which caused both men to withdraw their support of Mr. Wilson during the presidential campaign of 1912. There has been a friendly exchange of letters between the president and Mr. Waterson since that time.

New York several members of the cabinet have indicated Governor Glynn for re-election and the president will formally take the same action. Mr. Harvey has offered his services in the New York campaign, and the president will consult him before making any indication that the administration would make extraordinary efforts toward democratic success in New York.

Wilson Aiding Palmer.

In Pennsylvania the president is doing everything possible to aid the re-election of Representative Palmer as senator and may go to Pittsburgh to speak at a Young Men's Christian League anniversary meeting at Mr. Palmer's invitation although he will not make a political speech.

Democratic senators and representatives from the west are begging the white house with requests that Secretary Lane and Secretary Houston tour their respective states. Secretary Lane has mapped out an itinerary, however.

Secretary Bryan plans to leave tomorrow night to spend in the campaign. On Friday and Saturday he will speak in Indiana. On Monday, October 12 the secretary will start campaign through western Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and South Dakota and during the following week he will speak in North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Nebraska.

Subconscious Impression

Close your eyes for just a moment and consider what advertising has made the deepest impression on your mind . . . Chances are there flashes across your range of mental vision a picture in color that has in some past time been deeply impressed by form, color and general conspicuousness.

That is the key to the real solution of advertising. Without this permanent result all advertising would be volatile and consequently worthless. So the plain reason behind extensive advertising can be accredited to two definite objects:

FIRST—To make a deep and lasting impression of the advertised article, or service, on the human mind.

SECOND—To make this impression on the greatest number of human minds as possible in the most acceptable form and at the least possible cost.

As a result of the acknowledged demand for an advertising medium that would accomplish the above result the Painted Bulletin was invented.

Coca-Cola, Uneda Biscuit and other successful advertisers know the value of paint.

If you have read this announcement you---the rich, the poor, the old people, children, white or black, educated or ignorant---will agree that the Bulletin fills the bill.

The cost is low. The impression made is permanent, while it spreads the merits of your advertising over a larger mind area than any known advertising medium.

Women of Georgia!

You who hold the purse strings and purchase the food, clothing and furnishings of your families and homes:

You can aid in the progress and prosperity of Georgia by buying and using articles manufactured in your own State.

Patronize Home Industries!

No Commonwealth ever came to greatness by producing raw material. We must not sell our cotton at 10c per pound, and buy it back from foreign mills in cloth at 40 and 50c per pound. We must not ship our iron at $10 per ton and buy it back for $75.00. If we buy our flour, syrup, crackers, candies, stoves, shirts, shoes, hosiery and underwear from the mills and factories in our home State we keep the money in our community and give employment to our people and consume our products.

Women of Georgia! Demand of your Merchants that they supply you Home Products. Give the Manufacturers of your Home State and your Home Town your patronage and you will find their goods are equal in every respect, if not better, than those that travel from afar. Part of what you spend will find its way to your bank account.

The South today needs the loyalty and devotion of its women. With this inspiration, what could we not accomplish? What riches we should gather; what glory, prosperity and blessings we would bring unto humanity!

Give the preference to the Home Product.

CASE OF REAL DISTRESS APPEALS TO PUCKETT

He Purchases a Bale of Cotton From Needy Farmer With a Large Family.

W. C. Puckett, of the Atlanta Federation of Trades and an investigator in the office of City Attorney James L. Mayson, on Tuesday bought a bale of distress cotton from a Gwinnett county farmer, whose name, for obvious reasons, is withheld, and thereby hangs a tale of what distress cotton really is. The farmer told his story to Mr. Puckett as follows:

The farmer leased his farm from a landowner on a crop-sharing basis. His farm is small and did not produce a very large crop. Half of this crop he owed to his landlord. He owed a number of bills due at once, among which were a bill of $135 for groceries and a heavy doctor's bill. The farmer has a wife and eight children to support. He had had his cotton all the way to Atlanta from Gwinnett county in a wagon to get 10 cents per pound for it.

He Needed the Money.

