Dear Mr Davison

I note from the papers that the Prison Commission is to pass on Leo M Frank's case soon -

Personally I have no interest in him other than as a citizen of Georgia who believes in law and order and wants to see justice done.

I seriously doubt the guilt of Frank and thousands of upright men and women feel just as I do about his guilt -

There are thousands of others who believe he is guilty - They are no better citizens than those who believe in his innocence - Therefore there is no more reason for heeding that cry for "Blood" than there is in sparing the life of this unfortunate man. I believe that a life sentence will appease the wrath of those who believe him guilty and gratify those who doubt his guilt, and give those who believe him innocent an opportunity to establish their claim.

In this way Georgia's honor will be preserved, her laws upheld and a human life preserved.

I appreciate the delicate position you occupy in the matter and believe that you have the manhood to do the right.

Sincerely yours friend,
T. B. Rice
