FRANKS

I KNOW MY HUSBAND IS INNOCENT,' ASSERTS WIFE OF LEO M. FRANK

Following the appeal decided by Justice McRae in the case of L. M. Frank, on the merits, the case against the defendant having been dismissed by the Atlanta City Court on the ground of the death of the deceased, the case was remanded to the Atlanta City Court for a rehearing.

Mrs. Frank makes a clear-cut defense of her husband and attacks Solicitor Dorsev on the basis of the so-called confession made by her husband, saying that the confession was false and was not made in compliance with the conditions under which it was made. She says that she is not guilty of perjury.

SAYS SIGNING IS NOT SURPRISING.

The signing of the contract that resulted in the death of Leo M. Frank, was not surprising, the defendant's defense is that since the defendant has been living with his wife, he is not guilty of the crime charged.

NEW CONLEY CONFESSION REPORTED TO JURY

The new confession of John Conley, reported to the jury, is of great interest to those interested in the case. The confession was made in response to a question from the defense attorney, who asked if Conley had ever seen the defendant at the scene of the crime.

Conley replied that he had seen the defendant at the scene of the crime, but that he had not been present at the time of the crime.

ACCUSED MAN’S WIFE MAKES FIRST PUBLIC STATEMENT IN CASE

Following the complete denial by Minnie McDuffie, sister to the husband of Leo M. Frank, of the statements she is alleged to have made in the sensational police affidavit given out Wednesday, Mrs. Leo M. Frank Thursday made her first public statement in the Mary Phagan murder.

Mrs. Frank, who had been a public figure in the trial, attributed the denunciation of her husband and attacks on her as a general duty to the出院, and on Tuesday, there was an outburst of attacks on her. The following statement was made:

She was in the hospital on Monday, and there was no public statement made by her. The statement was made during the course of her public duties, and was not made by her.

Attacks on Solicitor Dorsey.

This is the first time an outburst has been made. The statement was made on Tuesday, and was not made by her.

Says Signing Is Not Surprising.

It is not surprising that the solicitor should sign, as he is the only one who has the power to do so. The statement was made during the course of his public duties, and was not made by him.

My Husband Is Innocent,

Asserts Wife of Frank

Following the indefatigable efforts of Mrs. Leo M. Frank, look to the vindication of her husband, the state is alleged to have made a move to terminate the criminal proceedings against her. Mrs. Frank made an eloquent and pathetic defense of her husband and attended court throughout the trial. She presented a large number of witnesses, charging those who testified in the defense with intimidation and other influences. Mr. Frank denies that his wife ever took part in any of the proceedings in the case. He also denied the fact that his wife was ever present in the courtroom. Mrs. Frank was supported by her husband throughout the trial. The court directed the jury to return a verdict of guilty, but the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Mrs. Frank was exonerated, and the case has been reversed.

MRS. FRANK DEFENDS HUSBAND

“I know he is innocent... No man could make the good husband to a woman that he has been to me and be a criminal. ... I know and his friends know that he is utterly incapable of committing the crime that these detectives and this solicitor are seeking to fasten upon him.”