Cotton as is the case with the great majority of southern farmers, was this farmer's money crop, and if he got no money from his cotton he got no money at all. Mr. Puckett, seeing a typical illustration of distress cotton at his very doorstep bought a bale of the farmer's cotton.

It is on account of such cases as this that the cotton-buying committees are urging the purchase of distress cotton only.

On Tuesday a number of additional purchases of cotton were made.

H. Y. McCord, chairman of the cotton buying committee of the chamber of commerce has received the following letter:

H. Y. McCord, City—Dear Sir: The Ohio Salt Company, Wadsworth, Ohio, for whom we are southeastern distributors, writes us to buy for their account one bale of cotton and we send you check for $35 accordingly.

The Ohio Salt Company, who are very large users of cotton sacks, state that they and their allied interests, some of which are the Ohio Match Company, Ohio Boxboard Company, Ohio Insect Company, have given instructions to quite a number of their southern brokers to buy a bale for each concern. Therefore the total amount of our purchases will be quite an item. YOURS TRULY,

Atlanta, Ga., October 5, 1914.

Additional Purchases.

The Constitution has received the following letter:

The Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sir: The Continental Paper Bag Company of Kirtland, Ohio, which house I represent here has instructed me to buy two bales of cotton at 10 cents a pound. These same instructions have been forwarded to each of their agents throughout the south. Their instructions are to buy the cotton direct from farmers. Very truly yours,

Atlanta, Ga., October 5, 1914.

The following letter has also been received by the Constitution:

The Constitution Gentlemen: We are pleased to advise that we have just received a letter from the Story Clark Eison company, which letter informs that we buy one hundred bales of cotton for their account at 10 cents per pound.

In this letter they write as follows: and we have your letter of October 1, and we authorize you to buy one hundred bales of cotton at 10 cents per pound, for our account. We presume you will purchase in stages, which we will insure and obtain the necessary receipts and arrange all the formalities necessary. After you have received this amount, it is possible we will accept another lot about this we will advise you later. It is our desire to assist in this work from a patriotic point of view. Yours truly,

Atlanta, Oct. 7, 1914.

Will Buy 100 Bales.

Added impetus was given the buy-a-bale movement yesterday when the Acder Machine Company, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., made 10 of the bales visible adding to the list of buyers. The machine decided to buy a lot of bales.

W. C. Gookin, Atlanta, Ga.—Wales will be represented in the buy-a-bale of cotton movement by the purchase of a bale of cotton for each office of the company located in the cotton states.

General Sales Manager.

Atlanta Spirit Is Due to Radium in Stone Mountain

The phenomenon "Atlanta spirit," which is known from coast to coast and elsewhere was given a scientific explanation last night when William H. Hillyer told a meeting of the Bankers and Brokers' club that extensive radium deposits in Stone Mountain and the red hills of north Georgia were responsible for the atmospheric ginger that permeates Atlanta's system civic commercial and otherwise.

Hillyer's address was the annual meeting of the bankers organization, which was held at the University club. His subject was "Radium Deposits." He said that Stone Mountain contained inexhaustible beds of radium which is equal to a horse power of 100 and that great deposits of it were to be found throughout north Georgia.

Atlanta's existence, he said, is the south's most progressive metropolis, cannot be explained by waterways, industrial advantages, agricultural resources or financial greatness. The throbbing life that pulses so actively through the city's veins, he declared, is due entirely to the effect of the wonderful mineral that lies in the bosom of Stone Mountain.

"The progressiveness of Atlanta," he said, "is generated by the atmospheric influence exerted by radium—radioactivity, to be technical. It radiates through the atmosphere and penetrates the human system, inoculating us with speed and ginger and making us the most vibrant municipality in the country."

The following officers were elected by the bankers and brokers: Henry B. Kennedy, of the First National Bank, president; James D. Lester, Atlanta National vice president; R. W. Byers, Third National, treasurer; Haynes McFadden, secretary.

Smith Would Shave the Czar Before Shaving Monkey Again

No Charles Smith would no more clip a hair of a monkey again than he would think of shaving the czar of Russia.

Last winter four of the big monkeys in the Ringling Bros. circus, which is to appear in Atlanta next Monday, became ill. "White plague," murmured Charles, "outside for those fellows, every minute that they can be given liberty from their cage," he directed a keeper.

