NEW WITNESSES IN PHAGAN CASE FOUND BY POLICE The Atlanta Constitution; May 26, 1913; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Atlanta Constitution (1868 - 1945) pg. 1

NEW WITNESSES IN PHAGAN CASE FOUND BY POLICE

Reported Two Telephone Operators Will Swear to Conversations Held Over the Pencil Factory's Line.

GAVE THEIR TESTIMONY BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

A. S. Colyar Confers With Chief Beavers on Bribery Allegations—Case Now in Its Infancy, Says Chief.

the entire cit; ent sensational city aroused onal Felder b With and corruption in the police department, investigation of the Mary Phagan mystery continues. Police headquarters was elated Sunday over the progress and over new development which have arise. the recent bribery which have arisen.

New testimony has been girl telephone operators relative to con versations which were held over the pencil factory's line on the night o pencil factory's line on the night of the tragedy, Chief Lanford says. Se-crecy shrouds the nature of the alleged conversations. No one acquainted with the evidence will talk. It is hinted to be the strongest yet secured. No one acquainted with the evidence will talk. It is hinted to be the strongest yet unearthed.

Coupled with this development comes the rumor of a telephone call reported to have been made on the Friday morning preceding the murder, in which Mary Phagan is said to have been instructed to come to the pencil factory Friday, afternoon to obtain her pay envelope. Detectives will pattern Detectives will neither it wat the rumor has pay envelope. D deny nod admit been confirmed.

pay envelope. Detectives will neither deny nod admit that the rumor has been confirmed.

Phone Message to Pope.

J. B. Pope, of Bellwood avenue, a county policeman and neighbor of the siain girl, to whom the rumored telephone message was made, could not be reached last night by The Constitution. Mrs. Pope says she knows nothing of the report, but says numerous calls came to her home for Mary Phagan and members of her family.

A. S. Colyar, the soldier of fortune and acknowledged instigator of the tribery trap, came to police headquerters Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and held en hour's conference with Chief Beavers. They were closeted in the latter's office, and, upon emerging, reither would disclose the nature of their consultation.

It is freely reported, however, that the adventurer has something new up his sleeve, and that he will play a leading role in the charges to be made in alleged new bribery attempts. He stated that on Monday he would expose others than Colonel Felder and the men he has already attacked. Chief C. W. Tobic, it is said, is to be included in his attack today.

Harry Scott, the Pinkerton superintendent, and Detective John Black, of headquarters, again tried Sunday to break the testimony of the negro Conley, who confessed to having written notes at the dictation of Frank, and which are believed to have been the murder missives found beside the dead girl's body. He stoutly maintained his original tale as explained in his affidavit, and a strenuous third degree failed to swerve it.

Wife Will Assist Colyar.

Mrs. A. S. Colyar, wife of the bribery accuser, who has been in Atlanta for several weeks, left the city Sunday afternoon for her home in Cartersville, where she goes to get papers relating to her husband's past and supporting his charges. She will return soon, it is said, to assist him in his fight against Colonel Felder.

er to i his i ville, n....
relating to her husban,
supporting his charges,
turn soon, it is said, to his fight against Colonel
"This is not the end," headquarters. "It is on hing. Whenever I take to assist ar said the only heaugh... ning. Whenever ...

like this, the results are many widespread, and it can be depe upon that there will be a ger clean-up before we are through."

Chief Beavers, in talking with a porter for The Constitution, ec heading. thing general h.''

l Felder. Colyar s

ar's expression tent of the prober bribery practi the probe proposed into allege practices in the Phagan mur briber, ender.

"This thing is only in its infan
It first began as an individual exp
ure. Now that it has been a politi plaything, we are going to reveal infamy of others. It won't take le to do it, either. Some folks are ing to be driven to disgrace. They'd infanc: been a political ng to reveal the won't take echoed

well to get out of town before the bomb bursts."

Think Topic
When asked if he intended attaching the character of Chief Toble, of the Burns agency, as has been rumored, Chief Lanford declared:
"I have nothing against Toble. He seem to be badly mixed up Think Toble Victimized.
When asked if he intended attacking

"I have nothing against Toble. He doesn't seem to be badly mixed up in this affair. I think he, too, has been victimized. He was unfortunate in becoming attached to the operations of the wrong person, and naturally will have to suffer the consequences. In fact, I feel a certain degree of pity for Toble, He's unfortunate—exceedingly unfortunate."

Exclanity Cheff Lanton attaches

Evidently Chief Lanford attaches great importance to the reported tesgreat importance to the reported tes-timony of the two telephone girls re-garding the midnight conversations. His only verification of the rumor is that he knows of the existence of such testimony. Beyond that, he will say absolutely nothing, except that he "un-derstands" the two girls went before the grand jury during its Friday morn-ing session. It is a known rule of the telephone exchanges which prevents operators from revosling conversations they overfrom revealing conversations they over-hear except when placed under oath. Chief Lanford says that this is the reaoath. before the grand jury. Their identity is as secret as the nature of their testimony. Solicitor General Porsey would make no statement regarding girls.

the girls.

Chief Beavers and Colyar would not admit to a Constitution reporter whether or not their conference Sunday was for the purpose of planning some move to expose other suspected bribe practices. "They were only talking things over," they said. Anyway, the "talking over" was done in utmost secrecy behind locked doors with a uniformed policeman on guard in the anternom.

in the ante-room.

War to End, Says Chief.

The chlef relterated his fiery de-numeration which he made Saturday night and in which he promised to break the backbone of the "vice gang" which he charges is in existence and which he declares has been too long in political rule. It is war to the

which he declares has a surface in political rule. It is war to the bitter finish, he said.
Signed by Allan Pinkerton, principal of the Pinkerton agency, a statement has been issued by the organization has been issued by the organization denying certain statements regarding their operations which appeared in a statement of Colonel Felder. The Pinkerton denial is as follows:
"In the issue of May 25 of The Constitution there appears an article said to be a statement of Attorney

The the issue of any an article said to be a statement of Attorney Thomas B. Felder under the following caption: Thomas B. Felder Brands the Charges of Bribery a Diabolical Conspiracy, in which the name of Pinkerton's National Detective agency research the annears. frequently appears.

These statements, insofar as they refer to the Pinkerton agency, are absolutely without an iota of truth, as the Pinkertons had absolutely no prethe Tinkertons had assources to pre-vious knowledge or information con-cerning or pertaining to the issue be-tween certain Atlanta civic officials and Attorney Felder, and the agency's first knowledge of these issues, or in connection therewith, came through newspaper publications of May 23...

"We respectfully request that you "We respectfully request that you give this, our denial, in connection with the statements referred to, as equal prominence as that which you gave the published article in question, yours truly, "PINKERTON'S NATIONAL DETECTIVE AGENCY.
(Signed) "By ALLAN PINKERTON."