ROOMING HOUSE SOUGHT BY FRANK DECLARES WOMAN GEORGE W PARROTT The Altanta Constitution; May 23, 1913; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Atlanta Constitution (1868 - 1945)

ROOMING HOUSE SOUGHT BY FRANK DECLARES WOMAN

Mrs. Mima Famby Swears Suspected Man Wanted a Room for Himself and a Girl on Murder Night.

TO PRESENT AFFIDAVIT TO GRAND JURY TODAY

Mysterious Telephone Message Caused Detectives to Interview Woman Who Conducts Rooming House.

Mrs. Mima Famby, who condu rooming house at 400 Picamont nue, near Currier street, has s conducts ave anue, near Currier street, has signed al: affidavit to the effect that on April 26 Leo M, Frank called her up repeatedly by telephone and enden-vored to secure a room for himself and a young sirl repeatedly by telephone and endea-vored to secure a room for himself and a young girl. The affidavit was signed Monday, May 11, but had been kept a secret. Mrs. Famby attached her signature to the document in the office of Detec-tive Chief Lanford in police head-quarters, and was sworn by Recorder Nash Broyles in the presence of Pro-bation Officer Sidney J. Coogler. The affidavit was then turned over to So-licitor Dorsey. Detectives say this is one of the bation Officer Sidney J. Coogier. The affidavit was then turned over to So-licitor Dorsey. Detectives say this is one of the most important bits of evidence they, hold, it will, in all probability, be submitted to the grand jury when it takes up (the Phagan case this morn-ing a 10 o'clock. It was gained through a mysterious telephone call which came to police headquartors only a short while after the body had been discovered. Some one, who refused to give a name, telephoned Chief Lanford, giv-ing this message: "Look up Mrs. Mima Famby. She knows more than sne has told." Signs Affidavits for Detectives. Two detectives were assigned to starch for Mrs. Famby. Within a few hours she had been located at the Pledmont apartments. Readily giving the detectives the desired informa-tion, she offered to sign an affidavit suggested by them. The following night she was Interviewed by Chief Lanford and Chief Beavers, who visit-ed the to police officials and Solicitor Dor-sey, appeared at, her nome and asked that she come to police headquarters to sign the affidavit. Mrs. Famby's statement to a Con-stitution reported yesterday after-hoon was exactly what appears in the affidavit, according to Chief Lan-ferd. She and a party of friends were playing bridge in her apartments late in the afternoon of Memorial day, she said, when Frank, whom she had known for considerable while, 'tele-phoned her. Chied Many Times. It was between 6 o'clock and 6:20.

said, when Frank, whom she had known for considerable while, tele-phoned her. Called Many Times. It was between 6 o'clock and 6:30, she stated. The suspected superin-tendent, according to her story asked over the whe for permission to rent one of her hooms that night to be used by him and a girl whose name he would not give. He was flatly re-fused, Mrs. Famby declared, but in-sisted that he be rented an apart-ment. asked rent bo name ment.

ment. "He said that he was forced to ob-tain a room for him and the girl," the woman stated, "and that he didn't want to go elsewhere, because he put such implicit trust in me. I would not grant his request and hung up the telephone.' A little later, she says, Frank telephoned again, this time insistent. It was a case of life and death, she quoted him as having said. According to her statement, Frank called Mrs. Famby at least a haif dox-en times, from 6:30 o'clock until 10 that night, Finally, she says, in order to stop his repeated calls, she told him not to ring her any more, as she was going automobiling with friends. Offered Money to Leave City. Mrs. Famby states further that she has been made numerous offers of money to leave the city until the courts had finished with the Phagan case.