Chains and collars were prepared and the monkeys staked out on the circus lot all last winter at the Ringling winter quarters in Baraboo, Wis. "The monkeys improved all right, and are bigger and fatter and healthier than ever. But those monkeys grew a coat of hair an inch thick. Then came a new problem.

When the show struck warm weather in the south the monkeys that had been ill became ill again of heat, due to the new coat of heavy hair.

HATTIE GLOVER GETS 30 DAYS FOR CONTEMPT

U. S. COURT REVERSES COTTON FUTURES CASE

Appeals Court Fails to Sustain Speer in Duckworth Suit.

Macon, Ga., October 6—(Special)—Attorney John R. Cooper, of Macon, this notified today of the reversal by the United States circuit court of appeals at New Orleans of the verdict rendered in the United States district court for the southern district of Georgia, presided over by Judge Emory Speer, in the case of the Duckworth company of Savannah, against the Farmers' Oil and Guano company, of Sandersville. In the lower court Judge Speer directed a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $3,600.

The reversal of this case is of much importance because of the effect that it is bound to have on gambling in cotton futures in this state. The president of the Sandersville company sold the Duckworth company 300 bales of cotton in September, 1913, for October delivery. He was unable to deliver. The suit was then entered.

The contention set up by the defense was that the contract entered into was a wagering contract and therefore void. It was claimed that the actual delivery of the cotton, by the plaintiff to the other party, but the settlement was to be made by the difference between the contract price and the market price of the cotton, according to the fluctuation in the market.

This is said to be one of the few cases of this kind ever reversed by the United States circuit court of appeals, and will probably have the effect of stopping much of the gambling in cotton futures.

When You Want to Laugh--Eat!

And If You Want to Eat Without Food Fears Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Each Meal.

Laughter, smiles and mirth never go with a "caved in" stomach. Fancy a man afraid of his food laughing! There is always that haunting feeling that a sick stomach is nothing to be mirthful about.

"My old grouchy days are funny to me now." Just make up your mind to help nature, help her give you the best chance to make good. Heal the raw edges of your stomach and give your blood the oom to make digestive fluid with.

There is only one way to make the body well. Harmful and strong medicine will handicap the system. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only such just like food. They are dissolved and there they strengthen the weak stomach. They do this by stimulating until the digestion is made normal.

There is nothing mysterious or magical about them. Science has proved that certain ingredients make up the digestive juices. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are these concentrated ingredients—that is all there is to it. One grain of a certain ingredient contained in Stuart's Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. This illustrates how our digestive apparatus store her worn-out material to regenerate a stomach which is filled with food residues. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet, it is more able to digest the food than it would be without it. The work is so slow that it is not long.

When the meal is finally assimilated the entire system absorbs more nourishment and harmful acids are eliminated easily, quickly and with the maximum of benefit.

Every drug store carries Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. To anyone wishing a free trial of these tablets please send a few cents for a sample to the Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and a small sample package will be mailed free.

Health First

In buying food articles we must consider several things—economy, results, convenience, reliability; but the most important is Health.

Health means everything. If one gets cheated in buying dresses, shoes or bonnets it is provoking, but the harm is chiefly loss of money. In buying food articles, if imitations or poor stuffs are supplied, there is a loss of money and probably an injury to health also; and good health is beyond price.

Remember these facts when buying baking powder.

EVERYONE HAS NOTICED THAT TIRED FEELING

That tired feeling—how common such a condition nowadays. But it is not only confined to invalids, convalescents and old people. It is equally common among those in the prime of life.

The world is full of people suffering from nervous debility. It is only another name for that tired feeling such people are listless, perpetually tired, lack vigor and ambition, and are in the very worst possible condition to combat any form of disease successfully.

Nervous debility is the fault of the century in which we live. It is the attendant evil of the civilization we have for existence. We cannot hope to change the whole mode of modern living and so we must take care where we get our relief. Tona Vita has proven to be the logical key to the situation.

This tonic has been found to be a great boon to people who suffer from poor appetite, nervous walking up in the morning, feeling just as though when one went to bed poor memory pains in the back and head and many other of the symptoms in it denote a general run down condition of the system.

Tona Vita can be obtained in Atlanta at any of the large drug stores.—(adv.)

Leadership of Georgia Women In Cotton Campaign Stressed

It should be a source of pride to all Georgians to realize that a Georgia woman, Mrs. Z. K. Fitzpatrick, of Thomasville, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, was the leading spirit in the cotton goods campaign, now being waged by women in many sections of the country," said Mrs. Nellie Peters Black in talking enthusiastically of the forthcoming cotton exposition which the women of Georgia will have in Albany, Ga. She was the first woman in the United States to urge immediate action of women in the cotton emergency.

The miniature exposition, as it was first called, was an outcome of Mrs. Fitzpatrick's address to the club women of the state. This address, to be perfectly accurate, having been made through circular letter and through the press August 21 before many of us realized the cotton situation.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick apprehended difficulty at the moment as so many club women in the southern states were enjoying their vacations many of them in the north and many of

Homer George Tells Rotary Club How Atlanta Forged Ahead as a Theatrical City

Rotarians were told at the luncheon meeting yesterday how Atlanta had outstripped all rivals during the past year and had become the best theater city in the south.

Manager Homer George, of the Atlanta theater, in a comprehensive speech outlined the theatrical history of this section during the past few years, and showed how last season Atlanta forged ahead of New Orleans which had for many years been the south's leading theatrical city.

He pointed out that Atlanta's new supremacy over New Orleans was all the more remarkable because Atlanta's population is less than that of New Orleans by nearly 150,000.

Mr. George said that, in spite of the war and supposed depressed conditions, prospects indicated a still greater increase for Atlanta this year. He said that the theater had been increasing its advertising and other expenses in the face of hard times and that he believed this was the way for business to do.

The Rotary meeting which was held at the Winecoff was one of the largest in the history of the club, with over eighty members present. President A. S. Adams presided and three visiting Rotarians, Messrs. Charles J. Watson, of New York; J. Bruce of Chicago, and J. Lee Holloway, of Attorney General Grice Advises Him on North Georgia Mineral Application.

Following a decision by Attorney General Warren Grice that he has no other discretion in the matter than to grant the charter Secretary of State Phil Cook will today grant the charter recently applied for by the North Georgia Mineral railway, which is seeking a right-of-way into Atlanta paralleling the state railway property.

Mr. Cook's Letter. Secretary Cook's letter to Attorney General Grice is as follows: "Hon. Warren Grice, Attorney General, Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sir: I beg to submit for your consideration a petition which has been offered as a candidate for the incorporation of a North Georgia Mineral railway and request that you advise me as to my duties in the matter."

Secretary Cook was of the opinion that he had no alternative from granting the charter inasmuch as the application is filed in due legal form and complies with the mandates of the law. He submitted the question to the attorney general, however, who on Tuesday handed down his decision, which coincides with that of the secretary of state.

"Atlanta, Ga., October 5, 1914. Secretary Cook, Secretary of State, Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sir: I have your letter of October 5 enclosing me a petition filed in your office for the incorporation of the North Georgia Mineral railway, in which you state that the petition sets out all the requirements of the law for the incorporation of railroads, and it seems to me that I have no other discretion than to grant the charter. You will recall the notoriety given to this project by the newspapers in which they pointed out that by granting this charter the usefulness of the Western and Atlantic railway would be greatly impaired and that the state should decline to issue the charter for the same. I would, therefore, be glad if you would advise me as to my duties in the matter under the law. Very truly yours, (Signed) PHILIP COOK, Secretary of State."

ACTION OF CONFERENCE IS INDORSED BY KOLB

Commissioner of Agriculture Kolb, of Alabama, Enthusiastic Over Plans.

A delayed train, and the fact that the delegates to the Southeastern Food Crops conference knew pretty well what they wanted and finished up their duties for the day, caused Commissioner of Agriculture Reuben F. Kolb, of Alabama, to miss the conference altogether.

Commissioner Kolb, who has been for many years one of the most conspicuous figures in American agriculture, reached Atlanta Monday night, after the conference had finished its plans, turned them over to a special committee to put into effect and adjourned. There were many expressions of regret from the speakers at the conference that Commissioner Kolb was not present to add the weight of his name to the plans.