{

Alexander S. Martin, of Gainesville, Alexander S. Martin, of Gainesville, vho is connected with a newspaper of that city, will be summoned by Chief Lanford to testify to the woman's slatement to the effect that she had been offered hush money. If a name was taken by the chief, and he was notified that he would likely be called to Atlanta at any moment. Lanford to Atlanta at any moment. Lanford teld reporters Thursday fight that he would make an immediate investi-gation of the reported bribery at-tempts. Stating that shortly after his arrest she had visited him in the Tower, Mrs. Famby says Frank first appeared not to recognize her, but later acknowl-edged acquaintance, holding a secret

t later acknowl holding a secre ure of which sh

Famby says Frank first appeared not to recognize her, but later acknowl-edged acquaintance, holding a secret conversation, the nature of which she has not revealed. She also states that while she resided at 87 Armstrong street Frank was a frequent visitor at her place, and had come often in company with girls. Case Before Grand Jury Today. The Phagan mystery goes before the Fulton grand jury this morning at 10 o'clock, it was definitely announced Thursday by Mr. Dorsey. Throughout the day he had been in conference with Chief Lanford, headquarters detect-tives and members of his own investi-gating staff, arranging the evidence at hand for presentation to the jury. Lanford Talks of Affidavit. Chief Lanford's theory, as outlined by him last night to a Constitution ready been knocked unconscious when the alleged telephone request was reporter, is that and ready been knocked unconscious when the alleged telephone request was made to Mrs. Famby for a room in her place, and that Frank's plan was to remove the insensible girl to the Picd-mont avenue address, where she could be revived and could be given medical treatment.

be revived and could be given medical treatment. "The intentions were," the chief said, "to carry the girl to Mrs. Famby's apartments so that she could be re-stored to consciousness in surround ings which would not excite suspicton. The assault attempt had already been made, and Mary Phagan had been ren-dered insensible by the blow she re-ceived from the fall against the lath-ing, machine ceived from the fall against the lath-ing machine. "I believe that all the while Mrs. Famby was being telephoned, the un-conscious girl was lying hidden in some part of the pencil factory, ob-livious to everything, awaiting the terible death which befell her. Mrs. Famby's statement is to the effect that Frank persisted desperately in his ef-fort to obtain a room, and even went so far as to say it was a matter of life fort Fo far as Peath. o obtain a room, and even as to say it was a matter of life death. "When

For far as to say it was a matter of life or death. "When it was seen that the woman would not rent a room in her apartments, and the girl could not be removed to a place where she could be revived without creating suspicion, it was absolutely necessary to dispose of her. Dead folk tell no tales. Mrs. Famby says the telephone calls came as late as 10 o'clock, and that they did not end until she, in order to stop them, declared she was leaving her apartments and was going on an automobile ride." A score of detectives and deputies were busy all day subpoenaing witnesses, 100 or more of which will probably be summoned before the jury closes its investigation. It will resuces the result will be submitted. Startling developments are expected. Both Mr. Dorsey and authorities at police headquarters declare they possess statisfaction over the results they say they have obtained, and are optimistic of the case's outcome.

Optimistic of the case's outcome. Parrott Praises Frank. Recommending Frank, both as a pri-vate citizen, as a business man and as an employer. George W. Parrott, a well-known man in local financial and business circles, has written the fol-lowing letter to The Constitution: "As is perhaps known by many, I am interested in the National Pencil company, and I have, with keen interest, noted, from time to time, hints and insinuations that Mr. Leo Frank has misused and mistreated female employees of the factory.

mistreaten reason the factory. "I felt it due myself and hie other gentlemen interested in the fac-tory that as to this matter there should be a thorough investigation. "To that end, on Wednesday, to-the with other gentlemen like-

"To that end, on Wednesday, to-gether with other gentlemen like-wise interested in the factory, I interviewed every employee of the factory, both male and female. "Everyone of them, without a dissenting voice, voluntarily and emphatically made affidavit that Mr. Frank had never, at any time, or in any way, misused or mis-treated them, and that none of them had ever known a single instance of any familiarity on the part of Mr.Frank with anyone of the fe-male employees. "These affidavits are in my pos-session.

session. "This is a matter of personal concern to me, and I beg that, in in justice to myself and others inter-ested in the factory, that this mat-ter he set fairly right before the ublic gned) (GEORGE W. PARROTT.'' (Sign

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.