Regarding the work undertaken by the Southeastern Food Crops conference, Commissioner Kolb said: "Having been working for several years on the same subject, I entered into the plan for this conference with all my energy. I put the plans into active operation in Alabama. The plan was to get here in time to take part in its work. In Alabama, the soil weevil has been for some time a very serious pest. The realization that the 'one crop' system was economically working 'the war' was the impetus for the food crops conference. I have gone over the plans adopted by the Southeastern Food Crops conference and I heartily approve of them. I have pledged the committee to aid in every way possible in the work of the conference in Alabama, and I am going home to start work on this line, which I believe is the solution of the present problems."

He declared that there was a 50 per cent decrease in cotton production assured for next year there would be instant and substantial demand for cotton. The senator was pleased over the widespread interest shown in lint cotton as a result of the cotton purchasing movement. He expressed himself as disappointed that the house has not yet adopted the relief measures recently passed by the senate.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You—Drink Lots of Water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, indigestion, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four bunches of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disease. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

BILLARD AND PARTNERS SUED BY THE NEW HAVEN

Railroad Company Alleges It Lost $3,824,147 by Fraudulent Deal.

Meriden, Conn., October 6.—The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company and the New England Navigation company today brought suit in the New Haven county superior court against John L. Billard, of this city, and six other officers of the Billard company for the recovery of $3,824,147, alleging fraudulent action in connection with the sale of the Boston and Maine railroad.

The complaint sets forth that Mr. Billard, of the Boston and Maine stock owned by the New Haven road prior to 1908, never paid nor accounted to the plaintiffs for $3,824,147 cash held by him in secret trust for the New Haven road for the purpose of concealing the actual ownership.

Falsely and Fraudulently. It is alleged further that Mr. Billard "falsely and fraudulently" claims said sum transferred to him by the New Haven road as his own property.

It is charged that all the defendants received portions of the sum from Mr. Billard, knowing that he was trustee and that they never have paid or accounted to the railroad company.

The plaintiffs claim by way of equitable relief: (1) An accounting; (2) that Mr. Billard account for the sums received by him as trustee; (3) that the defendants account for any sums received by them from Mr. Billard; (4) judgment for the amount found due on accounting.

The history of the financial transaction between the railroad company and the New Haven road is set forth in detail in the complaint, which is filed in the name of the New Haven road.

To Avoid Litigation. This was done, the complaint recites, to avoid litigation. The fraudulent transaction was entered on the books of the New Haven road and the New England Navigation company.

The amount actually was obtained by the New Haven road from the National City bank of New York upon notes signed by Mr. Billard and secured by shares of stock in the Boston and Maine Railroad company.

In November, 1908, it is alleged, Mr. Billard purchased more stock of the Boston and Maine and received $1,000,000 for the same from the New England Navigation company.

He gave an unsecured note, later in June, 1909, to the Boston and Maine company for the same amount. Mr. Billard, this was another fraudulent sale, the complaint says, and the New Haven road received the proceeds.

The complaint shows the course taken by the further transfers of the shares of stock and what was paid for it, concluding with the allegation that as trustee of the New Haven road, Mr. Billard received $3,824,147 in cash, but never has rendered an accounting of it to the company.

John M. Smith Co. Says:—A lot of men I know, some you probably know, will soon be driving the new Hupmobile. Everyone of them is able to buy other cars.

But they don't want the others—they want the new Hupmobile. Why are they walking—or driving their old cars meanwhile?

Because they recognize the extra value in the big, comfortable five-passenger Hup, in its refinements, in its convenience and its really complete equipment.

Men know something about Hup goodness, too—enough to make them prefer it in preference to anything else on the market.

And they know the new Hup is fit to give them the complete satisfaction that has made the Hup famous heretofore.

I'm proud to represent a car that has the high standing of the Hupmobile, and that is a beautiful, big, new model, which actually draws men to itself.

Come in and let me show you the new car's fine points.

Your winter driving will be made enjoyable by the finely finished sedan or coupe top, which can be attached to touring car or roadster at especially allowing cost.
